During the present term of the Howard larceny gave satisfactory evidence that he was unable to employ counsel, and Judge Brouse appointed H. H. Bennett, Esq., of Kokomo, to defend him. Bennett after spending some time in consultation with his client and in the examination of the case, found that the guilt of the accused would be clearly made out, and persuaded him to plead guilty to pettit larceny. The Court refused to accept his plea, Bennett arose and said :

"Well, I reckon we can plead guilty to grand larcenv."

"Yes," replied the Judge.

"Then we plead guilty to grand larceny," said Bennett.

"This being the case," said the Judge.
