National Debts.

Misery loves company, and so our tax payers may find consolation in reading the following:—

We owe now $2,698,125,160.

England, with smaller population and a poorer country, owes $4,003,794,235.

France owes $2,340,029,890; her debt has increased one hundred and thirty per cent in thirteen years, and increases yearly, while the population remains almost stationary.

Austria owes $1,316,103,201, and has increased her debt one hundred and eight per cent in eighteen years.

Italy owes $1,971,818,940, and her debt has increased in six years one hundred and fifty-eight per cent.

Prussia owes $245,766,503, and has lately spent much more than her income.

Spain, with less than half our population, and not a twentieth part of our wealth or productive power, owes $819,887,630.

Virtue in Man.

We love to believe there is more moral goodness than depravity in human nature.

When we see one tear of pity drop from the eye, it gives us more pleasure than would the finding of a diamond.

There is goodness, real and unselfish, in the heart; and we have often seen it manifest itself, to the making of a scene of sorrow the vestibule of heaven.

For him who is always picking out flaws in his neighbor's character, we have no sympathy.

He reminds us of those birds which resort to dead and decayed limbs of trees to feast on the worms.

In the character of most men we shall find more good than evil, more kindness than hate; and why should we pick out the flaws and pass over the sterling traits of his character?

We hold this to be the true doctrine; to portray real goodness, and hold it up to the gaze and admiration of all, while we suffer the evil to remain in the shade and die.

If every picture of human nature were only pure and beautiful, we are inclined to believe that we should have thousands of such characters living and loving around us.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Asthma, Influenza, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Predisposition to Consumption, &c., &c.

This great remedy is too well known and is performing to such good to make it necessary to go into an elaborate discussion of its merits. Suffice it to say that it still maintains its supremacy in curing diseases of the most obstinate character, and that all who suffer from the above complaints, after having tested this remedy seldom have occasion to resort to other appliances to insure a perfect restoration to health.

Testimony of Mr. PETER SHAW.

WEST WINFIELD, N. Y., Dec. 10, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. FOWLE & SON, Boston.

Gentlemen,—During the winter of 1858 I was very much out of health, afflicted with a severe Cough, Pain in the side and Lungs, and a general depression of health to such an extent as greatly to alarm myself and friends as to the result. During this time I tried several highly recommended remedies, with little or no good result, and had concluded to try the effect of Southern climate upon my health; but, before carrying this resolution into effect, I was induced by the urgent solicitation of your agent, Mr. Huntley, to give Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry a trial. I did so, and to my great joy found immediate and permanent relief by the use of only one bottle, and I am now in as good health as ever. I believe your Balsam one of the best remedies for Coughs, Colds, and all Lung Diseases, now in use, and conscientiously recommend it as such.

Yours truly,

PETER SHAW.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE.

We are constantly hearing favorable reports from those who have tried this remedy. Any Anthony, wife of Mark Anthony, of this city, and living at No. 6 Locust Street, afflicted with a felon on the finger, was recently induced to make a trial of the Salve. Almost instantly she experienced relief from the pain which had been almost unendurable. Every other remedy had been tried, but she was satisfied of its merits, and nothing will induce them to be without a supply. — Fall River News.
