

The Jeffersonian

THURSDAY, MAY 28, 1868.

FOR PRESIDENT, ULYSSES S. GRANT, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, SCHUYLER COLFAX, OF INDIANA.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR AUDITOR-GENERAL, GEN. JOHN F. HARTMAN.

FOR SURVEYOR-GENERAL, GEN. JACOB M. CAMPBELL.

Mr. Peter S. Williams is just opening a splendid stock of Watches, Jewelry and Fancy Goods...

Work upon the foundation of the new Lutheran Church was commenced yesterday. The encouragement received from old subscribers...

Farmers and others will, of course, make a note of the announcement of the Messrs. Dosters...

Sacramental Meeting.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered on Sunday next, in the Court-House...

Impeachment.

The Senate, sitting as a high court of Impeachment, for the trial of President Johnson...

We would call attention to the advertisement of Benjamin Dungan & Sons, who are the agents of the "Automatic Clothes Washer"...

The circus which exhibited at this place, on Tuesday last, partook somewhat of the character of a singed cat...

The Ticket.

We, this week, place at the head of our paper, the very excellent ticket placed in nomination by the National Republican Convention at Chicago...

The Fenians were apparently at work with increased energy of late. They are holding state conventions in the different eastern states...

The Democratic Meeting.

The Democracy of the County of Monroe, held its annual talk at the Court-House, on Monday evening last. The Hon. John Merwine presided...

After the meeting was thus organized, and its respectability secured, the usual committee on resolutions was appointed, of which our whilom friend Judge De Young was made the Chairman...

The meetings of the County Temperance Convention, on Tuesday, were very interesting affairs to those who fall in with that way of thinking. The Rev. Pencil Combe, had been busily engaged for several days in perfecting the work of organization...

The Rev. Dr. George Junkin died at his 20th residence, in Philadelphia, on the 20th inst. The Doctor had been identified with the Presbyterian Church a full half century. He took a prominent part in the great controversy which ultimately resulted in the division of the Church...

After a few moments reflection, over the wonderful effort of J. B., the committee on resolutions returned, and through their Chairman ordinary, Judge De Young, reported a series of resolves...

hardness of the times, when the committee and the meeting very well knew that the country never enjoyed greater prosperity than now. The resolutions, of course, were swallowed with a will.

We cannot avoid, before concluding, again entering our solemn protest against the manner in which our amiable neighbor of the "Democrat" is snubbed at these meetings of the party for which he does all the dirty work.

Taking it altogether, the meeting was without spirit, and we hardly think that even the Democracy will venture to call it an "immense gathering."

The whole Convention rose to their feet, amid great applause and waving of hats and handkerchiefs. The applause was prolonged, and ended in three cheers for General Grant, the band playing "Hail to the Chief."

One of the results of the movement has been to stop the license of all the saloons in the borough, and of many of the hotels and saloons throughout the county. Hereafter lager becomes a tabooed article with us, so far as open dealing is concerned...

The Rev. Dr. George Junkin died at his 20th residence, in Philadelphia, on the 20th inst. The Doctor had been identified with the Presbyterian Church a full half century. He took a prominent part in the great controversy which ultimately resulted in the division of the Church...

"That Good Old Man." According to the New York Sun, Senator Grimes is "a censorious, tough-hearted, heavy-heeled sort of fellow, with brains enough for three ordinary mortals, and love of fight and laziness in equal proportions."

John Morrissy, M. C., has become delicate in health since becoming a Congressman. He has been spending some time at the Hot Springs of Arkansas...

Erratic Tom Florence, for years a Democratic representative of the first Pennsylvania District, and now the editor of the Constitutional Union, an extreme Democratic paper in Washington City, has created some surprise...

CHICAGO CONVENTION.

The Republican National Convention convened in Chicago on Wednesday, the 20th inst. The delegates commenced arriving on Saturday, and continued to arrive in large numbers on Monday and Tuesday.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

President — Joseph R. Hawley, of Connecticut. Vice-Presidents — Alabama, General Warner; Arkansas, A. McDonald; California, James Coey; Colorado, J. B. Chaffee; Connecticut, N. F. Pierson; Delaware, Lewis Thompson; Florida, H. K. Moody; Georgia, Foster Blodgett; Illinois, Jessie K. Dubois; Indiana, Walter J. Gersham; Iowa, G. M. Hendrick; Kansas, S. S. Proutz; Kentucky, Joshua J. Speed; Louisiana, W. P. Kellogg; Maine, A. D. Fessenden; Henry Stockbridge; Massachusetts, D. W. Gooch; Michigan, Henry Waldron; Minnesota, Horation P. Van Cleve; Mississippi, Thos. L. White; Missouri, A. J. Harlan; Nebraska, B. Saunders; Nevada, M. Waller; New Hampshire, E. Gould; New Jersey, John J. Iriek; New York, Chauncey M. Depew; North Carolina, Albert Dockery; Ohio, N. C. McFarland; Oregon, Joseph Failing; Pennsylvania, J. K. Moorhead; Rhode Island, G. Green; South Carolina, Carlos J. Stolbrand; Tennessee, T. N. Hamilton; Virginia, John Bruce; West Virginia, S. D. Karns; Wisconsin, Edward Solomon.

Secretaries — Thomas D. Foster, V. Dell, C. B. Higby, F. Solomon, B. Beale, Joshua T. Heald, J. Rhombur, G. G. Wilber, James P. Root, C. R. Hogate, J. K. Easton, Lewis Veil, W. C. Goodie, Col. C. W. Lowell, Stephen D. Lindsley, E. F. Waters, George W. Briggs, W. W. Scott, A. Warley Patterson, J. C. S. Colby, S. Maxwell, G. N. Collins, Francis B. Ayer, Robert C. Bellville, Luther Caldwell, J. W. Holden, Coates Kinney, Max Ramsey, A. C. Harner, M. Pahter, W. E. Rose, J. M. Kinley, W. W. Horne, Col. S. D. Ringan, Edgar Allen, Joseph T. Hoke, Charles Seymour, J. H. Longnecker.

On Thursday, on motion to proceed to ballot for President of the United States, General Logan said:

"In the name of the loyal people and soldiers of the Republican party, I nominate Ulysses S. Grant for President of the United States."

The whole Convention rose to their feet, amid great applause and waving of hats and handkerchiefs. The applause was prolonged, and ended in three cheers for General Grant, the band playing "Hail to the Chief."

The States were then called, and each voted for Grant.

The Chair announced that 650 votes had been cast, and all for Gen. Grant.

Table showing the number of votes cast for various candidates for Vice-President. Candidates include Fenton, Wade, Wilson, Colfax, Curtis, Hamilton, Kelsey, Harlan, Brewster, and Speed.

Schuyler Colfax was then declared the nominee for Vice-President.

THE PLATFORM.

The platform, as adopted by the Convention, is as follows:

The National Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention, in the city of Chicago, on the 20th day of May, 1868, make the following declaration of principles:

First. We congratulate the country on the assured success of the Reconstruction projects of Congress, as evinced by the adoption, in a majority of the States lately in rebellion, of Constitutions securing equal, civil and political rights to all, and regard it as the duty of the government to sustain these institutions, and to prevent the people of such States from being remitted to a state of anarchy.

Second. The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men in the South, was demanded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude and of justice, and must be maintained, while the question of suffrage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of these States.

Third. We denounce all forms of reprobation as a national crime and a national dishonor. Honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to all creditors, home and abroad, not only according to the letter, but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted.

Fourth. It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit.

Fifth. The national debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can honestly be done.

Sixth. That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to improve our credit that capitalists will seek to loan us money at lower rates of interest than we now pay and must continue to pay so long as repudiation, partial or total, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.

Seventh. The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy, and the appropriations which have been so shamefully misapplied and fostered by Andrew Johnson call loudly for radical reform.

execute the laws; has used his high office to induce others to ignore and violate the laws; has employed his executive power to render insecure the prosperity, peace and liberty of life of the citizens; has abused the pardoning power; has denounced the national legislature as unconstitutional; has persistently and corruptly resisted by every measure in his power, every proper attempt at the reconstruction of the States lately in Rebellion; has perverted the public patronage into an engine of wholesale corruption; and has been justly impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, and properly denounced guilty by the vote of thirty-five Senators.

Ninth. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers that, because a man is once a subject, he must always be so, must be resisted at every hazard by the United States, as a relic of the feudal times, not authorized by the law of nations, and at war with our national honor and independence. Naturalized citizens are entitled to be protected in all their rights of citizenship, as though they were native-born; and no citizen of the United States, native or naturalized, must be liable to arrest and imprisonment by any foreign power, for acts done or words spoken in this country; and if so arrested and imprisoned, it is the duty of the government to interfere in his behalf.

Tenth. Of all who were faithful in the trial of the late war, there were none entitled to more especial honor than the brave soldiers and seamen who endured the hardships of campaign and cruise, and imperiled their lives in the service of the country. The bounties and pensions provided by law for these brave defenders of the nation are obligations never to be forgotten. The widows and orphans of the gallant dead are the wards of the people, a sacred legacy bequeathed to the nation's protecting care.

Eleventh. Foreign emigration, which in the past has added so much to the wealth and development of the resources and the increase of power to this nation, the asylum of the oppressed of all nations, should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy.

Twelfth. This Convention declares its sympathy with all the oppressed peoples which are struggling for their rights.

Hembold's Medicines.

There are none among all the proprietary medicines that stand higher than those prepared by H. T. Hembold, 594 Broadway, N. Y. They have been before the public for a number of years, and for the diseases for which they are intended as a specific they stand unrivaled, and rank as standard wherever known. At the Cape of Good Hope, the Hottentots have long used Buchu for a variety of diseases; it was borrowed from those rude practitioners by the English and Dutch physicians, on whose recommendation it was employed in Europe, and has now come into general use. Dr. Hembold has scientifically combined the curative properties of Buchu, and with upwards of thirty thousand unsolicited certificates and hundreds of thousands of living witnesses of its curative properties, accumulated within eighteen years, has not been in the habit of resorting to their publication. He does not do this, from the fact that his remedies rank, as standard; they do not need to be propped up by certificates. The science of medicine, like the Doric column, stands simple, pure and majestic, having fact for its pillar, and truth alone for its capital. His drug and chemical warehouse, in the city of New York, is not to be excelled, if equaled, by any in this country, and we would advise our readers when visiting that city to give him a call and judge for themselves.

While they were picking up the victims of the Erie Railroad catastrophe from the rocks and the wrecks, a child four or five months old was found among them unharmed and wrapped up in blankets. Among the passengers none were found to whom the infant belonged. It was taken to Port Jervis, where Charles Drew, formerly of Newburg, and now of the aforesaid place, and an engineer on the Eastern Division of the road, saw it and took it home. Mr. Drew's wife had but a few days before lost her babe which was of about the same age as was the little stranger, and her grief-touched heart took the lost one into its affections, and she and her husband resolved to make it a child of adoption.

A Mild Democrat.

"Brick" Pomeroy says editorially that the Southerners who were killed in attempting to destroy the government of the United States, are God's noblest people who fell in defense of the eternal principles of liberty and justice." He also predicts a "reaction" which will restore the Democratic party to power, when there is to be "a general assassination of the radicals." The scoundrel elegantly says:

"When the reaction comes there will be such a fleeing of mongrel spirits from their earthly tenements; such a gushing of impure blood from scrofulous carcases; such a cutting on bronchitis wid'pipes; such a shrieking of nasal 'down-east' terror stricken voices; such a rapid colonization of hell's spare territories, as was never recorded since the Great Architect rested from his labors on the seventh day and said 'let there be light.'"

Gen. James Walker, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor in Virginia, is familiarly known as "Stonewall Jim." "He is," says the Valley Virginian, "the only Confederate General who inherited the name of the immortal and God-inspired T. J. Jackson."

An immense Republican mass meeting was held in Pittsburg, Saturday night, to ratify the nominations of Grant and Colfax. Allegheny county was pledged to give 10,000 majority for the ticket.

Internal Revenue receipts last week, $3,204,256.

A Waif.

Out from us all our dear one has departed Into that world of which we only dream, While here we weep sad and broken hearted Breaks on his soul the blessedness supreme.

Into that higher life — above our shadows, Into that undimmed daylight of the truth, That unknown glory, flooding life's fair meadows He has passed to an immortal youth.

We feel it, yet, by death's turbid river Parted from him awhile we held our place; But soon shall pass — then, once more and for ever We know we shall be with him — "face to face."

Curious Phenomena in the Pennsylvania Oil Regions.

The Erie Observer says: Much excitement is prevailing at Westfield, owing to some singular phenomena which have been apparent for a week past. In many of the houses situated on the west side of the creek an almost constant jar and rattling of doors and windows is manifested, and the entire buildings tremble. This remarkable feature has exhibited itself for about a week. At first it was supposed that it might be the result of passing trains, and no notice was taken of it; but the same tremble is manifest when trains are not passing. There is no apparent cause for it, and it has been the occasion of much speculation.

Our reporter has visited the locality and several of the houses, and talked with the residents. The excitement is on the increase, owing to the mystery of the manifestations. The trembling is not violent, but at times is greater than at others, and occasionally disappears entirely. Clothes hanging on a line in the houses are, during the manifestation, in a constant tremor, and even shake when there is no apparent shake in the house. The jar is so great at times as to make dishes rattle in the cupboard.

Petroleum oil exuded from the ground in the neighborhood some time ago, but attracted little attention at the time. The ground in the vicinity rests upon a shale that is not far from the surface, and has been rendered somewhat uneven by abrasion. The superstitions have all sorts of conjectures, and seem to be struck with awe and wonder.

Important to Holders of Seven-Thirty Bonds.

Parties having these securities on hand, and who have not yet availed themselves of the converting privilege, should make a note of the fact, that by exchanging them the present month they effect a saving of about one per cent. On and after the first day of June next, the Five-Twenties will have the July coupon cut off.

About Right.

Gen. Halpine, of the New York Citizen, Irish Democrat as he is, can't endure the copperheads. He says: "There is such a thing as being too infernally Democratic to be wholesome, as old Gen. Cass once said." We guess that's so.

Gov. Holden of North Carolina has tendered to Robert Douglas, the eldest son of Stephen A. Douglas, the position of Private Secretary on his staff, in the new State Government to be organized in that State.

The Boston Post, which recently declared in favor of Gen. Hancock as the Democratic candidate for the Presidency, now urges the Hon. Charles Francis Adams for the Vice-Presidency.

The prospect of an abundant yield of fruit all over the country never was more promising.

The Moravian Church at Bethlehem has 950 communicants, and 114 non-communicants, and 470 children.

One million five hundred and sixty thousand pairs of shoes were shipped from Lynn during April.

National bank circulation, $27,804,080.

MORE ECONOMICAL, REMARKABLE certainty of prompt action, in fact, every good quality is guaranteed for Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING. (In one bottle.) Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar.

The Last Crowning Success. Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED HAIR RESTORER FAVORITE HAIR DRESSING New style in one Bottle.

will quickly restore Gray Hair to its natural color and beauty, and produce luxuriant growth. It is perfectly harmless, and is preferred over every other preparation by those who have a fine head of hair, as well as those who wish to restore it. The beautiful gloss and perfume imparted to the Hair make it desirable for old and young.

For Sale by all Druggists. DEPOT, 198 GREENWICH ST., N. Y.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR. Nov. 21, 1867-1 yr.