

The Jeffersonian

THURSDAY, JUNE 4, 1868.

FOR PRESIDENT, ULYSSES S. GRANT, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, SCHUYLER COLFAX, OF INDIANA.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR AUDITOR-GENERAL, GEN. JOHN F. HARTMAN; FOR SURVEYOR-GENERAL, GEN. JACOB M. CAMPBELL.

BALDNESS, GRAYNESS, and other imperfections of the Hair will be regarded as inexcusable after a trial of Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER or DRESSING, (in one bottle) Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar.

The alarm of fire, by which a number of our citizens were startled, on Saturday last, grew out of the explosion of the kerosene street-lamp, on the corner, few steps above Hollinshead's drug store. A broken lamp was about all the damage done.

The steeple of the New Presbyterian Church is progressing towards completion, as rapidly as is consistent with safety. Its height, when completed, will be one hundred and thirty feet, and it will, combined with the church, make a very imposing appearance indeed.

Mrs. P. H. Robeson has opened an Ice Cream Saloon at her residence, between the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, in this borough, where all who love this delicious summer luxury, and who does not, should call. A liberal sample of her manufacture has convinced us that her saloon is the place at which to secure the luxury in its greatest purity and excellence. We have never tasted better ice cream, or purchased more generously filled saucers.

Burglary.

We learn that the residence of Mr. Thomas Stemples, at East Stroudsburg, was entered by burglars on the night of the 27th ult. (Wednesday of last week), and a lot of silver spoons carried off. The rogues were either disturbed in their operations or concluded, after search, that Mr. S. did not allow his valuables to lie around loose.

On the same evening the residence of Mr. Rockafellow, in the same village, was also entered, and his pocket-book containing ten dollars and his watch taken from the bedroom, where he and his wife slept. As this is a beginning, and as it is well known to the police of our cities that the pickpockets and burglars have nearly all started out on a spring and summer rustication, it may be well for our citizens to be prepared for such visits.

"Father Abraham."

We have received the first number of a new campaign paper, bearing the above title, published at Lancaster, Pa., by Rauch & Cochran. The Rauch of the firm, is the Rauch — Ned Rauch — well known throughout all newspaperdom, as one of the most witty, sarcastic, and yet pleasant writers that ever handled a gray goose quill in an editorial sanctum. Republicans, hereabouts, remember him as the late editor of the Mauch Chunk "Gazette;" and Democrats have by no means forgotten either him or the stalwart blows he literally showered down upon them in the years gone by. Of course, "Father Abraham," in his hands cannot be any thing else but spicy and will prove to be richly worth the subscription price — 75 cents for the campaign.

Gen. John M. Schofield, the newly appointed Secretary of War, took possession of the Department, on Monday last, and was immediately waited on by Gen. Grant, Gen. Howard, the Heads of the several Military Bureaus, and the military men in and around Washington generally. He was accompanied to the Department by President Johnson. He is succeeded in his command of the first district, and of the military Department of Virginia, by Brevet Major-General George Stoneman.

Cheap Whiskey.

Whilst Temperance men are putting forth all efforts to cripple and destroy the whiskey business, Congress are seriously talking of cutting down the tax on the raw material, from two dollars to seventy-five cents per gallon. It is said that a large majority of our Solons at Washington favor the reduction, and that the Revenue laws will be so amended. This will, of course, secure a cheaper whiskey to be used in the manufacture of "ox yokes," "worm fences," and other "mechanic arts" of like kidney.

Court Proceedings.

At the May Term of the several Courts of Monroe County the following business was transacted, viz:—

David Roth was appointed Constable of Ross township for the ensuing year.

The following licenses for hotels, liquor stores and eating houses were granted:—

Table with columns for Licensee Name and Location. Includes entries for Wilkison Price, John W. Yothers, John Kercher, Reuben Shupp, John Merwine, Jerome Kresge, Elizabeth Kresge, Linford M. Heller, Jacob B. Teel, Oliver D. Smith, Samuel Case, James Wagonhurst, Jerome B. Shaw, Joseph Hawk, Nelson Hellefinger, Schoch & Kunkel, Alonzo B. Shafer, Charles Bossard, Valentine Houser, Jerome H. Fetherman, Jacob P. Reimer, Charles Saylor, James Place, Abraham Gish, Abraham Branan, Manessh Miller, Charles Brown, Amos Singer, Mary Dotter, David Kresge, Jonas Snyder, Aaron Serfass, Thomas E. Heller, Jacob W. Kresge, Reuben Hartzell, Philip Metzger, Jacob H. Stocker, Isaac S. Labar, Theodore Brodhead, Luke W. Brodhead, John Hohenfeldt, Jacob K. Shafer, Jacob Knecht, Linford Marsh, Aaron W. Clark, Henry Stoddart, Isaac Stouffer, Hiram Hay, Reuben B. Bonser, Tunkhanock.

Jerome S. Williams & Co. Stroudsburg. C. S. Detrick & Co. Stroud. Joseph P. Metzgar, Hamilton.

Merari G Jones, Smithfield.

Nolle prosequis were entered in the following cases:—

- Commonwealth vs. Henry Tallman—Fornication & Bastardy. Commonwealth vs. John Fenner—Fornication & Bastardy. Commonwealth vs. Charles Fish—Fornication & Bastardy. Commonwealth vs. Christian Hiller—Furnishing intoxicating drinks to minors. Commonwealth vs. Peter Born—Furnishing intoxicating drinks to minors. Commonwealth vs. Rudolph W. Mosholder—Assault & Battery. The Grand Jury returned the following bills Ignoramus, and directed the prosecutors to pay the costs:— Com. vs. Addison Azer. Catharine K. Setzer, prosecutor. Joseph H. Smith vs. Charles Hilgert, Peter Daublaizer et al. Verdict for plaintiff in sum of thirty-five dollars. In the cases of Samuel Warner, now to the use of Manessh Miller vs. Charles Brown and John Dotter vs. the township of Chesuthill, the plaintiffs took nonsuits.

A. Reeves Jackson vs. David R. Malven, the jury found for plaintiff, whereupon the Court directed the payment of costs to be made by estate.

The time for the Auditor in the account of the Administrator of the estate of Admanias Overfield, deceased, to report was extended until next term.

The time for the Auditor on account of the Executor of the estate of Adam Huffsmithe, deceased, to report was extended twenty days.

Stephen Holmes, jr., Esq., was appointed to examine, and, if occasion require, to re-settle the account of Susan Groner, Administratrix of the account of Andrew Groner, deceased.

The Grand Jury reported that they had examined the public buildings and found them in reasonable condition, with the exception of the roof on the jail, which needs some repairs.

A number of criminal cases, in which true bills were found, were continued over until next term.

Owing to the stoppage of the Lager Business, which will finally take place to-morrow, it is anticipated that quite a drought will prevail in our borough for some time to come. "Spitting lips," will doubtless become the order of the day, and the "Heavy Dry on," becoming a complaint, both fashionable and beyond the power of medical skill to cure. Oh, cruel Court, thus to cut off what has become a sort of second lacteal fluid to our grown babes, and, cruel Sonnies, thus to urge on the cruel Court. But "the thing can be stood," and if we cannot get the "Lager," we can certainly, without violating the "majesty of the law," do the next best thing—take to the water. With many this latter has doubtless become an obsolete practice, but perseverance will soon bring them into an acquaintance with it again. Remember that there is to be no more Lager after to-morrow, unless some of our landlords should come to the rescue. The evidence of the reformatory power of the measure lies in the still vague future.

Grant and Colfax.

The reader will find brief biographical sketches of Gen. Grant and the Hon. Schuyler Colfax, on the first page of this week's paper. We do not publish these as necessary to make Republicans acquainted with our glorious candidates for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency. They know them well, because a goodly portion of their lives enters largely into the most important epoch of our country's history, and Republicans kept pace with that history, from the inception of the Rebellion down to the present time. We publish it merely that Republicans may have an answer at hand for the many and notorious lies which Democratic leaders, and Democratic editors, daily invent for the hoodwinking of their followers, and to catch those who are lukewarm, and do not care to take the trouble to look into the nobleness of character of our candidates or the purity of our cause. We will next week publish the patriotic and many letters of acceptance, written by Messrs. Grant and Colfax in reply to the notice given them of their nomination.

Reported for the "Jeffersonian." A Mass Temperance Convention for Monroe County, met in response to the call of Rev. P. Combe, Secretary of State Temperance Union, in the M. E. Church, in Stroudsburg, on Tuesday, May 26th, at 10 o'clock, A.M.

Combe, after which the audience was dismissed by the benediction by the Rev. E. J. Pierce, and the large audience dispersed well pleased with the entire proceedings of the day, and satisfied that the Temperance movement had been propitiously and properly inaugurated for Monroe County.

WM. FINE, Secretary.

The United States Treasury received $2000 in "conscience money" from New York (monstrous strange!) on Saturday.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Address From the State Central Committee—An Appeal to All Good Citizens. PHILADELPHIA, May 27, 1868.

To the Voters of Pennsylvania:

The National Convention of the Republican party, with a unanimity and enthusiasm unprecedented, has nominated candidates for President and Vice President and announced the principles upon which they appeal to the people for support. As to the individuals selected no word of commendation is necessary.— Their deeds form a part of the history of the country.

No matter who the candidates in opposition may be, they must represent an organization that was unfaithful to the country in the hour of its direst peril and faste to liberty and the rights of man.

For four years the Republic shook with the tread of armed men in a struggle to determine whether the will of the majority constitutionally expressed should be the law of the land till changed in the mode prescribed by the organized law. In that struggle three thousand millions of treasure were wasted—three hundred thousand hero martyrs found in our ransomed soil their graves, and sorrow sits to-day at almost every fireside, mourning the unretreating brave.

This waste of treasure and legacy of woe was caused by the minority, in a fair election, refusing to submit to the will of the majority constitutionally expressed. Suspended on the issue hung the life of the republic and the hopes of mankind.

The only political organization to give aid, sympathy, and encouragement to that minority in its attempt to dismember the Republic and thus destroy our liberties, was the party calling itself Democratic.— At its last National Convention, while half a million of men were in arms for the overthrow of the Government, it declared the war for the Union a failure, and demanded an immediate cessation of hostilities.

"We were asked to spike our guns when the foe was at bay. And the rags of his black banner were drooping away."

To take down the proud name our nation had won, And strike her brave bird from his home in the sun."

Had the policy of the Democratic party been successful, the genius of impartial history would have written on the tombstone of the present generation an epitaph of indelible, unending and endless disgrace—that it preferred the Republic should die rather than endure the sacrifices necessary for it to live.

The men and the party that saved the Government in war can preserve and protect it in peace. The great captain of the age will lead the loyal hosts of the Republic to victory in November next, as he led its armies at Donelson, Vicksburg, and Appomattox Court House.

Republicans of the Keystone State, efficient organization secure certain victory. Your party in its infancy saved the territories of the Union from the blight and curse of human bondage, and consecrated them forever to free homes and free men.

In its early manhood it has grappled and crushed the most gigantic conspiracy ever formed for the destruction of liberty and free government. Treachery of public servants or apostasy of trusted leaders cannot stay its onward march.

With truth and justice for weapons, and the hearts of the people for a bulwark, if true to yourselves, a certain victory awaits you.

"The price of liberty is eternal vigilance." GALUSHA A. GROW, Chairman State Cen. Rep. Com.

A bold thief at Chicago, the other day, stole a $5,000 diamond ring and escaped successfully. Entering a jewelry store, he requested the clerk to show him the diamond rings, and selecting one containing the largest and most valuable stone, put it on his finger, coolly bade the clerk "good morning," walked out of the store, fastening the door after him with a block of wood, and disappeared before the police could be summoned.

The Potter Journal says it is estimated that the pigeons have benefited that county to the amount of one thousand dollars a day since they commenced roosting there, about a month since.— They were caught and sold by the wagon load to eastern dealers, at one dollar per dozen.

Some time ago the New York World thus alluded to General Grant: "As Washington was elected and re-elected on the strength of his character and services, without pledges either asked or given, we trust that General Grant will be elected, if at all, in the same way and with the same generous confidence. Having restored the authority of the government, we hope that he may add the highest civic to the highest military fame by restoring long lost cordiality of feeling."

A Child with Four Legs.

We are informed that a white female child was born in the western part of this county, on Bradshaw, about a week since, that is widely different from the shape that is usually assigned to such productions. The head, arms, breast, etc., to the waist are as common; but from the waist down, the child is duplicated—that is, the lower extremities are four in number, all well formed, instead of two. The physicians say that, with care, the probabilities are in favor of the child being reared. — Fayetteville Observer, May 21.

Another Remarkable Fact in Law.

TRENTON, June 2.—In the United States District Court to-day, in the case of William Walton, under indictment for passing counterfeit money, Judge Field decided that in a contract made in New Jersey to sell counterfeit money to be delivered in New York, the latter and not the former State had cognizance of the offense. Walton had been convicted, but before sentence his counsel, Mr. Mercur Shreve, raised the question of jurisdiction. Walton may be tried in New York but cannot be convicted in New Jersey.

A singular freak of nature was seen in an Arkansas town, recently, in the shape of a man with three ears: one on each side of his head, and a third—which belonged to another man—between his teeth.

It is fashionable now for the Democracy to prate about economy. General Roseau, sponsored by the President from Alaska and not called, will have a bill for mileage and witness fees of six thousand dollars. This is a specimen of Johnson's retrenchment.

Soldiers' Graves.

In various parts of the country Friday and Saturday last were devoted to a most beautiful ceremony by the friends of the soldiers who died during the rebellion. At most of the cemeteries fresh flowers were strewn on the mounds of the gallant dead, and thousands of people looked on sadly yet admiringly.

Paradise Valley, Call. lying between the Tuolumne and Stanislaus rivers, contains an almost unbroken grain field of one hundred and fifty thousand acres.

A number of prominent lawyers in Louisiana have written to Gen. Grant for protection in pursuing their professions. These men have undertaken to bring to justice many of those rebels who have been persecuting Unionists, and have been interferred with and impeded by rebel citizens. Gen. Grant has ordered Gen. Buchanan to give such protection as is necessary in the premises.

Coburn and McCoolle the pugilists were arrested in Indiana, as they were about to fight. They have been tried and sentenced to forty days imprisonment, and are now in confinement.

By an Act of the Legislature any township having on hand any surplus bounty money arising from taxes laid and collected, is authorized to pay the same into the state treasury for common school purposes.

The population of Reading is estimated at 42,000.

The College of New Jersey, at Princeton, received during one week last month, donations amounting to $225,000.

There are 700,000 gas lights in Philadelphia.
