JEFFERSONT

Devoted to Politics, Literature, Agriculture, Science, Morality, and General Intelligence.

VOL. 27.

STROUDSBURG, MONROE COUNTY, PA., JULY 2, 1868.

NO. 14.

Published by Theodore Schoch. TERMS-Two dollars a year in advance-and if not baid before the end of the year, two dollars and fitly

No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the Editor. lass, one or three insertions $1 50. Each additional assertion, 55 cents. Longer ones in proportion.

JOB PRINTING,

OF ALL MINDS, Breguted for the highest style of the Art, and on the

Drs. JACKSON & BIDLACK, PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS.

DRS. JACKSON & BIDLACK, are of a Professional character. Office - Opposite the Strondsburg Bank. April 25, 1867 .- tf.

DR. D. D. SHITH,

Surgeon Dentist, Office on Main Street, opposite Judge Stokes' residence, STROUDSBURG, Pa.

Teeth extracted without pain. _____ August 1, 1867. A Card.

The undersigned has opened an office for The undersigned has opened an office for the purchase and sale of Real Estate, in Fowler's Building, on Main street. Parties having Farms, Mills, Hotels or other property for sale will find it to their advantage to the force would be sympathizers with the second control of the continued, yet imperceptiable, weakforce would be sympathizers with the second control of the continued, yet imperceptiable, weakforce would be sympathizers with the second control of the continued, yet imperceptiable, weakforce would be sympathizers with the second control of the continued, yet imperceptiable, weakforce would be sympathizers with the second control of the continued, yet imperceptiable, weakforce would be sympathizers with the second control of the continued, yet imperceptiable, weakforce would be sympathizers with the second control of the continued, yet imperceptiable, weakforce would be sympathizers with the second control of the continued, yet imperceptiable, weakforce would be sympathizers with the second control of the continued, yet imperceptiable, weakforce would be sympathizers with the second control of the continued of the cont call on me. I have no agents. Parties must see me personally.
GEO. L. WALKER,

Real Estate Agent, Stroudsburg, Pa.

S. HOLMES, Jr.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, AND GENERAL CLAIM AGENT. STROUDSBURG, PA.

Office, one door below Elory's Tin Shop. All claims against the Government prosecuted with dispatch at reduced rates. Or An additional bounty of $100 and of $50 procured for Soldiers in the late War, FRRE OF EXTRA CHARGE. August 2, 1866.

A Card.

Dr. A. REEVES JACKSON,

Physician and Surgeon, BEGS TO ANNOUNCE THAT HAVprepared to resume the active duties of his ment to persons living at a distance who may wish to consult him, he will be found at his office every THURSDAY and SAT-URDAY for consultation and the performance of Surgical operations. Dec. 12, 1867.-1 yr.

CHARLES W. DEAN,

WM. W. PAUL & CO. Manufacturers and Wholesale Dealers in

BOOTS & SHOES WAREHOUSE,

623 Market St., & 614 Commerce St. above Sixth, North side, PHILADELPHIA. March 19, 1868 .- tf.

Itch! Itch! Itch! SCRATCH! SCRATCH! SCRATCH!

HOLLINSHEAD'S ITCH & SALT RHEUM GINTMENT. No Family should be without this valuable medicine, for on the first appearance of the disorder on the wrists, between the fin-Warranted to give satisfaction or money

Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail. Stroudsburg, Oct. 31, '67.]

M. D. COOLBAUGH,

SHOP ON MAIN STREET, Opposite Woolen Mills, STROUDSBURG, PA.,

Respectfully announces to the citizens of Stroudsburg and vicinity that he is prepared to attend to all who may favor him with their patronage, in a prompt and workmanlike manner.

CHAIRS, FURNITURE, &c., painted PICTURE FRAMES of all kinds constantly on hand or supplied to order.

June 11, 1868 .- ty. J. LANTZ, DENTIST.

Has permanently located himself in Stroudsburg, and moved Walten, where he is fully prepared to treat latest and most improved manner. Most persons know the danger and folly of trust ing their work to the ignorant as well as the traveling dentist. It matters not how much experience a person may have, he is liable to have some failures out of a number so far. Hence the necessity of obtaining the | Lincoln shall die in this city!' services of a dentist near home. All work warranted. Stroudsburg, March 27, 1862.

Don'T FORGET that when you want any thing in the Furniture you want any thing in the Furniture or Ornamental line that McCarty, in the Odd-Ecllows' Hall, Main Street, Strouds-burg, Pa., is the place to get it. [Sept. 26, but to find a grave' He added: 'I have on the rear platform of the last car, he reday was returned to the reday was returned to the reday was returned to the rear platform of the rear platform of

THE BALTIMORE PLOT OF 1861.

SASSINATE PRESIDENT LINCOLN.

In the June number of Harper's Monthly, among the other interesting articles, is one in regard to the Baltimore plot to through Baltimore was rapidly approachassassinate Mr. Lincoln, of which so little ing, but the exact plan of operation by has been definitely known. The account the conspirators had not been agreed up. given is, at all events, straight-forward on. The popular feeling against him had, tive from Chicago, to whom mainly Mr. asperated to the highest pitch. Thou-Lincoln was indebted for his safety.

he learned that there was a conspiracy to they were ready for any act of violence take Mr. Lincoln's life, while he was on his way to Washington. He at once product that the assassination should posed to checkmate the plans of the con- take place at the Calvert Street depot. route being known, and leaking out in eign travel and the ability to speak with great facility, several modern languages; and a knowledge of the South, its localiwere then forming. He was also instructed whom had taken an oath of secrecy, and profession. In order to prevent disappoint to make daily reports to his chief, then also sworn, if designated, that he would interesting. They show that Howard the assassin." the first families in that old and refined conspiracy. The writer says: Maryland' are still mournfully sung over firm.

He continues:

same Captain T-, one of Fernandina's and you, Allen (Pinkerton), think there | Pinkerton was signaled by Webster that old age by a little frugality. associates, who called Pinkerton aside is positive danger in my attempting to "All's well;" and from there to Baltiand whispered: 'It is determined that go through Baltimore openly, according more, at every bridge crossing, standing the G-d d-n Lincoln shall never pass to the published programme, if you can on the rear platform of the last car, he Friday was returned to the lender on this State.

he is all right, and in one week from to-NEW DEVELOPMENT. - THE PLOT TO AS- day the North shall want a new President, for Lincoln will be dead."

> He says further: "The time for Mr. Lincoln's passage sands of the more ignorant had been Employed professionally at Baltimore, wrought upon by the intelligent until spirators. The writer in Harper says: A vast crowd of secessionists was to as- any way, the superintendent of the Tel-"His plan was with his detectives to semble at that place and await the ar- egraph Company, at the instance of Mr. enter Baltimore as residents of Charles. rival of the train with Mr. Lincoln. to be secessionists of the most extreme street and passages immediately surroun- graphic communication with all the world violence, to secure entrance into their se- ding it. It was known among the leaders until Mr. Lincoln should reach Wash- rent or the breaking waves. The overcret societies and military organizations, that George P. Kane, the Marshal of po-and thus possess themselves of their secret plans. In looking over his corps he Banks, and afterward an officer in the Mr. Lincoln visited "Independence attempt of man, challenging any mechanifound two men admirably adapted to the rebel army, would detail but a small poobject he had in view — both young, and lice force to attend the arrival and nom- it the flag. His speech on this occasion tionary positions, hung in their ponderous ies were the advantages of extensive for- sage leading to the street, some roughs ments were drawn from those which had ties, prejudices, customs, and leading police being withdrawn, Mr. Lincoln and made good the Declaration of Inde- numberless things that were, but that are men, derived from several years' residence would find himself in a dense, excited, pendence; that declaration which gave overspread with what is new and exercisgo to a first-class hotel, register his name, and honored as a hero. But who should liberty, and that his way to the National and his residence as New Orleans, visit do the bloody deed? It was feared by Capital was beset by assassins, yet he did they departed. places of amusement, seek the acquain- some that Hill lacked the nerve and coolyoung aristocracy of that city; enter ing of the conspirators was held on the surrender those principles." their clubs, penetrate their secrets, and night of the 18th of February. Some learn the wild projects it was known they twenty persons were collected, each of office and nominally carrying on a regular was arranged that ballots should be prebusiness in Baltimore. Those reports, pared and placed in a hat, and that the now lying before me, are curious and person who drew a red ballot should be was eminently successful, that he soon Mr. Pinkerton found it hard to perbecame a welcome guest among many of suade Mr. Lincoln of the existence of the city, that he was a favorite with both "While Mr. Judd detailed the circumsexes among the ardent and mercurial stance of the conspiracy, Mr. Lincoln lisyoung aristocracy, which furnished to the tened very attentively, but did not say a rebellion Harry Gilmore, the 'French word, nor did his countenance, which I Lady,' Stuart, and many other partisans, closely watched, show any emotion. He and in whose circles 'Dixie' and 'My was thoughtful, serious, but decidedly cordially received by Governor Curtin

'the lost cause.' Mamy Baltimore belles "Pinkerton then, himself, went over are now living who might innocently the ground, detailing to Mr. Lincoln all blush at the disclosures of the daily re- the facts connected with Fernandina, ports of one whom, in February, 1861, Hill, and others, the condition of popular ter, excusing himself on the ground of apart, placing them as near the corn hill they called 'the fascinating Howard of feeling, and the plans of the assassins; fatigue, he left the dinner table, went to as possible. If the worms are plenty, in "By the 15th of February Pinkerton's lice escort." He told him there were hat (which had been presented to him in them. They will leave the ground and machinery was fairly in running order; perhaps ten or fifteen desperadoes-wild, New York), he went quietly to a side-crawl under the alder bushes and the his agents in full communion with the enthusiastic young men - who had been door, got into a carriage in waiting, and corn will escape. This remedy is simple clubs and secret societies of Baltimore, wrought up to a pitch of fanaticism, in was driven, with one companion, Ward and easy and requires but little time; all so that an interview was planned and which they really believed they would be H. Lamon, rapidly to the car which can be done during the leisure hours brought about between Howard's chief patriots and martyrs in taking his life, awaited him, and was soon speeding on which every farmer sometimes has. I gers, &c., a slight application of the Oint- and a Captain Fernandina, one of the even at the cost of their own; that they toward Philadelphia. The secret of his have tried this remedy and found it very eral Grant, whom he had previously callment will cure it, and prevent its being ta- most active of the conspirators. Fernan- had bound themselves by oaths to assas- departure was known to but very few, and effective. Farmers would do well, though ed to the War Department, that "salutary dina was an Italian or of Italian descent. sinate him; that a vast, excited crowd by them disclosed to no one. On his ar- to plow ground in the fall when the ex-He had lived in the South for many would meet him at the depot of the Nor- rival at Philadelphia Mr. Lincoln was posure of the soil to the cold of winter years, and was thoroughly possessed of thern Central Railroad, a fight would be met by Mr. Pinkerton, taken into a car- will kill the insects which produce the the idea of southern wrongs, and that got up in the crowd, and this would be riage and driven to the depot of the Phil- worm. the South had been outraged by the elec- the signal for the attack on his person, adelphia, Wilmington, and Baltimore tion of Lincoln; and, educated with Ital- and in the melee a dozen desperate men, Railroad, Mr. Pinkerton timing their arian ideas, he justified the use of the sti- armed with revolvers and dirks, each rival so as to reach the train at the moletto and assassination as a means of pre- sworn to take his life, would be upon his ment of departure. venting the President elect from taking path, and that he, Mr. Pinkerton, felt a his seat in the Executive chair. He was moral conviction that he could not pass an enthusiast and a fanatic. In the in- from the Calvert street depot to the terview with Fernandina, which took Washington depot, a mile and a half, in structed the conductor not to leave until if not positively poisonous. place at --- saloon, in the presence of an open carriage, alive. Both Judd and he received a package of important Govsome of the military company which he Pinkerton pressed these and other cor- ernment dispatches, "which must go to be seriously impregnated with the state commanded - his lieutenant and others roborating facts upon him with all the through to Washington that night." Mr. of the locust, and, of a consequence, is in their confidence - in the course of the power which they possessed. He re- Pinkerton had caused the three sections very unheathly. Unless you are assurred conversation Fernandina, believing he mained silent a few moments, and it was of the sleeping-car, which was on the end and know about the chickens and eggs do was addressing a thorough secessionist, suggested that he should change the pro- of the train, to be taken, and his agent not use any in your family.—Ex. said: 'Lincoln shall never, never be gramme, and take the night train for stood at the door, which was locked, President. My life,' said he, 'is of no Washington that very night. Mr. Judd awaing the arrival of the party. When consequence. I am willing to give it for said to him: 'These proofs cannot be now the party appeared the door was opened, his. I will sell my life for that of that made public, as the publication of the Mr. Lincoln stepped in, went to his birth; abolitionist. As Orsini gave his life for facts would involve the lives of several of an officer of the road handed the package walnut, powder it and dissolve in warm county, Ohio, was lately sawed into four Italy, I am ready to die for the rights of Mr. Pinkerton's force, and among others, of Government dispatches - consisting water. The horse must be drenched in thousand eight hundred and thirty feet the life of Webster, serving in a rebel of some numbers of the New York Her- this liquor and it will throw him into a of good inch and a quarter lumber. "Some one present remarked: 'Are company under drill at Perryman's, in ald, carefully sealed up and addressed to profuse perspiration, and he will soon be there no means of saving the South ex- Maryland.' Some other conversation the Secretary of State - and instantly as well as ever; it should be done as soon his office next door to Dr. S. cept by assassination?' 'No,' said he; was held between him and Mr. Judd, in the whistle sounded and the train was as you ascertain his condition. 'you might as well try to blow down the regard to the construction which would whirling on towards Washington, bearing the natural teeth, and also to insert incorrup. Washington monument with your breadth be placed upon his conduct if he changed in security not "Cæsar and his fortunes," but Lincoln and the destinies of the reand shall; and,' he added, turning to Washington. Mr. Judd then asked, public. Captain T-, a co conspirator, 'we will 'wil you, upon any statement made, conif necessary, all die together. Every sent to leave for Washington on to-night's ranged that no one in Philadelphia had captain will in that day prove himself a train?' Mr. Lincoln promptly replied: seen Mr. Lincoln, no one saw him enter hero. The first shot fired, the head trai- 'No, I cannot consent to do this. I shall the car, no one on the train except the tor Lincoln dead, and all Maryland will hoist the flag on Independence Hall to- party of the President, not even the conof cases, and if the dentist lives at a distance it is frequently put off until it is too late to save the tooth or teeth as it may be, other wise the inconvenience and trouble of going wise the inconvenience and trouble of going of the lives at a distance ductor, knew of his presence in the car. When the conductor came along to extend the lag of lide pendence in the car. When the conductor came along to extend the lag of lide pendence in the car. When the conductor came along to extend the lag of lide pendence in the car. When he is twenty-one years old, and continues to do so until he is seventy, he will and meet the Legislature of Pennsylvania; and then I shall have fulfilled all my him Mr. Lincoln's ticket, and he did not then be worth $10,956-37. How many "The next day Pinkerton met the engagements. After this, if you (Judd), look into his berth. At Harve de Grace could realize a handsome competency for we saw that no more was to be said.' certainty of going through on time.

being telegraphed to Baltimore by a coa- the President's Illinois friends. federate, or information of this change of Pinkerton, sent a practical telegraph not hesitate to declare "that he would erton's disclosures were made to Mr. worn so thin through ages that their fal-Lincoln, F. W. Seward, Esq., arrived at laciousness has long since been disclosed, Philadelphia, having been sent by his and eternal as they once appeared have amount they gave for his benefit eleven under an assumed name, occupying an take the life of the President elect. It father to warn him of the danger which become enervated, powerless, through the years ago. We understand that this sinwas awaiting him at Baltimore. Facts onslaught of time. They, too, have gular man is named John Johnson, and had come to the knowledge of Secretary shown that nothing is eternal. Seward and General Scott, corroborating Old tenets and maxims that had be-on the night of the 22d. of February, went to Harrisburg, was wearing away. and the Legislature, and a vast crowd of

The officers of the road, to prevent the the yolks of the eggs have been changpossibility of the departure of the train ing to a light yellow, bordering on the before Mr. Lincoln was aboard, had in- green, in which state they are unheathly,

So skillfully had the matter been ar-seen Colonel Kane, Chief of Police, and with a tone and manner so decisive, meant, "All's well." Reaching Baltimore at about half-past three in the morn- issued a callfor a Soldiers' and Sailors' "It was finally arranged between Judd, ing. Mr. Stearns, the Superintendent of Pinkerton, and the officers of the Pennthe road, entered the car, and whispered brilliant list of generals and colonels, a sylvania Railroad that a special train in the ear of Pinkerton the welcome real soldier, esident in the city, who should leave Harrisburg at six P.M., the words, "All's well." That city, which next evening, and bring Mr. Lincoln to the conspirators had planned to make took the trouble to search the Army Re-Philadelphia in time to take the eleven that day the scene of a tragedy as infa- gister. He was amply repaid for his o'clock train going through Baltimore to mous as that of Wilkes Booth, was now Washington, on the night of the 22d. in profound repose; and the assassins of record of a part of the highest: given is, at all events, straight-forward on. The popular reening against him had, and consistent, and as such deserves conthrough the press, and by harangues and linear through through the press, and by harangues and linear through through the press, and the press, and the press, and through the press, an sideration. It seems from this that it all the means by which the public mind Lincoln arrived; every contingency, in intended victim was passing on to the in the field. was Mr. Allen Pinkerton, a noted detectis operated upon, been inflamed and extregard to the connection of the trains and protecting bayonets of General Scott. possible delays, was most skillfully plan- Nothing occurred to interrupt or delay borne on the egister. ned, so as to secure connections and the the passage, and at six in the morning of Colonel—H. C. King ertainty of going through on time. the 23d they reached Washington, where "Meanwhile, to prevent this change at the depot they were met by some of

Wearing Away.

All things are wearing away,-nothing is everlasting. The rocky sides of the river which resist the cutting of ton and New Orleans, and by assuming They were to go early and fill the narrow climber to isolate Harrisburg from teleand continual stroke of the sweeping curlapping stones of the mountain, steel-clad-On the morning of the 22d of February like, defying impregnation through any Hall," and with his own hand raised over cal power to move them from their stahad been carefully educated for a Jesuit the the depot, and Mr. Lincoln should tions suggested by the day and place. Trees, animals, attempt to pass through the narrow passtances are wearing away. Everything is wearing away. Old customs, fashions, and habits wear out of use and form the deep-hidden strata of those tance and secure the confidence of the ness. To determine the question a meetcould prove, and under which was placed During the same night on which Pink- all the support-iron-like-of sages, have has been recently in town searching out the evidence which had been accumu- come indoctrinated in the minds of nalated by Mr. Pinkerton of the existence tions of people, that had been declared as of the conspiracy. The circumstance truisms, and held as guards to liberty, derendered Mr. Lincoln less reluctant than fenders against innovations of wrong, have he had been to consent to the arrange- worn threadbare and now are shunned as ments for the passage through Baltimore opposers to human rights, and scoffed at as senseless impediments for advancement. Mr. Lincoln on the same day, the 22d All these have worn away. All else is citizens. At six o'clock an engine and When the corn first appears above the one passenger-car were standing on the surface of the ground, cut alder bushes track leading to Philadelphia. Soon af- and strew them over the field about a rod also the fact that Kane, Chief of Police, his room, changed his dress for a travel- a day or two you will find them gathered declared that he would give him no "po- ing-suit, and, with a broad-brimmed felt- about the bushes when you can destroy

Cut Worms.

Careful Now.

Our people must be careful how they use eggs. Since the advent of the locusts

Chicken flesh is said by medical men

Cure for Foundered Horses.

Take a lump of alum the size of a

There have been shipped from Lubec, Me., the past year, one hundred and seventy-five thousand boxes of smoked herring two thousand gallons of oil, and twenty-five hundred quintals of dried

The Road to Wealth.

The Demoracy of Washington having trouble. The following is the military

General-J Donohue ; name name pot

Colonel—M. C. Kinsley . Licutenant; nine months' regiment; no batele. General—McQuade, no such General on record.

Colonet _C. W. Zulick; left the service in disgussin 1862, and took to the more congenial occapation of claim agent.

General—Maulsby, read colonel.

Colonel—P. H. Allabach; no such name appears on official record. Colonel-L. D. Campbell ; left in 1862. Colonel-T. A. Bramlette ; left in 1862. General-John Love ; no record of any, such general.

General-T. L. Dickey ; was discharged as a coionel in February, 1863. General-E. B. Brown ; read lieutenant-colonel; discharged in 1862. General—J. McFarland; read captain; discharged in 1862.

General-J. W. Denver; no record of any general by that name.

To get any considerable number of real soldiers, the Democracy will be forced to go further south than Washington .-

A Singular Case.

A Montrose merchant was called upon in New Orleans and other southern ci- and hostile crowd, hustled and jammed, promise that "in due time the weight ed by us to-day. Principals around which a few days ago by a stranger, with a long ties. With these qualifications he pos- and then the fatal blow was to be struck. would be lifted from the shoulders of all were hung all the adornments that the paper in his hand. Supposing it to be a sessed a fine personal appearance, insinu. A swift steamer was to be stationed in men." Conscious of the dangers which brilliant intellects of phliosophers could subscription list for some benevolent obating manners, and that power of adapta. Chesapeake Bay, with a boat concealed, threatened his country, and that those manufacture are numbered with the past ject, he took it, and running over the tion to the persons whom they wish te ready to take the assassin on board as dangers originated in opposition to the as sophisms useless to transmit to futur- names soon found his own among them. influence, popularly attributed to the Jo. soon as the deed was done, and convey principles of the Declaration of Independity, and incapable of standing the wear of The man then explained. Some eleven suits. Howard was instructed to assume him to a southern port, where he would ence, and knowing that his own life was time. They soon proved cracked and years ago, a citizen of this county was the character of an extreme secessionist, have been received with acclamations even now threatened for his devotion to worthless, and were but talismanic to burned out; and his friends started a some circumstance, but with its death subscription paper, unknown to him, and raised three or four hundred dollars for Doctrines around which were shed all him. Having since been prospered, he every dollar so presented to him; and he the parties answering to his list, and actually compelling them to accept of the that he is a citizen of Lathrop Township. Independent Republican.

A Swindler.

Henry Meckes, the fellow who was concerned in the Hickory Run case, was arrested on Thursday last, by constable Evarts, of Kidder township, on a warrant issued against him, by the Grand Army of the Republic of this borough, for selling Gift Concert Tickets and pocketing the proceeds. He sold quite a number of tickets, and the only money received by the G. A. R., was about $23. Fiftyfive dollars of which they have knowledge is missing. He may have sold more tickets, of which they are not aware .-The persons holding the tickets, of course need not feel alarmed, they are as good as though the money was paid over to the proper officers, Meckes was taken before a Justice and in default of bail sen board with Sheriff Keiser .- Carbon Democrat.

In his Message to the Senate, December, 1867, Andrew Johnson said of Genreforms have been introduced by the Secretary adinterim, and great reductions of expenses have been effected under his administration of the War Department, "saving of millions to the Treasury."

The "Hon. John A Gilmer of North Carolina." who, The World and other Democratic papers say, has "come out for Chase," has been dead and buried for many months. Any party which takes up the Chief Justice will find itself in a similar condition.

One of the last Democratic victories reported was in Racine, Wisconsin, and "a great gain" was loudly trumpeted. It turns out that there was but one candidate, who was a Republican, and he was. unanimously elected.

A large white ash tree in Mahoning

J. J. Roper, of Brooklyn, Susquehanna county, has a lamb which weighed at its birth 331 pounds, and when two months old weighed 62 pounds.

A Mr. Lindsry of Delaware county has a calf four months old, weighing about four hundred pounds.

Jno. P. Isley Esq., has been appointed Superintendent of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company.

Seventy-eight graduates of Nazareth Hall were killed or died during the war.

The fruit prospect in Passaic county, N., J. is unusually promising. There are 47,000 Good Templars in

Bogus five cent pieces have made their