On Standard in another column. SPEER'S STANDARD WINE BITTERS is highly recommended by physicians for Dyspepsia, on account of its tonic properties, its purity, and its delicious flavor.

Daniel M. Van Auken was renominated for Congress by the Democratic Conference at Marsh's Hotel, on Tuesday.

The 10th Annual Fair of the Warren County Agricultural Society, comes off at Belvidere, N. J., on the 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th of October.

The Lady's Book for October is already on our table, and, like its preceding numbers, is full of good things.

Reader are you assessed? If not, see to it at once that your name is on the roll; and see that your Republican neighbor's name is there too.

The Right Rev. Bishop Stevens, D. D., of the Protestant Episcopal Church, will hold services in this borough, on Sunday, the 1st of October. Notice of the hour and place will be given in our next.

Grand Mass Meetings.

Grand Mass Meetings of the friends of Grant and Colfax, Hartman and Campbell, and of the Union, will be held at the Kittatiny House, at the Water Gap, on Saturday, next. Voters without regard to their political predilections, are invited to be present, and hear the words of soberness and truth as they flow from the lips of those eloquent champions of the people, the Hon. Morton Michael, of Philadelphia, and the Hon. F. A. Conkling, of New York. Meetings will be held both afternoon and evening.

The Hon. F. A. Cragin, of New Hampshire, will speak to the people of Monroe county, at the Court House, in this Borough, on Tuesday evening next, September 29th. All who are opposed to a re-opening of the war of the rebellion, by sanctioning the revolutionary principles enunciated by Frank Blair, in the election of Seymour and Blair; all who are in favor of the restoration of the Union on a firm basis; all who are opposed to repudiation; all who are in favor of one currency for all, and that currency gold; all who are in favor of the election of those Patriots, Heroes and Statesmen Gen. U. S. Grant and the Hon. Schuyler Colfax, and Hartman and Campbell; all who desire to hear the truth, and nothing but the truth, from eloquent lips are cordially invited to attend. Let there be a grand rally of Republicans on the occasion, from all parts of the County. Dr. Doon has been written to, and is, also, expected to be present.

The Ticket.

The Republican Congressional Conference, which assembled at Easton, on Saturday last, placed in nomination, for Congress, the Hon. John Torrey, of Wayne County.—Judge Torrey is an excellent man, has every qualification required to make a good Congressman, and, if his election were within the range of probability, as it ought to be, even in this politically lopsided district, we should be most ably represented at Washington. As it is, every Republican in the District will best show his appreciation of his duty, and of a really good man, by working and voting for Judge Torrey.

This action of the Conference completes our ticket, and with great cheerfulness and the most hearty good will we place it at the head of our paper. Look at it reader; scan it closely; make inquiries about it; and, after all this is done, whether you are a Republican, or one of that other sort so wrongfully yeelped a Democrat, ask yourself whether every sense of duty does not imperiously demand that you give it your earnest and hearty support. Better men than Grant and Colfax, Hartman and Campbell, Torrey and Laciari, have never been nominated by any party. Neither the past nor the present show a Democratic setting up of men near so good. Why then, when the times are so pregnant with things for good or evil, should not sensible Democrats throw party to the dogs, and vote for the best men.

The Democrats threaten to "push the war into Africa." Do they propose to burn down some more Orphan Asylums?

The News from Maine. The news from Maine, of which, because we are so used to good news, we inadvertently omitted to make a note last week, fell like a thunder bolt upon the bewildered Democracy. They had been fighting hard in that State for months, and, as much as anything, expected either a victory outright, or, at least, such a reduction in our majority as would enable them to bring out their roosters, their coon-skinners and their skeddaddlers, and indulge a lusty old crow over the result. But, 22,000 majority was rather too much for them. It was a re-acton upon which they did not count—an increase for the Republicans, of some nine thousand over their majority of last year, instead of a decrease favoring Democracy. But they do not mean to give it up so; and the Peck-eniffs of the party, including the big WE of the New York World, and the lesser we of the Monroe Democrat, have been figuring at the result, ever since the election, to make some kind of a victory for their side, even though it be a victory which leaves them irrecoverably in the vocative.

It appears that the leaders feel as though the Democracy must have a crow to prevent explosion, and a very week invention has been gotten up in connection with this Maine election, which is designed to act as a vent for the pent up "h-u-r-r-o-a-r-s" which have lain dormant, for so many years, in the tender bosoms of Democracy. The invention is the silly story that the Republicans have lost in Maine, notwithstanding that our majority, which was some thirteen thousand last year, is twenty-two thousand this year. But the foglemen contend that we had a larger majority several years ago, when so many thousands of Democrats, by reason of a fear of the draft found it far more convenient, comfortable and prudent to sojourn, for a season in Canada, than in any one of the States of the United States. It is true that our majority was larger during this mournful absence of Democrats; but that it is smaller because of a wholesale happy return of the skeddaddlers reflects so little of credit, and so much of disgrace, on the Democracy that crowing over the difference appears, to good and true men, like a veritable crowing over the party's shame.

All Democrats, however, do not crow over the result in Maine. The "red-hot" men of the Democracy, honest in their advocacy of principles, but dangerous because of the principles they advocate—the men who always strive to call things by their right names, and always act and speak intelligibly on all occasions—do not claim encouragement from the result in Maine. Of this class is Mr. Brick Pomeroy a leader. Brick knows a thing or two; and no powers of persuasion could induce him to believe that, when the vote of a State which he expected to carry is so heavily against him, a victory can be culled from the debris which smothered the Democracy, as in Maine. Brick knows that the result in Maine was an overwhelming Republican victory, and that it is but the precursor of still heavier thunder to follow from the same quarter in November. Brick says:

The Defeat in Maine.

The State election in Maine has been held—the smoke has lifted—the Republicans have over twenty thousand majority. We are defeated there, and do not like it. We met the enemy in Maine and are theirs. They whipped us there worse than we supposed they would or could, and it hurts. Duty to our readers and a desire to speak truth makes us admit a defeat there—a stronger Republican vote than we looked for.

We placed upon our first page, last week, the Premium List, Instructions to Committees and Regulations of the Monroe County Agricultural Society.—We did this, for the purpose of showing the liberality of the Society, which was gotten up solely with a view to advance the Agricultural interest of the County, and not, as some may suppose, to advance the pecuniary profit, of the stockholders. With so liberal a premium list profit could hardly by any possible process, be drawn from the Annual Exhibitions; and with instructions and regulations so stringent, nothing but fairness can mark the result. We hope, therefore that the list has been carefully cononed by our readers, and that, as a consequence, the Ninth Annual Fair will exceed all others, in the brilliancy of its display, and in attendance. Let all sections of the County be as they most assuredly ought, fully represented on the 13th 14th 15th and 16th days of October.

Republicans the next shot in the great contest now being organized, will be fired in Pennsylvania, on the second Tuesday of October. Are your guns in order and is your powder dry? See to it that there is no miss because of any neglect of yours. Remember, you have the State to redeem from the disgraceful bawling work of last fall. You have the same enemy with the same tricks to contend against. Look out, that he does not cheat you a second time.

Our "Boys in Blue" should not forget the National Mass Convention of the Soldiers and Sailors, to be held in Philadelphia, on Thursday and Friday next, the 1st and 2d of October. A delegation of the "Boys in Blue" from every County in the State should be present, and especially should Monroe County, which had so many true boys in the field be represented. It is expected that at least 50,000 true and tried Soldiers will take part in the proceedings.

We design printing the tickets for the State Election so as to have them ready for distribution throughout the County during Court week. Will our Republican friends call at our office and get them.

NAY-AUG.

At a special meeting, of Nay-Aug Hose Co. held last evening the following resolutions were passed:

Resolved, That our warmest acknowledgments are due and are hereby tendered to Phoenix Fire Co. of Stroudsburg for their generous and unsurpassed hospitality to our company upon the occasion of our late visit to their beautiful borough as their invited guests.

Resolved, That we hope, at some not far distant day, to welcome them in Scranton as our honored guests, and pledge ourselves to do all in our power to make their stay with us as pleasant and agreeable as we found our visit to Stroudsburg. To do more than this we think impossible.

Resolved, That to the citizens of Stroudsburg, and especially to its many fair ladies, we are indebted for so many kind attentions that we are unable to express in fitting terms our entire appreciation of them, and can only wish them in return long continued happiness and prosperity, and gently hint to those of the latter who are unmarried that they cannot make a better choice for their future partners in life than from among the firemen of Stroudsburg.

Resolved, That this resolution be published in the daily papers of this city and a copy be sent to the Phoenix Fire Co.—Scranton Republican.

Want of Energy.

Is one great cause of misfortune in business, as well as a neglect of household duties. The use of Speer's 'Standard Wine Bitters' will effectually give tone and energy to the physical powers of the system, and remove lassitude. The Peruvian Bark contained in them, will also cure Ague.

For sale by Johnston, Holloway & Co., & Fred. Brown, corner of 5th and Chestnut Street, and by other Druggists.

Friends have you been laboring for the good cause of Republicanism. If not go to work at once. Stir up the lukewarm. Convince the doubting. Encourage the hesitating. Circulate the documents. If you have them not, we have them in abundance at our office. Call and get them. They are as free as the water which courses down the mountain rill.

Some of the so-called democrats are not up in their history. They don't go back even four years in their reading. For while they sneer at the republicans for nominating Grant, educated, as they say, only for the life and duties of a soldier, they forget that in 1864 the democrats nominated for the same office Gen McClellan, educated for nothing but a soldier, and a failure at that. They forget too that Grant at the head of the War department, showed an ability in civil affairs which won the warmest encomiums from the democrats. The N. Y. World, the Boston Post and journals of that class, commended him as exhibiting a genius for civil administration, only second to his genius as a military man.

And more we know that at one time the democratic leaders hoped to have Gen. Grant as the democratic nominee. Sour grapes, gentlemen.

When a good old Democrat like Reverdy Johnson gets into the presence of a British audience, it is refreshing to see what a patriotic Republican he becomes. Thus he is reported as saying to a number of Englishmen at a dinner in Sheffield:

"The war had this compensation: it ended Slavery. None now but freemen tread the soil of America, and history will say that blood was well spent in erasing this blot, transmitted from a common ancestry, tarnishing our fame and belying the Declaration of Independence."

All of which we highly approve. We don't think that Reverdy could pronounce sentiments more in harmony with the Republican party if he tried.—Tribune. A gallant soldier of the old Army of West Virginia was approached by an insidious Copperhead the other day, when this colloquy took place: "How are you, John? I reckon you are going to vote with us this fall, ain't you?" "Do you think I'm fool enough to vote with you after fighting you for four years?" was John's reply. "But you don't mean to say all Democrats are rebels?" "No, but there are mighty few rebels who are not Democrats." This was a settler—John intends to vote as he shot.

Senator Fowler, of Tennessee, who was one of the seven Senators who voted to acquit President Johnson, and whose position in politics has been very doubtful, and who has not been claimed as of the Republican party ever since the impeachment trial, has finally taken the stump for Grant and Colfax, and boldly declaring, after viewing the situation in Tennessee, that the election of Grant and Colfax is essential in order to preserve peace and unity throughout the land.

Hon. John M. Harlan, of Louisville, lately Attorney General of Kentucky, a McClellan Democrat in 1864, a Colonel in the Union army, and one of the most effective public speakers in Kentucky, has taken ground in favor of Grant and Colfax. His accession to the Republican party in Kentucky is not less important than that of Hon. Wm. H. Wadsworth. The "tide" seems to have set in in good earnest even in the Rebel State of Kentucky.

John R. Marke, Esq., of Nelsonville, Athens county, Ohio, a soldier of the war of 1812, will vote the Republican ticket for the first time at the coming October election.

Fifty-two voters at Des Moines, Iowa, who have heretofore been Democrats have repudiated Seymour and Blair, and declared their intention to vote for Grant and Colfax.

If the Northern partisans of Seymour succeed in establishing his loyalty, great care will be taken to not let it be known in the South, where an unrecanted loyal record would ruin him. Blair takes good care to apologize for his part in the war, and to make amends by proposing to fight on the other side. Seymour says nothing. Troy Times.

One of the disadvantages the Democrats labor under in their attempts to prove that Grant is no soldier, and rendered no services to the country, is that people know better. His generalship, his services, his triumphs, are fresh in everybody's memory and knowledge. There are no 'historic doubts' about the triumphs of Gen. Grant. It is this that makes the work of the Democrats so hard.

The Pittsburg Commercial says: It is reported on indisputable authority that the Presidents of two important Railroads connecting at Pittsburg, who have heretofore acted with the Democratic party, have recently expressed their intention to support Grant, whose election they deem necessary to the peace of the country.—The ground swell goes on.

Hon. Wm. H. Wadsworth, formerly a member of Congress from the Maysville (Kentucky) district, and a support of McClellan, has taken the stump for Grant and Colfax. Mr. Wadsworth is a very important and influential accession, and will do a yeoman's service in the ranks of Republicanism in Kentucky.

Sound Opinion.

Before the election the Richmond (Va.) Dispatch (rebel) said: "If Maine shows a large, large or small, for the Radicals, Mr. Horatio Seymour may consider his chance of being a successor of George Washington as small indeed." We agree for once with a Democratic journal.

Here is another loyal volunteer against the new Democratic rebellion. Hon. Thos J. Turner, of Freeport, Ill., who was the last Democratic candidate for Congress against E. B. Washburne, has publicly avowed his intention to work and vote for Grant and Colfax.

One hundred Jews, in Chicago, who were Democrats up to the nomination of Seymour and Blair by the New York Convention, have come out for Grant and Colfax, and joined the "Tanagers" clubs in Chicago.

Robert, son of the late Stephen A. Douglas, delivered his maiden political speech at Raleigh, N. C., a few days since, in behalf of Grant and Colfax. The Douglas Democrat can't and won't swallow the Copperhead ticket.

Mr. S. Taylor Suit, to whom the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Fifth Maryland district was tendered, has declined to be a candidate, and will support Grant and Colfax.

An Illinois Democratic paper, speaks of Grant as the "butcher" and Lee as "our noble old warrior," in the same sentence.

Candidates.

TO THE VOTERS OF MONROE COUNTY.

FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS,—I offer myself as a candidate for the office of SHERIFF of Monroe County, at the approaching October election. Tunkhannock township has never yet had any county office bestowed upon any of its citizens, although the township is Democratic almost to a man. Being fully sustained by the citizens of said township for the office of Sheriff, I hope the voters of the other townships of Monroe will take favorable notice of this fact and give Tunkhannock township her dues. If elected, I pledge myself to discharge the duties of said office with fidelity, impartiality, and to the best of my ability. PETER MERWINE, Jr. Tunkhannock, Sept. 24, 1868.

To the Voters of Monroe County.

FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS: I offer myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Monroe County, at an ensuing October election. If elected I pledge myself to perform the duties of the office personally, impartially, and to the best of my ability. WILLIAM McNEAL. Hamilton tsp., 17, 1868.—te.

Woman.

FEMALES, OWING TO THE PECULIAR and important relations which they sustain, their peculiar organization, and the offices they perform, are subject to many sufferings. Freedom from these contribute in no small degree to their happiness and welfare, for none can be happy who are ill.—Not only so, but no one of these various female complaints can long be suffered to run on without involving the general health of the individual, and ere long producing permanent sickness and premature decline.—Nor is it pleasant to consult a physician for the relief of those various delicate affections, and only upon the most urgent necessity will a true woman so far sacrifice her greatest charm as to do this. The sex will then thank us for placing in their hands simple specifics which will be found efficacious in relieving and curing almost every one of those troublesome complaints peculiar to the sex.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT OF BUCHU.—Hundreds suffer on in silence, and hundreds of others apply vainly to druggists and doctors, who either merely tantalize them with the hope of a cure or apply remedies which make them worse. I would not wish to assert anything that would do injustice to the afflicted, but I am obliged to say that although it may be produced from excessive exhaustion of the powers of life, by laborious employment, unwholesome air and food, profuse menstruation, the use of tea and coffee, and frequent childbirth, it is far oftener caused by direct irritation, applied to the mucus membrane of the vagina itself.

When reviewing the causes of these distressing complaints, it is most painful to contemplate the attendant evils consequent upon them. It is but simple justice to the subject to enumerate a few of the many additional causes which so largely affect the life, health and happiness of woman in all classes of society, and which, consequently, affect more or less directly, the welfare of the entire human family. The main cause that exists for precocious education and marriage, causes the years that nature designed for corporeal development to be wasted and perverted in the restraints of dress, the early confinement of school, and especially in the unhealthy excitement of the ball-room. Thus, with the body half-clothed, and the mind unduly excited by pleasure, perverting in midnight revel the hours designed by nature for sleep and rest, the work of destruction is half accomplished.

In consequence of this early strain upon her system, unnecessary effort is required by the delicate votary to retain her situation in school at a later day, thus aggravating the evil. When one excitement is over, another in prospective keeps the mind morbidly sensitive to impression, while the now constant restraint of fashionable dress, absolutely forbidding the exercise indispensable to the attainment and retention of organic health and strength; the exposure to night air; the sudden change of temperature; the complete prostration produced by excessive dancing, must, of necessity, produce their legitimate effect. At last an early marriage caps the climax of misery, and the unfortunate one, hitherto so utterly regardless of the plain dictates and remonstrances of her delicate nature, becomes the unwilling subject of medical treatment. This is but a truthful picture of the experience of thousands of our young women.

Long before the ability to exercise the functions of the generative organs, they require an education of their peculiar nervous system, composed of what is called the tissue which is, in common with the female breast and lips, evidently under the control of mental emotions and associations at an early period of life; and, as we shall subsequently see, these emotions, when excessive, lead, long before puberty, to habits which sap the very life of their victims ere nature has self-completed their development.

For Female Weakness and Debility, Whites or Leucorrhoea, Too profuse Menstruation, Too Long Continued Periods, for Prolapsus and Bearing Down, or Prolapsus Uteri, we offer the most perfect specific known: HELMHOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF BUCHU. Directions for use, diet, and advice accompany.

Females in every period of life, from infancy to extreme old age, will find it a remedy to aid nature in the discharge of its functions. Strength is the glory of manhood and womanhood. HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron, infinitely safer, and more pleasant. HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, having received the endorsement of the most prominent physicians in the United States, is now offered to afflicted humanity as a certain cure for the following diseases and symptoms, from whatever cause originating: General Debility, Mental, and Physical Depression, Inebriety, Determination of Blood to the Head, Confused Ideas, Hysteria, General Irritability, Restlessness and Sleeplessness at Night, Absence of Muscular Efficiency, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, Law Spirts, Disorganization or Paralysis of the Organs of Generation, Palpitation of the Heart, and, in fact, all the concomitants of a Nervous and Debilitated state of the system. To insure the genuine, cut this out. Ask for HELMHOLD'S. Take no other. Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere. Price $1.25 per bottle, or six bottles for $6.50.—Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications. Address H. T. HELMHOLD, Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, N. Y. NONE ARE GENUINE UNLESS DONE UP IN steel-engraved wrapper, with fac-simile of my Chemical Warehouse, and signed H. T. HELMHOLD.
