

The Jeffersonian

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1868.

FOR PRESIDENT, ULYSSES S. GRANT, OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, SCHUYLER COLFAX, OF INDIANA.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET. FOR AUDITOR-GENERAL, GEN. JOHN F. HARTRAFT.

Republican County Ticket. FOR CONGRESS, Hon. JOHN TORREY, of Wayne Co.

THE PALM OF SUPERIORITY IS AWARDED TO MRS. S. A. ALLEN for her Improved (new style) HAIR RESTORER or DRESSING.

See Bunch of Grapes. On Standard in another column. SPEER'S STANDARD WINE BITTERS is highly recommended by physicians for Dyspepsia.

Meeting at Snyder'sville. Wm. Davis, Esq., of this borough, will speak to the people at SNYDER'SVILLE, on Thursday evening, October 8th.

Reader, Saturday is the last day on which you can be assessed, so as to assure your vote.

See advertisement in another column of Dr. Bobb's celebrated Horse Powder, an excellent remedy for Galls, Cuts, &c.

The Right Rev. Bishop Stevens, D. D., of the Protestant Episcopal Church, will hold services in this borough, on Sunday, the 15th of October.

Ecclesiastical. The Presbytery of Newton will hold its next semi-annual meeting, in the Presbyterian Church of Middle Smithfield, on Tuesday next, October 6th.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Dr. Taylor's Olive Branch Bitters. The great demand for these Bitters has induced the proprietor to bring them more extensively before the people.

Church Notice. The pews of the New Presbyterian Church will be disposed of, on Friday, October 9th, when all persons wishing them, and who are interested in the welfare of the church, will be present at the audience Room, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

By order of Trustees, ROBERT BROWN, President.

The New Presbyterian Church, being completed, will be dedicated on Thursday, October 8th, at 2 o'clock P. M. Sermon by Rev. John Hall, D. D., of New York City.

A general invitation is given and urged on all our citizens.

Real Estate Sales.

Mr. George L. Walker, Real Estate Broker, reports the following sales made by him lately:

M. R. Brown's Farm of 51 Acres, in Stroud township, to Mrs. Maria Shay, of N. York.

Fred. Fable's Farm of 30 acres, in Bartonville, to Adam Good, of Elizabeth, N. J., for $1,200.

Fred. Fable's Store and Dwelling on Main street, to Gerry Walker of New York, for $3,500.

Reuben R. Cress's Brick House and lot, to T. Kelly, of Dutchess Co., N. Y., for $1,900.

Republican reader, if you have a friend who is doubting or hesitating, no matter what his former political predilections were, be at him early, late and all the time until you convert him to the true faith and bring him to a sense of his duty.

We give, in another column a correct and graphic account of the murder at the Water Gap, from the pen of an esteemed correspondent residing at the Gap.

The Republican Meeting.

How gallant to Democracy must have been the contrast between the meeting of their own party, on Monday, and that of the Republicans at the Court House on Tuesday evening.

The Speakers were men who had their hearts in the work, and justice for their themes; and such speaking and such enthusiasm are seldom heard or seen as was heard and seen in the Court House on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Cragin, was followed by Col. Wm. H. Armstrong and Wm. H. Thompson, Esq. of Easton, both of whom acquitted themselves nobly in response to calls made upon them.

The following were the officers of the meeting: President, Edward L. Wolf; Vice Presidents, Jacob H. Fetherman, Wm. H. Rinehart, Simon Gruber, Wilson Kistler, Perry Price, Jno. V. Shoemaker and E. R. Gearhart; Secretaries, Thomas A. Bell and Jackson Lantz.

Burglary. On Thursday night last an attempt was made to rob J. S. Williams & Co's. Liquor Store. The Burglars effected an entrance into the cellar of the building, but did not succeed in getting further, and failed to secure any valuables.

On the same night Matlack's Hardware Store was broken into, and an over-coat, a lot of chisels, a lot of cutlery and several dollars in money taken.

The enthusiasm of the Democracy had a queer way of showing itself on Monday. It operated very peculiarly, spreading some Democrats out under shade trees, others behind store-boxes, others in fence corners, and several in the public highway.

Our neighbor said, in his Democrat, a few weeks ago, that General Grant was a notorious drunkard.

The September term of Court commenced on Monday. In the absence of Judge Barrett, Judge Sireener, of the Susquehanna District, is conducting the business of the Court, assisted by A. associates Levering and De Young.

There are a number of Democrats all over our County who don't want to vote against Gen. Grant.

Extensively Used. The almost universal adoption of Speer's Wine, by the Medical faculty, in preference to all other wines, is the best guarantee which the public can have of its purity and beneficial effects upon the human system.

Our Fur Traders and Trappers in fitting out here, find Ayer's medicines one of their most profitable articles of traffic.

When the Democratic pot boils, rebel Generals and other scum come to the surface.

The Democratic Meeting.

Of all the grand fizzes that our County ever witnessed, the meetings of the Democracy, on Monday last, afternoon and evening, were the grandest.

The Hon. Montgomery Blair, and Gen. Davis, were the only speakers from abroad present. The former addressed the meeting in the forenoon, and the latter in the evening; and from the manner in which they labored, and the spirit in which their remarks were received, it was evident that Democracy in this campaign is an up-hill business.

While Gen. Grant was in command at Cairo in 1862-63, he incurred the deadly hostility of the army contractors by his attempt to stop waste and extravagance, and introduce square and honest management.

Just Come to Light. Hon. Leonard Myers, in a speech in Philadelphia on Tuesday evening, made the following statement: "The vilest thing yet is the attempt to fasten on General Grant the responsibility for the starvation of our prisoners, and to do it they call on the rebel General Ould, who even intimates that their prisoners were treated no better."

The Way it operates. During the war every rebel victory cent up the price of gold, and every Union victory caused it to fall.

When the Democratic Convention met gold sold for 140. As soon as Seymour was nominated it rose to 143; as soon as his letter of acceptance was published it rose to 149.

The "Johnny Rebs" have fallen back upon Pennsylvania since the Maine election, and are calling in re-inforcements from Maryland to help them carry this State.

The "Johnny Rebs" have fallen back upon Pennsylvania since the Maine election, and are calling in re-inforcements from Maryland to help them carry this State.

The "Johnny Rebs" have fallen back upon Pennsylvania since the Maine election, and are calling in re-inforcements from Maryland to help them carry this State.

The "Johnny Rebs" have fallen back upon Pennsylvania since the Maine election, and are calling in re-inforcements from Maryland to help them carry this State.

The "Johnny Rebs" have fallen back upon Pennsylvania since the Maine election, and are calling in re-inforcements from Maryland to help them carry this State.

The "Johnny Rebs" have fallen back upon Pennsylvania since the Maine election, and are calling in re-inforcements from Maryland to help them carry this State.

The "Johnny Rebs" have fallen back upon Pennsylvania since the Maine election, and are calling in re-inforcements from Maryland to help them carry this State.

The "Johnny Rebs" have fallen back upon Pennsylvania since the Maine election, and are calling in re-inforcements from Maryland to help them carry this State.

A WATER GAP TRAGEDY!

One man slain and another seriously wounded!—A community in arms to arrest the perpetrators!—Unbounded excitement!

DELE. WATER GAP, Saturday Sept. 26.

About half past ten o'clock in the forenoon of yesterday, Friday, a terrible occurrence took place, on the public highway a few rods below the Kittatinny House, Delaware Water Gap.

Thomas Brodhead sat, bleeding, his face almost entirely covered with blood and wounds. He was still able to speak. The murderers had perpetrated their fiendish deed and fled down the road towards the mountains.

On searching them it was found they threw away their pistols and had very little about their persons, except some pocket knives, stolen from a hardware store in Stroudsburg the night before.

The fellows gave their names as William Brooks and Charles Orme, one a Scotch and the other an Englishman. It seems they came down the rail road from Stroudsburg and just above Water Gap, seeing a village, nestled against the hills, thought there might be a speculation there suitable to their occupation, aimed for it.

Brooks and Charles Orme, one a Scotch and the other an Englishman. It seems they came down the rail road from Stroudsburg and just above Water Gap, seeing a village, nestled against the hills, thought there might be a speculation there suitable to their occupation, aimed for it.

Brooks and Charles Orme, one a Scotch and the other an Englishman. It seems they came down the rail road from Stroudsburg and just above Water Gap, seeing a village, nestled against the hills, thought there might be a speculation there suitable to their occupation, aimed for it.

Brooks and Charles Orme, one a Scotch and the other an Englishman. It seems they came down the rail road from Stroudsburg and just above Water Gap, seeing a village, nestled against the hills, thought there might be a speculation there suitable to their occupation, aimed for it.

Brooks and Charles Orme, one a Scotch and the other an Englishman. It seems they came down the rail road from Stroudsburg and just above Water Gap, seeing a village, nestled against the hills, thought there might be a speculation there suitable to their occupation, aimed for it.

Brooks and Charles Orme, one a Scotch and the other an Englishman. It seems they came down the rail road from Stroudsburg and just above Water Gap, seeing a village, nestled against the hills, thought there might be a speculation there suitable to their occupation, aimed for it.

To see on the increase, and for which they pray. The funeral services were very impressive; conducted by Rev. Messrs. Pierce, Everitt and Pitts.

TANNERSVILLE, PENNA. } Sept. 29th, 1868. }

To the Editor of the Jeffersonian:

I am informed, through a reliable source, that a certain portion of the Democracy met on Saturday last, in our quiet little village, to make a flag to be borne by them to the great Democratic charivari held in your town yesterday afternoon.

I am sorry—yes, more—I am ashamed to say that among all present, not a single man of them was acquainted with the colors which are comprised in the flag of our country; that glorious banner which, unfurled in the days of the immortal WASHINGTON, has been carried and protected to the present day.

Having purchased the material and assembled together, these Democratic wisecracks proceeded with their endeavors to make the, to them unknown, flag. After laboring for some time, they got together a something, which, I doubt not sent a thrill of joy through their Democratic hearts.

After the soldier had pointed out the error, and the rebel Democracy discovered that their labor was in vain, they went to work again, but, this time, kept the soldier with them as a guide to the accomplishment of their object, which really was to make an American flag.

After the soldier had pointed out the error, and the rebel Democracy discovered that their labor was in vain, they went to work again, but, this time, kept the soldier with them as a guide to the accomplishment of their object, which really was to make an American flag.

After the soldier had pointed out the error, and the rebel Democracy discovered that their labor was in vain, they went to work again, but, this time, kept the soldier with them as a guide to the accomplishment of their object, which really was to make an American flag.

After the soldier had pointed out the error, and the rebel Democracy discovered that their labor was in vain, they went to work again, but, this time, kept the soldier with them as a guide to the accomplishment of their object, which really was to make an American flag.

After the soldier had pointed out the error, and the rebel Democracy discovered that their labor was in vain, they went to work again, but, this time, kept the soldier with them as a guide to the accomplishment of their object, which really was to make an American flag.

After the soldier had pointed out the error, and the rebel Democracy discovered that their labor was in vain, they went to work again, but, this time, kept the soldier with them as a guide to the accomplishment of their object, which really was to make an American flag.

MISCELLANEOUS.

"Vote only for such men as were loyal to their country in 1861."—GEN. GRANT.

Iowa promises fifty-thousand majority for Grant and Colfax.

The President has ordered U. S. troops to Tennessee to aid the civil authorities in the execution of the laws.

Grant's election to the Presidency will furnish another convincing proof that "Republicans are not ungrateful."

The issue developed itself in Maine, last week. The repudiationists were repudiated in "thunder tones."

A Democratic procession out west was twelve hours passing a given point—the given point was a drinking saloon.

Piece makers—the "Pine-tree" boys down East; judging from the way they "silvered" Seymour's friends.

The "Huge-est Joke" of the season the attempt of the Cops to figure up a gain for their party in Vermont and Maine.

Republicans! remember that you must be assessed at least ten days before the election or you cannot vote. Attend to this duty now.

Wonder if those "Caps" are still "alive and kicking," since they heard from Maine? Poor fellows! they'll soon "kick the bucket," too.

During the rebellion Seymour preferred slavery to his country. The rebellion crushed and slavery dead, the country has no need of Seymour.

An Oregon paper offers as an explanation of sentence, "S. T.—1860—X," the following Democracy, the S—me T—hing as in 1860—X—nely.

The Vermont and Maine boys seem to have a "policy"—the "policy of laying out Cops and Rebels. A hem! Did you hear anything dry?

In a Democratic procession in Washington, last week, was a banner inscribed "Seymour holds no bonds." The procession was mostly made up of rebels.

"Defend nothing!" is the cry of the demoralized Democracy. "Defend everything!" say we, "our country—our past our policy. Our record is our pride."

The World's cheering editorials on the election returns may be very properly called Copperhead cocktails, a refreshing morning beverage for gold spirited Democrats.

The Legislature of Alabama is in session for the purpose of providing a system of registration for legal voters. The rebels down there object, as they did in Pennsylvania.

Mr Nicholas Bratt, aged 90, of Easton, Washington county, New York, with his seven sons, seven grandsons, and five great grandsons, will vote for Grant in November.

Farmers of Pennsylvania, a vote for Democratic ticket in October and November is a vote to tax your own farms.—Read the fourth resolution of the national platform adopted at New York.

Candidates.

County Commissioner. The undersigned hereby offers himself as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, at the coming election. Should he be elected, he pledges himself to perform the duties of the office with fidelity.

JOHN D. FRALLEY. Jackson-tp., October 1, 1868.

TO THE VOTERS OF MONROE COUNTY.

FRIENDS AND FELLOW-CITIZENS.—I offer myself as a candidate for the office of SHERIFF of Monroe County, at the approaching October election.

Tunkhannock township has never yet had any county office bestowed upon any of its citizens, although the township is Democratic almost to a man.

Being fully sustained by the citizens of said township for the office of Sheriff, I hope the voters of the other townships of Monroe will take favorable notice of this fact and give Tunkhannock township their dues.

If elected, I pledge myself to discharge the duties of said office with fidelity, impartiality, and to the best of my ability. PETER MERWINE, JR. Tunkhannock, Sept. 24, 1868.

TO THE VOTERS OF MONROE COUNTY.

FRIENDS AND FELLOW CITIZENS: I offer myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Monroe County, at an ensuing October election.

If elected I pledge myself to perform the duties of the office personally, impartially, and to the best of my ability. WILLIAM McNEAL. Hamilton tp., 17, 1868.—to.

TO THE VOTERS OF MONROE COUNTY.

FRIENDS AND FELLOW CITIZENS:—I offer myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Monroe County, at the ensuing October election.

If elected I pledge myself to perform the duties of the office personally, impartially, and to the best of my ability. REUBEN KRESGE. Pleasant Valley, Sept. 10, 1868.

TO THE VOTERS OF MONROE COUNTY.

FRIENDS AND FELLOW CITIZENS.—I offer myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Monroe County, at the approaching October election.

If elected, I pledge myself to perform the duties of said office personally, with fidelity, impartially, and to the best of my ability. JOHN E. SNYDER. Stroudsburg, Sept. 3, 1868.

Sheriff.

The undersigned hereby offers himself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff, at the coming election. Should he be elected, he pledges himself to perform the duties of the office with fidelity.

ABRAHAM GISH. Paradise Township, Aug. 27, 1868.

County Commissioner.

The undersigned hereby offers himself as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, at the coming election. Should he be elected, he pledges himself to perform the duties of the office with fidelity.

TIMOTHY VAN WHY. Stroudsburg, Aug. 10th, 1868.—to.

Table with 2 columns: For, Against. Rows: Republicans (43, 55), Democrats (45, 2), Total (88, 57).

The majority of the Republicans against, and nearly every Democrat for, gold to the bondholders. And now they blame Republicans for insisting that the Republic shall not be dishonored by repudiating the plighted faith of the Nation, made by Democratic votes?

The way the Democrats gained their "victory" in Maine was this: The Republicans increased their majority from 11,000 to 18,000 or 20,000; made a clean sweep of the whole State, and all their candidates except about one in eight of the members of the lower house of the Legislature, and the Democrats lost the only three counties which belonged to them last year!

The Ku-Klux of Alabama have made haste to prove to the world that the Governor and Legislature are right in calling upon the President for troops. They have just mustered in force near Tusculum, overpowered the officers of the law, and hung three negroes.