Itch! Itch! Itch!
SCRATCH! SCRATCH! SCRATCH!

HOLLINSHEAD'S ITCH & SALT RHEUM OINTMENT.
No family should be without this valuable medicine, for on the first appearance of the disorder on the wrists, between the fingers, &c., a slight application of the Ointment will cure it, and prevent its being taken by others.
Warranted to give satisfaction or money refunded.
Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, by
W. HOLLINSHEAD,
Stroudsburg, Oct. 31, '67. Druggist.

J. LANTZ, DENTIST.

Has permanently located himself in Stroudsburg, and moved his office next door to Dr. S. Walton, where he is fully prepared to treat the natural teeth, and also to insert imperishable artificial teeth on pivot and plate, in the latest and most improved manner. Most persons know the danger and folly of trusting their work to the ignorant as well as the traveling dentist. It matters not how much experience a person may have, he is liable to have some failures out of a number of cases, and if the dentist lives at a distance it is frequently put off until it is too late to save the tooth or teeth as it may be, other wise the inconvenience and trouble of going so far. Hence the necessity of obtaining the services of a dentist near home. All work warranted.

ATTEST.—W. E. DOSTER, Register,
September 17, 1868.—3.

We affectionately invite the attention of the "plowholders" to the delinquencies of their champions. It is dreadful, we are told, to pay the "bloated bondholders" in gold, while the "plowholders" must needs be content with shillings. We must elect Pendleton's candidate on Pendleton's platform, and this monstrous injustice shall be corrected. But some wretch, with a cold blooded fancy for dry facts, has been burrowing among the Yeas and Nays in The Congressional Globe, whence he extracts the shocking piece of information that Mr. George H. Pendleton voted to pay the bloated bondholder his interest in gold; and that Messrs. Clement L. Vallandigham and Daniel W. Voorhees aided and abetted the same iniquity. Alas and alackaday! whom shall we trust?

The Ohio State Journal of last Friday says "The State is certain for the Republican ticket by not less than 50,000 majority, and we shall not be surprised if it goes up to 75,000. The Democracy have long since given up all hope of doing anything more than securing perhaps two Congressmen, and even that is becoming extremely doubtful."

A correspondent at Jonesboro, Ind., writes that the State is good for 10,000 Republican majority in October, allowing all that the Democrats claim for Ku-Klux importations.

The Republican who don't go to the polls on Tuesday, fails in his duty.

The Sabbath of Nature.
BY A. B. BURRELL.
Now o'er the mountain pile of green—
Which Spring and Summer wrought between—
The tinted tree-tops, here and there,
Pressage that change, which, everywhere,
O'er mountain, valley, hill and plain,
Will soon o'erspread the scene again.
The green retires as suns return,
The nights that chill, the days that burn,
Whilst varying colors still unfold,
The yellow, purple and the gold,
The scarlet, crimson, orange, red,
Succeeding as the green has fled,
Till rain-bow-tinted, glowing bright,
The mountain stands, in heaven's light,
A thing of beauty and of joy,
Where death is working to destroy:
How like the christian's closing day,
Effulgent with a heavenly ray.
The magic picture, brightens still
O'er mountain, plain, and mead, and hill
Until the highest, fullest touch
Of grand magnificence is such
That nature pauses, winds are still,
The river ceases, and the rill,
The birds sit motionless, nor dare
To part, with wing, the enchanted air:
No cricket's chirp, no buzz of bees,
No trembling leaf among the trees,
Till nature stands in silence sweet
Her yearly praises to repeat
With softened voice that warms and thrills
Whilst gratitude her part fulfills.
Their Indian Summer, smoke-veiled noon,
The mellow air, the harvest moon,
The Sabbath of our changing year,
The quiet time when death is near:
Where is the heart not touched by these;
The mind that here no beauty sees?
Who will not, then, with me rejoice
While listening to that winning voice
Which speaks, with tenderest, kindest lays,
To bless us on these "softened days?"
Del. Water Gap, Oct. 3d, 1868.

Democratic Frauds.

John Devine was arrested by the Philadelphia police Wednesday night for snapping a pistol at a Republican on the street. On his person were found twelve certificates of naturalization, signed by Prothonotary Snowden, with the Seal of the Court on them, but a blank left for names. He was committed.

James A. Watson, who was vouching on nearly one hundred naturalization papers in Philadelphia, has been arrested.

SIX men were arrested to-day for attempting to get assessed in wards where they did not live, with the intention of duplicating their votes. The excitement in relation to naturalization papers is increasing. From an examination of the records in Court, it appears that of some thousands of papers were issued, the rest of the persons vouching for the deuces applicants were in no instance taken down, so that the record of the Court is unless in any attempt to prosecute a voucher for perjury in cases of fraud.

Tax Payers bear in mind that the increased expenditure in the Land Office for extra temporary clerks, about which the Democratic papers howl, was recommended by General Barr, a Democratic Surveyor General, and that under General Campbell's energetic administration the work for which they were authorized has been nearly accomplished, and that the Department will yield a very large revenue to the State for years to come.—And the expense of administering it after this year will be less because the extraordinary work will have been done by General Campbell.

The Mobile Register exhorts its disciples to deal with the Republicans after this fashion: "They are dogs and should be treated as dogs, dogs only tolerated now because the power of the sword is in the hands of our enemies in Congress, but will not be tolerated one hour after the people recover the liberty to do justice upon their oppressors. It is the duty of every Southern man to cut these vermin. Excommunicate them; spew them out as outcasts and social pariahs, with whom it is disgraceful to hold social intercourse."
It has been reserved for the Republican party to pay the debts either contracted or caused by the Democratic leaders.—John F. Hartranft, as Auditor General, has been reducing the debt of Pennsylvania, accumulated by the Democratic administrations which held power in the State, at the rate of a quarter of a million annually. Defeat Hartranft, and our debt, under Democratic rule, will accumulate, instead of decrease, at that rate annually.

The people should not lose sight of the importance of keeping an experienced officer at the head of the Land Department, for it is one of the most intricate connected with the State Government, and the rights of parties may be seriously affected by an inexperienced officer. Gen. Campbell is an experienced officer, and honest men of all parties bear testimony that they receive equal and exact justice at his hands.

Tax Payers and farmers interested in the promotion of agriculture, remember that through the energy and business qualifications of Gen. Jacob M. Campbell, a larger aggregate price per acre was obtained for the Agricultural Collage Land Scrip sold by this State than was obtained by the other States that sold about the same time. Democratic authority can be cited in substantiation of this fact.

The Opposition papers, knowing Gen. Campbell's strength and that he has been the most efficient Surveyor General the State has had, for years, have undertaken to break him down in the confidence of the people by the basest kind of misrepresentation. We, therefore, ask that this kind of electioneering be hurled back by the reelection of this tried public servant by an increased majority.

Voters remember that the administration of the Land Office by Gen. Campbell, has been a live one, characterized by a determination to serve the people. For their accommodation additional forms, to enable them to deal with the office without the expense of an agent, were added to the last report.

The Pittsburg Gazette says: The Republican majority on Hartranft and Campbell, in the counties of Pennsylvania on the west side of the Alleghenies, will not be less than 15,000, and may amount to 18,000. Whatever it may be, it will be just about the Republican majority in the entire State, the Eastern counties being balanced between parties.

Tax Payers and voters bear in mind that more work has been done in the Land Department for less expense under Gen. Campbell's administration than during any administration for years. System and industry characterize his administration of the office.

Land-holders and farmers if you want patents for your lands made out with neatness and correctness, vote for General Jacob M. Campbell, the present experienced and faithful Surveyor General. Remember that an error or omission in official papers may cause a lawsuit hereafter.

Watch the Democracy on Tuesday.

The last number of The Covington (Ga.) Examiner contains the announcement that "two carpetbag school teachers, Lee and Hammond," having "received a gentle admonition that their valuable services might possibly be more appreciated in some other latitude, took an affectionate adieu of their associates, and on Monday last turned their faces toward Mason and Dixon's Line." This is a roundabout way of stating that the Democrats of Covington threatened to mob these persons if they did not leave the county. Their crime was—teaching the colored children the simplest rudiments of education.—This the Covington Democrats do not consider a "legitimate avocation."

The Richmond Whig, alarmed at the tone of the speeches delivered by Wade Hampton, Howell Cobb, Ben. Hill, Robert Toombs and other reconstructed rebels, says: "It has reached us in a very direct way that Mr. Seymour has expressed the opinion that a certain speech of a distinguished Southerner cost the Democratic party of the North 200,000 votes. Better not say anything than use language that only exasperates and strengthens our enemies."

Washington fought and won the battles of the Revolution, and was made President. Jackson fought and won the battles of the second War for Independence, and was made President. Taylor fought and won our battles in the war with Mexico, and was made President.—Grant fought and won our battles in the overthrow of the slaveholders' rebellion, and why should he be made an exception to the rule? He won't be!

The Democratic party boast of having controlled the country for thirty years.—The rebellion underwent an incubation of thirty years. When that party could no longer rule, it resolved to ruin. We are now reaping the harvest of its tender ministrations in a load of debt which the treason of its members forced upon loyal men.

The Congressmen assembled at Washington are receiving good news from the South. They are told North Carolina, Alabama, and Louisiana may already be considered perfectly safe for Grant and Colfax; and that the Georgia negroes—quite naturally—are less disposed than of late to co-operate with their "old friends and masters."

Make a note of it and vote accordingly that the administration of Gen. Campbell has brought up the unfinished business of all his predecessors in the Land Office, and that the people will be incalculably benefitted by this work in perfecting the titles to their land and the State Treasury enriched by over a million of dollars.

Remember that the only fund the Surveyor General controls is a small sum, appropriated annually for contingent expenses and that of this fund, according to the showing of the opposition, General Campbell expended nearly $500 a year less than his Democratic predecessor.

Fair men of the Democratic party have borne testimony that connected drafts, copies of surveys, and all other official documents obtained from the Surveyor General's Office, during the administration of Gen. Campbell, with more neatness correctness and promptness than heretofore.

Tax Payers remember that the administration of General Campbell will save the State Treasury about $20,000 this year by transcribing the list of Liens under act of 4th of April, 1868.

The Chester County Journal published at Downingtown, heretofore a neutral paper, has hoisted the Grant and Colfax, Hartranft and Campbell flag and is doing good service in the Republican cause.

The latest from Maine gives a Democratic gain of 100 per cent in the town of Pekin. Last year there was one Democratic vote cast there and this year it reached exactly two. Hurrah for Pekin!

Bear in mind that, except Gen Grant had conquered the rebellion, there had been no President of the United States to elect. The office belongs to Grant, therefore, on principles of commonest gratitude.

The "speech" from Vermont and Maine, "is marked by that force and candor and fairness" which is unmistakable in a patriotic and determined people.—So you better stand from under, Messrs. Cops.

We asked an old resident if he saw the Democratic procession on Saturday evening. He replied: "I saw a long procession of Gen Grant's parolees—is that what you refer to?"—New Orleans Republican.

Francis M. Kimmel is the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Franklin District. He was the first Northern man to surrender a town to the rebels during the late Democratic rebellion. His opponent is John Cassma, who was loyal throughout the whole war.

Mr. James Cooper, of Newport, Ky., was stabbed and seriously wounded because he had shouted for Grant in response to rebel's hurrah for Seymour and Blair. The same over-zealous Democrats stabbed Mr. Wm H. Adams in the abdomen, inflicting a mortal wound.

Thirty Thousand Women in the Hop Fields.
It is estimated that thirty thousand women are now engaged in picking hops in the state of Wisconsin. Immense trains of cars were required to convey them to the hop picking region, and the scene as thousands of women were landing at the depot were novel and picturesque in the extreme: At least ten thousand passed through Portage City.—Alcool paper describes the advent of the merry crowd as follows:

"The first installment by cars, some three hundred, came last Thursday evening. Wednesday evening nearly one thousand came. Thursday and Friday evening each five or six hundred. Saturday afternoon it was rumored that a very large number were on the way, and the rumor was corroborated by the great number of teams that seemed to be in waiting.—About train time—half past seven—probably one thousand persons had collected at the depot to witness the arrival. It was then found that the cars were two hours behind time, and that instead of one train, two were coming with twenty-eight cars loaded. When the two hours were up, the crowd at the depot had increased; and this with the acres of two and four-horse wagons, about the depot and the music and fun of the merry drivers, formed no small preliminary show of itself. But as the two trains came thundering along, and as they stretched themselves away beyond and away back of the depot and stopped, excitement was on tip-toe. And when two thousand pickers began to pour out of every door of those twenty-eight cars, the scene beat all other western shows. Cheering, laughing, singing, shouting! Admirable confusion—no disorder. Sections of tens, platoons of twenties, companies of forties, all offered, moving in every possible direction; corporals guiding their squads; captains giving orders to their companies; marching and countermarching—direct and in echelon—forming camp and breaking camp; armed and equipped with umbrellas, parasols, satchels, baskets, hand boxes, bags, bundles, babies! Teamsters shouting for their loads—rush for the wagons—tumbling in! all formed a scene to beat any army camp or movement.—We can't do justice to the subject.

"But great as was the display on Saturday evening, it was more than matched on Monday evening! We have no means of knowing exactly how many came on the two trains, but from the best information we can get, we put the number at twenty-five hundred.

Insult to Soldiers.
Wm. A. Wallace has written a letter insulting the Boys in Blue, insinuating that the meeting in Philadelphia is only to colonize soldiers there, for the purpose of casting fraudulent votes. This Wallace was cheered by Copperheads in Wilkes-Barre at the County Convention. He is Chairman of their State Committee, and used the coffee-colored fraudulent naturalization papers made in Luzerne, with the seal of the court stolen from Philbin and left Philbin to bear the blame. He is a pretty fellow to talk to loyal men about frauds. He paid to get a witness out of the way of the courts, and another witness was murdered by his friends on his way from court.

If the people had not determined to leave the party, Wallace would not have been continued another year on the State Committee—a position, by the way, it is notorious he is using for no other purpose than, in case the Democrats carry the Legislature, to beat Buckalew and elect himself U. S. Senator.

DIX.
St. Louis Republican tries to break the force of General Dix's letter by saying that "General Dix has not acted with the Democratic party proper since the war began in 1861." That is perfectly true. From the moment the war began, General Dix has been on the side of his country; and of course he could not act with the Democratic party. That party was either actively aiding the rebellion in the field, or giving it aid and comfort by its political action at the North. It was opposing the Government—denouncing the war as unjust and unconstitutional—resisting the draft—assailing the public credit, and in every conceivable way crippling its endeavors to suppress the rebellion. As a matter of course, General Dix did not act with it.

We met Gov. Curtin in town on Saturday. He was just from the backwoods of York county, Pa., where he saw a procession of Grant voters some three miles in length. He says the Keystone State will give such a majority for the Republicans in October as will crush the hope out of all opposition to Grant in November, who, he predicts, will then carry the State by not less than 50,000. He does not regard the canvass as the work of politicians, but of the people, who are determined to have Grant and peace.—Swa.

The World of Tuesday very frankly said that American "bonds might approximate par abroad, but for a lurking fear that some day the Southern whites in a vengeful remembrance of what this debt was contracted for, may vote its solid masses for its destruction." This is perfectly true. And it is one of the principal reasons why the American people will never permit the Democratic repudiationists to obtain control of the American Government.
