Itch! Itch! Itch!
SCRATCH! SCRATCH! SCRATCH!

HOLLINSHEAD'S ITCH & SALT RHEUM OINTMENT.
No family should be without this valuable medicine, for on the first appearance of the disorder on the wrists, between the fingers, &c., a slight application of the Ointment will cure it, and prevent its being taken by others.
Warranted to give satisfaction or money refunded.
Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, by
W. HOLLINSHEAD,
Stroudsburg, Oct. 31, '67. Druggist.

J. LANTZ, DENTIST.
Has permanently located himself in Stroudsburg, and moved his office next door to Dr. S. Walton, where he is fully prepared to treat the natural teeth, and also to insert incorruptible artificial teeth on pivot and plate, in the latest and most improved manner. Most persons know the danger and folly of trusting their work to the ignorant as well as the traveling dentist. It matters not how much experience a person may have, he is liable to have some failures out of a number of cases, and if the dentist lives at a distance it is frequently put off until it is too late to save the teeth or teeth as it may be, other wise the inconvenience and trouble of going so far. Hence the necessity of obtaining the services of a dentist near home. All work warranted.

The Tanner Boy.

BY W. B. COATS.

AIR—"When Johnny comes marching Home."

For honest Grant we all should fight,
Cheer up! Cheer up!
The man is true, our cause is right,
Cheer up! Cheer up!
The men will march, the bands will play,
The people right, will have their way.
And the times surely will be good,
When the Tanner Boy gets home.

The public bells will loudly ring,
Cheer up! Cheer up!
The white and black men gladly sing,
Cheer up! Cheer up!
The sun will rise in beauty bright,
To shine on all that time makes right,
And the times surely will be good,
When the Tanner boy gets home.

The rebels want to rule, they say,
Cheer up! Cheer up!
And traitor Blair will have his way,
Cheer up! Cheer up!
But forty-thousand steady men
Out-vote them in the State of Penn,
And the times surely will be good
When the Tanner Boy gets home.

So get the White House in repair,
Cheer up! Cheer up!
The Tanner Boy will soon be there,
Cheer up! Cheer up!
Now work with might in sun and rain,
And tan the traitors o'er again,
And the times surely will be good
When the Tanner Boy gets home.

NOTE.—In singing repeat the last two lines of each verse.

The Tribune contains the following pertinent caution: Our friends in Pennsylvania are in campaign with laudable enthusiasm; but while the marching, and meetings, and music are all excellent in their way, we advise the Republicans of that State to keep a sharp eye on Wallace's Democratic Coffee Pot. There is no knowing where this handy utensil may be set up this year; but after the lamentable exposure of Mr. Wallace coffee-making in the XXth Senate District, we fancy he will cook no more coffee there for the present. He may, however, resume his culinary operations somewhere else, and steep naturalization papers into a sere and yellow antiquity in other quarters. Wherever the Democratic State Central Committee may undertake to "do or dye," we hope the Republican detectives will be after them.

Attention, Farmers!
In regard to taxation, the Fourth resolution of the Democratic platform, adopted by the New York Convention, promises:
"Equal taxation of every species of property, according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities."
That is to say, land must be taxed, as well as other property. Elect Seymour and Blair and every acre of your farm will be taxed. And the taxes will be laid, not according to the county assessments—say one-fourth or one-fifth of the value—but according to the real value, as Seymour and Blair contend for.
One would suppose that very few farmers could be induced to vote the Democratic ticket this fall. We shall see how it will be.

A Somerset county, New Jersey, hotel keeper, a prominent Democrat, on visiting Newark lately, stated that upwards of thirty of his personal Democratic friends had turned their backs on Seymour and Blair, and had resolved to vote for Grant and Colfax. On being asked why he didn't also change his colors replied, "That's just what I'm thinking about." Yes, surely, the "side" is on the increase, when they come over to Grant and Colfax by thirties and fifties and hundreds.

Would it not be well for the Copperhead grumblers at the increase of the debt to bear in mind the testimony of Mr. McCulloch, an ardent friend of Blair and Seymour, who said in his report at the close of last year that the debt had then been reduced since September 30, 1865, $266,185,251! This evidence may not, perhaps, be sufficient for Republican use, but it ought to be conclusive against Copperhead.

The "Irish people" of New York the leading Irish paper of the country, under the control of John O'Mahony, of Fenian fame, last week emphatically declared for Republicanism as the future hope of the American Irishmen. He published his reasons at length why the Irish people should support Grant and Colfax.

Senator Van Winkle is on the stump for Grant and Colfax. At a meeting in Parkersburg, the other evening, he said he had been surprised at the rumor that he had left his party, which would best be answered by his appearance on that occasion as a speaker before a Grant club.

The Chester county Journal, published at Downingtown, Pa., heretofore a neutral paper, has hoisted the Grant and Colfax, Hartranft and Campbell flag, and is doing good service in the Republican cause.

Whenever a Democrat blows about taxes, ask him who made the war.

Democratic Alphabet.

A—Andersonville, a place where the Democratic rebels starved 12,000 Union prisoners to death.

B—Bull Run, the name of a battle-field where the Democratic rebels defeat the Union soldiers; the anniversary of this battle is always a source of joy to the Democrats.

Beauregard, a good Democrat, who wrote to the rebel Democratic Secretary of War, at Richmond, in 1862, that it was time to hoist the black flag, and kill the Union prisoners by the garrote.

C—Canada, an English province, from where raids were made into the United States by Democratic rebels, and a favorite resort of Northern Democrats during the draft.

Chambersburg, a town in Pennsylvania, which was nearly burned down by Democratic rebels under McCausland.

D—Jeff. Davis, the head of the Democratic rebellion.

Fort Donelson, where Grant made his first speech to the Democrats who were in possession of that place.

E—Emissaries, who were sent, during the rebellion by the Democrats to France and England to persuade those governments to help destroy our Republic.

Early, Jubal; a rebel Democratic general, who was rather roughly handled by a Union general named Phil Sheridan.

F—Forrest, the butcher of Union prisoners at Fort Pillow, is a good Democrat, and was a delegate at the Democratic Convention, New York. He it was who seconded the nomination of Frank Blair.

G—Guerrillas—Democratic partisans—who hung Union prisoners during the war, outraged the wives of the same and burned their dwellings.

Gettysburg, a beautiful town in Pennsylvania, which was made the sepulchre of Democratic hopes, in July, 1863.

H—Hunger, which Union Soldiers, as prisoners of war, were made to suffer by Democratic rebels.

Hampton, Wade; a rebel Democratic general, who was noted for the fierceness of his determination to destroy the government, and the man who dictated the chief corner stone of the platform adopted by the New York Convention, of which he was a member.

I—Indians, employed by the Democrats at Pea Ridge to scalp the Union prisoners.

J—Johnson, the renegade; a good Democrat; the author of the New Orleans massacre, in 1866, when Union men were murdered by Democratic rebels.

K—Kuklux; the name by which murdering Democratic bands are known. Many thousand Union men have already been murdered by these Democrats.

L—Lincoln, Abraham, murdered by that true Democrat, J. Wilkes Booth, because he was true to the Union.

M—Murderers were the Democrats in New York, who struck down in offensive people, burned down orphan asylums, and were addressed by the Democratic candidate for the Presidency as "my friends."

N—Nigger! nigger!! nigger!!! is one of the Democratic arguments against the party of the Union.

O—Organization and arming for a new rebellion, is the doctrine now preached by the leaders of the Democratic party.

P—Payne, one of the conspirators, and a good Democrat.

Q—Quantrell, a good Democrat, and one who during the war hung hundreds of Union soldiers, and murdered defenceless old men, women and children, and destroyed nearly the whole of the town of Lawrence, in Kansas.

R—Rebellion against liberty and humanity was the battle-cry of the Democrats in 1864, and is so again in 1868.

S—Semmes, a Democratic pirate, who burned many merchant vessels during the rebellion, and is now a leader and shining light of the party.

T—Taxes! Taxes!! Taxes!!! is one of the great words used by the Democrats, but they never say that these taxes were made by the Democratic rebellion.

U—The Union, hated only by Democrats, and Democrats were the only ones who endeavored to destroy it.

V—Vicksburg; the place where General Grant made his second speech to a Democratic mass meeting.

W—Wirz; the name of a celebrated Democrat, who was the executioner of thousands of Union soldiers.

X—The substitute for a signature, used by the majority of Democrats (who burn down negro school-houses) to make a mark, because they cannot write their names.

A Professional Naturalization Voucher.

HE MAKES A CLEAN BREAST OF IT—
PERJURY AND WHOLESALE CRIME.

James A. Watson, who has of late obtained considerable notoriety as a professional naturalization voucher, went before Alderman Thomas and made a clean breast of matters, by subscribing to the following affidavit, which fully explains itself:—

James A. Watson, a resident of Germantown, in the Twenty-second Ward of the City of Philadelphia, being duly sworn, doth depose and say that he did go to the city of Philadelphia, along with a number of persons, to be naturalized this fall, among whom was John Kiernan an Irishman by birth; that he swore he knew said Kiernan for five years, and so of several other persons; that said statement and oaths were false; that he does not know when Kiernan came to this country; that he has not known said Kiernan over two years; that he has also vouched for sundry persons from Montgomery county, nine of whom he knows; that he was told to go ahead by Henry R. Coggsall and Morris K. Pierce; that they told me (Watson) that I would come out all right; he (Coggsall, told me that the Democratic party would see me all right; I knew I was doing wrong, but did not think I could be caught; I vouched for seven or eight from Montgomery county; they gave me one dollar apiece for vouching for them; I was in Trimball's hotel, at the railroad depot, Germantown, when a party of men from Montgomery county came in: I did not know any of them; C. Manson Hocker, asked me to vouch for them; I said I would; Mr. Pierce handed me five dollars for vouching for them.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 7th day of October, 1868.

(Signed) JAMES WATSON
On the same day Thomas Condon, one of the Twenty-second Ward Democracy, was committed by Recorder Given-on the charge of perjury and a conspiracy to violate the Election laws. The testimony submitted in the case was as follows:—

Peter Harrington, being duly sworn, testified as follows:—I arrested Condon who said he was twenty-six years of age, and had come to this country five and a half years since (naturalization paper produced); I took that paper from him; he said it was his naturalization paper.

General Louis Wagner testified that the defendant told him he had been naturalized as a minor, and had come to this country five and a half years ago, and is now twenty-six years of age.

Charles R. Roberts, sworn—Corroborated the testimony of General Wagner.
The Recorder asked the prisoners if he had sought to say, and he admitted the truth of the testimony, the papers being minor papers, which require the person to be in this country when he is under eighteen years of age.

In Town.
Dr. Pritchett (better known as Josh) is in town with his exhibition of Natural Curiosities, Beasts, Birds, and Reptiles, Living Wonders, Freaks of Nature—selected and captured from all parts of the globe. "Dr. Pritchett's Show" will be on exhibition at the Fair Ground during the week—where all lovers of the wonderful will have an opportunity of seeing wonderful sights. Don't fail to give "Josh" a visit.

Salt Your Chimneys.
In building a chimney, put a quart of salt into the mortar within which the inner courses of brick are to be laid. The effects will be that there will never be any accumulation of soot in that chimney. The Philosophy is thus stated: The salt in the portion of mortar which is exposed absorbs moisture from the atmosphere every damp day. The soot becomes damp falls down to the fire-place. This appears to be an English discovery. It is used with success in Canada.

Remedy for Colic.
A subscriber of the Rural West says he relieves his horses of colic by pouring two or three buckets of cold water on their backs just forward of their hips, sometimes rubbing on salt to increase the cold, and then turning them out to roll. In some cases a second application is necessary. With him this remedy has never failed.

On a railroad train in Pennsylvania a vote of the passengers was taken, which resulted: for Grant, 66; for Seymour, 10. An old lady stopped the canvasser and remarked: "I can't vote, gentlemen, but I am going to keep one Seymour man at home."

TO KEEP BUGS OUT OF PAPERED WALLS.—An experienced paperer states, that turpentine mingled in the paste at the time of papering, is a sure remedy against the depredations of all insects.—The remedy is very simple.

TO KEEP WORMS FROM DRIED FRUIT.—Put the fruit in common muslin bags, with a little sassafras bark scattered through, a handful of bark to a bushel of fruit, and no worms will trouble it.

Developments of fraud in the granting of naturalization papers, at Easton, show that out of five hundred naturalizations granted, three hundred were illegal.

WHO MADE WAR?—Oh, Copperhead, why continue to insult the common sense of mankind by the continued iteration and reiteration of the threadbare and profitless lie that the Republican party brought on war." Mr. Lincoln was elected in November, 1860. He was not inaugurated until March 4, 1861. As a private citizen he could not, between the above dates, wage war much. But see what the rebels, encouraged by Northern Democrats, did meanwhile.

They captured Fort Moultrie and Castle Pinckney December 20.
Took Fort Pulaski January 3.
Seized the Mount Vernon arsenal, Alabama, with 200,000 stand of arms January 2.

Seized Fort Morgan, Mobile, Jan. 4.
Fired on the Star of the West going to provisions Sumter, January 9.

Captured Forts Jackson and St. Philips, below New Orleans January 10.
Captured Pensacola Navy Yard and Fort McRae, January 14.

Took Baton Rouge arsenal, Jan. 18.
Seized New Orleans mint and Custom House, January 20.

Seized Little Rock arsenal, Feb. 3.
So Mr. Lincoln found a war already made to his hands as soon as he took his place in the office to which the people had called him—war full-grown and lusty. He had his choice to do his duty as the Executive head of the Republic, or lie down in his tracks and let his country die. He was as about as much responsible for the war as for the massacre of St. Bartholomew. Copperhead, you know this; then why lie so?

Something to Consider.
When a Democrat commences wining about oppressive taxation, just ask him who inaugurated and fought the war which made those Taxes necessary.

When they prate of their devotion to the Constitution, ask them who fought four years to destroy that instrument and set up the bastard Montgomery concern in its place.

When they talk of their loyalty, ask them who nominated and voted for a banished traitor for Governor of Ohio.

When they profess to be in favor of a restoration of the Union, ask them who has steadily voted against the re-admission of the revolted States.

When they claim to be in favor of peace and prosperity, ask them who proposes to overturn the reconstructed State Governments and inaugurate another war.

When they claim that Seymour was loyal during the war, ask them who made it necessary to withdraw an army from the front to suppress his riots in the rear.

When they say that Grant is no statesman, ask them how it is that in all the important positions he has held, he has never made a mistake.

When they say he is not a good soldier, ask them how it was that he so thoroughly "cleaned out" Lee, Johnson, and all the other distinguished Democrats.

Daniel and Esau.
We heard a good story, a few days ago, about a life-long old Democrat in the Wyoming mining district, which is a fair illustration of the way in which thousands of loyal Democrats intend voting at the approaching elections in Pennsylvania. The old man has four sons, all voters, and heretofore Democrats like himself, two of whom, Daniel and Esau, served their country in the late "unpleasantness." A short time since an active Copperhead called upon him to have a talk on political matters. He represented the importance of defeating the Radicals, who were fast destroying the country. He dwelt on the burden of taxation, and all the other small talk of modern Democrats, when the old man, who had given him a patient hearing, said: "Well, I had two sons in the Union army, Daniel and Esau, who fit under Grant. I had a letter from Daniel, and he says we ought all to vote as he and Esau fought. I think so too, and me and my sons, if we live till election day, intend to vote the true Democratic ticket, headed by Grant and Colfax. The Copperhead was much surprised, and made tracks in double quick.

Look to Your Dollar Notes.
Peterson's Counterfeit Detector says: The whole United States has been flooded with a political circular to which is attached a fac simile of the United States legal tender one-dollar note. Seymour's likeness is in the left upper corner instead of Chase's. We give the following description: Instead of Chase's likeness on the left-hand corner, the genuine dollar greenback contains, this imitation bears the likeness of Seymour, and has a fac simile signature of Treasurer Spinner in its usual place at the bottom, right hand side. On the back it contains a promise to pay the bondholders in greenbacks, including fifty-two cents bonds. It would be advisable for every one to be careful in taking one-dollar greenbacks. This is nothing more than a wood-cut; judges can soon tell from the fine engraving of United States notes.

The Springfield Republican has excellent authority for saying that Horatio Seymour has given up the contest, and freely tells his Democratic friends in private that he has not the faintest hope of an election.
