ten. In our next issue we hope to be able to the States. In the mean time the Electoral it. rote may be set down at 217 in 27 States for Grant and Colfax, against 76 votes in 7 States for Seymour and Blair.

The weather during the past week, has been a regular mixture of the calm and beautiful, with the boisterous and dismal. The mornings, throughout, though cool, were, fairly spe cimens of a glorious Indian Summer; while the afternoons and evenings assumed more of the equinoxial turn. Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, however, were model days ; just such as we would have made to order.

15.3. The practice of stopping horses and wagons on a street cross-walk, which some people have, and of keeping them there until they are done talking, or transacting business, and compelling pedestrians to wade around in the Chestnuthill, mud, is an unmitigated nuisance which common sense should teach every man to abate .-We have seen great hulks of men thus obstruct the crossings, and compel delicate fe males to wade around their wagons, with the Jackson, mud ancle deep.

Indiana divorces have become so notorious, from the facility with which they are obtained, and the lack of respect with which they are generally regard by the courts of other States, that they have become a by word among all the people. But Indiana paomises to have company in the loose divorce business. Iowa is kindly taking rank with Indiana; at least there is a case which indicates as much. Several years ago a man residing in Pennsylvania visited Iowa, in company On the increase-murders and crime in with his wife. He was so pleased with the state that he resolved to make it his home.
