IO TRIUMPHE.

A THANKSGIVING SONG FOR 1868.

BY BREV. LIEUT, COL. J. H. MEREDITH.

Ring out, glad joy-bells, O'er land and o'er sea : Right is triumphant,

The nation is free. Thunder, O cannon! Not vain was our trust; The faithful have conquered,

As conquer they must. Beat the drums gaily, And shout, Loyal Band! The Chief of our Army Is Chief of our Land,

Smite the glad cymbals? His metto shall be, "Stand fast and stand sure CRAIG ELLACHIE!"

Wave on the free winds, Old Flag so long riven, On its sacred folds shine,

Sweet stars from you Heaven! Flash, lightnings electric! Tell the nations abroad,

This people is led by The hand of the Lord. Beam, Sun of Autumn, Where gleaners have come,

And slow wains are bearing The Harvest gold home. Smile, Moon of Hunters, And tenderly shed

Thy radiance where slumber Our glorious dead. Rust, sword, in your scabbard,

For won is the fight: Grant and Colfax are chosen, So God speeds the right.

Ring ye glad joy-bells; Let enmity cease, O brothers, grasp hands in Thanksgiving and Peace!

Interesting to Sportsmen.

The Siecle, of Paris, publishes an article very interesting to sportsmen, and states that with a very little care many accidents could be avoided. Out of one hundred cases of a double barrelled gun bursting, ninety-five can be traced to defects in the left barrel. The and her brother went out immediately reason is simply that the right barrel is most and invited them in ; they went ; and affrequently used and reloaded, perhaps, ten times to the left one being discharged once. Every time the right barrel is discharged the gunpowder in the left is pulverised more or less by the shock, which, therefore, leaves a space between the charge and the wadding by settling. Naturally when the left barrel is discharged it frequently explodes.
