CLEAR THE WAY.

BY CHARLES MACKAY.

Men of thought, be up and stirring, Night and day ! Sow the seed, withdraw the curtain, Clear the way ! Men of action, aid and cheer them As ye may ! There's a fount about to stream ; There's a light about to beam; There's a warmth about to glow; There's a flower about to blow : There's a midnight blackness changing Into gray. Men of thought and men of action, Clear the way ! Once the welcome light has broken, Who shall say What the unimagined glories Of the day? What the evil but shall perish In its ray? Aid the dawning, tongue and pen ; Aid it, hopes of honest men ; Aid it, paper; aid it, type; Aid it, for the hour is ripe; And our earnest must not slacken Into play. Men of thought and men of action, Clear the way. Lo ! a cloud's about to vanish From the day : Lo! the right's about to conquer-Clear the way! And a brazen wrong to crumble Into clay.

With that right shall many more Enter smiling at the door; With the giant wrong shall fall Many others great and small, That for ages long have held us For their prey. Men of thought and men of action, Clear the way!

Broken Up, ARREST OF THE RINGLEADERS. For the past year or two Carbon, Luzerne, Monroe, Northampton, Schuykill, Bucks, Berks and Lehigh counties have been infested with what was supposed to be a gang of horse thieves. Many valuable horses have been stolen, as well as carriages, buffalo robes, &c., and in but few instances recovered again by their owners. Those returned were brought brok by the offer a liberal reward, which was generally pocketed by pocked by some interested party in the gang. About two months ago, two horses and a wagon were stolen at Riegelsville, Bucks county. Bills were printed and sent out all over the county offering a reward for the recovery of thief and property, but no trace was obtained until about ten days ago a detective officer of Reading, who had heard of the theft, accidently overheard a remark made by two parties in conversation, that "the Riegelsville horses went to Hazleton." The detecive started at once for the latter place, and in a livery stable there found the horses. He questioned the attendant as to how the horses came there and was told that the proprietor, Jacob Roth brought them, there. Roth was found and questioned, but could give no satifactory answeras to how he came in possession of the animals, when he was placed under arrest and taken to Doyles- til time is lost in eternity. town, locked up in jail and subsequently released on $3,000 bail. About the same time, a suspicious character was arrested at Hazeleton, who, becoming alarmed, divulged the whole secret of the exislence of a most formidable gang of horse thieves. He gave the names of thirteen who were known to operate, nearly all of whom have been arrested. He also gave a description of the tion of country was at once taken south from
