

upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent reasedy for pulmonary complaints. "Through a long scriet of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estima-tion, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reclable protector against them. While adapted to indice forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dan-perons affections of the throat and hungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs all should be provided with this anticlote for them

Although settled Consumption is thought m-eurable, still great numbers of cases where the dis-case segmed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Peetoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing dise could reach them, under the Cherry Pec-toral they subside and disappear. Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it. Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it. Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses. So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more tions assure the public that its qualities are fully

For Fever and Ague. Intermittent Fever, Chili Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or micsmatic

As its name implies, it does Curre, and does not il. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, ne, nor any other mineral or noisonons substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague dis-tricts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cuses, and where other remedies had wholly failed. Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be pro-tected by taking the AGUE CURE daily. For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity. For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly re-
