

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY, MAY 18, 1871.

A new lot of Plaster, just arrived at N. S. Wyckoff's, at Stokes Mills, and for sale cheap.

The members of the "Grand army of the Republic," and all soldiers of the late war, residing in Stroudsburg and vicinity, are requested to meet in the Hall of the "Phoenix Fire Co.," on Friday evening, May 19th, at 7 o'clock.

Fire.

The Hotel belonging to Ex-Sheriff Henry, in Paradise township, was destroyed by fire on Saturday evening. The store property adjoining the Hotel was also in great danger, but through the active exertions of the people, who had gathered, was saved. We have not heard Mr. Henry's loss estimated, but the property destroyed was insured in the Monroe Mutual for $1,000. The building caught from fire in the woods.

Railway Lease.—The Midland Railroad has leased for ninety-nine years the Midland, Unionville, and Water Gap Railroad now in operation from Midland to Unionville, Orange county, and is authorized to extend to the Delaware Water Gap, Pa., in the coal regions. The Midland Railroad Company assumes the entire floating debt of the leased road and pays seven per cent. annually on the stock.

If you want to get a nice hat, just the style, go to Simon Fried's, Main street, Stroudsburg, Monroe county, Pa.

Resumption in the Schuylkill region may be considered as an accomplished fact, as nearly all the collieries commenced working on Tuesday, and, coupled with this, the Reading Railroad Company has reduced its tolls, with the proviso that they will be again advanced if the resumption proves to be not general. The umpire, Judge Ellwell, arrived at Pottsville Monday afternoon, and his presence may prove quite salutary, as some few miners, especially in the vicinity of Tamaqua, evince a disposition not to live up to their tacit agreements. At Hyde Park, in the vicinity of Scranton, in the Luzerne region, some laborers, on Tuesday, heavily armed and under the protection of the military, proceeded to the mines and entered, being cheered by the citizens as they did so, and, although the emissaries of the W. B. A. were present, no breach of the peace occurred.

Do you wish a nice looking letter or bill-head, envelope or card? Call at the JEFFERSONIAN Office, and get it printed in the latest style.

A Man Burned to death.

On Saturday evening last Smith Correll, in company with a friend, left Sand Cut, and walked down the Railroad towards Tobyhanna. On the way they entered a house, occupied by a family with whom they were acquainted, and where they remained until between 10 and 11 o'clock, p. m. when they started on. After traveling some distance farther they entered an unoccupied house, where Smith remained. His companion started on, but being over come with liquor had traveled but a short distance, when he sat down by the road side and went to sleep. At about 3 o'clock on Sunday morning he was awakened out of his sleep, by a man's cry for help. Looking around he saw smoke issuing from the building in which Correll had remained, and hastening in the direction from whence the cry came he found him, some twenty-five yards from the building, horribly burned. Assistance was procured at once, and everything was done that was possible for the sufferer, but without avail. He died at about 7 1/2 o'clock on Sunday morning. The deceased was about 35 years of age.

If you want to see the best assortment of ready made clothing, go to Simon Fried's, opposite the JEFFERSONIAN office, Main street, Stroudsburg, Pa.

He went Saturday, to stay all the year in the city to pick out the prettiest and cheapest dress goods, boots and shoes, ready made clothing, hats and caps, &c., &c.

We mean Mr. Decker, of the wonderful cheap Auction store. He spends his time, this summer in the City, to buy goods for his store in Stroudsburg, and the people may look out for new and cheap goods every week, and some at half price. Mr. Anzi B. Wyckoff will take charge of the store. may 4-4t.

Go to Simon Fried's, Main street, Stroudsburg, Pa., if you need anything in the line of clothing, boots, shoes, hats and caps. Mr. Fried has a better selection—and sells cheaper than any other man in this part of the country.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Nonak, Conn., boasts of a three eyed cat, and inquires how is that for eye.

Stroudsburg, Reading, Pottsville, Lebanon, Carlisle and Columbia have post-mistresses instead of postmasters.

Pittsburg has 475 manufactories, which, if placed in a continuous line, would extend a distance of fifty five miles.

A "lady horse thief" has been convicted in North Carolina. Another step in the woman movement.

Thirty-three indictments have just been found in Pittsburg against various persons accused of counterfeiting.

The German Relief Fund received at the German Consulate General in New York, amounted to $337,285.29.

A paper called the Tobacco Plant has recently been started in Liverpool. It must be a good paper for "puffs."

A coroner's jury in Dodge county, Wisconsin, lately returned the verdict of "death from hanging—around a tavern."

The liquor dealers of Williamsport, Pa., have formed an association for protection against what they call the "encroachments" of temperance.

York county gives a fine illustration of the economy of Democratic management. The Democrats have always had the management of county affairs there, and the county debt is $328,000.

A new secret society has just come to light in New York, called the "Raft." It comprises about 50,000 men, chiefly laborers. Their object is to influence the elections in favor of workingmen.

It has cost the government for ocean telegraphing since the Atlantic cable has been in operation $54,540 in gold. One of Seward's short dispatches cost $19,510.50.

The heathen Chinese is making whiskey in California by fermenting old rice and rubber shoes and things, and the revenue people are after John. The whiskey made in this way is much sought after by suicides.

It is said that the proprietors of only ten of the forty four circuses now traveling throughout the country are wealthy, the great majority of the balance are in the hands of the sheriff from two to twenty times during each season.

"I say, boy, is there anything to shoot around here?" inquired a sportsman of a boy he met. "Well," replied the boy, "nothing just here, but our school-master is just over the hill there cutting birch rods, you might walk up and pop him over."

Some four years ago a charter was obtained for the extension of the Belvidere and Delaware railroad from Manunkachunk to Port Jervis, N. Y. We understand that the company will soon commence work on this extension. So says the Newton Herald.

THE WEALTH of the oil regions of Pennsylvania can be easily appreciated when statistics carefully compiled develop the fact that the average monthly production is somewhere in the neighborhood of half a million barrels, each worth over three dollars in cash.

A RHODE ISLAND man's house was struck by lightning, on Sunday evening, while he was standing near the mantelpiece in his parlor. It threw him to the floor, and made a hole in each of his boots, but he was not injured, and his stockings were not torn or burned.

The total population of the United States, as ascertained by the census of 1870, is 38,095,680. Including the District of Columbia and the Territories it amounts to 38,588,180, as against 31,443,321 in 1860, showing an increase in the last decade of 7,094,859.

Municipal elections were held in Indiana on Tuesday. The Republicans carried Indianapolis by 1000 majority. They also carried Greencastle, Lafayette and Shelbyville. The Democrats carried Fort Wayne, Columbus and Madison.

The Potomac fisheries are extensive and profitable. Last week 800,000 herring and 85,000 shad were sold at one wharf in Washington; the former $4 to $7 per thousand, and the latter $12 to $18 per hundred.

The Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church will convene in Easton on the 1st of June. The sessions will be held in Christ's Church. About 250 ministers and delegates will be in attendance.

John Hatfield, who died in Troy a few days ago, was the first maker of lucifer matches in this country. He cut them out one by one with his jack-knife. The chemical composition necessary to insure combustion was prepared by him, the ingredients at that time being known in America only to himself. This was in 1836.

The German Peace Celebration in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, May 15.—The German procession to-day occupied four hours in passing, and there were fully 20,000 men in line, mostly in vehicles or on horseback. The butchers had a sausage factory and smoke house on wheels, and fresh sausages and slices of ham were distributed to the spectators. Bakers also made a distribution of bread. There were at least 100 wagons with artisans at work at their trades. The streets were crowded with spectators throughout the line of march, and the various objects of interest were greeted with cheers.

It is stated that Gen. Sherman denies that he made certain remarks which the Democrats are attributing to him with great gusto as having been made in a recent speech in New Orleans. He says further that he will accept no civil or political office. Our surmises were therefore correct, that he would refuse to run against Gen. Grant in the Presidential race, as advocated by the N. Y. Herald.

SIX YEARS AGO.—In the year 1865, if you will take the trouble to examine, you find that the dates of the months and days of the week correspond exactly with those of the present year. Those who have diaries of 1865 will find they are of use this year, and the diaries of 1871 will be of service in the same way in 1876.—For instance, the 20th of March came on Monday in '65 as well as '71, and will be on the same day in '76. Such is one of the laws of the universe, which time alone makes and governs.

Almon Beers, of Walton, on Saturday last week, drove to this place, and shipped for New York, a yoke of oxen, which weighed about 4,100 pounds. For sleek looking, high headed cattle, their equals will rarely be met with in this section of country. Mr. Beers may well feel proud of his stock, even if these were extra samples. The yoke were sold on their arrival at Weehaven for $350.—Deposit Courier.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., boasts of a young Samson, named Louis Kuckert. One of his feats is to lie flat on his back on the floor; and stretch his arms above his head, with the palms of his hands upward, and for a heavy man to place a foot in either hand, when he will raise him with ease, getting up on his feet at the same time. He has in this manner lifted men weighing nearly 200 pounds.

THERE seems to be little doubt of the nomination of Ben. Wade for the Governorship of Ohio, if he will accept, nor any doubt of his triumphant election in the event of his nomination. He will unquestionably make a most excellent Governor, and his election will occasion rejoicing among Republicans throughout the country.

THOSE who look rather coldly upon Canada will be perhaps be astonished to hear that she is the fourth maritime power in the world, and has 7,591 ships, with a tonnage of 899,090 tons. She stands ahead of every nation except Great Britain, the United States and France.

William Norton, a wealthy miser aged sixty years, of Hyde Park, died suddenly at the breakfast table on Monday morning. With all his gold, he would never allow a light in his house after sunset; but the miser has gone, leaving behind him all his treasure.

The prospect for peaches is still declared to be good. The Wilmington (Del.) Commercial, of Monday, says that no report of injuries to the crop from the cold weather of the past few days had been received. The report that the crop has been injured about Snow Hill, Worcester county, need excite no apprehension, as the number of trees in that section is small.

The act forbidding the sale of intoxicating liquors on election days in this State has not yet become a law, as has generally been stated by the press. It appears to stick fast in the Senate, a body which has this winter smothered so much beneficial legislation. Whether it will get through at all is very much to be doubted.

Philadelphia is the stronghold of Presbyterianism in America. An examination of the membership of the principal cities, exclusive of the rural congregations united with their Presbyteries, gives the following results: Philadelphia, 18,137; New York, 15,716; Brooklyn, 7,368; Cincinnati, 3,362; Chicago, 3,273; Baltimore, 2,693; St. Louis, 2,112; Boston, 734. Brooklyn is far ahead of New York in proportion to her population. St. Louis, with a population not far below that of Brooklyn, has less than one third as many Presbyterians. But there, as in Baltimore, the southern sectional organization draws away their strength. On the same proportions as that applied to taxables, the Philadelphia membership indicates a Presbyterian population of one hundred thousand.

FOUNDLING STATISTICS.—At a meeting held recently in New York, to place upon a firmer basis the Infant Asylum and Foundling Hospital of that city, it was stated that out of 35,000 births every year in New York, 2,500 children were born out of wedlock, and that 3,000 foundlings die annually from neglect. In 1869 out of 25,167 or 27 4/10 per cent. were children under twelve months, and in 1870 the mortality of infants was 31 per cent. of the deaths. As an argument in favor of the necessity of the mother's care to raise children, it was stated that at an Asylum in Montreal where artificial means of sustenance were employed, out of 4,059 foundlings, 3,767, or 93 per cent. died. At Randall's Island, New York, when artificial means were used, only ten foundlings out of one hundred lived; where nurses were provided, 27 1/2 per cent. were raised, and full 70 per cent. were saved where the mothers nursed the infants.

The Evening Post of New York, an able paper, which has been coquetting with the Democrats, sees no prospect for the success of the Democratic party. It says: "What is the use of the Democratic politicians thinking of the next Presidential election? Do they imagine that the American people will put into power a party which has been an unmitigated nuisance, a breeder of disorder, a corrupter of public virtue, the debaucher of politics, the friend of every wrong and oppression, the fomentor of violence and rebellion for more than a dozen years—do they believe that the people will put such a party in power, unless it first shows, by unmistakable evidence, that it has a truer purpose than Falstaff had, to 'purge and live cleanly?' The Democratic party supported slavery—and was beaten. It countenanced rebellion—and was beaten. It set up a peace-at-any-price platform—and was beaten. It advocated repudiation—and was beaten. It opposed equal laws and general suffrage—and was beaten. And now it is marching on to the next Presidential election at the head of numerous bands of K. K. Klux, northern and southern—gangs who set both law and decency at defiance; who rob where they do not kill; who cheat where they cannot rob; men whose acts threaten the whole land with anarchy; and they have amongst them scarcely a single leader with brains or conscience enough to rebuke violence and lawlessness, or condemn public plunder."

A Lady with a Feather in Her Face.

Some time since a lady residing at the south end, while performing the ordinary duties of her household, was suddenly taken with a severe pain on the right side of her face. Supposing it to be a species of neuralgia, and that it would soon pass off, she paid but little attention to it.—The pain, however, continued to increase in violence, causing much suffering, and a few days subsequently a small swelling commenced to form on the inside of her face, gradually enlarging in size.—Becoming somewhat alarmed, she deemed it necessary to send for a physician, and Dr. L. R. Sheldon was accordingly called in. Upon an examination of the case, being fearful that the swelling might break and produce a lasting disfigurement of the lady's countenance, he decided to remove the tumor by the aid of surgical instruments. The operation required considerable skill and caution, but it was successfully performed, the lady undergoing it with remarkable fortitude. The tumor was found to contain a small feather, about one inch in length, which was probably the cause of all the trouble.—How it came there is a wonder.—Boston Herald.

The Connecticut election case has been finally settled by the Legislature of the State. When it was found by the investigating committee that the number of ballots for Jewell in the box of the Fourth ward of New Haven was 100 short of the vote returned by the Democratic election officers, the Republican citizens of the ward were called to prove their votes under oath, which they did to nearly the full number claimed. It was also shown that an excess of 100 votes more than he had received had been fraudulently counted for English. The gain for Jewell in Enfield and Cheshire over the return was 43, and the result was a report by the committee that Jewell was elected by 86 majority. A resolution declaring Marshall Jewell the Governor elect was then adopted by both branches, the Democrats making no serious opposition and contenting themselves with voting against it. The inauguration of Gov. Jewell is to take place yesterday. While it is evident that a desperate attempt was made by somebody in the interests of the Democrats to defeat the choice of the people, it appears that Governor English has acted with more fairness than some of his adherents and placed nothing in the way of a just decision of the contest.

GERMANY has done a noble act towards a down-fallen foe, by releasing France from the payment of one-tenth of the war indemnity agreed upon at the cessation of hostilities between the two countries. This gift—one hundred millions dollars in gold—could not have been better or more opportunely bestowed, and the world will accord Germany the credit of a magnanimity seldom exercised by nations.

DIED.

Travellers are always liable to sudden attacks of Dysentery and Cholera Morbus, and these occurring when absent from home, are very unpleasant. The PAIN KILLER may always be relied upon in such cases. As soon as you feel the symptoms, take one teaspoonful in a gill of new milk and molasses and a gill of hot water, stir well together and drink hot. Repeat the dose every hour until relieved. If the pains be severe, bathe the bowels and back with the medicine clear.

In cases of Asthma and Phthisis, take a teaspoonful in a gill of hot water sweetened well with molasses; also bathe the throat and stomach faithfully with the medicine, clear.

Dr. Sweet says it takes out the soreness in cases of bonnetting faster than anything he ever applied.

Fishermen, so often exposed to hurts by having their skin pierced with hooks and fins of fish, can be relieved by bathing with the Pain Killer as soon as the accident occurs; in this way the anguish is soon abated; bathe as often as once in five minutes, say three or four times, and you will seldom have any trouble.

The bites and scratches of dogs and cats are soon cured by bathing with the Pain Killer clear. May 4, 1871.—1m.
