Her name shines not in bannered field, Where right and wrong so boldly war; Nor rings her voice in any cause

Which men and woinen battle for, Yet in her presence, subtle, sweet. You long to knell and kiss her feet. No wondrous romance wreaths her life;

Nor has she led a martyr train; Nor beautiful nor rich is she, But poor and-some would call her-plain Yet in her two dear eyes you see

A beauty shining constantly. No sliken robe enfolds her form, No dainty leisure hath her hands; Her jewels are a simple ring; A ribbon binds her hair's soft bands;

Her soul's regality you trace. No gift has she to charm and thrill A thankless world with warbled songs; And art that wakes the ivory keys To other hands that her belongs;

Yet in her garment's simple grace

Yet in her words of tender cheer A richer music meets the ear. She walks in humblest ways of life

That led out oft times through gloom an shades; And cares and crosses not a few, Are on her patient shoulders laid;

Yet smiles and drinks each bitter cup,

And keep her brave eyes liften up. And homely ways she wreaths with grace; Harsh duty turns to loving zest; And cheery hope and steadfast will

Are at her side in work and rest; Yet never dreams she that you spy The angles looking from her eye!

IMPORTANT PROCEEDINGS.

The Stockholders and Board of Trus tees of the Wickersham German English Normal School met, for the first time as which time and place the following busi ness was transacted: 1. Rev. D. E. Schooller made some preliminary remarks. He said that work had been begun on the foundation of the Normal School to be erected at Lock Haven, Clinton county, although the requisite amount of money had not yet been subscribed; that an agent had been ap-pointed to canvass Clinton county, and that the agent was meeting with liberal responses. So with us. Although the amount required for putting up the buildings has not yet been subscribed, work on the Normal School to be erected at Brodheadsville will be commenced immediately after harvest, because Monroe county has already subscribed ten thousand dollars towards this laudable enterpries, and the county has not yet been half canvassed. Rev. Schoedler also stated, in a manner that inspired confidence, that he knew whereof he spoke when he said that the German element of Pennsylvania and adjacent States was good for from ten to the plan by means of which this sum would be raised outside of the county, that he could only give them his word now, but that time would make good his assertion.
