Tigham Kelm of Easton and Benjamin Darling of this borough, have purchased the Harness Making Establishment of A. N. Snover, of Blairstown, N. J.

It is stated that Governor Geary approved the bill restoring the spring election on the 27th of June. This puts an end to all speculations on the subject, and will be highly satisfactory to the people of the State.

Andrew Sebring, Esq., of Tobyhanna Mills, has, from all accounts, made the biggest haul in Trout that has been made anywhere yet. He caught a trout measuring 19 inches in length and weighing 3 pounds, 64 ounces.

We never knew the rain to fall easier than it has during the past week. The consequence of this is that corn, potatoes and oats never looked better. The grain harvest has occupied the attention of our farmers for several days. The yield of wheat and rye will turn out to be abundant.

O. A. Luckenbach, Collector, gives notice that he will be in Stroudsburg, to collect the taxes due on incomes and licenses, in Monroe county, on the 27th and 28th of July. Those who fail to "come to time" on the above days, render themselves liable to a penalty of 5 per cent. and a fee of 20 cents for service of notice demanding payment.

The Peach Growers Association of Delaware, have announced the gratifying fact, that the peach crop of that State, this year, will probably reach the enormous quantity of 3,315,000 baskets, or double the crop of last year. The yield in New Jersey promises full as well, while the crop nearer home is better than an average one. The Delaware and Jersey peaches are already beginning to come into the market, and their quantity will make them cheap.

Dedication.—The main audience room of the Stroudsburg M. E. Church will (D. V.) be dedicated on Thursday, July 27th. The services will commence on that day at 10 o'clock a. m., and will be participated in by Rev. Dr. Dashiell, Pres't of Dickinson College, Revs. W. J. Paxson, J. Walker Jackson, W. M. Ridgway, Joseph Mason, and the Pastors of adjacent churches. Pastors and people of all denominations are invited to be with us on this interesting occasion. JOHN S. JAMES MCCONNELL, Pastor.

Judge De Young.—We understand that the Hon. John De Young has consented to allow his name to be used in connection with the office of Associate Judge of Monroe county, at the ensuing election. During the five years that the Judge has occupied a seat upon the bench of our neighboring county his course has met the approval of all law abiding and orderly citizens, and we wonder not that they are anxious that he should retain a place which he filled with so much honor and dignity. There is no doubt of his election should he remain a candidate.—Easton Argus.

Narrow Escape.—On Thursday last, as Mr. Philip Adler and his brother, young gentlemen from Brooklyn, New York, visiting friends in this place, was enjoying a boat ride, on the pool of Wallace's Mill-dam, the boat got the better of them and took a sheer towards the breast of the dam. Not being good sailors, and becoming scared with all, they lost control of the craft, and found themselves threatened with shipwreck. The brother, thinking discretion the better part of valor, took to the water and managed to wade to shore. Philip stuck to the boat, and took a dancing ride over the dam. The fall was some eight feet, and ere Philip knew what he was about he found himself floundering in very rough and deep water, and, being unable to swim, in danger of drowning. But for the opportune arrival of assistance he would certainly have met with a watery grave. He made a very narrow escape.

Courts of Common Pleas are authorized by act of Legislature, approved April 2d, 1871, to empower School Directors to borrow money for building purposes. Heretofore application had to be made to the Legislature.

MANY of our Democratic cotemporaries are having a most exciting and beautiful fight over the "New Departure." None favor it really, but some advocate it on the score of policy, believing that any thing is right if it wins, while others, having the cause of the "Wayward Sisters still at heart, cannot in the honesty of their souls, make believe that they love Republican principles when they do not. Our ponderous neighbor of the Democrat appears to be "nix cum arouse" on the subject, and thereby displays discretion, and love of comfort. We commend his course.

The 7:45 train from York city and the 8:05 train from Newark on Saturday morning collided through the misplacement of a switch, killing six persons and wounding doubly as many more. The killed were all employees on the road.—The accident for a time created the most intense excitement both in New York and Newark, as it was known that most of the passengers on the down train were merchants doing business in the former city. Unlike most of the disasters, the real cause of the so-called accident is at once apparent. Six men have been killed, two severely and several slightly injured, and hundreds of lives imperiled by the criminal carelessness of a switch tender. By neglecting his most important duty this person has become a wholesale murderer.

Instructions are being given to the county treasurers by the State department to pay pensions to soldiers of 1812 in July, as heretofore. The State pension is forty dollars a year, payable in semi-annual instalments. Congress during the last session passed an act providing for the substitution of a United States pension, but the national government not yet having commenced to pay the State has ordered the continuance of the old system until the new shall assume a practical form.

A Washington dispatch says that Senator Cameron assures his friends that he will not be a candidate for the Vice Presidency. For the financial good of the country he very strongly favors the re-nomination of President Grant.

The European debt of this country, including government bonds, state bonds, railroad bonds, and mercantile dues, is estimated at $1,500,000, which, at six per cent., requires an interest payment of $90,000,000 per year.

A mammoth hog, weighing 1060 pounds gross, and 840 pounds net, was killed at Norristown last Thursday. It was the property of Skehan. This monster porker had been contested for several times at shooting matches.

The State Republican Convention in Maine last week nominated by acclamation the present incumbent, Hon. Sidney Perham, for the gubernatorial office of that State for the ensuing year.

OUR SCRANTON LETTER.

SCRANTON July 9, 1871. FRIEND SCHOCH—I presume your readers have, ere this, arrived at the conclusion that your correspondent was either defunct, or else he was enjoying the luxury of a "Rip Van Winkle nap," inasmuch as your usual "Scranton Letter" has failed to appear for a number of weeks. For their benefit, however, it might be proper to state just here that "we still live," and after a rather extensive tour, an account of which we will furnish them at some future time, have returned to our usual avocation considerably refreshed, both morally and physically, and will endeavor in the future, to give them the news each week, as usual.

The manner in which the 96th anniversary of our nation's birthday was celebrated in this city, was, indeed, commendable. Never before in the history of Scranton has such a gigantic demonstration been attempted, and our citizens are justified in feeling proud of the very precise manner in which the entire programme, as pre-arranged, was carried out. The repose of those who sought their couches on the evening of the 3d was considerably disturbed, inasmuch as there was an incessant cracking and snapping of pistols and firecrackers, while the lurid glare of bon-fires were to be seen in every quarter, from sunset to sunrise. At sunrise a salute of one hundred guns were fired, and we were, in thunder tones, reminded of the fact that the "glorious 4th" had again dawned upon us. The day dawned rather unpropitious, the air being filled with heavy black clouds, and seriously threatening a stormy day. Notwithstanding this fact, however, our rural friends commenced gathering in large numbers at an early hour, in their holiday attire, all, seemingly, determined to spend the day in a patriotic manner. At 8 o'clock the societies commenced forming upon different avenues, and promptly at 9—the hour appointed—Chief Marshal De Lacey gave the order "forward march!"

The scene upon Lackawanna avenue at this time, beggars description—it presenting a perfect sea of human beings from end to end.—The procession moved off in the following order: Chief Marshal and aids, brass band, a very handsome chariot arranged in the form of a pyramid containing upwards of forty young ladies, representing the different States in the Union, presiding over which was the "Goddess of Liberty," and supported on each corner by a Zouave. This, without exception, the main feature of the procession, and attracted universal attention. Then came the fire department, followed by the editors in a barouche, and Typographical Union No. 112. The types really out-did themselves upon this occasion, they having a printing office in full blast upon wheels. The first wagon contained an editor and proof-reader seated at a table busily engaged in their very arduous duties of preparing manuscript for the two "Knights of the stick and rye" who were also in the same wagon, and very busily engaged. Two other wagons, contained each a fast Gordon press in full blast—the first one printing business cards which were distributed among the crowd, while the second was engaged in striking off copies of the Declaration of Independence. Each of these wagons were drawn by four horses. Next following these were about forty printers on foot, their uniforms consisting of red caps and an appropriate badge. Then came the military and civic societies, and the very grand display made by the business men of our city—the whole forming a procession nearly two miles in length.—After parading through the principal part of the city, the procession finally halted in the square at the D. L. & W. R.R., where, after the reading of the Declaration of Independence, the crowd dispersed, and all enjoyed themselves as best they could until night-fall, when some brilliant pyrotechnic displays were to take place. Owing to the perfect torrents of rain which fell in the evening, however, this part of the programme was not so grand as was anticipated, still, under the circumstances, every one appeared satisfied with what they had seen and heard. And thus ended the proceedings of one of the grandest holiday celebrations in this city.

Injunctions were served on several coal mining companies in this region on Saturday last, for working their mines in violation of the Mine Ventilation Law. CURTIS.

MR. A. R. WRIGHT, of Montgomery, Scott County, Tennessee, writes to the Kingston East Tennessean that George S. Kingston, of Jamestown, Feneston county, has a boy who was two years and nine months old the first day of May last, who weighed on that day 74 pounds; is nearly 4 feet high, his head and arms are larger than the common average size of full grown men; his voice is coarse and strong as almost a man's. He has all the outward appearance of a man; seems possessed of strong mental powers and of warm filial affection. Whatever may be the result of his coming years, he seems at present a strange specimen of humanity.

A fancy dog show lately took place near London at which 800 rare canines were exhibited. Some were in wire cages and had cushions to lie upon, while one valuable animal had a glass box for his accommodation. They were valued all the way from £5 to £1000, a high price certainly for a merely ornamental pet. One gentleman—a clergyman—had 18 and another 28 dogs on exhibition, and as the tax per year is $25 a head, exclusive of their keep, it can be judged what expense it is to gratify such a taste.

Fifty feet of the bottom of the Wyoming Canal, near Wilkesbarre, sank suddenly on Tuesday, draining the whole level. The canal was constructed over deserted chambers of a coal mine, and the accident was caused by the falling in of their roof. The water which washed through filled the adjoining chambers, and had the disaster not occurred on a holiday, there would have been terrible loss of life.

Hon. C. C. Bowen, convicted of bigamy in Washington, received his pardon from the President on Saturday. The United States marshal immediately released the prisoner, and he left the prison in company with Mrs. Pell igne-King-Bowen.

The pay of private soldiers in the cavalry, artillery and infantry is to be $13 a month hereafter.

MRS. FAIR'S CASE.

The Murderess in Court Again—A Repitite.

[From the San Francisco Chronicle, July 8.] The case of Laura D. Fair, upon a motion for a new trial, came up in the Fifteenth District Court yesterday afternoon, upon further proofs and affidavits than those already presented. Mr. Cook took the ground, and argued at some length, that the presence of the defendant was unnecessary, claiming that the statute did not require it. Mr. Campbell admitted that this might be true, but that there was a doubt, and in a case of such importance as this he was inclined to have the prisoner present whenever any important step was taken in this place, and that, as in the present case, it would be no hardship. Mr. Cook replied that it would not only be a hardship, but even cruel, to subject the prisoner to the ordeal of being brought to the court room and taken back, followed by the curious crowd, who constantly annoyed her.

The Court stated that it could consult its own feelings in the matter he would not order Mrs. Fair to be brought from the jail, but as there was some doubt as to the propriety of hearing the motion in her absence he thought it would be safer to do so. An order was therefore entered requiring the deputy sheriff to bring Mrs. Fair to the court room. After a recess, Deputy Sheriff Gough arrived from the jail, bringing with him the prisoner, Mrs. Fair, accompanied by Mrs. Hale and Mrs. Hily. They rode to the court room in a closely curtained carriage, the deputy sheriff, occupying a seat with the driver. But few persons being aware of the proceedings, only a few witnessed the affair. The prisoner was dressed in her customary suit of black, and beyond a look of paleness, the natural result of close confinement, presented about the same general appearance as on the trial. During arguments she remained veiled and passive, making no demonstrations and taking apparently but a languid interest in the matter.

The affidavits presented in support of the motion relate to the jurors Beach and Littlefield. A large number of them refer to Beach's expressions while he was at Truckee, after the shooting of Crittenden. They tend to corroborate the affidavits already published in the "Chronicle." One of them, in reference to Littlefield, alleges that he, in reply to a question whether Mrs. Fair had obtained a new trial, said:—"No, she has been sentenced to be hung on the 28th of July, d—n her," and expressed the wish that she might suffer in hell two thousand years. Judge Campbell and Elisha Cook made lengthy arguments on the subjects, and at their close the Court overruled the motion. The prisoner, accompanied by her friends, was taken to the jail. As the Supreme Court will not consider the appeal until the October term, and the prisoner is to be executed on the 28th of July, it will be necessary to obtain a reprieve until after that time.

THE SALE OF PATENT MEDICINES Has in no other country reached the enormous proportions it has assumed in the United States. This is owing to the vast extent of territory and the comparative thinness of population, which creates the necessity for some reliable remedy, that can be applied at once in the absence of professional medical aid. Dr. Geo. E. Stouffer's Hearn Bitters has for over ten years been regarded as

The Great Household Remedy, and is relied on in every emergency by thousands of families in every section of the country. It is not a fancy drink, composed of bad whiskey, flavored with aromatics, to tickle the palate and minister to a depraved appetite, but is a carefully and scientifically prepared compound extract of Roots, Herbs and Barks, possessing great medicinal virtue. Its rare combination presents the most effectual remedy yet discovered for all diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels. Sold everywhere at One Dollar per Bottle. [July 6-1m]

The "Pain Killer" may justly be styled the great medicine of the world, for there is no region of the globe into which it has not found its way, and been largely used and highly prized. Moreover, there is no claim to which it has not proved to be well adapted for the cure of a considerable variety of diseases; it is a speedy and safe remedy for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises, wounds and various other injuries, as well as for dysentery, diarrhoea and bowel complaints generally. It is admirably suited for every race of men on the face of the globe. It is a very significant fact, that notwithstanding the long period of years that the "Pain Killer" has been before the world, it has never lost one whit of its popularity, but, on the contrary, the call for it has steadily increased from its first discovery, and at no previous time has the demand for it been so great, or the quantity made been so large, as it is to-day.

Another significant fact is, that nowhere has the Pain Killer ever been in higher repute, or been more generally used by families and individuals, than it has been here at home, where it was first discovered and introduced. That the Pain Killer will continue to be what we have styled it the great medicine of the world, there cannot be the shadow of a doubt.—Providence Advertiser. June 1, 1871-1m MARRIED. July 4th, at the Reformed parsonage at Feenerville, by Rev. G. B. Dechant, Mr. Phernandus Siglin, and Miss Mary E. Miller, both of Jackson, Monroe co., Pa. At the parsonage, Middle Smithfield, Monroe county, Pa., July 4th, 1871, by the Rev. J. T. Stock, Mr. Lewis M. Allegor of Jackson county, Pa., and Miss Eliza M. Smith, of Monroe co., Pa. At Spragueville Parsonage, July 8th, 1871, by Rev. J. Pastorfield, Mr. Philip Heller of Paradise tp., and Miss Elizabeth Miller, of Pocono township, all of this county.

DIED. In this borough, on the 10th inst., Carrie E. daughter of James W. and Mary Hallock, aged 2 months. In this borough, on Tuesday, the 11th inst., Emily, wife of Morris Smiley, aged 51 years and 19 days. In the death of Mrs. Smiley, we have lost from our midst a useful citizen, and a good woman. She was a daughter of the late Michael Brown, and was married to Wm. Coolbaugh about the year 1840. Mr. Coolbaugh met with a terrible accident, by being caught and mangled in machinery, some years since, which caused his death, in the noontide of life, and when his time and life were most valuable to his family. He died universally respected, and his death spread a gloom over our whole community. Subsequently the deceased married Morris Smiley. She has raised a family of children who are useful citizens. As a mother she had no superior; as a citizen, she was no one can leave our midst more universally regretted. For several months she has been confined by sickness, which she bore without a murmur, and with christian fortitude; always willing to submit to the will of her Heavenly Father in whom she put her trust. In her sickness she was constantly surrounded by a loving family, and a community of devoted friends, all trying to administer to her comfort, and relieve her pains, but in vain for her recovery. She has gone, may we strive to travel the road to her Redeemer. The relatives and friends of the family are requested to attend her funeral, this Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the house. Services at the Methodist Episcopal Church. Interment at the Cemetery.
