THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1871. REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: COL. DAVID STANTON, of Beaver.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: COL. ROBT. B. BEATH, of Schuylkill.

STATE SENATOR: CHAS. PARRISH, of Wilkes-Barre.

REPRESENTATIVE: DANIEL KALBFUS, of Carbon.

LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Liturgical Services next Sunday. MORNING, 10. EVENING, 7. G. W. MARRIOTT, D. D., Pastor.

SEE that you are assessed and your State and county taxes are paid.

HON. SIMON CAMERON will address the people of Monroe, at the Court House, on Wednesday, September 27th.

A PARTY that was treacherous to the country in the hour of its peril by attack from traitors, is unworthy of being trusted in the day of peace, when fidelity and justice are essential to local prosperity and national unity.

SEPTEMBER 20th, is the last day on which you can be legally registered, to vote at the October election. Let every one see that his name is on the list of voters, on or before that date.

HON. JOHN W. FORNEY will speak to the people at the Court House, on Wednesday, September 27th.

WHAT IS GRANT DOING?

The public debt statement of the 1st of September shows a reduction of the National debt during the month of $9,206,279.50, or at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum. Since the 1st of March, 1869, bonds have been purchased and canceled by the Treasury Department to the amount of $219,375,200, at a net cost estimated in gold of $204,672,066.

THE REPUBLICAN CONFERENCE.

The Senatorial conferees for the counties of Luzerne, Monroe and Pike, met in the city of Scranton on Tuesday last.

Mr. E. L. Wolf, of Monroe, was elected President, and Mr. Lewis Pugh, Secretary. A motion was adopted that in the organization of this and future Senatorial Conferees, Luzerne shall have four and Monroe and Pike each two delegates, and that each delegate shall have one vote.

The conference then proceeded to the nomination of candidates for Senator, when George Coray and Chas. Parrish were named. On the second ballot Mr. Parrish was nominated.

The following resolution was then passed: Resolved, That Hon. L. D. Shoemaker, of Luzerne, and Hon. Wm. Davis, of Monroe, be appointed Senatorial delegates to represent this District in the next Republican State Convention, and that they be instructed to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of Hon. Winthrop W. Ketcham, of Luzerne, for Governor of this Commonwealth.

HON. JOHN HICKMAN of Chester county, will speak to the people at the Court House, on Wednesday September 27th.

AN APT SPECIMEN OF DEMOCRATIC ECONOMY.

In 1869 the Republicans organized the State Senate. An Act passed in 1858, fixed the number of officers at 32, and the Senate was organized in strict compliance with this law. But before the vote was taken for the election of said officers, the economical Democrats, to make a cheap show of economy, put forward Senators Burnett and McCandless to offer an amendment, which, in effect, was to cut down the number to 24, it being 8 less than the law called for, and all the Democrats in the Senate voted for said resolution. But in 1871, the Democrats accidentally got a majority in the Senate, and had a fair opportunity of showing their sincerity in their professions of economy in electing a less number of officers than the law called for. But what did they do about it? Why, in the first place, they elected the 32 officers authorized by law, and afterwards proceeded to elect 17 more, though the law expressly provided that there should be but 32. In 1869 the Democrats voted in the State Senate that 24 officers were sufficient to discharge all the duties of the Senate Chamber, but in 1871, when the Democracy organized the Senate, they elected 49 officers to do the same work.

The pay of the officers of the Republican Senate of 1870, was $26,466, while the pay of the officers of the Democratic Senate of 1871, was $47,904. Truly this is a striking specimen of Democratic professions of economy. They go in for economy when they can't get the spoils, but when the spoils are theirs they don't allow the law to stand between them and their plunder. If further proof is needed, look at the plundered Treasury of Democratic New York City.

Voters! think of these facts and figures when you come to vote next October, and don't fail to stand by the party which stood firmly and undividedly by the country during its greatest peril, and which is now so successfully freeing us from debt and from foreign entanglements—and thus rendering us one of the most honored nations of the age.

Ex Judge Stuart, a well-known criminal lawyer of New York, died on Saturday, after a brief illness, of typhoid fever.

BOROUGH AND COUNTY.

Oysters are arriving. Charles Herman keeps them.

Politics are being discussed in parlors and on the streets.

Just received at N. Rusters' a splendid lot of dry goods.

Grapes are now offered in the greatest profusion and of the most luscious flavor.

The weather the last few mornings has been highly suggestive of fires and thick clothing.

Court, commencing next week, will afford politicians an excellent opportunity to press their claims.

Coal will soon have an upward tendency. The provident will now lay in their winter supply.

If you are in want of a handsome trunk, valise, fancy robe, or, in fact, anything usually kept in a first-class store, go to Simon Fried's, opposite THE JEFFERSONIAN office.

These cool evenings and mornings, very keenly reminds us of the fact that winter is fast approaching.

For unquestionable proof of the fact that we publish the local paper of the county, compare the two.

The apple crop promises to be unusually large this year in some parts of the State. In this county it is a failure.

A large number of our citizens have availed themselves of the opportunity offered, and are now visiting Scranton and the State Fair.

Just received at N. Rusters' a splendid lot of furs for ladies' and gents.

Indications point to a brisk fall trade. Many of our merchants are laying in large stocks in view of the resumption of business.

The latest sensation from Jackson sp., is the story of a "rooster, having been hatched from a goose egg!" Nothing improbable in these days, you know.

A double locomotive, called the "Janus" has been placed upon the Lehigh Valley Railroad at "Sugar Notch." It has twelve driving wheels, two smoke stacks, two separate boilers, and four piston rods.

More Large Potatoes.—We were shown, a few days since, by Mr. Ferd. Metzger, of Cherry Valley, a half bushel of the largest and finest potatoes we ever saw. They were raised in a lot adjoining his house.

See That You Are Registered.—It is the duty of every Republican to see that his name is on the registry list. The matter should not be delayed, but attended to immediately. O. B. Gordon, Register and Assessor.

If you want the business interests of your village to make a favorable impression abroad, advertise them in the local paper, in that way only, can a just impression be formed of the extent and scope of our commercial relations.

Simon Fried has just arrived from the city with a fresh supply of goods of the latest styles.

To insure insertion in the same week's edition of THE JEFFERSONIAN, our advertising friends should hand their favors into the office not later than Tuesday noon. Advertisers will please bear this fact in mind.

The subscription list of THE JEFFERSONIAN is rapidly increasing, which is certainly a very pleasing evidence of the fact, that our efforts to publish a first-class local paper are duly appreciated. Continue your favors, friends.

One of the grand features of the coming Fair, will take place on Thursday afternoon, in the shape of a base ball match between the White Caps, senior, of Stroudsburg, and the Red Jacket club of Oakland. As the members of both clubs are experts in the profession, a very close contest is anticipated.

The new law, relative to the delivery of coal by the ton, is now in force. The Legislature of this State has decided that every dealer in coal within the State must deliver to his customer 2350 lbs. of coal for a ton, instead of 2000 lbs. as they have been in the habit of doing.—Carbon Democrat.

Mr. John Baldwin, the very popular proprietor of the Washington Hotel, this borough, returned last week from a rather extended pleasure trip, and, judging from his rather aldermanic proportions, we naturally infer that he fared well while absent. His trip embraced many of the prominent watering places.

Just received at N. Rusters' a large lot of fashionable hats and caps, also a fine lot of gossamer silk hats.

For the benefit of sportsmen hereabouts, we append the following paragraph, relative to the game law of Pennsylvania. A word to the wise, &c.

Pheasants may be shot from the 1st of August to the 20th of December. Squirrels from the 1st of August to the 1st of January, and rabbits from the 1st of October to the 1st of January.

Corner Loading.—The practice of corner loading is, we think, indulged in to entirely too great an extent by our young men, and one which the proper authorities should set an immediate veto upon. It appears that they gather in groups for the express purpose of deciding which one of the party can make use of the most vulgar and profane language, and to insult every lady who may have occasion to pass by them. We observe, by our exchanges, that the authorities in other places are taking this matter in hand, and for the welfare of our citizens at large—the ladies especially—we would advise that the same course be taken here.

Just received at N. Rusters' a splendid lot of ladies' and gents' furnishing goods.

The fact having become established in the minds of our citizens, that the long talked of band had become a defunct institution, and always eager to listen to anything in the shape of music, were very agreeably surprised on Friday last, as an organ-grinder put in an appearance upon our streets. Old maids and maidens, to say nothing of the youth and sterner sex of our borough, rushed to the doors, windows and balconies, and listened in mute astonishment at the dulcet strains being ground out from "der machine." Why can't we raise a band? Surely, we have musical talent enough in our midst.

Go to Fried's if you wish to purchase a new suit of clothes of the latest styles, and low prices.

The woods meeting at Durfee's Island, near this borough, held last week, under the auspices of the M. E. Congregation of Spragueville, passed off very quietly and pleasantly, and proved a success in every particular. Sunday last proving a very propitious day, an immense concourse of people gathered upon the ground. Nothing occurred during the whole of the proceedings to mar the solemnity of the occasion, while the proceeds, which are to go towards liquidating the debt now resting upon the parsonage recently erected by that congregation, were, we learn, very liberal. This will undoubtedly be the last woods meeting of the season, as the weather is getting most too cool for camping out—especially the evenings.

Our citizens will probably be gratified to learn that the "Union" fire engine has recently been thoroughly overhauled, at the works of Mr. Geo. E. Stonfer, at East Stroudsburg, and that it is now in first-class working order. The Company which "runs" with this machine, have, in the past, proven themselves firm and no mean pretensions, while the engine, although a very small one, has always given perfect satisfaction when called into service. However, this is a progressive age, and Stroudsburg, determined not to be behind hand, is to have a brand new steamer, third-class in size but first-class in quality. Add to these the aspiring Nay-Ang's, and we will be well supplied with fire apparatus. Just think of it, ye denizens of Stroudsburg, a street railway, a street sprinkler, a live milkman, and a steam fire engine. Whew, what city airs!

Just received at N. Rusters' a large lot of fashionable Clothing for men and boys.

Indications thus far, fully establishes the fact, that the coming Fair of the Monroe County Agricultural Society, to be held on the 26th, 27th, 28th and 29th days of September, on their beautiful grounds near this borough, will eclipse anything of the kind ever before attempted. The number of entries thus far are very flattering, which certainly reflects great credit upon our Agricultural and Mechanical interests. Besides the usual display in the buildings, trotting, etc., several novel features will be introduced. We would, however, advise all our friends from the rural districts to turn out en masse, and let each one of them strive to prepare an article of some description for exhibition, and then our Fairs will prove a decided success in every particular.

Improvements.—Mr. Robert Huston has recently put a new slate roof upon his old store building.

The new frame building, designed as a boot and shoe manufactory, being erected by Chas. Waters & Son, on their "air lot," down town, is fast looming up.

Mr. Samuel Hood's new brick dwelling, adjoining his store-room, on Main street, is being pushed forward rapidly.

Ex-Sheriff Marsh's elegant new brick on Main street, is also being pushed forward at a rapid pace.

Mr. Jas. Gardner's handsome frame dwelling, on Ann street, will be ready for occupancy sometime this fall.

Mr. Reuben Miller has just finished his basement for the purpose of storing away trunks, leather, &c.

New Census and Patent Laws.

We are indebted to Munn & Co., publishers of the Scientific American, New York for a neat little bound volume of 120 pages, entitled as above. It contains the complete Census of 1870, showing the Population, by Counties, of all the States and Territories, with their Areas, and the Population of the Principal Cities. Also, the new Patent Laws in full, with Forms, Official Rules, Directions how to obtain Patents, Copyrights, Regulations for Trade-Marks, Assignments, How to Sell Patents, etc. Also, a large variety of valuable information relating to Water-Wheels, Steam-Engines, and other mechanism, with many useful tables and receipts, 175 diagrams of Mechanical Movements, etc. We advise every body to send for it as above. Price, 25 cents. A more valuable compendium, for so small a price, has rarely been published.

There is a mystery connected with an incident which occurred near a small bridge which crosses the "Mountain creek," a short distance above Keller's mill, Cherry Valley, which may well excite the minds of all well-thinking people, and one which demands an immediate and thorough investigation. It appears that the attention of some persons returning that way from church, was attracted by some clothing lying by the roadside, which, upon investigation, were found to be completely saturated with blood. If a crime of any sort is connected with this affair, a spot more secluded should have been selected, and, from the fact that they did not lay there when these people passed, the place an hour previous, the whole affair is certainly shrouded in mystery. The garments were evidently the property of a female in great distress, and, if one of those horrible cases of abortion—which, at the present time is causing so much excitement in New York city—has been practiced in our midst, it is high time that the case was ferreted out, and the guilty party or parties brought to justice.

Go to Fried's and see his immense stock of goods just received.

Our street sprinkler may now be seen preambulating the streets, profusely decorated with advertisements. This is a novel, as well as a very prominent way of advertising.

Mr. Peter S. Williams, one of Stroudsburg's enterprising business men, has just returned from the cities with an immense stock of clocks, watches, jewelry, &c., &c., all of which will be disposed of at the lowest cash prices. Parties wishing to purchase anything in the jewelry line, will do well to give him a call before purchasing elsewhere.

The Young Folk's Rural for September, published by Mr. Lewis of the Western Rural, is filled brim full of nice things for young people. The College World pronounces it "the most entertaining paper in existence for young people." Cash prizes are offered for best contributions by young folks. $1.00 per year, and free for remainder of this year to new subscribers for 1872. Specimen numbers free. Address H. N. F. Lewis, Publisher, Chicago.

Our country friends, who propose attending Court and the Fair next week, will do well to call at Fried's Clothing House. Sign of the new umbrella.

MR. EDITOR.—In the Good Book we read, that "a whale swallowed Jonah." Well, suppose he did—and we have no desire to dispute the fact—he certainly had a tough customer to masticate. If that whale ever thought for a moment that he had a delicate subject to deal with, he fooled himself most unmercifully.—Again, the fact that Jonah swallowed a whale, does not, in the least, infer that he couldn't have taken a smaller specimen of the finny tribe as a desert—for instance a sturgeon, for who knows but his hunger at that time may have been insatiate. Be all that as it may; Jonah still lives, and, in the way of singing schools, is a live business man. He is, at present, engaged in conducting several schools in this county, and, if we may be permitted to judge, by the progress of the one which we attended a few evenings since, we can safely assert that the scholars under his tuition, are rapidly developing themselves into first-class musicians. A person who has never attended a singing school, can form no idea of the patience that a teacher is required to have, in order to conduct the institution successfully. Job was smitten with boils and "sich," but he certainly never taught a singing school, or his patience would have become exhausted—consequently, Jonah has more patience than Job. This apparent indifference on the part of Jonah, may, perhaps, be credited to the enormous meal of which he partook—the whale. The lads and lassies—and especially the lassies—are plump, rosy, and handsome, and oh, how our heart fluttered in our "bissom," as the musical strains burst forth from their cherry lips. How we wished we were a boy again. These singing schools will finally develop into a grand concert, and we feel assured in saying, that all who attend, will be amply repaid for their time and money, besides catching a glimpse of some of the handiwork, of God's last best gift to man—the ladies. SOLON.

Fried has just opened over 50 case of boots and shoes.

Union Republican State Central Committee or Pennsylvania, LA PIERRE HOUSE, PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12, 1871. To the Republicans of Pennsylvania: We tender you our hearty congratulations over the glorious victories recently won by the Republicans of California and Maine. In the former, a State has been won, after four years of Democratic misrule, by an overwhelming majority, and in the latter the firm hold of the Republican party upon the people has been maintained with a tenacity that cannot be shaken.

The victory in California has been gained after an arduous and exciting struggle. It is the result of systematic work, and it demonstrates the value of organization and well directed political labor. The victory in Maine has been won by keeping up the admirable organizations perfected in past years, under the operation of which the Republican vote has been thoroughly brought out.

Both these victories show to us the value and the necessity of thorough organization. They ought to inspire us with the most ardent zeal and with a determination to imitate the example so worthily set us. We appeal to you, therefore, while rejoicing over the victories of your brethren elsewhere, to do as they have done, and secure by your systematic labors a victory as complete as theirs.

The steady stream of Republican success, which setting in with Connecticut, has since flowed on without interruption, must not be checked in its onward flow by a Republican defeat in Pennsylvania. We owe it to our friends in the States which have so gallantly upheld our banner to stand by them, and keep Pennsylvania in the phalanx of Republican States.

We can do this only by cultivating a spirit of union and harmony, keeping up our local organizations actively, and working steadily and with a will to bring out every Republican vote. Everything depends upon organization and work. Our intelligence from all parts of the State is cheering and encouraging. All that is wanted now is a little close attention to the details of local organization. No political victory was ever won without attention to these details; and we rely upon your spirit, energy, and zeal to carry them out systematically and render them effective.

Let the Republicans of the State be true to themselves and to their cause, stand firmly by their State nominees and local tickets, and put their ward and township committees into vigilant activity, and we shall be able to send back to Maine and California, and their sister Republican States a response as cheerful and gladdening as their messages of triumph have been to us.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not burn it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are so remarkable as that which has enabled mankind to find an effective remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does exactly and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs liable to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges the most vigorous the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep, so one will suffer troublesome influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured. Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.
