Notice! Notice!!

To all Whom it may Concern!!!

The undersigned, having gone into the Broom Business, would notify the public, most respectfully, that he is prepared, with the best and latest improved machinery, and the best quality of material, to manufacture

Brooms, Whists, and Small Brooms

for children, in a manner superior to anything in that line ever offered for sale in Monroe County at wholesale and retail, a little below city prices. He is also prepared to furnish to order, at short notice

Broom Machines, Handles, Wire & Twine

all of the best, and warranted to give satisfaction.

The use of one of my Brooms will settle the fact, beyond all dispute, that better can be obtained from me, than can be procured in the city.

To the Farmers of Monroe County, he would say that they can now find a home market for all the broom Corn they can raise, and each farmer should strive to raise enough for his own use and have some left to sell. Those desiring seed to plant can always find an abundance of the best quality of Seed by calling on the undersigned.

The undersigned will, also, attend to SAW FILING at the shortest possible notice, and from his experience in this branch of business, he flatters himself that he cannot fail to give perfect satisfaction.

Before purchasing elsewhere, persons will most certainly advance their interests by calling and examining my stock of Brooms.

Country Produce taken in exchange. Don't forget the place, on Franklin Street, opposite Wm. Huntsman's Livery Stable.

FARMERS,

NOW IS THE TIME TO USE

Yonatt's Condition Powder.

In the Fall and Winter when your cows give but little milk this powder is sure to increase the quantity and improve the quality. For horses, it increases the appetite, promotes digestion, exhilarates the spirits, renders the coat soft and shining. For Hogs one package in your swill barrel will hasten the fattening process to about 100 per cent. This powder has proved an excellent article for sheep. Be sure you get the

Genuine Yonatt's Condition Powder,

MANUFACTURED BY

WILLIAM HOLLINSHEAD.

All other is a counterfeit. See that the name of WM. HOLLINSHEAD is on each package and buy no other. Warranted to give satisfaction or the money refunded.

NEW FIRM.

The undersigned having formed a co-partnership, under the firm name of Bart & Herzog, for the purpose of carrying on the Brewing business, at East Stroudsburg, Pa., would respectfully inform the public that they will be able, all times, to furnish to order, a pure article of at short notice. Their stock of material being the best the City affords, none but the purest and best malt liquors will be permitted to leave their establishment. They respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.

JOHN BURT,

JACOB F. HERZOG,

East Stroudsburg, Pa. Dec. 1, 1870.

Found out why people go to McCarty's to get their furniture, because he buys it at the Ware Rooms of Lee & Co. and sells it at an advance of only twenty-two and two-ninth per cent. Or in other words, Rocking Chairs that he buys of Lee & Co. (through the rummers he don't have) for $4.50 he sells for $5.50. Pays him to buy some good Furniture. LEE & CO. Stroudsburg, Aug. 18, 1870.—1f.

Morrow B. Lowry and the Rocky Mountain Cat.

Jim Stewart, sometimes called "The Commodore," is the most noted darkey in Erie. Jim is a good natured, shrewd sort of fellow, somewhat addicted to doing business now and then on the Jeremy Diddler style, as the following incident will testify. Living near the residence of the Hon. Morrow B. Lowry, he was frequently employed by the latter to do odd jobs around the house and in the garden. One day Mrs. Lowry concluded that the peccadillos of a worthless and venerable tom cat, long an attaché of the family, were such as demanded the infliction of capital punishment, and Jim was called upon to play the part of executioner. After a long chase, the victim was captured and put in a basket, over which an old shawl was securely fastened. The next question was how to dispose of the prisoner. Mrs. L. suggested drowning, but Jim, with tears in his eyes, protested that he could no more drown "that ere" cat than he could "drown himself"; that were he to do so, his conscience, acting on a naturally tender heart, would trouble him so much at nights that he was sure he could never sleep a wink thereafter. Not wishing to ruin Jim's peace of mind, Mrs. L. compromised the matter by giving him a dollar and directing him to take the cat and dispose of it in any way he pleased, so that she could never see it again. Putting the dollar in his pocket and the basket on his arm, Jim started down town. He had not got out of sight of the house when he met Morrow walking leisurely toward his home, and the following colloquy ensued: Morrow—Hello, Jim, what have you got there.

Jim—Oue ob de celebrated Rocky Mountain cats, sah.

Morrow—A Rocky Mountain cat? Why Jim, where did you get him, and what are you going to do with him?

Jim—I golly, sah! Didn't you heah ob de big bunch ob dem cats dat kum to town yesterday from Kaliforny, sah? Bes mousers in de wari, sah, and dis is de biggest and bes one ob de lot, sah.—Hey are gwine to gib me foah dollahs for him at de Reed House, sah.

Morrow—(Recollecting the "general cussedness" of the family cat) Jim, we want a good cat up home, and I guess I'll take this fellow, but—but—don't you think four dollars is mighty steep for a cat?

Jim—All de res' sold for five dollahs sah.

This decided Morrow, so he paid Jim the price asked, and told him to carry the "Rocky Mountain cat" up to Mrs. Lowry. Jim, however, had very important business elsewhere, and begged Morrow to take the basket himself, which the latter good naturedly consented to do. Arriving at home he took his prize into the sitting room, carefully closed the doors, slightly lifted the basket and covering, and smiling benevolently at Mrs. L.'s apparent astonishment, remarked:—"My dear, I've brought you a Rocky Mountain cat—the best mouser"—at this moment the cat jumped out of the basket and commenced rubbing himself against his master's legs. Morrow stopped short, while his wife broke in impatiently:—"La! me mowrow! Why that's the same old cat I gave Jim Stewart a dollar to drown, not more than ten minutes ago."

What followed we know not, but a minutes later the Hon. Morrow B. Lowry might have been noticed on the streets of Erie, armed with a very heavy walking-stick, and wondering "why a man can never find that d—d nigger, when he wants to see him badly.—Beaver Radical.

An Unexpected Reply.

The Superintendent asked me last Sunday to take charge of a class.

"You'll find 'em rather a bad lot," said he. "They all went fishing last Sunday but little Johnny Rand. He is really a good boy, and I hope his example may yet redeem the others. I wish you'd talk to 'em a little."

I told him I would.

They were rather a hard looking set. I don't think I ever witnessed a more elegant assortment of black eyes in my life. Little Johnny Rand, the good boy, was in his place, and I smiled on him approvingly.

As soon as the lesson was over, I said: "Boys, your superintendent tells me you went out fishing last Sunday; all but Johnny here."

"You didn't go did you, Johnny?" I said.

"No, sir."

"That's right. Though this boy is the youngest among you," I continued, "you will learn from his lips words of good counsel, which I hope you will profit by."

I lifted him up in a seat beside me and smoothed his Auburn ringlets.

"Now, Johnny, I want you to tell your teacher, and those wicked boys, why you didn't go fishing last Sunday. Speak up loud now. It was because it was wicked, and you had rather come to Sunday school. Wasn't it?"

"No, sir, it was cos I couldn't find no worms for bait."

The State election in Maine, held on the 11th instant, resulted in a splendid Republican triumph. Sidney Perham was elected Governor by at least 11,000 majority—3000 more than last year. There is hardly a sprinkling of Democrats in the Legislature.

AGRICULTURAL.

Weaning and Care of Colts.

When colts are weaned, they should never be put with older animals of their own species; a few together, with an abundance of room, will do best, and the attention should be from one person who has sense enough to discover any little matter going amiss before it is serious, or, in other words, he should have the gumption to prevent every ailment horseflesh is heir to, instead of waiting to cure it.—For instance, there may be a colt among several which is so shy and nervous that he is afraid to stand up and eat with the others, till his share is nearly consumed. There may be another naturally very slow in masticating, which would lose much of his share, and thus these animals would pine away, for if enough was given so that there would be more than the boldest would eat, it would still be wrong, as there would be a cloying of the fast-eaters.
