Friday evening Lecture at 71 o'clock. G. W. MARRIOTT, D. D., Pastor.

ON Wednesday last the Senatorial committee in the contested election case of McClure against Gray, from the fourth dis trict, reported a resolution declaring that the return of Col. Gray was frudulent and void. and that Col. McClure was lawfully elected Senator. The report was signed by the four Democratic members of the committee, making a majority. The decision of a committee of this character is final, and cannot be revised or rejected by the Senate. Col. Mc Clare thereupon appeared and took his seat. The three Republican Senators did not agree with the majority that Col. McClure had been legally elected, but it is understood that of the return. The Democrats went farther, | Monday last. and rejected enough to unseat Mr. Gray.
