LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Liturgical Services next Sunday. MORNING, 10 1/2. EVENING, 7 1/2. MORNING SERMON: Dagon. EVENING SERMON: The Molten Calf. Lecture this and to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock. G. W. MARRIOTT, D. D., Pastor.

HON. JOHN B. STORM has been enjoying a respite from his Congressional labors, at his home in this place, for several days past.

JOHN N. STOKES, Esq., our indefatigable Express agent reached home on Monday evening last, from an extended visit to friends in the lower part of the State and New Jersey. He is looking well.

We observe by Congressional proceedings, that Congressman Storm got a motion through to have the Delaware River between Trenton and Easton surveyed, with a view to future improvement, by which the river may be made navigable for steamboats to the latter point. This is a good move, though it would have been better if the survey could have been extended to Port Jervis, N. Y.

IN the nomination of Gen. Hart-rant the Radical party have shouldered a "burden which will sink them in the coming contest."

Thus says the Monroe Democrat, last week, in an article commenting upon the nomination of Gen. John F. Hart-rant for Governor, by the late Republican Convention. The Democrat says more in the same article, but the section quoted above contains the point of what it says, the rest being the reasoning employed for the enforcement of the truth of that point.

As a prophet, the Democrat has not, heretofore, earned a very exalted status for the truthfulness of its predictions. On the contrary, the results have, in every instance, we believe, been the reverse of its predictions; and to come to a plain point, neither we nor it, can see even the semblance of a reason why it should be any more successful in its prophesying now.

The Convention, composed of delegates representing the Republicans of the whole State, assembled at Harrisburg and, after deliberation, placed in nomination a man, who has twice already received a large majority of the votes of the people.

The nominee has capacity and general fitness for the position. In the past, in the time of his country's greatest need, he deserted his business, flew to the aid of that country, and dealt telling blows upon the heads of its enemies.

Through the steady determination and action of this nominee and his brethren in arms the life of his country was saved. That done he laid aside his good sword, and retired to the pursuits of civil life. He did not long remain in retirement. The people called for him; and again and again he has stood between them and ruinous financial rapacity, as Auditor General of the State.

Honest men of all parties concede this. Even those Republicans, who from their natural make up, cannot settle down to a contemplation of the situation without giving free vent to their spite, have no fault to find with General Hart-rant personally; but only with the supposition, that he was nominated in the interest of a class of Republicans under whose lead they do not find themselves enrolled.

We admit that throughout the coal regions, or rather the North Eastern tier of Counties, we might have done better with the Hon. W. W. Ketchum, but this does not militate against the idea that we shall be successful with Gen. Hart-rant. Republicans are not slaves to men nor given to manorship; but they do love principle, and, notwithstanding present squinting and kicking in the traces, "sober second thought," will bring them to a consideration of the necessity for Union, and the idea of October will find them as one man for the principles which saved the Union, and enable us at this day to hold high our heads among the nations of the Earth.

The Cameron boss, in which the Democrat indulges has had its day, but it has never produced the results desired: nor will it now. The delegates to the Convention were selected by the people freely and fairly. To say that General Cameron manipulated these people into the folly of acting against their will and interest, is to pay but a sorry compliment indeed to the mass of intelligent minds which go to make up the great Republican majority of the State.

There is nothing tangible about General Hart-rant, either as a Soldier, citizen or Auditor General, on the record; and the Democrat will find, as the 2d Tuesday of October approaches, there will be Union in the Republican ranks, and a stern determination, which cannot but prove successful, to secure his triumphant election. The Republican party has not been accustomed to defeat in the past, and if the nomination of honest, faithful men, and the employment of honest efforts will avail anything, they do not mean to be defeated now.

Important to Letter Writers. Letters once taken from the post office by the proper parties, or delivered to the address, cannot be forwarded without again being prepaid. As the violation of this regulation is a matter of daily occurrence, it should be understood that such letters deposited in the post office for mailing, on which the postage is not prepared, are set to the Dead Letter Office. That printed matter cannot be remailed except upon prepayment at transient rates of postage in stamps.

Go to Simon Fried's for hats and caps.

Have you been to the new Cigar Store?

Prices at Rusters are in accordance with the times, low, low, low down.

Where is our borough Street Committee? A tremendous crop of bowlder Stones await gathering.

Go to Simon Fried's for a nice fitting suit.

Every body is making or getting ready to make garden hereabouts. Lettuce and green peas, but won't we have a high old feasting time after a while.

Ruster has the finest display of Goods ever brought to Stroudsburg.

The first Organ Grinder of the season passed through town on Monday. He found the penny market dull, and did not tarry with us long.

On Main Street, in Fowler's building, is the place to buy your fancy pipes, &c.

Money.—Loaned at short date, on good security by, PEIRSON & STILLMAN, East Stroudsburg, March, 14-15. Office opposite R. R. Depot.

Jack Frost is still lingering around this neighborhood. Monday and Tuesday last were days on which fire and warm rooms didn't go so bad after all.

Go to Simon Fried's for shirts and Umbrellas.

A new machine shop, under the proprietorship, of Mr. G. Sanford, an experienced Mechanic, is now fitting up, in the upper end of our borough. We believe the Manufacture of Steam Engines is to be a speciality.

Ruster don't boast of numberless trunks, and big and little boxes, but his counters and shelves do what is far better, they exhibit an array of first class goods, worth looking at and worth buying.

Buck Beer, from the celebrated Brewery of Wackenbuth, Adam & Co., Newark, N. J., will be on tap at Born's Saloon, on Saturday next. Lovers of the beverage that "exhilarates but don't intoxicate" had better make a note of it.

The new Cigar Store is the place to buy your fine Havana Cigars.

An effort is making to secure two mails per day on the Del. Lack. & Western Railroad. Petitions, numerously signed have already been forwarded to Washington to secure that desirable end. We hope the effort may prove a success.

In novelties Ruster is ahead of all competitors, beating even Barnum himself, because there is no humbugging in what he offers to the public.

The stock of carpets, oil cloths, window shades and willow-ware at Lee & Co's (where may also be found the largest assortment of Furniture in Monroe county) is unsurpassed. Call and see. [April 11 1872-1m]

The new Cigar Store is the place to buy your fancy chewing and smoking Tobacco.

Quite a number of our young ladies from 16 years, and under, are getting to be accomplished Smokists. To see them on our streets with "long nines" in their mouths has almost ceased to be a novelty. "Do their manas know their out?"

The "hanging on season," having arrived it would be well for property owners to see that gate posts are firmly planted and hinges in good substantial order. We saw several parties indulging the luxury on Saturday evening last, and they seemed to like it amazingly.

Quarterly Meeting.—Dr. William Cooper, P. E., will hold Quarterly Conference at Wesley Chapel on the 30th inst at 3 o'clock P. M. and preach in the evening at 7. J. PASTORFIELD, Pastor. Tannersville Circuit, Philadelphia Co. April 22, 1872.]

Teachers and Parents should provide their children with "The School Festival" Quarterly Magazine, devoted to new matter and exercises for School Exhibitions and Public Days. It is a live, fresh thing, that has long been needed by all teachers and pupils, and is conducted by the same Mr. Sewell who founded and so long edited the "Little Corporal," assisted by Mrs. Slade and other able writers. The April No. has just reached us, containing a beautiful "May Queen" coronation exercise and many other choice things. Write for it, to the Publisher, Alfred L. Sewell, Chicago, Ill. Price seventy-five cents a year; single or sample copy, Twenty cts. Premiums to Clubs.

Wood's Household Magazine, under the editorial management of Gail Hamilton, has more than doubled its subscription list, during the past four months. The May number contains: "Migration, Colonization, Homes," by Horace Greeley; "Miss Hannah Adams," by James Parton; "Household Discoveries," by Gail Hamilton; "Brother Anderson," by Thomas K. Beecher; "Longevity," by Dr. Dio Lewis; Reminiscences of Rev. Dr. Bethune," by A. A. Willits, D.D., etc. Every woman should read Gail Hamilton's editorial, in which he says: "It will never do to trust men with a liberty which they will abuse. The best of them, men who may be respectable and even distinguished as jurists, doctors, merchants, mechanics, are, in domestic matters, but children of a larger growth. They must be trained. They may be allowed liberty, but they must not be allowed to take it without permission."

The Household is a first-class original Magazine, published at one dollar a year, by S. S. Wood & Co., Newburg, N. Y. A specimen copy mailed free to any address.

Home and Health.

The April number of this valuable and spicy family and health journal is received, and deserves more than a passing mention. After a year of unprecedented success, the publishers announce a series of improvements which bid fair to eclipse anything heretofore attempted. The May number is to be greatly enlarged, and will be under the editorial management of Rev. Geo. G. Lyon, a gentleman of rare acquirements. In every number there will be the most entertaining and instructive reading for parents and adults, the choicest stories and anecdotes for young people and children, wit and humor for old and young, valuable information on plants, fruits and flowers, useful hints on housekeeping and cooking, and a full summary of current events transpiring in the world, together with the most varied and elaborate articles on hygiene and medicine, and numerous practical suggestions on the art of preserving the health, on the care and food of infants, and on the home treatment of all diseases and ailments. Notwithstanding all these improvements, the price is to remain the same, $1.50 per annum. Address: Home Publishing House, or De Puy, Lyon & Co., 52 Fourth Avenue, New York.

Below we publish the names of the officers of the Monroe County Co-operative Life Insurance Company. This Company is organized under a charter granted by the last Legislature, and establishes a plan, by means of which every man in the County can effect a cheap insurance on his life, and, thus at death, secure for those dependent upon him a provision against want. The particulars of membership, fees, amounts secured by insurance, are not yet fully developed. When all is fixed we shall feel called upon to go more at length into the merits of the plan. DIRECTORS.—R. S. Staples, Kindarus Shupp, Henry R. Biesecker, William Fine, C. D. Brodhead, M. F. Coolbaugh, Peter Gruver, Jacob H. Fetherman and E. B. Dreher.

The first meeting of the Company was held on Saturday last, when an organization was secured by the election of the following officers: President R. S. Staples; Secretary, Jas. Carr, Jr.; Treasurer, E. B. Dreher; Solicitor, James Carr, Jr.

A committee was appointed to draft by-laws and regulations for the government of the company and its members, with instructions to report at a meeting to be held on Monday, the 29th inst.

APRIL 17th, 1872. MR. EDITOR:—Allow me through your columns to call your attention to an improvement of interest in this place, pushed forward by the energy of the Methodist Church and their friends. The Hall known as Peter's Hall, which has been occupied by them for Church and Sunday School purposes has been neatly painted and fit up and presents a neat, comfortable appearance. The pulpit is walnut top (imitation) also the altar, railing and the other parts of the wood work being painted white, except the post and braces, which are dark. The room is nicely lighted with twelve large safety lamps, with glass reflectors. The windows are provided with green window shades; the pulpit and platform is carpeted with crimson and black ingrain carpet, and the bible stand is covered with crimson velvet, corded and hung with two tassels at either corner, all presenting a very neat appearance. The Society is indebted to the Pennsylvania Bible Society for a present of a beautiful plain print Hymn book to match. Sunday Morning 14th inst. the Pastor, Bro. Daniel Young, spoke in tones of gratitude in reference to these gentlemen and in behalf of the people, requested the thanks of the Society to be returned to these gentlemen for their noble gift, praying that they might be blessed with prosperity, and the Pennsylvania Bible Society be a power for good. The Ladies of the Society have organized a Society under the name of the "Christian Union," of the M. E. Church, and the Ladies representing the Union S. School also have a Society. Both of these Societies are in a prosperous condition and are powers of good, and we hope the Ladies will never weary in their efforts to do good, though the little that is done now, may not be apparent, yet time and eternity, both, will show the result. God bless those enterprises. A LOOKER ON.

The undersigned begs leave to inform the Citizens of Monroe county and vicinity, that he has disposed of his entire interest in the Real Estate business, to his late partner, Wilson Peirson, for whom he solicits a continuance of the patronage so liberally bestowed on him heretofore. The undersigned beg leave to inform the citizens of Monroe county and vicinity, that they have entered into co-partnership, for the purpose of buying and selling REAL ESTATE, as successors to the late firm of Geo. L. Walker & Co., and respectfully solicit the continuance of the patronage extended to the former firm. WILSON PEIRSON, THOS. STILLMAN, dec. 14, '71-1f.]

Every thing at Rusters is warranted to be as recommended or no sale.

The Stokes case is not yet dead though it sleepeth. It is said that as soon as District Attorney Garvin can prepare the answer to the voluminous bill of exceptions in the case, covering nearly two thousand pages of legal cap, the trial of the case will be resumed. Miss Mansfield, who has not visited Stokes since his incarceration, it is said, will appear as a witness on the trial.

In Springtown, Bucks co., there is said to be one of the finest trout fisheries in this State. The pond swarms with young trout, and of the larger ones quite a number have been caught that weighed about two and a half pounds. The spring that supplies the fishery furnishes sufficient water to supply three fisheries of the same size.

In ready made clothing, whether in city or country, Ruster's stock cannot be beaten.

The rafting season has now fairly commenced. A number of rafts passed down the Delaware every day last week. The lumbermen may now be found in the usual numbers at their accustomed stopping places in Philadelphia, looking after customers and awaiting the arrival of the rafts which are daily coming to hand.

The total vote of Connecticut, at the recent election, according to the official report, was 93,098. Jewell, Republican, received 46,563 votes; Hubbard, Dem., 44,562; Gillette, Temperance, 1549; Harrison, Labor Reform, 399; scattering, 25. Majority of Jewell over Hubbard, 2001; over all, 28. The other Republican candidates for State officers received majorities ranging from 410 to 531. The State Senate stands 15 Republicans to 6 Democrats, the House 130 Republicans to 111 Democrats.

Go to Simon Fried's for trunks and valises.

Look Out How You Go to New York.

George Rice of Pottstown Pa., who is a son of John Rice, the Philadelphia millionaire and an engineer and railroad contractor by occupation, went to York York April 4, on ordinary business, stayed at the Fifth Avenue Hotel two days, left on Saturday, April 6, to return home, and has not since been seen or heard from by his friends. He was robbed about three months ago of $15,000 by two ruffians who threw pepper in his eyes, and it is feared that he has been robbed again, and this time murdered by his assailants.

Greely Outdone.

A fancy farmer of Scott county, Ky., is said (George town Times) to have built a $2,000 hog-pen, which is painted and grained, furnished with hot and cold water, warmed with steam, and lighted with gas. There is a fine library, where can be found Cobb's Elementary Works, the Works of Bacon, Inquiry Regarding the Descendants of Ham, Hogg's Poems, Cobden on the Corn Laws, and the popular little poem, "Root Hog or Die." The troughs are of mahogany, inlaid with ivory, and furnished with Phelan cushions. Whenever a hog is led out to execution, chloroform is administered.

If all who design purchasing goods call on Ruster they will make money both in quality and price of goods purchased.

The first attempt at a census of the Orthodox Friends is made by William H. S. Wood, in the Friend's Review. He gives the number for 1871, as reported by the Yearly Meetings, and comparing them with estimates for previous years, made from computations based upon the reported number of children, has been able to give an approximate representation of the growth or increase of the society. His results are as follows: The total present membership is 57,405, and shows a gain of 755 over the numbers comprised in the Yearly Meeting existing twenty years ago. During these years the membership of the meetings east of the Alleghanies has decreased 7,722, while those west have increased 8,477.

Another Mysterious Disappearance.

Mr. Hiram Fulmer, a tanner, engaged in business near Williamsburg, Upper Mount Bethel township, left his home for New York city on Monday March 25th, ultimo, and since then nothing has been seen of him nor have any thing been received of his whereabouts. A brother of his, we understand, visited New York but was unable to hear anything of him. He had in his possession when he left about $700, and was to receive in New York about $2,000. The family of Fulmer are sorely troubled and fears are entertained that he may have been killed. We have heard no reason assigned for this unaccountable disappearance of Mr. F., and trust that he will soon be at home again. There seems to be a regular epidemic of absconding raging at present in this country.—Easton Argus.

Go to Simon Fried's for neck ties and collars.

The library of the late Hon Thaddeus Stevens was sold by public auction in Philadelphia on Friday. The collection embraced some 1,200 volumes, a few of the books being rare and valuable. Good prices were realized, the aggregate sum being $3,000. The sale was attended by many men of prominence in political and social life from Boston, New York, Baltimore, Washington and elsewhere. Connected with the sale is a painful history, which was mentioned in the auction room. Thaddeus Stevens died at Washington, August 11, 1868. In his will was a provision bequeathing to a nephew the library referred to on condition that he abstained from indulgence in spirituous and malt liquors for a period of five years. In the event of his failing to keep the pledge of total abstinence, Hons. O. J. Dickey, Edward M'Pherson and Anthony Roberts, executors of the estate, were required to sell the library. On Friday it was sold, and the amount will be distributed among all the legal heirs.

The New Trial of Dr. Schappe.

CARLISLE, April 20.—Sudge Jenkins, under the special act of Assembly, passed March 28, heard a motion for a new trial in the case of Dr. Paul Schappe, under conviction for murder, after hearing the argument, a new trial was granted, which will commence on the fourth Monday in August.

If you want to see the latest style of spring goods, go to Simon Fried's.

During the quarter ending March 31st, there arrived at New York 28,203 immigrants, of whom 8,884 were females.—Great Britain and Ireland sent 11,502 including 3,948 from Ireland; Germany, 12,479; France, 1,386; and Italy, 766.

There is no charge for showing goods at Rusters, neither are there cross looks if you do not buy.

The Convention to revise the State Constitution will consist of 133 members, chosen on the cumulative voting system.—The bill, as it passed, provides for the election of three delegates from each Senatorial district, only two of whom can be voted for by each voter. Twenty-eight delegates are to be elected at large in the State, each citizen voting only for fourteen, and six delegates at large are to be chosen from Philadelphia, each person to vote for three. This is as plain as we can state it, and it can be easily understood from this statement. There are thirty-three Senators, and Senatorial districts, three from each will make ninety-nine delegates, twenty-eight at large in the State, and six at large in Philadelphia will make the full convention, viz: 133, same as whole number of the Legislature. The bill gives the minority in each Senatorial district one out of three delegates, the minority in the State at large fourteen out of twenty-eight, and the minority in the city of Philadelphia, three out of six to be elected. It is estimated that the Republicans will have a majority of three in the Convention, and Mr. Buckalew's plan of voting will have a fair trial, at the election for delegates.

In collars, neck ties, cuffs, &c., for lady's or gents wear Ruster has all the novelties. Call and see them.

A great mass meeting, to indorse the administration of President Grant, was held in Cooper Institute, New York, last Wednesday evening. The attendance was very large, thousands of persons being unable to obtain admission to the hall. William E. Dodge presided, and the list of Vice Presidents included Peter Cooper, Edwards Pierrepont, James Gordon Bennett, H. B. Claflin, Gen. Sigel, Henry Clews, Alex. Taylor, Anthony J. Drexel, John Hoey, Thurlow Weed, W. H. Vanderbilt, C. D. Morgan, William H. Vermilye, L. P. Morton, S. B. Ruggles, Henry Ward Beecher and other prominent citizens. Hon. E. Delafield Smith read an address and resolutions eulogizing President Grant's services and administration, and declaring that "the majority of the people expect, desire, and decree the re nomination and re election of President Grant." Letters were read from Senators Conkling and Edmunds, George W. Curtis, Vice President Colfax, Lieutenant-Governor Pinchbeck of Louisiana, Gerrit Smith, Fred Douglass and George W. Gibbons, President of the Workingmen's Central Union. The principal speakers were General D. E. Sickles and Senators Wilson and Morton.

A VOICE FROM THE PULPIT.

Rev. D. S. Frost, Pastor of the Free Baptist Church, Jonesville, Vermont, writes: "I had suffered for many years from Chronic Diarrhoea and Colic, becoming so much reduced that I was at times unable to attend to my ministerial duties. I had been treated by several physicians, both Allopathic and Homoeopathic, but with no permanent results. While on a visit to Scranton, Penna., I experienced a very severe attack, and by the advice of some of my friends procured a bottle of Misher's Herb Bitters. The effect then produced gave promise of an ultimate cure and on my return home I continued its use. I have taken six bottles and am cured. It is truly a valuable remedy." April 4, 1872-1m.
