A despatch from Upper Sandusky, Ohio, giving the particulars of the recent terrible tornado at the village of Quincy, Logan county, says two children were Stroudsburg, that: tilled and several persons wounded, some ground. The Methodist and Baptist churches were demolished, and, snapping of large trees like pipe stems, the tornado HENRY MILLER Sect'y. advanced through the town of Degraff. where the terrible scene was repeated. and, if possible, the destruction of property was greater. In several instances hildren were caught up by the wind and carried some distance in the nir. The "Washington Street" shall be declared a devastation was terrible and the people Public High-way of (60 ft.) sixty feet width. carried some distance in the nir. The need relief badly.

Mottoes for 1872.

Be vigilant. Pay as you go. Trade is money. Read your county paper. Never "fool" in business. Learn to think and act for yourself. Do not kick every stone in the path.

Have but few confidants, and the fewer I'se your own brains, rather than those fothers.

A man of honor respects his word as he does his bond. No man can get rich who lounges in tores and saloons.

If you have a place of business, bel aund there when wanted or in business He who seeks to build his reputation on the weakness of another, has an un afe foundation. Learn to say "no." No necessity of snapping it dog fushion, but say it re pectfully, as you ought to. llelp others when you can, but never
