

THE JEFFERSONIAN.

Devoted to Politics, Literature, Agriculture, Science, Morality, and General Intelligence.

VOL. 30.

STROUDSBURG, MONROE COUNTY, PA., SEPTEMBER 12, 1872.

NO. 19.

Published by Theodore Schoch.

For one year in advance—and if not paid before the end of the year, two dollars and fifty cents will be charged. No paper discontinued until all arrears are paid, except at the option of the Editor.

JOB PRINTING,
OF ALL KINDS,
Executed in the highest style of the Art, and on the most reasonable terms.

Valuable Property FOR SALE.

The subscribers offer for sale, their residence in Stroudsburg. The lot has a front of 145 ft. on Main Street, with a depth of 250 feet.

The buildings consist of a convenient dwelling house, store house, barn and other out buildings. There is an abundance of choice apples, pears, plums, grapes and small fruits, with excellent water.

May 16, 1872. A. M. & R. STOKES.

DR. J. LANTZ,

Surgeon and Mechanical Dentist.

Will have his office on Main Street, in the second story of Dr. S. Walton's brick building, nearly opposite the Stroudsburg House, and he detests himself in his eighteen years constant practice and the most careful and careful attention to all matters pertaining to his profession, that he is fully able to perform all operations in the dental line in the most careful, tasteful and skillful manner.

Special attention given to saving the Natural Teeth; also, to the insertion of Artificial Teeth on Rubber, Gold, Silver or Continuous Gums, and perfect fits in all cases insured.

At all previous times the great folly and danger of trusting their work to the inexperienced, or to those living at a distance.

April 13, 1871.—1y

DR. GEO. W. JACKSON

PHYSICIAN, SURGEON & ACCOUCHER.

In the old office of Dr. A. Reeves Jackson, residence in Wyckoff's building.

STROUDSBURG, PA.

August 8, 1872.—1f

DR. H. J. PATTERSON,

OPERATING AND MECHANICAL DENTIST.

Having located in East Stroudsburg, Pa., announces that he is now prepared to insert artificial teeth in the most beautiful and life-like manner. Also, great attention given to filling and preserving the natural teeth. Teeth extracted without pain by use of Nitrous Oxide Gas. All other work incident to the profession done in the most skillful and approved style. All work attended to promptly and warranted. Charges reasonable. Patronage of the public solicited.

Office in A. W. Loder's new building, opposite Anatomical House, East Stroudsburg, Pa.

July 11, 1872.—1y

DR. N. L. PECK,

Surgeon Dentist.

Announces that having just returned from Dental College, he is fully prepared to make artificial teeth in the most beautiful and life-like manner, and to fill decayed teeth according to the most improved method.

Teeth extracted without pain, when desired, by the use of Nitrous Oxide Gas, which is entirely harmless. Repairing of all kinds neatly done. All work warranted. Charges reasonable.

Office in J. G. Keller's new Brick building, Main Street, Stroudsburg, Pa.

Aug 31—1f

DR. C. O. HOFFMAN, M. D.

Would respectfully announce to the public that he has removed his office from Oakland to Candisden, Monroe County, Pa.

Trusting that many years of consecutive practice of Medicine and Surgery will be a sufficient guarantee for the public confidence.

February 23, 1870.—1f

JAMES H. WALTON,

Attorney at Law.

Office in the building formerly occupied by L. M. Burson, and opposite the Stroudsburg Bank, Main street, Stroudsburg, Pa.

Jan 13—1f

LACKAWANNA HOUSE,

OPPOSITE THE DEPOT,

East Stroudsburg, Pa.

B. J. VAN COTT, Proprietor.

THE BAR contains the choicest liquors and the TABLE is supplied with the best market affords. Charges moderate. (May 3 1872—1f)

WATSON'S

Mount Vernon House,

117 and 119 North Second St.

ABOVE ARCH,

PHILADELPHIA.

May 30, 1872—1y.

KELLSVILLE HOTEL.

The undersigned having purchased the above well known and popular Hotel Property, would respectfully inform the traveling public that he has refurnished and fitted up the Hotel in the best style. A handsome Bar, with choice liquors and Segars, polite attendants and moderate charges.

CHARLES MANAL, Proprietor.

Oct 19 1871. 1f.

BARTONVILLE HOTEL.

This old established Hotel, having recently changed hands, and been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, will reopen for the reception of guests on Tuesday, May 27th.

The public will always find this house a desirable place of resort. Every department will be managed in the best possible manner. The table will be supplied with the best Market Article, and connoisseurs will always find none but the best wines and liquors at the bar.

Good stabling belonging to the Hotel, will be found at all times under the care of careful and obliging attendants.

May 23, 1872. ANTHONY H. ROEMER.

VINEGAR BITTERS are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse taste, called "Tonic," "Aperients," "Restoratives," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, and are a source of all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition, enriching it, refreshing and invigorating both mind and body. They are easy of administration, prompt in their action, and in their results, safe and reliable in all forms of disease.

No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion. Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the Regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the decline of life, it will display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Biliousness, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting on the system without irritating, or inflaming the Liver and Visceral Organs, and without causing any of the Disorders incident to the use of Cathartics.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Itches, Spots, Pimples, Furuncles, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scars, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find it impure, by the use of these Bitters, which are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist: "There is scarcely an individual upon the face of the globe, who is not in some degree affected by the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy matter, which are the harbors and nurseries of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuge, no anthelmintic, will free the system from worms like these Bitters."

Mechanical Diseases. Persons engaged in Painting and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, who are exposed to the dust and impurities of the Bowels. To guard against this take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS once each week.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers, the Mississippi, the Ohio, the Missouri, the Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Peruvian, Amazon, Marañon, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumnal seasons, are always more or less attended with biliousness, and are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal organs. These are always more or less attended with biliousness, and are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal organs.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swelling, Itch, and other eruptions of the skin, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist: "There is scarcely an individual upon the face of the globe, who is not in some degree affected by the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy matter, which are the harbors and nurseries of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuge, no anthelmintic, will free the system from worms like these Bitters."

The properties of Dr. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic and Cathartic, Purgative, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The Aperient and mild Laxative properties of Dr. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are the best safeguard in all cases of eruptions and malignant fevers, their balsamic, healing, and soothing properties protect the system from the effects of the disease. Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach, and bowels, either from inflammation, wind, colic, cramps, etc. Their Counter-irritant influence extends throughout the system. Their Diuretic properties act on the Kidneys, correcting and regulating the flow of urine. Their Anti-Bilious properties stimulate the liver, in the secretion of bile, and its discharges through the biliary ducts, and are superior to all remedial agents, for the cure of Bilious Fevers, Typhoid, and Ague, &c.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with WALKER'S BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fortified. Cleanse the stomach, the bowels, the kidneys, and the nerves are rendered disease-proof, by this great invigorant.

Directions.—Take of the Bitters on going to bed at night from a half to one and one-half wine-glassful. Eat good nourishing food, such as beef-steak, mutton, veal, chicken, roast beef, and vegetables, and take outdoor exercise. They are composed of purely vegetable ingredients, and contain no spirit.

WALKER, Proprietor, H. H. McDONALD & CO., Druggists and Gen. Agts., San Francisco, Cal., and cor. of Washington and Charlton Sts., New York. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS.

June 27, 1872.—3m.

LOOK THIS WAY,

ALL WHO WANT

Carriage Work or Blacksmithing

DONE IN A

SUPERIOR MANNER!

THE Subscriber begs leave to inform the public that he is fully prepared, at his establishment, at the corner of Simpson and Sarah streets, in the borough of Stroudsburg, to make to order, every style of

Carriage, Wagon,

and, in fact, everything in his line of business, at the shortest possible notice, and on the most reasonable terms.

Carriages repaired, trimmed and painted in the best style of the art.

Having first-class material always on hand, and none but first-class workmen engaged, the public are assured that none but first-class work will be turned out of his shop.

In connection with his Carriage Shop he has also a Blacksmith Shop, where superior workmen will always be found ready to attend to the orders of customers.

The public are invited to call and examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere.

September 19, 1867.—1f.

P. S. WILLIAMS,

Watchmaker & Jeweler,

MAIN-ST. STROUDSBURG, PA.

Located in corner building, third door below the Jeffersonian office. Room handsomely fitted up, and heavily stocked with the finest assortment of ever offered in this section of country.

Clocks, Watches, Jewelry, Jewelers Notions, &c.,

A full assortment of Spectacles, of the best quality, and suited to all ages, always on sale.

Silver-ware, and Silver Plated ware, always on hand at manufacturers prices.

Repairing neatly executed, and charges extremely moderate. Calls from the public respectfully solicited.

Sole Agent for the celebrated Diamond Spectacles.

November 5th, 1868.—1y.

MASON TOCK,

PAPER HANGER,

GLAZIER AND PAINTER,

MONROE STREET,

Nearly opposite Kautz's Blacksmith Shop,

STROUDSBURG, PA.

The undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Stroudsburg and vicinity that he is now fully prepared to do all kinds of Paper Hanging, Glazing and Painting, promptly and at short notice, and that he will keep constantly on hand a fine stock of Paper Hangings of all descriptions and at low prices. The patronage of the public is earnestly solicited. (May 16, 1872.)

A. ROCKAFELLOW,

DEALER IN

Ready-Made Clothing, Gents Furnishing Goods, Hats & Caps,

Boots & Shoes, &c.

EAST STROUDSBURG, PA.

(Near the Depot.)

The public are invited to call and examine goods. Prices moderate.

May 6, 1869.—1f.

Harness & Saddlery.

The above business has again been resumed at the old stand, lately swept away by the late flood, near Baldwin's Hotel, in Stroudsburg, where will be kept constantly on hand the best assortment of

Harness, double and single,

Saddles,

Bridles,

Collars,

and every other article usually furnished in this line of business. Work made to order on the shortest notice. A large assortment of always on hand. Call and make your own selection, and it will be furnished in style and price not to be excelled in this market.

Mountings and Saddlery Hardware

Strict attention paid to repairing and done in shortest notice. Call and examine

JOHN O. SAYLOR, Agent for

PETER GRUVER.

October 6, 1870.—1f

DON'T YOU KNOW THAT J. H.

McCarthy is the only Undertaker in Stroudsburg who understands his business? If not, attend a Funeral managed by any other Undertaker in town, and you will see the proof of the fact.

[Sept. 16, '67]

A WOMAN METAMORPHOSED.

A Story Told for Truth and Vouched for, but which the Reader May Believe or Not.

[From the Missouri Democrat, August 22.]

Some fifteen years ago, at one of the principal seminaries in Ohio were two beautiful young ladies, whom circumstances threw unusually close together. They became like the friends in Shakespeare, "a double cherry growing on one stem."

They studied together, ate, ate pencils together, and in their nocturnal envelopes, sat at their room window to gaze upon the moonlight and tom-cats, who slept on the adjoining roof. In the course of time they graduated, and each went to her home. But their friendship was not impaired by distance, and the national revenue was considerably increased by the postage on daily letters from each to the other full of affection and not crossed more than twice.

In 1863 one of them became acquainted with a gallant soldier from Iowa, holding the rank of colonel, who had distinguished himself during the war. A brief acquaintance formed during the furlough soon ripened into love, and finally culminated in a happy marriage.

For two years they lived together, and under their roof no guest save happiness seemed to have been admitted. One child, the idol of its parents, was born to them. Towards the end of 1865, however, people began to notice that Mrs. — had changed considerably in appearance.

Her voice, once soft and silvery, had now a genuine masculine ring. Her hands seemed no longer small and fragile, under their weight of rings, but large and bony. An indescribable change in her walk was apparent, and at last a luxuriant beard forced its way upon her face. It was painfully evident that her sex was changing. Physicians and surgeons were called in, and all were astonished, but none could prevent nature from carrying out her strange freak.

The unfortunate wife, almost broken hearted, begged her husband to apply for a divorce. He applied for it, and it was granted. Mrs. —, throwing off the petticoat and panier, which were hardly compatible with the beard, gave up her feminine accomplishments and pursuits, forsook the sewing machine, treated talking as a lost art, and earned her way by giving music lessons on the piano. Of music she had always been very fond, and her rare accomplishments now stood her in good stead. Through all this time, even when parted from her husband, she had been in correspondence with her faithful friend and schoolmate of years before.

The changes which caused husband and friends to forsake her had no effect upon the faithful heart of her girl friend. And now comes the strangest part of this truthful and wonderful story. The school girls of ten years ago are now man and wife. When Mrs. — developed into Mr. —, she naturally turned for consolation and friendship to her old friend and talked love, not as the school girl, but as the man. In the new character she won again the heart which was already hers. They were betrothed and married, and now live together happily in the State of Iowa, prosperous in business and highly respected by all who know them.

As a matter of course the names of the parties are withheld, on account of the prominent positions they hold in society, and to shield them from the curious gazes of all who visit their city. A correspondent of the Democrat while traveling there heard this strange story, went into their store, and made a small purchase in order to obtain a view of this strange couple. He found them both in the store. The husband may be some twenty eight or thirty years of age, but does not look older than a man of twenty five. His figure is slight and well knit. His height is about five feet five inches, and his weight may be 130 or 140 pounds. His hair is a wavy brown, almost black, and he wears a neat light moustache but no beard, though his "chin new reaped showed like a stubble field in harvest time." His features are regular and pleasing; eyes dark and mouth small and firm. The face is not that of a woman, but of a keen, active and cultivated man. His wife (or her wife, as the reader may prefer), is about twenty-six or twenty-seven, very young looking, with an abundance of blond hair and very sweet dark blue eyes. She seemed very fond of her husband, and followed his every motion with her eyes, never speaking to him without addressing him as "dear." Their life, according to the neighbors, is an uninterrupted honeymoon.

White county, Ind., has produced a baby with two heads facing in opposite directions—a regular Jaous.

A gentleman whose wife recently presented him with twin sons has been complaining of sunstroke.

A Missouri agriculturist tells a story of his having corn thirty three feet high, and expects the public to give ear to it.

Amale infant with two tongues has been born in Indiana, and the parents are congratulating themselves that he isn't a girl.

Chicago has a dog which unties horses hitched to posts, then jumps into the buggy and barks until the thing starts.

BUCKALEW OR HARTRANFT?

The political contest in this State centers chiefly on the candidates for Governor.

There are other important positions to be filled, as Auditor General and Congressmen at Large, but all else is held in abeyance for the gubernatorial fight.

This has changed phase considerably, so that in place of its being a question whether Buckalew is not greatly superior to Hartranft, it is inquired whether he would be wanted at all. An array of facts has developed against him that is absolutely startling.

He is a chronic office-seeker, has held office for twenty years, managing to derive from his public career $100,000 in salaries. This is a type of man not admired in this country. His public career has not been such as to recommend him for the Governorship at this time. Consistent in his disloyalty, he was blatant in his denunciations of Lincoln on his return from a foreign mission; elevated to the United States Senate, he took the oath of office and yet corresponded with rebels, fomented opposition to the drafts, encouraged desertion, and in various ways aided and encouraged the rebellion.

This countenance and support, extended by Buckalew and others of like spirit, prolonged the war—thus sending to their graves many of the brave boys in blue. The war has been over seven years. We ask if the people are willing that a man like this shall have the honor of presiding over a loyal State. The answer comes from all directions, no.

General Hartranft was a civilian when the war was broke out—but joined the army, fought at Bull Run, and so through the successive battles of the war. There is no flaw in his record, whether for loyalty, bravery, or ability. He became famous in deeds of desperate daring. Re-entering civil life, he was chosen Auditor General—an office of great responsibility, whose duties require a well-balanced judgment, fine legal discrimination, and a fearless and vigorous mind. He has filled the office to universal satisfaction—the legislature extending the term in his case, till his successor is regularly elected. He has collected $35,000,000 of account due the State; his decisions in complicated cases have been sustained by the courts, and his record thus without reproach. As one of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, he has aided in reducing the State debt over ten millions dollars in eight years. Against him but a single charge of imprudence has even been alleged, and this was shown to have been remedied, as soon as the true character of the person he was dealing with was revealed to him. This is a brief resume of the two candidates—their records and their claims. Is it surprising that Hartranft is so universally preferred?

Candidates represent parties—is there anything in the parties to indicate a change of preference? If Buckalew is not believed he secretly dislikes the Liberal Democratic movement in which he is identified. Yet he affiliates with it, and goes marching forward under Greeley's warlike banner. We ask the soldiers of the war, Democrats or Republicans, whether they can sustain this party, which boldly proposes to annual the achievements of their bravery and valor, and treat conquered rebels as though they were entitled to honor for their crimes? There is no misapprehension on this point. Mr. Greeley insists that they shall be made to forget the war—which means that their sorrowful remembrances are to be soothed away by agreeable offices; and Buckalew travels on the same line. Do we want a party or man representing these principles for Governor?

General Hartranft stands associated with a party whose record is heroic. It fought for the entire Union during the war. It has stood firm for a united country since the war, and has promoted peace, quietude and prosperity. The best era the country has known is linked with the administration of the government by the Republican party. With all this record, so noble and good, Hartranft stands identified. He not only will be elected Governor by a handsome majority, but it is fitting that he should be.—Pittsburgh Gazette.

The notorious Hugh Mara, who shot Alderman McMullen, at a saloon in Philadelphia a few weeks ago, and for whose arrest a reward of $15,000 was offered, was captured on Thursday night last. Mara was recognized by Alderman John B. Buck, as the latter was on his way home, at the corner of Broad and Vine streets. Mara at first denied his identity, but the Alderman seized him, when his prisoner threw off all disguise and acknowledged himself to be the man that was wanted. It is believed that Mara has been secreted in city since the attempted assassination of McMullen.

A great disaster occurred on Long Island Sound on Friday morning last. The steam propeller Metis, carrying passengers between New York and Providence, during the heavy storm which prevailed at the time, collided with a schooner, knocking a hole through the bottom of the steamer. The boat at once commenced sinking. There were one hundred and fifty persons on board, about half of whom perished. Most of those who escaped saved themselves by climbing on the upper deck, which separated from the hull and was carried to the shore by the gale.

A GENEROUS CONQUEROR.

Hartranft and a Rebel Colonel.

The Norristown Herald says: At a reunion of the Diognothian Literary society, at Lancaster, a little over a year ago, Gen. Hartranft presided. It fell to his lot to make the opening speech, which he did in a plain practical manner, although at the same time enlisting the strictest attention of the assembled visitors. After dilating in a pleasing style concerning his college associations and habits, he concluded by referring to the fact "that during the war he met a Diognothian brother on the battle-field, who occupied a prominent position in the Confederate army, and the thought occurred to him at the time that if he (Hartranft) should have been captured by the enemy he would have been well cared for by his college associate, and that on the other hand if his brother should have been his prisoner he could not have treated him illly. "In conclusion I have the pleasure of introducing to you this evening Col. Henry Kyd Douglass, of Hagerstown, Md., who will speak to you of Our Re-union."

The effect of this coincidence of the Union General and Confederate Colonel forgetting the bitter old feud from which they so recently emerged and "shaking hands over the bloody chasm," electrified the audience, which immediately broke forth with uproarious applause, and the wildest excitement continued for many minutes.

Colonel Douglass arose and delivered the most eloquent speech of the evening. He prefaced his remarks by saying that the "gallant soldier who addressed you forgot to tell you under what circumstances he met me on the battlefield. It was shortly after a bloody contest, when the warm blood of the brethren North and South had been freely shed. I was hard pressed and Hartranft kept driving me back, back, back. I came within the Federal line, displaying a small white flag, and had the extreme pleasure of meeting my old college friend. He did not explain to you this circumstance.—He drove me from my position, but I do not intend that he shall drive me from my position this evening."

This acknowledgement of defeat, which Hartranft modestly did not explain to the society, reminds one of the struggle that is now taking place on the battle ground in Pennsylvania. Buckalew, the leader of the Democratic hosts, is trying to conquer the valiant army of Hartranft. Ever since the nominating convention at Harrisburg our gallant General has "kept driving" Buckalew "back, back!" On the second Tuesday in October he will be forced to hoist the white flag and make a complete surrender. "He will be driven from his position." But as Hartranft was a personal friend of the Confederate Colonel, so likewise is he on intimate terms with Buckalew, the Democratic leader, who has already stated that he will make a good Governor. They will have a pleasant interview, no doubt. The surrender will have to be made, and the Republican party and the country will be saved.

BORN DRUNK.

Among the names registered at the Tombs the other night was that of a youth, about fifteen years of age, who had been arrested for drunkenness. But he was not drunk, nor had he been drinking.—He was, moreover, in good, sound health, but gave all the external indications of being intoxicated when arrested by a police officer. Upon protesting to the keeper of the Tombs that he was not intoxicated, it was revealed that the unfortunate youth had been born a natural drunkard, or rather that he had always acted like such a thing. He said that although in good health, he had never been able to walk without staggering. His speech was not unlike that of persons in a decided state of intoxication, and when excited he would mutter and reel. The unfortunate youth was detained until the next day, and was sent to the courts to be gazed at through judicial spectacles. A subsequent investigation of the case proved that the lad had been telling the truth about himself; but his condition revealed a demonstration of the natural law that the child is a fair copy of his parents. It appears that prior to marriage, the father had been a secret but confirmed inebriate, and when the facts became known to the woman thus suddenly and unexpectedly, she wept in the most terrible manner. Almost broken hearted, she contemplated the future misery in store for her. Months passed away, when it was discovered that the child at three years of age acted strangely, and at the end of six months the unhappy woman fully realized all her forebodings. The effect produced upon the mother was not without its influence upon the father, however. Realizing, in the midst of tears of bitter anguish, the sin that had been visited upon the child, the man reformed. He has now several bright children, and most exemplary ones, too, they are. But the boy that was brought into the Tombs was not drunk, but had been entailed upon him a life of misery, as it was a blasted destiny.—N. Y. Tribune.