THURSDAY SEPT. 12, 1872.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,

ULYSSES S. GRANT, of Illinois.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

HENRY WILSON, of Massachusetts.

For Governor,

JNO F. HARTMAN, of Montgomery Co.

For Judge of Supreme Court,

ULYSSES MERCUR, of Bradford County.

For Auditor General,

HARRISON ALLEN, of Warren County.

For Congressmen at Large,

LEMUEL TODD, of Cumberland County.

CHARLES ALBRIGHT, of Carbon County.

GLENNI W. SCOFIELD, of Warren County.

Delegates at large to the Constitutional Convention.

Wm. M. Meredith, Philadelphia. J. Gillingham Fell, Philadelphia. Gen. Harry White, Indiana County. Gen. Wm. Lilly, Carbon County. Lion Bartholomew, Schuylkill County. H. N. McAllister, Centre County. William H. Armstrong, Lycoming County. William Davis, Monroe County. James L. Reynolds, Lancaster. Samuel E. Dimmick, Wayne County. Geo. F. Lawrence, Washington County. David White, Allegheny County. W. H. Ainey, Lehigh County. John H. Walker, Erie County.

Mr. Samuel Millenberger, of Hamilton township, candidate for County Commissioner, requests us to announce that he has withdrawn from the canvass as a candidate, and returns his thanks to the voters for the many acts of kindness extended to him.

The voters of this county should bear in mind the fact, that in accordance with an act of the Legislature, passed during the last session, the mode of voting has been changed. Instead of voting for all the officers upon one "slip," each candidate is now voted for separately. This is a very desirable change, inasmuch as the disagreeable method of "scratching" and "pasting" is now done away with.

KEEP TO THE TRUTH.

We would remind our cotemporary, the Mauch Chunk Coal Gazette, that while it justly vindicates Gen. Albright, our candidate for Congressman at large, from the foul aspersions cast upon him by our opponents, that it has itself become guilty of the same offence which it deprecates and condemns in others. The paragraph in the last number of the Gazette concerning the Hon. Charlton Burnett is simply outrageous, for to our positive knowledge every damaging charge made in said paragraph, has no foundation in fact, it being to us, who know all the facts, absurdly gratuitous. We are now and ever have been politically opposed to General Burnett, whom we have known for thirty years, and barring his politics, we know him to be honorable and upright, and worthy of any distinction that his party friends can bestow upon him. If it is the pleasure of Democratic journals to descend to low personal abuse and ribaldry, we hope to see Republican journals keep aloof from that low and contemptible mode of political warfare. Let the truth stand for the service of those who have a right to it.

Mr. Editor.—Why is it that such an apathy exists in the Republican party of this county? Why is there no regular organization? It is true we are in a minority, but that is no reason for letting everything go by default. There should be a regular organization for the purpose of keeping the members of the party well in hand; for a small number of votes one way or the other, in a county, may alter the result in the State, or even the National contest. It is more especially important at the present time, when there is danger of some straying off after false gods. There is a plausibility about a portion of the Cincinnati platform, and an attraction in the name of Horace Greely that may lead many, otherwise good Republicans, to accept the one and vote for the other, hence the necessity of keeping before the party, in this county, the real issues in the coming campaign.

It may be true, as many good and sincere Republicans assert, that Gen. Grant has not come up to the expectations of the party that elected him, but is that any good reason why we should vote for Mr. Greely? If Gen. Grant was in favor of annexing San Domingo, is that any reason why we should place the reins of government in the hands of the Democratic party, who endorsed the ostentatious manifesto of Buchanan; Mason and Soule favoring the compulsory annexation of Cuba by the United States? If Gen. Grant has half a dozen relatives in office, is that any reason why we should paralyze the industry of the country by the election of Mr. Greely, thus enabling him to carry out his pet theory of launching one hundred millions of gold in the market with the consequent depreciation of all values and entire stagnation of trade?

If Gen. Grant has thought proper to go to Long Branch, drive fast horses, and smoke cigars, is that a sufficient reason for the American people to place a party in power who would virtually nullify the 13th, 14th and 15th Amendments to the Constitution, and thereby reduce the Colored people of the South to a condition of penance, almost as bad as slavery; for no sane man imagines that, in the event of the Democratic party getting control of the state governments in the Southern States, they would recognize the negro as having any rights that a white man was bound to respect.

Admitting that Gen. Grant has committed errors, would it not be unreasonable in us to expect a man who never held an official civil position previous to the exalted one he now occupies, would it not be unreasonable, I say, to expect him to govern forty millions of people without making some mistakes, or making some enemies. Such a man, (could he be found) would have a far better claim to infallibility than Pope Pius IX. And what guarantee have we that Mr. Greely would be any better or even as good. The parties that he has heretofore belonged to, both Whig and Republican, while they had the highest respect for him personally, and had the utmost confidence in his integrity never felt that they could entrust him with any responsible position, from the fact that he is timid erratic and consequently unreliable. Mr. Greely is also vain and susceptible to flattery, which is fully evidenced by his swallowing the sickening and nauseous compliments now paid him by his life long political enemies, who expect to, and no doubt will, control his administration in the event of his election. Are the people of the country prepared to place the Government in the hands of Judge Blak, Senator Hendricks and Horatio Seymour, aided by Jeff. Davis, George N. Sanders and John H. Forsyth? If they are let them vote for Horace Greely, for such will inevitably be the result of his election.

Are the people prepared to see the whole trade of the country prostrated, the gold market controlled by the capitalists of New York, Paris and London, the national debt increased by the payment to the former Slaveholders of the South, of $400,000,000 for their emancipated slaves? If so then let them vote for Mr. Greely, for as sure as he is elected, so sure will these things be the consequence. X. Y. Z.

Go to Simon Fried's for hats and caps.

This place is singularly free from epidemic diseases or sickness of any character.

Go to Simon Fried's for boots and shoes.

Buckwheat is going to be cheap this fall. Get your griddles in order.

The sidewalks in front of a few of our private residences, on main street, need repairing.

Go to Simon Fried's for trunks and valises.

A vote, recently taken on a train on the Belvidere & Delaware railroad, we are informed, resulted as follows: Grant 30; Greely, 19.

Go to Simon Fried's for neck ties and collars.

A young lady in passing another should not turn around to see what the other wears, because the other is engaged in doing the same thing.

Go to Simon Fried's for a nice fitting suit.

Personal.—Mr. Benjamin Butts, at present holding the position of assistant business manager of the Newark Courier, is paying his parents and friends in this place a short visit. He looks hale and hearty.

If a milkmaid, four feet ten inches in height, while sitting on a three-legged stool, took four pints of milk from every fifteen cows, what was the size of the field in which the animals grazed, and what was the girl's age?

On Wednesday last, while some workmen were engaged in removing dirt from the cellar beneath the store of C. R. Andre & Co., they discovered a large number of hams, which had, evidently, been buried about a year, and were of course, entirely worthless. The question is, who done it?

A Festival for the benefit of St. John's Lutheran Church of this place, will be held in the basement of the building, commencing on Thursday September 19th, and continuing three days. Dinner will be served on Thursday and Friday. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Information is wanted of Mary Ann Warren, maiden name Everson, who was last heard of in New York city in 1867. The information should be sent to George Andrew Jackson, Allentown, Pa. Exchanges will do a kindness to a poor man by copying.

Go to Simon Fried's for shirts and Umbrellas.

Narrow Escape.—On Tuesday last, Mr. Charles Huffer of this borough, went down the well of Mr. Alex. Fowler, for the purpose of digging it deeper. After removing some dirt the sides commenced caving, and it was with the utmost difficulty that he was rescued from his perilous position. We are happy to announce, however, that he escaped with a slight sprain of the left ankle, caused by a stone dropping upon it.

There is no charge for showing goods at Fried's, neither are there cross looks if you do not buy.

During the fever epidemic of last month, the stock of Ayer's Ague Cure in the Old North State became exhausted, and before a supply could be received from Lowell, the suffering from chills and fever became fearful. A few parties were so fortunate as to have it on hand, and in Iredell county, the druggists eked out their slender stocks by selling doses—a spoonful each—for a dollar. Many paid ten dollars for a bottle, when the regular price is but one, and thought themselves favored at that, so valuable are the curative properties of this preparation, which not only expels the poison from the system, but leaves the patient with unimpaired health and vigor.—Raleigh (N. C.) Standard.

William Foster, the supposed murderer of Mr. Nathan, in New York, was arrested at Washington on Saturday.

Enterprising.—Our young friends of the firm of Hess & Co., we are pleased to notice, are rapidly building up an immense wholesale and retail trade. This firm, whose place of business is opposite the Stroudsburg bank, will be happy to accommodate customers at any time, with the finest flavored cigars, tobacco or snuffs. Give them a call.

Our enterprising young tradesman, Mr. P. S. Williams, has recently returned from the cities with an immense stock of clocks, watches, jewelry, plated ware, ect., ect., and is now prepared to accommodate his customers with anything in his line, cheaper, than the cheapest. He is also sole agent for the celebrated Diamond spectacles. Drop in and examine his stock, before purchasing elsewhere.

If you want to see the latest style of fall and winter goods, go to Simon Fried's.

Stroudsburg Preachers Meeting.

The Stroudsburg Preachers Meeting met in the M. E. Church, Monday afternoon at the usual hour. Rev. J. Pastorfield in the chair. Religious services were conducted by Rev. H. F. Isett of Bastleton, Pa. A number of interesting communications were made by the pastors relative to their Sabbath pulpits. The question, "Does the Bible teach that sanctification is an instantaneous work?" was then taken up. An able debate followed participated in by Revs. F. M. Brady, J. L. Staples, E. B. Dreher, H. F. Isett and D. Young. On motion the question was then indefinitely postponed. The standing Committee reported for debate the following question, "what pulpit habits should we cultivate and what avoid?" Rev. H. F. Isett was then formally introduced to the meeting. The Duxology was sung and the Benediction pronounced by Rev. D. Young. On motion adjourned. G. W. F. GRAFF, Secretary.

The Thirtieth Annual Fair of the Monroe County Agricultural Society which takes place on the 18th, 19th and 20th, days of September, promises at this time, more than ever before to be a grand success. The main building has been thoroughly renovated and refitted in a grand style, and the entries thus far are encouraging. The police force will be adequate to the demand, and all goods and chattels there displayed, will be under the most strict supervision. The cattle sheds, main building, ect., ect., have had a most thorough overhauling, and inasmuch as the premiums offered are liberal in the extreme, we hope to see a grand display, as much for the benefit of the members of the Society, as for the general public. Let our friends turn out en masse, and let each one do their utmost to make the effort a success, and then we will have no reason to complain. The Fair commences on Wednesday next, consequently, this is our last appeal to the citizens of this county, at least, to aid us in the enterprise. We shall endeavor in our issue of September 26th, to give a full account of the proceedings.

VERMONT HAS SPOKEN!

SHE ROLLS UP 26,000! "Coming Events Cast Their Shadows Before."

The State election in Vermont resulted in a sweeping Republican triumph. The full returns indicate a majority of not less than 26,000, against 21,309 two years ago. The victory is unexpectedly great—the Republicans scarcely looking for more than 20,000, while the Greeleyites would not concede more than 10,000 to 12,000. The Senate is unanimously Republican, while the House will have but a small sprinkling of Democrats.

The returns of the election in Maine, on Monday, indicate a decided victory for the Republicans. A majority of 15,000 is claimed on the gubernatorial vote, and all five of the Republican Congressmen appear to be elected. It was conceded that the Republicans would succeed in electing their candidates, but it was expected that their success would be reported on reduced majorities. If the reported majority of 15,000 is not materially altered by more detailed returns, then Gov. PERHAM has gained 4500 on his majority in 1871, and is 5500 ahead of the Republican majority in 1870. In 1868 Maine gave GRANT and COLPAX a majority of 28,000.

The second trial of Dr. Paul Schaepppe for the murder of Mrs. Steinecke was concluded at Carlisle on Saturday. The jury acquitted him, and he was discharged from custody.
