THURSDAY OCTOBER 24, 1872.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,

ULYSSES S. GRANT, of Illinois.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
HENRY WILSON, of Massachusetts.

FRAUDS! FRAUDS! FRAUDS!

The Democracy, just now, are consoling themselves over their defeat by the cry of frauds, insinuating and boldly asserting that the election of Hartranft and Allen was the result of frauds perpetrated on the ballot box by the Republicans...

The Premium, the first premium, and the only premium given to sewing machines at the Monroe County Fair, last week, notwithstanding the fact that the Domestic, the A. B. Howe and the Grover and Baker cornsheller, with operators and got up work imported for the occasion were in competition, was awarded to the Wheeler and Wilson machine. The committee, composed of practical mechanics and experts, after giving each machine a thorough examination, were constrained to say, that for excellence of workmanship, and durability the Wheeler and Wilson, was by far the best. It was evident to all that some of the agents had mistaken their proper location. The things they exhibited there would have had a better place, decidedly, among the agricultural implements.

Barney Wood was sentenced, in Washington, on Saturday, to be hanged for the murder of Samuel Cheeseman. The execution will take place on the 27th of November next.
A Missouri newspaper claims that the hogs of that State are so fat that in order to find out where their heads are it is necessary to make them squeal, and then judge by the sound.
A one armed man in Salem, lately applied for a divorce on the grounds that the hand he had given his wife in marriage, was lost, and that the contract was therefore void.
In South Bend, Ind., they use small packages of quinine for change. As everybody takes it, they look upon it the same as legal tender, and it passes off without difficulty.
Secretary Robeson left Washington, last night for New Jersey, where he will remain until after the Presidential election. He is engaged to speak every night for the next two weeks.
A father living in Titusville, who has two or three very countable girls, placed a notice on his front door the other night, which read: "Shut down for thirty days. No stove in the parlor, and but one lamp."
The following were the balances in the Treasury at the close of business Saturday: Currency, $4,936,900 79; coin, $76,907,635 05, including $23,451,500 of coin certificates; special deposit of legal tenders held for redemption of certificates of deposit, $22,485,000.
The horse epidemic which has for some time past been running through Canada has now crossed the boundary, and is attacking our own cities. Some days since it appeared in Buffalo, and now the tidings come that it has broken out also among the horses of Rochester.
One very cold night, a jolly old fellow, who had partaken rather too freely of flip at a tavern, started for home in a sleigh, and on the way was upset, and left by the side of the road. A boy passing the same way a short time after, discovered the old fellow, holding his feet up to the moon, ejaculating to some invisible person named John: "Pile on the wood; it's a thundering cold fire!"
It is understood that the new indictment against Tweed covers a new charge, a witness having been found who could swear positively to the division of money between Ingersoll and Tweed. It is stated that it will be difficult for Tweed to obtain bail now, and that his apprehension will be a strong motive for him to remain away from the city.
Some of the leading Chicago packers are confident that the coming winter packing season will be an unusually active one, and opinions are expressed that city alone will pack 1,500,000 hogs during the months of November, December and January, or an average of nearly 100,000 hogs per week. One firm calculates to pack 350,000 hogs during the season.
A shipment of choice California fruit was recently made from San Francisco to Dublin, Ireland, to fill a special order. The consignment consisted of three boxes pears and three boxes grapes, all fine varieties, carefully selected and well packed. The freight paid the express company on the same amounted to over $70. It is a long distance to send perishable goods, but it is expected they will reach their destination in not more than twenty days, in good order.

The official count of the vote for Congressmen at large in this State is not yet summed up, and no one can tell exactly what the Republican majority will be for those positions. It is safe to assume that it will be some thousands more than the majority for Governor. We should not be surprised if it exceeds 45,000. And this will be the true index of party strength in Pennsylvania. The Republicans and Democrats supported their respective nominations for Congressmen at large without a question, each side voting a straight ticket. The assumption that the vote for them accurately represents the numbers of the two parties is therefore a safe one. Just think of a clear Republican majority of 45,000 in Pennsylvania!
Prairie Fires in Nebraska.
OMAHA, Oct. 21.—The weather has been extremely dry in this vicinity of late, and prairie fires have been unusually frequent and destructive. The country within an area of 30 miles from this city has been mostly burned over, and enormous quantities of hay and grain destroyed, beside many houses, barns and fences. Yesterday a prairie fire started about two miles north of the city, destroying most of the fences, sheds and buildings at the race track and fair grounds. The soldiers at the barracks were out all last night and to day fighting the flames to prevent the destruction of the barracks, and have succeeded in checking the fires in that quarter.
Philadelphia Provision Market.
Most of the articles of farm produce to our markets within a few weeks have advanced in price. Butter has been continually going up, and it is now held at from 60 to 70 cents the pound. Midling and inferior qualities can be bought at prices ranging from 40 to 55 cents; eggs sell at from 40 to 45 cents; sweet potatoes have gone up to 70 and 75 cents the basket; white potatoes bring from $1 to $1.25 the bushel; poultry sells at from 22 to 25 ets the pound; this is not an advance; beef, mutton and pork maintain the prices of last week; sausages sell at from 22 to 25 ets the pound; pork steaks 20 and 22 ets the pound; mutton chops 16 and 18 ets the pound; sirloin steaks 25 and 30 ets the pound; hams, whole, 22 and 25 ets per pound; perch sell at 37 and 45 ets the string; halibut, 25 ets the pound; catfish, 18 ets the pound; sea bass 15 ets the pound.—Saturday's Ledger.
It has lately been contended, with rather more warmth than discretion, that hydrophobia is a disease which either has no existence at all, or a purely fictitious one in the minds of highly timorous and imaginative people. Where the doctors disagree we do not pretend to decide, but it has unfortunately happened, within the last half year, to scores of persons possessing the average fondness for living, to be afflicted with a horrible disease called hydrophobia, and, as if in contempt of all theories against its existence, have died in pain and agony such as no other torture could induce. There may be no such disease as hydrophobia after all; but whether there is or not, while people die because they think they have it, we are gratified to find that for it there is a remedy the efficacy of which has been proved by trial. The French papers give the following details:—"The patient was subjected to hot vapor baths on the neck 'ence of the first symptoms of every 'paroxysm, and during its continuance, which treatment, naturally producing copious perspiration, resulted in the 'paroxysms becoming less and less severe, until finally they disappeared, and a complete cure of this most dreadful and painful of all maladies was established—"perhaps the only cure of a severe case 'on record."

Straightout Democrats.
The Democratic Executive Committee of this State held a meeting at the Bolton House, Harrisburg, Wednesday, at which the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:
Whereas, the result of the October election in Pennsylvania has fully demonstrated the fact that the State can, under no circumstances, be carried for the Liberal Republican candidate for the Presidency, Horace Greeley, and there is not, as was anticipated in case of such an overwhelming defeat, a disposition on the part of the Democratic leaders who have affiliated with the Cincinnati movement to return to their allegiance to the true Democracy; and
Whereas, The nomination of an electoral ticket in support of the nominees of the Louisville Convention—Charles O'Conor and John Quincy Adams, would entail considerable trouble and expense, without any hope of success or gain to the Democracy of the State; therefore,
Resolved, That the Committee recommend to the delegates here assembled, that no electoral ticket be nominated, but that the honest Democratic voters of the State refrain from taking any part in the political contest now being waged by the two wings of the Republican party in the interest of their respective candidates, Grant and Greeley.
In accordance with the above recommendation of the State Executive Committee of Pennsylvania the Committee adjourned without making any nomination for electors. A number of delegates from different sections of the State were in attendance, and numerous letters from prominent Democrats, advising the course decided upon, were read before the convention.
The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and Central Railroad of New Jersey Muddle.
The following explains itself:
To the Editor of the N. Y. Tribune.
SIR: Recent articles in the papers relating to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company, and the Central Railroad Company, of New Jersey, seem to require a short explanation. The matter in dispute was not the construction of the part of the contract of consolidation relating to joint dividends, for that is simple enough, but the validity and existence of the contract itself. Acting under the advice of counsel, the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company were induced by the action of the Central to bring the matter before the Court of Chancery in New Jersey, so as to get a prompt and conclusive settlement of the whole question. By the decision of the Court, the companies may now be considered restored to their original position of independence. Nothing has been done by the joint companies to alter the original positions of either company, and their affairs have been in no way mixed. The dividends declared by the Central, out of earnings, will be paid on the 21st. Full reports of the affairs of the company will continue to be made to the stockholders as heretofore. The re-execution of the contract will be submitted to the stockholders of the Central, but, as it is exceedingly unpopular, it is probable that the vote will be overwhelming against it.

To our Friends and Patrons
We announce that at the late meeting of the Monroe County Agricultural Society, the first premium was awarded to the Estey Organ.
With due regard to the energy and zeal of other parties competing for the same prize, they found their instruments, when compared with the superior merits of the Estey, to be fifth class. In other words only imitations.
The style of the Estey is pleasing in full depth of tone, combines a sweetness and power that will make it a favorite in every home circle in Monroe county.
The ORGAN is durable and fully guaranteed.
We invite the public to call and examine or send for illustrated circular.
SOLD ON EASY TERMS.

Stroudsburg, Sept. 26, 1872.
The Sixth Premium.
For six successive years the GROVER & BAKER Sewing Machine has carried off prizes at the Monroe County Fairs.
At the late meeting of the Society, it awarded the Premium to this excellent Machine for "DOING THE BEST WORK DONE ON THE GROUND." We did not import our samples from the cities, but showed the Committee the capacity of the Machine, how complete and readily every style of work could be done; sewing through nine thickness of heavy cloth, four thickness of leather and waxy boxes; then without any change of needle or thread, sewing cambric, muslin and tissue paper.
After careful examination of the different machines on exhibition the Judges decided in favor of the working ability of the "Grover & Baker."
Therefore the very best Sewing Machine for every Lady to purchase is the improved Grover & Baker.
Sold on monthly instalments, with full instructions.
