

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY JANUARY 16, 1873.

More snow yesterday morning.

This winter, thus far, as a winter, has been a complete success. Who doubts it?

The week of Prayer was duly observed in the Presbyterian Church in this borough, last week.

For Sale.—Two new seven Octave Pianos, for sale at the Washington Hotel, Dec. 19 '72-tf.

Read the Statement of the County Auditors in this week's paper. It is an interesting document for Tax-Payers.

The prettiest girl in town had her "pie" taken last week. Four for a quarter is the style now. Henry Diehl did it, at his rooms in East Stroudsburg.

We threw out a hint concerning a library for the Phoenix Fire Company's room. Who will take hold of this matter and push it to consummation?

John Baldwin took charge of the Washington Hotel on the 1st inst. It looks natural to seem him back there. John is refitting and re-furnishing the House.

Read the Advertisement of Jones & Palmer. Joseph F. Foulke is their agent. Buy of the home agent if you want to be sure to get what you pay for.

We understand that the Borough Duplicate for 1872 is in the hands of John S. Fisher, Esq., for collection. Every delinquent Tax-Payer should be ready to meet his demand, when he calls.

At the last Auction sale of Coal, in New York, Coal sold considerably lower than at the preceding sale. News of the low price has not reached this point yet; at least, it has no effect on our market.

Quite a spirited revival meeting is in progress, in the Methodist Church at East Stroudsburg, the Rev. D. Young pastor. The field is said to look promising for a rich harvest of souls.

The Stroud Township Baptist Church, will have a public Festival in their meeting house, on Friday evening, (D. V.) January 21st, 1873.

Supper Tickets, 50 cents each.

A sleighing party of young folks, having one staid Benedict with them, to play property, left town for the country, on Tuesday evening. They returned safe, sound and happy, after having had lots of fun, along towards morning.

The track of the Street Passenger Railroad, lays under some three inches of ice, consequently the Roanoke on runners does the business instead of the street cars. The January thaw having, thus far, failed, there is no telling when the track will be opened.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Edward H. Rhodes, of Lehigh, Simon Flory, of Ashley and Jacob M. Storm, of South Bethlehem, all former Stroudsburgers, paid the "burgh" a visit during the last week. Glad to see them looking so well.

Wolf's Hill has been crowded, for several evenings past, with coisters of both the male and female persuasion, old and young. The sleds run glibly as a woman's tongue, and every one participating appears to be at the very pinnacle of enjoyment.

A couple of sports, the other evening, in dashing through our streets with horse and cutter, came very near running over a couple of young ladies. The law against fast driving on our thoroughfares wants to be rigidly enforced.

A surprise party consisting of the young Ladies and gentes, of the two "burghs," took possession of Van Cott's Lackawanna House, one evening last week, and held sweet communion with madame Terpsichore, until the "we sma' hours ayont the twal." Of course a most enjoyable time was had.

A rumor was prevalent on our streets a few days ago that R. E. J. Eilenberger formerly of this place had successfully attempted to "shuffle off this mortal coil." But Robert is not in that line. He is too busy preparing for an extended concert tour to think of such a thing, and we hope, with his troupe, will soon give our citizens an opportunity to listen to his and their living concord of sweet sounds. It is now said that it was 'toter chap, down in Jersey, that did the slashing business.

We were led by rumor, last week, which appeared to be well authenticated, to announce the death of Reuben M. Kresge, by freezing. This turns out not to have been the case.—Mr. K. died after an illness of several days, and received the kind attention of friends from the time he was first attacked until death closed his eyes in the eternal sleep. We regret that we were thus led unjustly, possibly, to wound the feelings of his relatives and friends, of whom he had a large number in this county and vicinity.

The Sleighing, hereabouts, continues excellent. During the past week a large party of Ladies chartered Henry, his horses and sleigh, and placed themselves under the tender mercies of mine host Brown of the Tannersville Hotel. They arrived home at an early hour in the evening delighted with the care of Charley and his good lady, and well pleased with the ride. Now when are the young fellers a-going to take their girls out? That is what the galls want to know.

Mr. M. L. Phillips, whose candy store and Oyster Saloon, was destroyed by fire, several weeks ago, has re-established himself in business, by purchasing the good will and fixtures of Samuel Huffman's establishment. Leut. has fitted up his room very tastefully, conveniently, and comfortably; has stocked it with the choicest delicacies in his line, and is better prepared than ever to attend to the wants of his many friends and the general public. Give him a call, and see how it is yourself.

Local Option.—It may not be generally known that local option will come before the voters of the several townships and boroughs of this county at the coming spring election. By the vote the question of license or no license, the decision of which will bind our Courts, will be fixed. In other countries the matter is causing considerable excitement, and forces are being organized, as parties favor or oppose the question of license. Hereabouts, however, all is quiet—no one appearing to care whether there will be a legalized sale of the "ardent," lager, &c. or not.

Mr. Editor.—Has it ever been your lot or pleasure to travel along the D. L. & W. R. R., to spend a few short hours in a small but lively place, thickly surrounded with tall and stately hemlocks, through which you may perhaps discover some hundred or more men employed in chopping, sawing and planing; and then while on your way perhaps would meet some twenty teams, or more, loaded with lumber, going to the docks to be ready for shipping? Well, Mr. Editor, whether it has ever been your pleasure or not I will take the liberty of telling you something about this lively little place, called by a very singular name, but very well known, perhaps by name, that will read this in your columns. The very singular place is Sand Cut. Rather an odd name, is it not. But let us look more at the business of this little place with a very singular name. There are two stores one kept by Messrs Perkins & Adams, and the other by Mr. C. Cross, both doing a good business. There is also one large and commodious Hotel, kept by Mr. Stephen Halley, who, I would venture to say, he will make every thing happy and comfortable to all who should favor him with a call. We also have a Doctor Mr. S. Miller, having a large practice and on the go nearly all the time, and a Butcher, Mr. Lewis Heller, who very kindly furnishes us with all kinds of meat in due season; and last, but yet much needed, we have a watchmaker who will repair all watches, clocks and jewelry, at short notice, and on reasonable terms. And now Mr. Editor I will close for this time, and save the rest for some future time.

Yours truly,

YANKEE.

STROUDSBURG, January 4, 1873.

At a regular stated meeting of Fort Penn Lodge, No. 134, I. O. of O. F., held this evening, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, To him who giveth and taketh away, it has seemed proper to call from our midst our esteemed brother, Valentine Beyerly, thus severing the cords that bound us together with the golden chain of Friendship, Love and Truth; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of Fort Penn Lodge, while submitting to the will of the Divine Ruler, deem it just and right to express this respect due our departed brother.

Resolved, That we hereby extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathies to the widow and children of our late brother, tendering to them the protecting influence of our Order; and feeling our feebleness in administering true comfort, we would recommend them to the Great Comforter, and may they exclaim, "Not my will, but thine be done," trusting that when time shall be no more, we, with them, shall be in union with the departed in that land of light, that home beyond the skies, where sickness, sorrows, pain and death are felt and feared no more forever.

Resolved, That we deeply regret his death occurring out of reach of our Lodge, thereby preventing us from taking part in the obsequies.

Resolved, That we tender our sincere thanks to the officers and brothers of Keystone Lodge, No. 78, for the kind and prompt attention given our deceased brother during his illness, assuring them that should opportunity offer we will faithfully perform a like solemn duty.

Resolved, That a copy of this preamble and resolutions be furnished the family of our deceased brother, with whom we deeply sympathize and commend to the care of a kind Providence, who has promised to be a friend to all who put their trust in Him; also to Keystone Lodge, No. 78.

Resolved, That our charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days, and that these resolutions be spread on the minutes of our Lodge and published in each of the papers of this borough.

JOHN E. SNYDER, EDWARD BALZ, JOSEPH L. BOWERS, Committee.

The pardon report of the Governor enumerates 69 cases in which persons convicted of crime were released during the year 1872 by Executive intervention. The number of persons pardoned was really much greater, as in many instances several names were included under a single grant. The entire number reported during the incumbency of Governor Geary, covering six years, is 425. In an equal period Gov. Curtin issued 763 pardons. The worst case under the Geary administration has occurred since the annual report was made. Robert Lister Smith, a notorious bully and rascal of Philadelphia, convicted some time ago of an aggravated assault upon a citizen, was released last week through the agency of McMullin and Sam Josephs, both shining lights in the Democratic fraternity. In this case a pardon seems to have been entirely uncalled for, and the act is universally condemned. The release of such a man, of course, is notice to all of his kind that they have little to fear from the operation of the law, and in granting the pardon the Governor has assumed a responsibility which cannot be avoided.

Small pox is still epidemic in Boston. Deaths last week, 55.

A shock of an earthquake was felt at Brunswick, Me., on Saturday.

The debt of Boston is now $20,187,200, an increase of $4,356,000.

Hon. Simon Cameron has been renominated for United States Senator by the Republican legislative caucus.

Hon. R. S. Oglesby has been nominated for United States Senator by the Republican Legislative caucus of Illinois.

A cattle dealer, named L. Wells, from Ohio, was robbed at Chicago on Thursday night of $1000.

The driver of a grocery cart, who let a basket of eggs fall, says "that truth squashed to earth may get up and git, but he'll be darned if eggs will."

The internal revenue receipts at Washington on Saturday were $398,197; for the month, $3,770,986; for the fiscal year, $64,629,908.

W. C. McKee, messenger of the United States Express Company, was arrested Sunday, at Columbus, Ohio, charged with embezzlement. Rifled money envelopes were found in his possession.

Advice to the Agricultural Department state, that in Alameda county, California, thousands of bushels of wheat still remain in the fields where it was thrashed, there being no place to store it.

The loss of life during the recent gales of the British coast have been very large. The Liverpool Post says that during the first twelve days of December 419 passengers and sailors are known to have perished at sea.

Victoria Woodhull lectured in Cooper Institute, New York, last Thursday night, to 1500 persons. After the lecture she was arrested on an indictment found against her by the United States Court, that day, for sending immoral matter through the mails.

Arizona advices to January 4 says that General Crook, on that morning, mailed a despatch from Major Brown, reporting that his command fought the Apaches, killing fifty nine and capturing twenty.—This fight occurred at the national fortifications on Salt river, seventy miles above Fort McDowell, and lasted for five hours.

Two notorious burglars and jail breakers, named William Faemeier and Robert Garrison, were arrested in Philadelphia last Thursday night. They escaped from Cape May court house, New Jersey, in April, 1871, and seventeen bills of indictment had been found against them in that State.

Minnesota and Wisconsin were visited by a great snow storm on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. The railroads in Minnesota were completely blocked up, the snow in many places being five and six feet deep. Travel was entirely suspended and it was not expected that the trains would run on some of the railroads before Saturday.

Sad news of the great storm continues to be received from Minnesota. Whole herds of cattle were caught in the storm and frozen to death. A man named Christopher left Allynton, Minn., for home on Tuesday night and was found under the snow frozen to death. A young man named Berry, of the same neighborhood, shared a similar fate.

There is a man in Waukesha, Wis., who always celebrates a rather remarkable anniversary. Thirteen years ago he was buried in a well, where he remained for seven hours, when he was dug out alive. He now never fails to observe the day of his deliverance in a festive manner; and all persons who are buried for seven hours and then dug out ought to follow his example.

At Moravia, N. J., on Sunday, John Hillsman shot his wife and Wm. J. N. Sheppard, killing both instantly, and then committed suicide by shooting himself. The tragedy was enacted in Sheppard's house, where the Hillsmans had been stopping for several days, and jealousy is supposed to have been the cause. Sheppard leaves a wife and three daughters. Hillsman was formerly a dentist of Madison, Georgia.

It is said that John Baldy, and Wm. Duncan, who were sentenced to 32 years imprisonment for highway robbery and an outrage on Miss Agnes Jervis, on South Broad street, Philadelphia, on August 4th 1870, are innocent of the crime, and that a new trial will be asked for, on which Miss Jervis will give testimony that will acquit them.

At the caucus of the Republican members of the Legislature, held at Harrisburg last week, Senator Cameron was renominated as a candidate for the United States Senatorship. The voted stood 65 for Hon. Simon Cameron, 4 for Hon. Wm. D. Kelley, and 2 for Professor Wickersham. There were therefore seventy one legislators in the caucus, and seven Republican members were absent. The present term of Senator Cameron expires on the 4th of March next.

A newspaper of Iowa City gives rather a discouraging account of what the farmers in those "digging" are doing, or rather not doing. Here is the Price Current: A pair of Winter boots costs two loads of potatoes; a night's lodging, a load of coats; the wife wears five acres of wheat; the children each ten acres of corn; the price of an overcoat is a good four year old steer; of a Sunday suit, twenty fat hogs. The farm, too, wears a mortgage that is worse than hardpan to the soil, and the annual tax rots the roof faster than rain.

Seeds from Washington. The Agricultural Department at Washington is furnished with seeds for distribution. By application our Agricultural Societies can be fully supplied, and through them the farmers generally. It is worth while to procure these seeds and let a fair trial of them be made, that we may see of what importance they may be to the farmers.

Against License. The first election under the Local Option act of last session of the Legislature took place in Clearfield county, on Friday, the 29th of December. At the municipal and township elections held there on that day, a majority of upwards of six hundred votes was cast against liquor licenses.

New Collector of Internal Revenue. Frank Reeder, Esq. of Easton, has been appointed Collector of Internal Revenue, in this Congressional District, in place of O. A. Luckenbach resigned.—When the new law, abolishing the offices of Assessors and Assistant Assessors, goes into effect, Mr. Reeder and his deputy will be the only Internal Revenue officers in the district.

The Lock Haven Democrat states that Thomas & Mason sawed on their mill this season 9,100,000 feet; on the Parsons mill 7,500,000, and had sawed by Frederick, Long & Co., 1,000,000 feet—making a total sawed by and for that firm of 11,600,000 feet. They are stocking heavy this winter for another big sawing next season.

AN ACT to permit the voters of this Commonwealth to vote every three years on the question of granting license to sell intoxicating liquors.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, etc., That on the third Friday in March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy three, in every city and county in this Commonwealth, at the annual municipal elections every third year thereafter, in every such city and county, it shall be the duty of the inspectors and judges of election in the cities and counties to receive tickets, either written or printed, from the legal voters of said cities and counties, labelled on the outside "license," and on the inside "for license" or "against license," and to deposit said tickets in a box provided for that purpose by said inspectors and judges, as is required by law in the case of other tickets received at such election; and the tickets so received shall be counted and a return of the same made to the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the proper county, duly certified as is required by law; which certificate shall be laid before the judges of the said court at the first meeting of said court after said election shall be held, and shall be filed with the other records of said court; and it shall be the duty of the mayors of cities, and the sheriffs of counties, or of any other officer, whose duty it may be to perform such service, to give due public notice of such special election above provided for, three weeks previous to the time of the same.
