

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY MAY 22, 1873.

Snow fell in the North of England on the 18th inst. Next!

The brickyards in this vicinity present a very busy scene this pleasant weather.

The Emperor Christy announces Book Beer on tap at his saloon, on Saturday and Monday next.

Hon. John DeYoung is convalescent, and is again able to attend to his business as usual.

Pleasant evenings and an overflow of gushing maids upon our streets, have been in order during the past week.

WILKES-BARRE boasts of having one hundred and fifty-nine licensed houses for the sale of intoxicating liquors. Oh, my!

Don't forget the circus on Monday next. Come early and witness the grand street pageant.

One week from to-morrow (Friday) is Decoration Day. We hope to see the day appropriately observed in Stroudsburg.

The very worst thing to rely on now a days is the weather. Old Probabilities has been playing high jinks for the past six or seven months.

Whew! what a dust, has been a very common expression for the past few days. Come "Rudy," bring out the sprinkler. It is sadly needed.

SUNDAY NOTICE.—There will be preaching in St. John's Lutheran church in this place on Sunday morning next, 25th inst., at 10 1/2 o'clock, by Rev. J. H. Fritz.

Nova Scotia plaster of best quality, for sale at Stokes' Mills, and will be kept on hand, fresh ground, during the season. May 8-5t. N. S. WYCKOFF.

The types of the Republican and Times offices in Scranton, enjoyed a game of base ball on Saturday last, which resulted in 45 runs and two black eyes for the former, and 50 runs and one damaged hand for the latter. So says the Republican. Heavy!

THERE is a prevailing practice among the boys of this place—some pretty large ones too—of making obscene remarks, and otherwise insulting young ladies and gentlemen while enjoying an evening promenade. They should be taught better.

SOME time since Mr. John N. Stokes sent his spirited teams of bays to Easton for the purpose of having them "clipped" and "bobbed." They were returned last week, the work having been very neatly executed, and now present a fine appearance.

PERSONAL.—Miss Nettie Jackson, daughter of Dr. A. Reeves Jackson, formerly of this borough, is paying her many friends in this place a visit. We understand that Miss J. will sail for Europe in the early part of June, and, during her absence will visit the Vienna Exposition. Of course, her wide circle of acquaintances will heartily wish her a "bon voyage," and a safe return.

ON Saturday last an enthusiastic son of the Emerald Isle, from the limestone quarries concluded to visit Stroudsburg, for the purpose of having a "bit of a time." It was not long, however, ere he became entirely "too full for utterance," when officer Keener very kindly furnished him quarters at the Hotel de Troch. He was brought before Justice Rees on Monday morning, and, after settling his hotel bill, was allowed to depart; a wiser, if not a better man.

"INNOCENTS ABROAD."—On Thursday last an excursion party, numbering about sixty ladies and gentlemen, left this place on the noon train for New York, for the purpose of seeing the sights and enjoying a little recreation in that metropolis. The weather proved all that could have been desired, and, as the party returned on the following evening in the jolliest of spirits, and some of them with very long stories to tell of what they saw and what they did not see, we surmise that they enjoyed themselves hugely during their absence.

A NEAT little speculation was entered into on Sunday last by some parties at East Stroudsburg, whereby a considerable sum of money was realized. A large number of cows, belonging to parties on this side of the stream were locked up, and fifty cents per head charged for releasing them. Come, neighbor, it is generally the rule to have your fencibles in proper condition, and also to publish your borough ordinance, neither of which were complied with in this case, before engaging in such practical "jo-icks."

THE Stroudsburg amateurs, as was announced in last week's JEFFERSONIAN, appeared again in Williams' Hall on Saturday evening last, in the popular plays entitled "Fruits of the Wine Cup" and "The Persecuted Dutchman." A decided improvement from the renditions of the first evening was very perceptible, each character being sustained to the imminent satisfaction of those present. Considering the very laudable object for which these entertainments are given—the establishment of a town library—we were sorry to see such a slim attendance, inasmuch as it discourages, rather than encourages, our young people, in their efforts to benefit the entire community. We hope to see them upon the boards again, ere long, and, with a change in the character of the dramas presented, we have no doubt they would be greeted with a crowded house.

SINGULAR PHENOMENON.—On Monday morning last a phenomenon was witnessed in the heavens, which caused the more superstitious to quake in their shoes, and to imagine all sorts of horrible things. It was nothing more nor less than a large circle around the sun, which remained visible for several hours. It was thought by some to have been caused by an eclipse on the sun, visible in certain remote parts of the globe on that day, but as the first eclipse on the sun in 1873 is to occur on the 26th inst., the phenomenon still remains a mystery. However, the world still stands, and "old sol" casts his genial rays upon this people as of yore. In view of this latter fact, Mr. J. A. Hays has just received, and is offering at prices that defy competition, the largest stock of hats and caps ever brought to Stroudsburg. He has made a specialty of straw goods for men's youths' and children's wear.

DECORATION DAY.—The members of the Grand Army of the Republic, and all soldiers of the late war, residing in Stroudsburg and vicinity, are, requested, to meet in the Seminary, in Stroudsburg, on Friday, May 30th, inst. at 1 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of forming in line and receiving the flowers to decorate the graves of the soldiers, in and near Stroudsburg. The line of March will be from said Seminary to the grave yard at lower end of town, thence to the Hickside's burying ground, thence to the Friend's thence to the Cemetery and return.

The Clergy the Sunday Schools, the Town Council, and all Orders, Societies, Associations, Companies, and the citizens of Stroudsburg and vicinity, are respectfully invited to meet with the "G. A. R." to perform this solemn act of justice to the memory of the gallant dead. Contributions of flowers, wreaths, &c., will be received at the Seminary in the forenoon of said day (May 30th.)

The Ladies of Stroudsburg and vicinity, are politely requested to use their influence and exertions in the contribution of flowers, &c. Any contributions of money, to defray the expenses of decorating the graves of the defenders of the American Union, will be gratefully received at the Express Office in Stroudsburg. COMMITTEE.

A GOOD SHOW ANNOUNCED.—The mammoth Central Park Menagerie and Zoological combination, together with Den Stone's Circus, Hippodrome and a Troupe of Froquois Indians, are announced to appear in this place on Monday, May 26th, for one day only, one ticket admitting its holder to the entire exhibition. From the reputation of this vast aggregation of wonders we predict a rich treat in the lecture of Prof. Ellingham, on the origin, habits and capture of the animals, birds and reptiles, contained in the cages, dens and corrals, of these fine and choice selected animals. This lecture is given for the edification and instruction of both the young and old, thus giving a lesson upon Natural History well worth hearing. It is only necessary to state that the circus and hippodrome exhibition are under the sole direction of Mr. Den Stone, "America's own Clown," who has, at an enormous expense, produced a ring and equestrian performance never before equalled in this country. Among the grand array of talent we notice Madame De Berg, Mile. Cordelia, Jas. E. Cook, Markeese, Snow Brothers, Wm. O. Dale, and three popular clowns, each in his specialty—the funny, the witty, the agile. A new and interesting equestrian pageant, introduced by Mr. Den Stone in the arena, by which he introduces his entire troupe of performers, acrobats, gymnasts, Indians mounted on their ponies, attendants of elephants, camels, &c., ponies, mules and a grand procession of wild beasts. The menagerie and equestrian pageant takes place before the circus performance commences. All the departments of this concern are in separate tents, but one ticket admits to all. Don't forget the date; Monday May 26th.

The Ashtabula (Ohio) Times says:—"Mr. Robert Washburn, of Greenwich, Huron county, has a calf which for size we think wears the belt. Having heard of the wonderfully large infant, when Mr. W. was in our office, a few days ago, we asked him for the precise invoice, which is as follows: At four months old it weighed 520 pounds, at seven months 830 pounds, and at nine months, 1,005 pounds."

The Easton Penitentiary is overcrowded with prisoners.

Union county will hold her agricultural fair on the 8th of October.

There are three agricultural societies in Northumberland county.

Marklesburg has a boy between nine and ten years of age, weighs 140 pounds.

The Reading Railroad made $6,000,000 last year.

They are trying to break up Sunday liquor selling in Allentown.

Asa Packer and Ario Pardee are the richest men in the State.

Gov. Hartranft has appointed James Duffy, of Lancaster, Howard J. Reeder, of Easton, and Benjamin L. Dewiett, of Blair county, Fish Commissioners.

The case of Stokes will be heard on May 26 by the New York Court of Appeals.

A Lancaster paper remarks that so many boys of that city have taken to the use of tobacco that there will be no need of a street sprinkler during the coming summer.

The County Superintendents of Luzerne, Carbon, Monroe, Pike, Wayne, Susquehanna, Bradford, Wyoming, Columbia and Montour, will meet the State Superintendent for consultation and discussion of educational matters at the Wyoming House, Scranton, Wednesday, June 24. The public will not be admitted to the conference.

"Made Up."

The New Jersey Central and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western have amicably settled their difficulty. The agreement of consolidation is canceled, and mutual releases executed. The two companies have seen their error, and have the good sense to adjust their difficulties and return to a harmony that must work to the best interests of both.

A Big Egg.

A Lehman correspondent writes us that Mr. G. N. G., of that place, brought to the store a hen's egg that weighed over six ounces and measured 7 1/2 inches around the small way, and 9 1/2 inches around the long way. When broken, the egg was found to contain more than an ordinary egg, besides another full sized egg and shell, all complete, within the larger shell.

Lehman ahead, so far as heard from.—Luzerne Union.

The Peach Crop.

The Hagerstown Twice a Week states that the prospect for a peach crop is excellent in some parts of Maryland, and the Wilmington C. Commercial, in speaking on the same subject, says that "the crop, which some time ago was believed to be seriously injured by the severe cold of the winter, now promises to be the largest that has been grown for several years. In the central and lower portions of the peninsula the trees have bloomed, and are literally with rose tinted blossoms."

Who are Entitled to Pensions.

Among the provisions of the new pension act are the following: All persons who have lost a leg above the knee, and are so disabled thereby that they cannot use an artificial limb, shall be rated in the second class, and receive twenty-four dollars per month. All persons having lost the hearing of both ears, to receive thirteen dollars per month. Section five provides that the rate of eighteen dollars per month may be proportionately divided for any degree of disability established for which the second section makes no provision. The new law also adds two years to the limitations under which claims may be established.

Execution.

MORRISTOWN, N. J., May 15.—Lusignani, the wife murderer, was hung at 11.20 this morning.—As soon as his body was cut down the priest of Morristown asked to have possession of it, but was told that the doctors must first certify the cause of death. Father Vasselto strenuously objected, and told the jail physician that he would prosecute him if he touched the body. This having no effect, he declared that the priests would not receive the body if cut or mutilated, and that it could not be buried in the Catholic cemetery. The doctors refusing a certificate, the coroner ordered an examination, and it was found that death was caused by strangulation and not by dislocation of the neck, as was supposed. The body now lies in the call awaiting burial, and if not claimed will be buried by the county authorities.

Run on a Bank.

On Friday of last week, a report was in circulation among many of the depositors of the Scranton Trust Company and Savings Bank of Scranton, that the Bank had lost heavily in consequence of the failure of the Atlantic Bank of New York and the National Iron Company of Danville, and there was danger of its "going where the woodbine twine." The news spread rapidly, and about two o'clock of the same day a run commenced on the bank, which continued without abatement until six o'clock. In one hour from the time the panic first commenced, the avenue in the vicinity of the bank was packed with men, women and children with deposit books in their hands, excited and elbowing their way to the cashier. The rush continued until nearly nine o'clock, when the excitement abated, confidence was restored, and the people satisfied that everything was right and the bank as solid as ever, notwithstanding the rumors. The bank is out with a card certified to by all the other banking institutions of the city that the bank lost nothing by the Ocean Bank failure, neither did they ever have any transactions with the institution, and that they did not lose anything by the National Iron Co., and are perfectly sound.

The Turf, Field and Farm says there is a ten year old chestnut stallion in New York city, which has a golden-colored mane, measuring eight feet in length from the top of the crest.
