

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1873.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET

JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT, ISAAC G. GORDON, of Jefferson County. STATE TREASURER, ROBERT W. MACKAY, of Allegheny.

A very uphill business, do our Democratic friends find their efforts to make headway for their State ticket to be. The sum of their capital, to this writing, is made up of the puffs of Republican papers and badly dilapidated arrays of long since exploded figures.

THE financial crash, of which we made mention last week, has been considerably short of its alarming features, and public confidence is again being restored.

OUR Democratic brethren, are in a wonderful quandary, hereabouts, and really do not know what to do about it.

THE paramount question with these same leaders is, "Do the Republicans intend to run a candidate of their own? And, it seems to be conceded that if they do "there is no use of fighting", and that either Dimmick or Kistler must haul off.

THE fact of the business is, that our Democracy have blood in their eye against the Democracy of Carbon, whom they wish to punish for past aggressions, but they wish to do it by over-riding Carbon's claims and electing a Democrat to office.

PROPER who think they can furnish others with liquor with impunity, have probably not read the following law of this State: "Any person furnishing intoxicating drinks to any other person, in violation of any existing law, or the provisions of this act, shall be held civilly responsible for every injury to person or property in consequence of such furnishing; and any one aggrieved may recover damages against such person so furnishing, by action on the case, instituted in any court having jurisdiction of such form of action in this Commonwealth."

RECREATION.—On Monday last a Wild Duck, lost to its reason, or seeking to know the customs of civilized life, belit himself on the smooth waters of the "Race," in the upper end of the "burgh." Three sports, Lewie, Porgie and Felie, imagining the savory meal that might be made off that insane bird, armed themselves cap a pie, and betook themselves to its destruction.

The Supreme Court has decided that no bills for the support of child can be charged to the child's estate while its father is living.

The first dollar greenback issued from the treasury is still held by a Cincinnati man, who refuses $50 for it.

MURDER.

A BOY'S THROAT CUT FROM EAR TO EAR. On Monday evening last, the dead body of a lad named Muffley, aged about ten years, son of Jacob Muffley, was found in the cellar of the residence, of Mrs. Charles Hawk, widow, near Kresgeville, in Polk township.

BEVERLY Fair opened on Tuesday. RABBITS are ripe. The season opened on the 1st inst.

PARTRIDGES were whistling in our streets on Monday.

REED birds in large flocks have made their appearance.

PROTRACTED meetings still continue at East Stroudsburg.

THE Scranton band passed over the D. L. & W. R.R. on Monday.

J. H. CONNER has one of the finest cornices in our borough.

It is stated, by the Easton Argus, that Jerry Mack is dead.

BLACK and gray squirrels are quite plenty in this section of country.

AN excursion to New York on D. L. & W. R.R. is contemplated on the 9th inst.

CHESTNUTS have made their appearance, and sold at 25 cents per quart, last week.

DR. N. L. PECK, one of our enterprising Dentists has placed a new sign over his place of business. It is very neat.

OUR colored fellow-citizens, enjoyed the pleasures of a ball on Tuesday evening, at William's Hall. It proved a splendid affair.

OUR old friend A. J. Clements, and Lady, were the recipients of a grand serenade, on the occasion of their wedding, on Friday night last.

THE time of our late Court was almost wholly taken up with quarter sessions business, and was kept to work until late, on Saturday evening.

THE Fair and Festival, by the Ladies of the Presbyterian Church, at Williams' Hall, last week was a success. We have not heard what the proceeds amounted to.

THE Lutheran Congregation, in preparation for their new pastor, are cushioning their church and otherwise beautifying it. The improvements will be marked.

SAMUEL MILTENBERGER, Esq., has withdrawn his name from before the people, as a candidate for County Commissioner. This leaves but three candidates in the field.

MR. WM. E. HENRY, of East Stroudsburg, lost a valuable horse, on Tuesday evening. He had driven him in the Omnibus during the day, apparently well. It is presumed he was overheated.

MR. WM. WALLACE, has built a new picket fence in front of his board yard down town, which gives that end of the town a much less ragged appearance, and makes quite an improvement.

THIS is the time when the farmer wanders about beneath his apple and pear trees, suggesting in full tone and cheerful heart the refrain from the "Old Sexton," "I gather them in! I gather them in!"

A MEETING of "The Stroudsburg Building and Loan Association," will be held at the Law office of Stephen Holmes, Jr., on Friday (to-morrow) evening Oct. 3d, 1873, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is requested.

SOME miscreant, not having the fear of God nor the law before his eyes, cropped the tail of neighbor Born's horse, while he was attending a meeting of the K. of P. at Delaware Water Gap, on Friday evening last. The Court ought to get hold of that chap.

WE are glad to be able to state that the Grand Jury reported in favor of building a new jail, as has several Grand Juries before it. This is right, and the Commissioners should set to work at once. The present jail is not only unsafe—prisoners being able to dig out of it without trouble—but it is not fit even for a decent hog pen.

THE First Band in Monroe. KRESGEVILLE, Sept. 26, 1873.

EDITOR JEFFERSONIAN.—Dear Sir:—We feel proud in being able to inform you that we have organized, here in Polk, a Cornet Band of 15 members, all fine looking young men. Having purchased Stratton's back shrouded valved instruments, and secured the services of Prof. J. C. Hoffman as our teacher, we hope soon to be able to visit Stroudsburg, to let you know what can be done in Monroe, if we are invited. How is Stroudsburg and Tannersville in the musical line? The Professor would like to have a call from there.

Effort is also moving towards the starting of a band. Respectfully yours, ADAM GREEN, Leader.

Prof. Hoffman has two singing classes in operation at this time; one in Chestnut Hill Church, with 46 members, and one at Effort, with 42 members. Both are making good progress. The Professor sells the Standard organ, and teaches his own people, i. e., those only who purchase from him.

SOME well-meaning person has written a tract asking: "What if I should die to-night?" Well, it would be bad for you if you ever cheated a boot-black or printer.

PHENIX FESTIVAL.—The members of the Phoenix Fire Company will hold a Festival in Williams' Hall next Thursday and Friday, October 9th and 10th, inst. The object of this Festival is to raise money to furnish their meeting room in Phoenix Hall. We hope our citizens will patronize them as they have a good organization and have proven themselves an effective Fire Company upon many occasions, especially since they have the steamer in charge. The boys are all proud of the Pecono and our borough may well be proud of the company. Give them a help.—Monroe Democrat.

Court Proceedings.

At the time of our going to press last week, the Court was engaged in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Barney Mansfield.—Indicted for Forging the name of Melchior Bossard to a note, given to Samuel Sturm, for $400. Many witnesses were called by the prosecutor to prove the name of Melchior Bossard, was not his genuine signature, who gave as their opinion it was not the hand writing of M. Bossard, but all admitted that they could not positively say, under their oaths, it was not his.

On the part of the defence it was contended that the signature was genuine, and put to the note by Bossard himself, and another defence taken was that Barney was an Epileptic, and his mind, by constant attacks, had become so feeble and intellect so far weakened, that he was not morally responsible. The case was warmly contested and ably tried. A large number of witnesses, on both sides were called. The trial lasted two and a half days, besides night sessions of the Court. The Jury, after being out a short time, returned a verdict of not guilty. Lee, Holmes and Sturm, for Com. Burnett and Walton for defendant.

Com. vs. Mathias Smith.—Indicted for assault and battery, on Mrs. John J. Frey. The parties reside in Eldred township, and have had considerable trouble heretofore, in and out of Court. John J. Frey being the tenant of Smith. Verdict not guilty, and each party to pay half the costs. Lee and Burson for Com. Sturm and Walton for deft.

Com. vs. John Jacob Frey.—Surety of peace, on oath of Mathias Smith. Court put the costs on Frey and dismissed the case.

His Honor Judge Dreher, called Smith and Frey before the Court, and administered to them a good sound healthy lecture, on their conduct as citizens of this Commonwealth, and what they might depend upon hereafter if either of them was brought there again, charged with the commission of paltry breach of the peace, and ordered each of them to enter into recognizance in the sum of $100, to keep the peace and be of good behaviour towards all good citizens and especially towards each other. Jacob and Mathias smiled and walked out of the bar, apparently as well pleased as if they had just returned from a "marriage feast." The next case was,

Com. vs. Christopher Marsh.—Assault and Battery on Joseph Strunk. Strunk is a man 70 years of age, beautifully silvered over with the frost of many winters, and resides in Popular Valley. Christopher is his son-in-law. On Sunday night, of the 8th of June, the parties met in the public highway. After some talk an altercation about the right to pasture Strunk's cows with his Chris, got savage, struck the old man, knocked him to the ground, opened the skin above his eye and caused the blood to flow freely. This was proven by Joseph and his old woman, was with him at the time. Christopher, in putting in his defence, swore the old man struck him first, without cause, and called him bad names. Notwithstanding Marsh was sustained by his wife and little son, yet the Jury convicted the defendant. Sentenced to pay $5 fine and costs of prosecution. Lee and Walton for Com. Davis for deft.

Com. vs. John Van why.—Indicted for embezzlement. It seems John, by virtue of his office as Constable of Smithfield township, also became the collector of the State and County taxes of said township. The Act of Assembly is very severe on these officers if they neglect to pay over, and apply the money collected to the proper authority. John after the trial had progressed some time, confessed he had not paid over all he had collected, and pleaded "guilty" to the two first counts in the indictment. The Court gave him $200 fine, and ten months imprisonment in the county jail and costs of prosecution. Lee and Holmes for Common wealth. Sturm and Walton for deft.

Com. vs. Christian Hiller, selling Lager Beer to a minor. This was a case brought to reform the town by preventing the rising generation from imbibing and obtaining too great a love, the great Tautonic Beverage. The selling was proven by the prosecution, but the defence attempted to take the sting out of the charge, by proving that John Heford, on account of whose indulgence the suit was brought, had represented himself to be past the age of twenty-one years. The Jury, however, thought the defence rather thin and rendered a verdict of guilty against defendant. The case was ably tried. Lee and Sturm for Commonwealth, and Davis and Burnett for defendant. A successful union in arrest of Judgment, carried the case over until next Court.

Com. vs. Luther Phillips, Assault and Battery, on oath of J. N. Lee. Defendant, in view of the fact that the odds were all against him, plead guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $20, to pay the costs of prosecution and to undergo a sojourn of fifteen days in Hotel de Troch.

Commonwealth vs. James Mattison.—Larceny. Sam. S. Detrick, Druggist, of East Stroudsburg, missed his pocket book containing about $50 with some other papers and charged young Mattison, a boy of about 17 years, with taking it. The Jury thought different and acquitted the defendant.

A MASONIC JUBILEE.

DEDICATION OF THE NEW TEMPLE AT PHILADELPHIA—TEN THOUSAND MASONS IN LINE. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25.—The day opened beautifully, and at an early hour Broad-st. was densely crowded with spectators viewing the Masonic Lodges as they marched through the various cross-streets east and west of that thoroughfare. After considerable delay the lodges fell into position according to the numerical order. The members were black suits and aprons, the officers displaying their various insignia, and marched in sections of six, each lodge displaying its number. Fifty-nine lodges of Philadelphia paraded, numbering about 9,000 members. These, with the numerous bands of music and visiting lodges from neighboring cities, swelled the number to at least 10,000. Among the strangers present were Lodge No. 2 (St. John's) and Lodge No. 156 (Doric Lodge) of New-York City. The lodges of Pittsburgh and Allegheny were strongly represented. There were also two lodges from Baltimore and a number from Camden and other New-Jersey towns, and one from Norfolk, Va.—On the left of the line, reaching from Chestnut-st., the Grand Lodge of the State, with sister Grand Lodges, took position and proceeded on the route up Broad-st. When the Grand Lodge reached Columbia-ave. the line of subordinate lodges opened, and the Grand Lodge passed through, and, on reaching the Temple, passed in, and proceeded to the Grand Chapter room to prepare for the dedication ceremonies.

At noon, R. W. Brother Samuel C. Perkins, assisted by the Grand officers, consecrated the Temple, using the new and impressive ritual prepared expressly for this occasion. The music was of the highest order. While this ceremonial was in progress, the whole line of the procession passed through the Temple, entering on Broad-st. and making its exit on Juniper-st., where the lodges were dismissed. The members then marched to the various halls throughout the city, where collations were prepared for them. The lodges from a distance accompanied those charged with their entertainment, and partook of generous hospitality.

In the line of the procession were Master Masons from nearly every State and city in the East and West, and some from the Southern States, Governors of States, officers of the Grand Commandery of Pennsylvania, city officials, and members of the Legislature. Lodges and Commanderies of Knights Templars are here from many cities and representatives from foreign countries. The procession occupied nearly three hours in passing a given point. Business is generally suspended. It is estimated that 200,000 persons were gathered in Broad-st. The city is overflowing with strangers, and flags are displayed in all quarters.

A severe shock of earthquake was felt in Nottingham, England, early on Friday morning, creating considerable alarm.—The shock was distinctly felt in several places in the country. Some damage to property is reported, but no lives lost.

In the Central Park menagerie in New York there were born during the past year 2 Lions, 1 Leopard, 2 Pumas, 1 Camel, and one Hyena—the last named animal being the first it is supposed born in the United States.
