

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1873.

WITH SUPPLEMENT.

WILLIAM M. TWEED was taken from the Tombs, on Saturday, to the penitentiary on Blackwell's Island.

THE amount collected at the various polling places of New York, on election day, for the Memphis sufferers, was $5410.

THE celebrated Hoosier tunnel was completed on Thanksgiving day. It has been fifteen years in building, and is five miles long.

CATHARINE KROEHL, an old lady, was found brutally beaten at her house in the suburbs of Harrisburg, on Friday, and died at the City Hospital Sunday.

A YOUNG man in Scranton has four trach of promise suits on hand. His anxiety "to be an angel" is described as enough to wring the stoutest heart.

FRANK L. TAYNTOR, the defaulting cashier of the Atlantic National Bank of New York, was on Saturday sentenced to seven years' imprisonment in Albany Penitentiary.

TWO ex-treasurers of Lucas county, Ohio, who last year left the Republican party because it was so corrupt, and joined the Democratic party, have just been indicted for embezzlement.

TOM Allen offers to match Jack Madden against Ben Hogan for $1000 a side, to fight in Canada, 50 miles from Detroit, in ten weeks from signing articles, or he (Allen) will fight Hogan anywhere in Canada for $5000 to $10,000 in two days to ten.

HENRY W. GENET was lately elected to the Assembly from New York city, on the Tammany Democratic ticket. He has also just been indicted as one of Tweed's ring thieves. It is an eventing, with him, now, whether he will go to the Legislature or the penitentiary. He has a good claim to a place in both.

INGERSOLL and Farrington, two of Tweed's understrappers, were convicted, of grand larceny in New York, last week, before Judge Davis. The special offense of which they were convicted was plundering the city treasury by means of excessive charges as commissioners for building the new court house. They will now have to forsake their ill-gotten wealth and go to the penitentiary. Several others of Tweed's henchmen remain to be tried.

On Tuesday, the 25th of November, at a meeting of the Directors of the Monroe County Co-operative Life Insurance Company, M. A. De L. Van Horn, a young gentleman reading law with Hon. John B. Storm, was elected Secretary of the Company to fill the place of James Carr, Jr., deceased.

VICK'S Floral Guide for 1874 has been published, and is sent anywhere on receipt of 25 cents by James Vick, Rochester, New York. It is an authority in floriculture, telling not only what seeds should be procured but how to cultivate them to advantage. This publication has had a marked influence in beautifying the homes of our people, and its good works should be encouraged. Some of the illustrations are excellent.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.—The Union Thanksgiving sermon delivered in the Presbyterian Church, by the Rev. Doctor Chaplin of the M. E. Church of this place, we have heard spoken of only in the highest terms. The turnout was very respectable, but there was room plenty for many others who had better been there, instead of giving their influence towards making our national Thanksgiving an idle, formal show.

UNION CHRISTMAS SERVICES AT BROADHEADSVILLE.—Union Christmas services, will be held in the church at Broadheads-ville, Christmas day, December 25th, 1873. Commencing at 10 o'clock, A. M. Several Sunday Schools and Singing Schools will be present, and addresses will be delivered to old and young, in English and in German. The Church will be suitably decorated with evergreens, by the ladies of Broadheads-ville and vicinity. The members of both congregations, and the public generally, are cordially invited to attend.

ADVERTISING.—Those who affect to believe there is little use in advertising urge as an objection that the advertisements are not read. They can easily be convinced of their error in this respect by making inquiry. Let them insert an advertisement offering to purchase some article that is tolerably plenty in the market, and they will be flooded with offers to sell before the ink of the advertisement is dry. Even an enterprising weekly that has a circulation of one, two or three thousand copies is in the position to do the village merchant great good.

OUR SQUIRREL.—Our Fireman were out in good force on Thanksgiving day, and paid East Stroudsburg a visit with their splendid Steamer and were well pleased with their reception. We have been informed by a citizen of that place who is familiar with the Fire Department of New York city, that our boys made a good appearance and behaved very gentlemanly, and that the East Stroudsburgers were well pleased with them and their performance. They were supplied with water from one of the tanks belonging to the Railroad. And as to skill, our informant states that our company will compare favorably with the firemen of large cities.

A CALAMITY AT SEA.

The Steamship Ville Du Harve Sunk.

TWO HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SIX LIVES LOST.

Cable dispatches bring intelligence of the sinking of the Ville du Harve of the General Transatlantic Mail Steamship Line in mid-ocean (lat. 47° 21'; long. 35° 31'), at 2 o'clock a. m., Saturday, Nov. 22. The Ville du Harve sailed from New York for Havre, Nov. 15; she had foggy weather for five days, and was cut down to the water's edge, as above stated, in clear weather, by the sailing ship Loch Earn, Robertson commanding, bound from London to New York. The steamship sunk in twelve minutes after the collision, and Two Hundred and Twenty-six persons were swallowed up in the sea. Eighty-seven, including the captain and fifty-four of the crew, were picked up by the Loch Earn, and subsequently transferred to the ship Trimountain, and landed yesterday at Cardiff, Wales.

Many of the persons on the Ville du Harve were well known throughout the United States and Europe.

LIVERYMEN are busy.

THE Presidents Message comes next.

THIS is the season of year that is hard upon horse-flesh.

AS the season of parties approaches, boys begin to feel gaily and "gals" buoyant.

J. H. SHOTWELL, East Stroudsburg, sells Standard Prints at 10 cents.

A CATHOLIC church was dedicated at Carbondale, on Sunday, in the presence of 3,000 people.

THE threshing season has opened and the farmers are busily engaged in flinging the flail.

THE newspapers of Pennsylvania stand 208 in favor of the new Constitution and 18 against it.

LARGE quantities of tobacco were consumed, Thanksgiving day, near Nose Peak, this borough. Oh, the filthy weed!

EARNING ten dollars a day and getting less than one—the opposition "Bus" line. It is hard, Bill, but just.

MILTON has a stone mason who is eighty years of age, who has followed the occupation nearly sixty years and is still at it.

BEST heavy sheeting muslin only 12 cents, at J. H. Shotwell's store, East Stroudsburg.

DONATIONS, singing schools, turkey huddles, hog raffles, and good old time frolics will soon be the county rage. Lookout boys.

EVERYTHING in the shape of dry goods, groceries, &c., to be had at J. H. Shotwell's store. He sells cheaper than any other, in East Stroudsburg.

NOBODY married Thanksgiving day, so far as heard from. All right. Lay the matter over till Christmas or New Year. Better late than never.

LADIES if you are in want of fashionable gun boots or shoes, and serviceable, call at Fried's Empire Clothing House, he keeps nothing but the best, and insures all.

DON'T forget the grand concert to be given by the Monroe County Musical Association, at East Stroudsburg, to-morrow, Friday evening, in Union Hall. Tickets, 25 cents.

WINTER is getting ready to play her regular engagement, and the premonitions of her coming like the advance notice of other great artists, are seen and felt in the early mornings.

ALL who desire buying good clothing, at fair prices, should call at the Empire store, kept by Simon Fried, and examine his stock. He don't propose to be undersold under any circumstances.

A GOOD deal of charity must begin at home this winter, and particularly on the part of the family toward the head and support thereof. Young ladies especially should bear this in mind.

THE Revival commenced in the M. E. Church of this place some three weeks ago has resulted in adding to the Church between thirty and forty new members; and the meeting is still in progress.

A LADY suggests that if the church going ladies were to dress in calico and wear sun-bonnets, scores of her sex would attend divine services who stay away because they cannot dress like their fashionable sisters.

RELIGIOUS meetings for Divine worship will be held morning and evening, at Friends' Meeting House, corner Franklin and Sarah streets, first day, the 7th of the 12th month, being the regular semi-annual meeting. Prominent strangers will be present, and the public are cordially invited.

PROSPERING.—We have been informed that the sales of coal by the Street Railway Company for the three months ending with November last, are more than one quarter in advance of what they were the corresponding three months of last year. Inasmuch as this increase has occurred under the cash plan, inaugurated this year, it is specially flattering to the Co.

THE growth and structure of the human hair, is very plainly set forth in a pamphlet, published by R. P. Hall & Co., Nashua, N. H., proprietors of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer, for gratuitous distribution. The deservedly high reputation of their preparation has wholly been gained by its merits. Being free from oil and alcohol, it has a healthy action on the scalp, restoring gray hair to its natural color without dyeing, it cures itching of the scalp, removes and prevents dandruff, and will thicken up the thin locks. Such are the benefits which are conferred upon the consumer. No one should neglect to give it a trial. Journal and Statesman, Wilmington, Del.

What We heard and saw within the Week.

The Phoenix Engine House draped in mourning, Thursday evening, over a number of dead-drunks.—Two knock-downs opposite the Stroudsburg House, Saturday afternoon.—What we have a full supply of just now—young bruisers and foreheads.—Johnson refusing to take specie for goods.—A few fighting men in this borough and no recruiting office opened to enlist for Cuba. What a pity.—Valentine trying to introduce something new—in shape of extinguishing a lighted lamp—by elevating a No. 13 boot. It won't work, it's too dangerous.—The S. I. S. gone up.—Mary amusing herself while in company with a few lady friends, upon the sidewalk, by waltzing and singing.—Jonas with his corps of juveniles, Friday night, at Williams' Hall, discoursing their melodious voices to an audience of 28.—Lewy taking in two of the weary, at a late hour, Saturday night.—A new barber shop in Saylor's building, up-stairs.—A "dark" subject roughly handled, at a late hour Saturday night, by J. K. and B.—The sudden disappearance of the Conductor of the Owl Train.—"Tippy" in town and every body glad to see him. Long may he wave.—Trouble expected about the 22d inst., in which many "old sores" will be healed at somebody's expense.—Ice smashers in large numbers, Thursday, en-route for the Flower Garden.—A long walk for a little pleasure.—Buckingham rejoicing over the arrival of Ned.—And well he may.—A number of young "men" enjoying a sociable drunk, Tuesday night, 25th ult.—Better bent at the alter boys.—Amandus promenading the streets with a pumpkin on the top of his head. Quite an improvement in his appearance.—Quite a number of invited guests at the Stroudsburg House, Thanksgiving day, partaking of turkey and other delicacies of the season.—The Hon. John B. Storm, off for Washington.—The shovel brigade out in full force on Tuesday, piling up the "beautiful."—Everybody anxious to have a sleigh ride.—East Stroudsburgers highly elated Thanksgiving day. And well they might. The working of Pocono No. 1 always gives satisfaction when set to work.—Dr. Stick-em administering an "over-dose" of spirits to Charles Adams, Tuesday morning. Better hang out that shingle Doc, or you'll be numbered among the "quacks."—Sally out sleighing with her own private conveyance—a hand-sled.—They stood the storm admirably, and per consequence: Alpha suffered intensely with frost.—A large number of anxious spectators at Esquire Rees' office, Monday night. The boys waived a hearing, and the affair goes to Court. Reserved seats to be had by applying to the Court Clerk. Ticket office to be opened on the 22d inst., at 2 o'clock.

Mr. WILSON PERISON of East Stroudsburg, has a little daughter who for years past has been sorely afflicted with Epileptic Fits, her mind was greatly impaired and she reduced almost to a living skeleton. After numerous unsuccessful attempts of some of the most eminent Physicians in the country, New York, Philadelphia and elsewhere, to effect a cure but all to no effect. We learn from Mr. P. that he has at last found a simple remedy by which his daughter has been cured, her mind restored, and she is getting quite stout. Feeling that all afflicted with Epilepsy should know of it, he desires to say that all interested may have full particulars, by addressing him at East Stroudsburg, Monroe county, Pa., and enclosing a three cent stamp for return postage.
