

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1874.

WANTED, copies of the JEFFERSONIAN, as was very little scratching, and in but two or follows: No. 15, date of July 28th, 1870, and three instances was the peculiar choice out-No. 28, date of October 7th, 1870. As we side of the ticket expressed. Thus for desire these numbers to complete our files we Chief Burgess, one independent voter did shall feel greatly obliged, and cheerfully re- not like the candidate, yet he felt it his duty ward any one who will bring them to this to vote. He proclaimed his preference by vot-THEO. SCHOCH, Publisher. office.

Normal School.

House, on Monday evening next, February Everybody who can should be present.

The Meeting.

day evening last, for the purpose of nomina- test was that of constable, and for this, no antipodes in politics, was in every respect For this the result was as follows: Keener, as happy a family gathering as one could de- 130; Halleck, 83; Mansfield, 27. sire to participate in. It turned out just | The following are the names of the officers as we expected it would, when we made the elect: suggestion that it should be a gathering without distinction of party, for securing the nomination of a ticket of men qualified to manage our borough affairs properly. Its Jacob K. Shaffer, John Kern. success was complete, and the ticket which we announce as elected to day was the result | Reuben Thomas. of its deliberations-a ticket in every way unexceptionable. The officers of the meeting were David Keller, Esq., President, John Depue. Edinger, and Melchoir Spragle, Vice Presidents; and A. O. Greenwold, and Thomas M. McIlhancy Secretaries, all save the president Democrats, but all worked impartially to secure the desired end.

How much better is it thus to lay aside the asperity of party in our municipal elections, than to wrangle at the polls and, in

The Result.

The result of the election in this borough. on Tuesday, is gratifying to all who love harmony and quiet, and who desire to have the business of the borough government managed, honorably and economically. The agreement settled at the meeting on Monday day. evening was ratified with a unanimity rarely witnessed, and nearly every man who went to the polls voted it fairly and squarely. There ing for his next best friend -- "The Devil." And Normal School question.

so of another who did not like the candidate for Judge of Election. He showed where The Hon. J. P. Wickersham, State his regard and preference lay by voting for Superintendent of Schools, will address the "A d-m Hog." The fact of the tickets as citizens of Stroudsburg and East Strouds- well as the names of the voters being both burg, and the county generally, at the Court numbered would have rendered the solution as to who these patriotic voters were an easy matter, but it was not considered worth 23d on the subject of Normal Schools. while to break their happiness by an exposure. They should remember, however, that the ballot-box is not the best nor safest place in which to vent their cowardly spleen. The meeting at the Court House, on Mon- The only office for which there was a con-

> Chief Burgess-Theodore Schoch. Town Council-Wilson Dreher, William wallace, Wm. Huntsman, Joseph L. Bowers, > Overseers of the Poor-Peter H. Robeson,

Auditor-John S. Fisher. School Directors-Nicholas Ruster, R. R.

Assessor-Olis B. Gordon. Constable-John Keener. Judge of Election-David Keller.

Inspectors-Wm, Clemens, J. S. Williams + +

Normal School Meeting.

STROUDSBURG, Feb. 13, 1874.

A meeting of those interested in the pro- this borough, who congregate in large bodies the heat of excitement, in the end, fail to ject of establishing a Normal School in this along the side walks, on the Sabbath, during secure good men. At the meeting Demo- district was held in the Court House, Friday, the warm days we now experience, is very crats suggested the nomination of Repub- February 13th. After the meeting had been disgusting to all church-goers. licans and Republicans suggested the names called to order, Darius Dreher was elected of Democrats, and both were placed side by President. side on the ticket, instead of being presented A letter was received from Hon. J. P. to confuse the voters as antagonists. Where Wickersham was read, and in substance, is these was a diversity of choice, the friends of as follows : He will endeavor to be with us each candidate was requested to stand up and during Court week, and if unable to be here tunities of friends impelled him to forego the rise, came off at the Fair ground. The noses were counted and the Democrat and then, will come as soon as possible. The desire. R-publican who received the largest count interest of Stroudsburg and East Stroudswere declared the unanimous choice of the burg being one, he desires to see them united anceting. It was the Crawford system em- in this undertaking. Mr. C. S. Detrick then Buskirk, for a copy of the "Daily Indepenphatically improved upon, and, as a conse- informed the meeting that he had received a quence, there was not a disenting voice letter from Wm. Kistler, and gave some of heard in opposition. There was a humor the letter. Mr. A. O. Greenwald and C. S. about the plan, too, and about its working, Detrick then made some good remarks conwhich made the meeting partake more of cerning our motives and our courtesy to others. the character of a social reunion than of a In accordance with these remarks the meeting political gathering, and at its close Demo- then passed the following resolution, viz : crats and Republicans walked away from the That a committee of five be appointed to try pared to receive orders for his services in that Court House arm in arm, each one satisfied and reconcile the differences between Strouds- line. This is what is needed here. See that a most pleasant evening had been spent. | burg and East Stroudsburg. Com. as fol- his advertisement. There was no room at the meeting for the lows: A. O. Greenwald, T. A. Bell, J. S. characteristic displays of "the old political Williams, B. S. Jacoby and C. S. Detrick. stagers." Occasionally one who had not Mr. J. S. Williams then reported that he conceived the idea of doing things in this had subscriptions to the amount of $27,700. way louped out towards the old routine, but the quiet, listless manner of the audience scriptions were then made by Messrs. T. A. soon convinced these that this was not a Bell, B. S. Jacoby and others, and on motion political meeting-that there was no room it was ordered that one hundred subscription here for anything but acquiescence' in the lists be printed and given to J. S. Williams Thursday last, in Stroud tsp., to assist in will of the majority, and that the mode and for distribution and thorough canvassing of manner of the political caucus would be as the county. On motion, it was ordered to of "Fowlers Charge" was quite a success. much out of place here as in a religious meet again on next Friday night. meeting. But even when these efforts The meeting then adjourned, loomed up they did not proceed from evil B. F. MOREY, Sec'y. intent, but from the honest idea, drawn from the experience which the past in political Mountain Home Items. matters had learned them, that there must MOUNTAIN HOME, PA., Feb. 16, 1874. be some chicanery to secure perfection. Of On Wednesday evening the 11th inst., as course they subsided when their eyes were No. 26, a coal train on the D. L. & W. R. R. opened. was approaching the water tank at Paradise station, they halted for the purpose of taking him is prevented from doing further damage. We hope we have seen the last of politic in connection with our municipal affairs, and water, and while in the act of coupling the in this, relation, confess that the cumulative engine to the cars, Mr. John Kennedy, the system of voting was not without its good head brakeman, had his foot caught between results, in that it opened our eyes to the fact the humpers and terribly mashed. He was that a mixture of political ideas could not taken on board of the train and brought to prove detrimental in the management of our the hotel of Mr. John W. Yothers at Oakborough affairs. land Station, where the wound was promptly and properly dressed by Dr. Samuel L. Is It Worth While ! Foulke of that place, after which the injured It is rumored that one or two prominent man was put on board of a train and sent to members of the School Board threaten to Scranton, where we are pleased to learn he tain Home Encampment," No. 247, I. O. resign their membership, if the people sucis rapidly recovering from his injuries. ceed in defeating the proposed sale of the Academy property, the borrowing of $15,-000 and the building of a new school house, of the fancy order. We should regret exceedingly to lose the valuable services of heavy timber from a sled, previous to its expected to assist in the institution. these gentlemen to the cause of education being loaded in a car for shipment, a heavy here, but, really, is it worth while to run stick at which he was working, slipped from into a useless piece of extravagance to retain the skid, and struck him against the leg formerly of the Lehigh Valley Railroad ever be delivered by that gentleman in the the hall floor of the second story, immethem-to increase our public indebtedness breaking both bones of the leg about midway Company, has in recognition of his eminent M. E. Church, at this place on Thursday diately over the vault. The burglars ship of the Presbyterian Church of this by some $20,000 merely for their gratifica- between the knee and the ankle joint. He services rendered that Company been raised evening the 26th inst. Subject-"The then made a breach through three feet borough, by certificate from the First Presby tion? We do not want them to resign, and was immediately taken to the residence of Mr. to the rank of Chief Operator of the North History of Odd Fellowship." Seats free. of masonry. They then cut the rivets of terian Church of Lancaster, on the 27th sincerely hope they will not; but would it Shafer, when Dr. Foulke was summoned, Pennsylvania Railroad Company, at Front Lecture to commence at 71 P. M.

SPRING fast approaches.

- A GENERAL break-up is expected.
- LENT commenced yesterday, 18th inst.
- HOUSE-HUNTING is now the order of th

HAM-SMOKING is indulged in by many of our citizens.

> THE time of tribulation for bed-begs rapidly approaches.

> A NEW church is to be erected at East Stroudsburg, soon.

EAST STROUDSBURG is wide-awake on the PORTLAND, Northampton county, Pa., is to have a hardware store.

CERTAIN parties are busily engaged, and trying to add $15,000 to our borough debt

A NEW Grange of the Patrons of Husbanthe 13th inst.

ICE HOUSES are all filled and we can prepare for cool calmness during the coming summer months.

It is "rumored" that a band is soon to be ting a Borough Ticket, though composed of nominations were made by the meeting, organized in this borough. What are the lovers of music in East Stroudsburg doing on thoroughly acquainted with the rights of the band question?

> As some think climbing the Academy hill is too great a task for children going to school, we would suggest an elevator for the benefit use was a great loss to her owner. Duty should to bed?

GODFREY RUFF, one day last week, caught a pickeral at twelve mile pond which drew heavily towards seven pounds in weight. It Bossardsville prize.

THE New Jersey Midland Railway Company has leased the Middletown, Unionville, and Water Gap Railroad, running from Middletown, N. Y., to the New Jersey State line. The lease is perpetual.

THE language used by "young men" of

WE are glad to learn that our friend and As MRS. LODER, widow of the late Wm. neighbor, Mr. Wm. Flory, has at last re- Loder, an aged lady, was carrying a pail of sentatives, on Friday last, the resolutions covered his long lost cow. The said cow water from her house to her stable, on Fristrayed away from his premises some time in day last, she slipped on the ice and fell, and, November last, and as no word could be we regret to learn sustained severe bruises on heard of her it was supposed she was lost her person. She was so badly injured as to which will enable the Bostonians to make entirely, notwithstanding her absence was be helpless for a time, but we are pleased to a hearty meal for two cents.

thoroughly advertised from that time to the learn that she is now recovering rapidly from present. On Saturday morning last, how- her hurts.

ever, notice of her whereabouts was brought By reference to our marriage head it will to Mr. Flory's ears, and he at once sent a commission to bring her home. On arriving at the point indicated she was found to be Bank, William Gunsaules, has been comthere, but Mr. and Mrs. Frazier, who reside mitting matrimony. Matrimony is a in Stroud township, about two miles south dangerous sea to launch upon, but as west of the borough, and who had her in posour young friend and his amiable bride session, and so held her all the time, refused to deliver her up, unless certain conditions were complied with-the sine qua non being may meet only pleasant weather and only 1891. the payment of a liberal stipend for her keephappy experiences.

ing during her long absence. Mr. Flory thought the matter over, and the more he reflected the stronger he was convinced that Lizzie Baldwin gave a sociable entertainment as the cow was his he ought to have her. to her numerous friends, at the Washington dry was instituted at East Stroudsburg, on On Monday morning, therefore, he started Hotel, the residence of her father. After after her, and by noon had her snugly stored relieving a table groaning beneath the in his stable. We do not know what argu- luxuries of the season, and other good things, ment he employed with the Fraziers. What- music, and a good time generally was the ever they were they proved successful. We order of the evening, every one vieing with do know, however, that this would be just each other to make the occasion a pleasant the case through which both town people one, and one long to be remembered by those and country people could be made more who joined in the festivities.

RUNAWAY .- As Mr. Charles Hull was both under the law of estrays, about which proceeding in a sleigh, on a trip to Tannersthere is considerable bother and more disville, on Thursday last, accompanied by Mrs. pute. The Fraziers soon discovered that the Benjamin Hull and Mrs. J. E. Erdman, he cow was valuable, and that the loss of her discovered that a rope halter on his horse of the lazy ones. Wonder if they go up stairs have prompted them, as the law directs encircled the reins so as to interfere with them, to find out who her owner was that his control of the animal. He stopped and she might be returned, or to dispose of her requested a passer-by to adjust the halter otherwise according to law. The fact that properly, but, in the hurry, halter and bridal were both slipped over the horse's head they failed to do this does not add to their was a "big" one but not quite up to the credit for honesty, and they can blame but when dobbin started on the run and succeeded in up-setting the sleigh and throwing its oc themselves if public opinion sets against them in this regard. We do not know what cupants in the snow. Fortunately a scare was the only result of the accident. disposition Mr. Flory intends to make of the > case, but that justice should be given sway when injustice conspires to the injury of a entered the evening train at Reading for fellow man is just as true if not a little bit Philadelphia. On the conductor taking E. Stroudsburg-John Yetter, Henry H. truer than preaching.

we would like to see the point settled in this to raise the amount of his fare, including case whether a man can be unlawfully the additional twenty five cent check. within one cent. The puncher of paste despoiled of his goods with impunity.

PIGEON SHOOTING .- Last Monday the nickel being forthcoming or he would be Jr., E. F. Wolf, Geo. Snyder.

In the Massachusetts House of Reprecensuring Senator Sumper were rescinded.

Boston is still ahead. One of its many sages claims to have made a discovery

There are rumors of a new railroad between Philadelphia and New York, to be built "by the people and ran in the interasts of the people," the shares of which

be seen that the clever, gentlemanly, obliging are to be put as low as five dollars each and good looking teller of the Stroudsburg We want $2.50 worth of stock.

February came in on a Sunday and goes out on Saturday, thus being composed of four exact weeks, and each day of the week occurs an even number of have risked it, they have our best times. This will occur but twice again wishes that during their voyage of life they in the present century-in 1885 and

> The Parliamentary elections in Great Britain were nearly finished last week Of the whole number of members the Conservatives had carried 342, and the Liberals and Home Rulers 296-making a Conservative majority of 46. There had been a number of serious election

JURY LIST, FEBRUARY, TERM 1874. GRAND JURORS.

Eldred .- Jacob Barliep, Peter P. Shafer, Barrett-David Price, Charles Boyer, Wilknson Price.

M. Smithfield-William Gunsaules, Emanue Mosier.

gar.

shimer.

Jackson-Barnet Kresge. Price-Joseph Price. Stroudsburg-Amos Miller, Jesse Albert, acob Rhodes.

Coolbaugh-James Smilev. Tunkhannock-Jacob E. Altemose.

PETIT JURORS.

Jefferson Frantz, Harrison Keehler, John Snyder, John Gregory.

up tickets the man had none, and after Teeter.

sue, Hirman La Bar, Frederick Casebeer. Daniel A. Bush, George B. Brotzman, Samuel

Hamilton-Joseph A. Fetherman, Samuel boards, however, insisted on that single Martz, Theodore Werkheiser, John Shoemsker,

Price-Lewis Torry, Lewis Lesoin, Leonard

Tobyhanna-Jackson Stein, Amos Keiper,

Ross-Michael Mackes, Timothy Martz,

Barrett-Stephen H. Peters, Elisha Dunbar.

Pocono-William Holsted, Abraham Albert-

Paradise-Geo. Bowman.

Polk-George W. Kresge.

Coolbaugh-John H. Tects.

M. Smithfield-Martin Place.

riots.

Pocono-Manassah Miller.

Paradise-Augustus Beseeker, Barnet Metz

Hamilton-Thomas Arnold, John Dennis Smithfield-Oscar Lakin, Charles Christian, Chestnuthill-Linford Overpeck, Joseph Dor.

Polk-Stewart Hawk.

FIRST WEEK.

Chestnuthill-Jacob Laufer, Robert Snyder,

We would not be guilty of barratry, but emptying out all his pockets he managed Smithfield-Melchoir Heller, Godfrey Tran-Gulick, Jack Detrick.

WE were in error in announcing, a couple long talked of shooting match between Mr. of weeks ago, that Squire Wagner had re- A. H. Azer, of this place, and Mr. H. signed his Justiceship. The Squire had the Shiffer, of Scranton, for twenty dollars matter under consideration, but the impor- aside, eleven birds each, twenty-one yards friend and former townsman, James P. Vandent' published at Laramie City, Wyoming and ready for business. Very little time was Jefferson College, but it is conducted Territory. The "Independent" is a spicy lost getting in position and selecting a referee. with the utmost secrecy. None of the little sheet.

MR. C. E. DURFEE has supplied himself with all the appliances necessary to raise and remove buildings, trees, &c. and is now pre-

THE excellent sleighing which existed here the shooting was very good, both men mak history, but it is seldom that such for nearly two weeks, was wiped out by the ing some fine shots. Mr. Azer won the monstrosities live until maturity. rain-storm which prevailed on Friday last. match by one bird, he having shot six out of In a single night the ground which was covered the eleven to Shiffer's shooting five out of with snow to the depth of 10 inches was laid eleven. Below we append the score : as bare almost as in the midst of summer.

THE oyster supper at Aaron Stone's, on raising funds to pay the salary of the Pastor The net proceeds reach a very gratifying sum, and the enjoyments of those present were all pleasant.

THERE is a large and vicious looking dog running loose around town, apparently without an owner. A son of Esq. Wagner was bitten in the arm by this worthless cur, and it would be well for the authorities to see Give he a leaden pill.

A FIRE came near destroying Daniel Bloom's residence one day last week. A neighbor had made a fire in the smokehouse, which adjoins the dwelling, when the blaze striking up set fire to the meat and woodwork. The fire was discovered and put out before much damage was done.

A NEW Encampment, to be called "Moun-O. F., will be instituted under the auspices

On Thursday, the 12th inst., as Mr. of the Grand Encampment of Pennsylvania, James B. Conklin, a man in the employ of at Mountain Home, in this county, on the Messrs. Shafer and Rinehart of this Wednesday evening next, February 25th. place, was engaged in unloading a load of Distinguished brethren from abroad are match has been the subject of much "chin music," among the "sports" of this vicinity WE are under obligations to our young for some time past, both men being well known here and considered excellent shots. tion, as is believed, began several days the wind blew a perfect gale, causing the birds to fly with lighting rapidity, allowing

A. H. Azer, 00111011100-6 ble accident occurred between 1 and 2 1 0 1 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 1-5 o'clock this morning near the State Dam H. Shiffer completely blocked the way. The en horror, the stove in the caboose set fire to the freight, and nine cars were burned bin none the worse for their unbidden visit. Great Bank Robbery in Illionis. Intense excitement was created at Quincy, Illinois, last Friday morning, by

MOUNTAIN HOME, PA., Feb. 16, 1874. robbed of about $100,000 in currency MR. EDITOR .- Owing to the illness of the belonging to the bank, beside a quantity Rev. N. D. McComas, at the time announced of bonds and valuable papers, and, it is for the delivery of his lecture at this place, said, a large amount of special deposits. APPOINTMENT.-Mr. J. Wilson Utt, he failed to appear. The lecture will how- The bank was entered by cutting through compelled to stop the train and put him out. A gentleman passenger kindly loan ed the penniless traveler the desired far thing, and the train sped on.

Several evenings since an individual

SOCIABLE .- Last Wednesday night Miss

The bodies of the Siamese twins were brought to Philadelphia by a committee of physicians more that a week ago, for scientific examination. This investiga At two o'clock the parties were on the ground ago, under the charge of Dr. Pancoast, of or disfigure the band between the two bodies, as it is their ntention to make a public show of this peculiarity of the dead

the discovery that the First National

Stroud-James Buskirk, Nelson Detrick,

Martin Detrick, James Andrew. Stroudsburg-George Dreher, Abraham Labar, Michael Burnett, James Edinger. SECOND WEEK. Chestnuthill-Simpson Mosteller, Jerome Kresge William Frable, George H. Eond, Wm. Fenner. Stroudsburg-Jacob B. Miller, Wm. Flory, William Garis, Aaron Reimer. Hamilton-Joseph A. Bossard, Andrew Mix-M. Smithfield-William Overfield, John

Lesoin.

ohn Schook.

on, Charles Walter. Eldred-John Detrick

Place, Daniel H. Custard, Daniel Coss. Stroud-James Fisher, Thomas T. Long,

Tharles Kinney, Joseph Swink. E. Stroudsburg-Samuel Detrick, Frederick

Brutzman, Theodore Hoffman. Paradise-Jacob Hilgart, Robert Eaton, ames Heller, Joseph Jones. Smithfield-Samuel Treible, Peter H. Ter

beny, Frank Bell. Barrett-George Shafer, Andrew Decker. Polk-Joseph Small.

Ross-Jerome Buskirk, Philip Metzgar.

MARRIED.

February 2, 1874, by Rev. R. Pitts, M. William Gunsaules and Miss Kate Van Vliet oth of Stroudsburg, Pa.

At Canadensis, February 14, 1874, by Rev gine "jumped" the track, and now hangs J. Pastorfield, Dimmick Price and Margare over the bank of the river. Fighteen Sebring, both of Barret township, Monroe

DIED.

January 11, 1874, in Genoa, N. Y., Edd only child of Dr. M. B. and Sarah Van Bu kirk, aged 5 years, 3 months and 2 days.

Lightly fold the little hands O'er the heart forever stilled ; Gently close the loving eyes Never yet with anguish filled Gently speak, and softly tread For our darling Eddie's dead.

Twine the fairest, purest flowers With the curls upon his brow; Beautiful in life he seemed. Lovely, oh ; thrice lovely, now Can it be that death so soon Called away our only one.

Yes, the brow is marble cold Hushed the music of his voice; Nevermore with song to make Every heart that hears rejoice-Yet his song, in Heaven will be From all earthly passion free.

February 9, 1874, at Lancaster, Pa., Mr. Elizabeth M. Malvin, wife of the late John Malvin, who deceased the 7th of April, 1869. Mrs. Malvin was received into the membera sheet of boiler iron with which the May, 1874. Her daily good works evinced vault is lined, and descended into the that she was a new creature in Christ Jesossuch substantial evidences of regard.

Mr. John Selwood of this place trapping for results will be made public nutil the work Mr. Azer and Mr. Moses Shields of Oakland has been completed. The families of the trapping for Mr. Shiffer. The day was not twins made a strict contract with the a very propitious one for good shooting as surgeons, binding the latter not to destroy the men no spare time in "covering" their husbands. It appears that duplications sell, Andrew Keiser, John W. Zahn birds. Taking everything into consideration of this kind are not rare in medical

A Train Wrecked by a Landslide.

ALLENTOWN, Penn, Feb. 16. - a terri

Another match will come off at the same Station on the Lehigh and Susquehanna place, to-morrow afternoon, between Stephen Railroad, by which three men lost their Henry and John H. Williams, both of this lives, a large amount of property was de place, eleven birds each, at twenty one yards stroyed, and several persons sustained ser ious and perhaps fatal injuries. A freight train heavily laden, running at a high rise. 'Some sharp shooting is expected. THE old friends and parishioners of the rate of speed, ran into a landslide, which Rev. J. Pastorfield, residing in the neighborhood of Spragueville, Pa., made him a friendly visit at his new home in Canadensis one day last week. The visit was intended upon each other, smashing the freight, to be a surprise-the Rev. gentleman only which was strewn along the road or hur having been notified to remain at home on a led into the river. Not one of the train certain day, without a reason given therefor. | hands, as far as could be ascertained, escap But the surprise was rendered doubly com- ed without some injury. The body of the plete from the fact that he had not called at engineer, Daniel Shannon, was found un the post office, and consequently, had no idea der the engine, and was considerably of any one's coming. After several hours burned. Otto Shannon, a fireman, and spent in social intercourse with their reveren Frank Ryan, a breakman, were badly ed friend, which could only result in the most scalded and burned. Three other men perfect enjoyment, the party started for are reported to be killed. To add to the home, leaving the Parsonage larder and oats

The occasion must have proved one of unusual gratification to the Rev. gentleman-than whom we know of no one more deserving of

Bank had been entered and the vault not be vastly better to run the ris	of such a who very neatly and skilfully dressed th	e and Milton streets, Philadelphia, Pa. We	ELY UTT, Committee	vault. The safes inside, containing	She was zealous in seeking the promotion of calamity befalling us than to un	necessarily fractured limb, and the patient is doin	g wish him further success.	J. P. ZABRISKIE, of JOHN H. BOND, Arrangements.	money, bonds and valuable papers, were	Christ's Kingdom not only at home but contract a debt which would requ	ire genera- remarkably well under the circumstances.		JOHN H. BOND, ) Arrangements.	charged with powder, and, by means of	throughout the world She habitually visited tions for its payment? Besides,	there is a Dr Foulke is a young man who has jus	A PARTY of three sleigh loads, composed	IMPROVEMENTS Mr. Renhen Miller is	a small rubber hose, a train whs carried	the sick and hereaved and pointed them 10 chance of securing other good men	to fill their fairly entered upon the practice of his pro	of lady and gentlemen friends and relatives,	building an addition to the dwelling on Sarah	to the top of the safe, where a small pistol,	the source of all comfort. She sought ought places, and would it not be better	to run this fession and has thus far been eminently	v went on a surprise expedition to the residence	street nurchased of Mr. Lewis Speer The	screwed to an old ledger, was arranged so	the perishing couls of both rich and poor, and risk and keep out of debt ! This	K of these successful in his treatment of the variou	is of Mr. Samuel Smiley, in Stroud township,	design is to accommodate two families	as to set it off. A string attached to the	hade them come to Losus And it is a most queries, friends, and act upon th	eir sugges- diseases to which he has been summoned	l. on Thursday evening last. The surprise to	M. Quind Damon is immediate to could a	pistol passed out of the window of the	plonging oningidance that when her ransomer tions, and let us endeavor to purs	uade these We consider him perfectle reliably an	d Mr. S. and family was a complete success	Mr. Stroud Burson is preparing to erect a	second story to the street below. The	spirit was leaving its falling tabernacle, 12

gentlemen to hold on even if they	do not ex- trustworthy both as a physician and	a and the evening proved to be a very enjoy-	heat dweining ou the corner of Sarah and	second story to the street below. The clock in the bank stopped at 2.17, a. m.	enter the kingdom of eternal glory, precious actly gain their end. They are se	nsible gen- surgeon and bespeak for him the confidence	e able one to all concerned.		The state of the s	A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A A tlemen, and, doubtless, open to	conviction. and patronage of the entire community.		Occupancy.	fired their train. The door of the safe	came into the kingdom of redeeming grace of
In any event, let us be warned h	y Easton's E. H. HELLER.	WE are indebted to our old friend, and	Sydennam 1. Walton, has hearly enclosed	and areacted from fer hinges. There is	earth Pastor and congregation will grow
folly.	II. II. III. III.	former townsman, the Hon. Garbut F. Gor-	In large bunding, on Dark street, racing
+@+	AND SUDDER AND SOCIAPLE _Th	e don, of Junction City, Kansas, for a box of			circle and in the paths of usefulness. But we
The Hon. Wm. Kistler	The second state of the se	this (this ching ' chinged to us trom		A second descende and here was	know that our loss is her eternal gain. Her spending several days at home a	for Harris- Church of East Stroudsburg, will hold a	that noint Though the package was some-	· FRIED spreads himself extensively in our	I Databas Casas Des II to 1 C.	Last manda mana fit and Lasna come Olivar his friends hereabouts. He left	for Harris- looking so Oyster Supper and Sociable in their Hall, i	what delayed in transit, the birds reached us	advertising columns to-day, but as Fried	Attorney for the district of Pittshurz	And speedily her prayer was answered. She looking so User Supper and Sociable in their Han, I	d in excellent condition, and proved a rich feast	means every word that he says, and has no	who had been seriously ill for several	has mone to "see the King in His beauty," and well as usual.	Thursday aganings Estrugry the 95th an	d to us and ours as well as to others with	idea of making promises that he does not	days past, died there at four o'clock	to dwell forever in the Paradise of trous procuring 26th. The Sociable will be free and inter	whom they were shared as directed. We	mean to perform, it would be well to read	Monday morning.	us all trust in Jesus with an unwavering
Owing to the disappointment in	as to take spersed with vocal and instrumental music	an assure the generous donor that such	his advertisement and then call and see his		and so follow Him that we, too, may receive birds in time, the match that w	as to take spersed with vocal and incurdmental music	tokens of remembrance are always duly	stock before purchasing articles in his line	Berks county courts cost $11,139 80	the everlasting and blessed inheritance of the
	. H. Azor speeches, &c. All are invited.		elsewhere.		the Saints in glory.
and H. Shiffer was postponed unt	il Monday. By order of the Committee.	'appreciated.	the second se		The second of Breeds
			+		