

Effects of the fog—Mr. Jollie was dis covered by his anxious wife a long time after midnight vainly trying with his latch key to open the front door. He stated for excuse that the fog was so thick that he couldn't seekeyhole.

Nearly one hundred more native animals from the Rocky Mountains are en route to swell the fine collection already in the Zoological Gardens at Philadelphia. The list includes beavers, otters, lions, Rocky Mountain sheep, goats, antelope and a variety of birds.

The Sioux City (Iowa) Journal says: "Last winter the aggregate number of prairie chickens shipped from Sioux City to the Eastern market was about 25,000. Thus far the present season there have been over 35,000 purchased by our dealers. The ruling price is from $3.90 to $4.10 per dozen."

The New Hampshire election, held on 10th inst., did not result favorably to the Republican candidates. Nearly full returns give Weston, Democrat, about 1200 plurality over McCutchen, the Republican candidate for Governor; but as over 2000 votes were polled for a temperance candidate there is no choice by the people. The Senate is reported to be equally divided, and the House has a small Democratic majority. Weston will therefore be elected by the Legislature.

A Cedar county (Missouri) farmer put nearly all of his farm into flax last spring. It yielded eleven bushels of seed to the acre. This he has shipped to St. Louis, realizing $1.40 per bushel. It is now quoted at $1.65 to $1.75 per bushel, while wheat scarcely commands an average price of $1.25 per bushel. It is not liable to injury by drought or chinch-bug, and maintains a more uniform price than wheat.

An English agricultural paper says that eggs intended for setting should be stored with the large end down, because the air bubble does not spread so much as when the small end is down—this spreading of the air bubble being known to affect the freshness and vitality of the egg. Eggs stored with the large end down will keep perfectly good for hatching more than a month, while the others cannot be depended on after two weeks.

The English, for some time, have been at war with a tribe of Africans called the Ashantees, quite a warlike people. This tribe being some distance from the coast, it was difficult to get at them. English pluck, however, has at last succeeded. A dispatch from London on Thursday last gives the English a final victory and places the Ashantee king a prisoner in the hands of Gen. Walseley, the commander of the English force.

Within the last three months about 600 mechanics and laborers have been discharged from the Washington Navy-Yard. One hundred and twenty eight of them were discharged on the 16th. Some of those retained are working on one third, one fourth, and two thirds time. Four hundred workmen and laborers were discharged from the Norfolk Navy-Yard on Saturday. Money will not be available for a full resumption of work until July 1.

The Philadelphia North American of Thursday publishes a tabular exhibit of the foreign imports of Philadelphia for the month of February. They amounted to $2,043,736, against $1,458,868 for the corresponding period of last year, and $1,443,728 for that of the year before. The increase was wholly in the direct trade, and it is an encouraging fact that $1,138,795 of the direct imports were in American vessels, against $830,967 in foreign bottoms.

State School Superintendent Wicker than writes a letter to the Harrisburg Patriot, touching the Cassville investigation, which concludes as follows: "Be kind enough to permit me to say now, (hereafter I may have more to say) to your readers, to the editor of the Pittsburgh Post, and to all others not having full information on the subject, that the testimony taken before the committee implicates in no unfavorable way a single orphan girl in the school at Cassville during my administration, or since June 1st, 1871. All the alleged offences affect only those who were previously discharged, and who left school before my induction into office."

A Pittsburg reporter has been "inter-viewing" John B. Gongh on the subject of the women's temperance crusade. He said he was "on the fence" in the matter. He would be unwilling to take any active part in the affair, and would not like to see his wife or his nieces going about among the saloons praying and singing hymns. He thought the movement would help the woman suffrage cause very much, and he had always had a sort of dislike to the women suffrage business. The idea of a band of ladies going through the streets singing hymns and praying was repugnant to him. It was the duty of policemen to clear away a crowd of men obstructing the pavement, and he thought the women came under the same restrictions.

One of the greatest triumphs of the new Pennsylvania constitution is its virtual abolition of the lobby at Harrisburg. It had secured no other reform, this would have well paid the labor expended upon it; but it is also claimed that its effects upon corrupt rings are no less satisfactory than upon the lobby. A recent letter from Hinton Rowan Helper is published, in which he thus praises the entire instrument: "I have just finished reading the new constitution of Pennsylvania, and am profoundly impressed with the conviction that it is the best American constitution ever yet framed. It ought to be adopted forthwith as the State constitution of every State in the American Union. According to my view of the document, in its justness, thoroughness, and wisdom, it has no equal in any age or language."

Mr. Perdue, counsel of William Underzook, the murderer of Goss, has informed the editor of the West Chester Record that the case will not come up before the Supreme Court until about the last week in May, when the court will be sitting at Harrisburg.

Judge Harding, in Luzerne county, recently announced as follows, viz: "If a constable refuses to deliver a prisoner, properly committed by a justice of the peace, at the county jail at Wilkesbarre, report him to the court, and he will take the place of that prisoner for three or six months in the county jail."

George O. Evans released on Bail. HARRISBURG, March 16.—The Dauphin County Court to day granted an order for the release of George O. Evans on his entering $25,000 bail for appearance at the April term, to take the benefit of the Insolvent act. The condition of Mr. Evans' health is gradually growing worse. Physicians have certified that he cannot live more than one month if kept confined, and he will be removed as soon as possible.

Escape of a Noted Forger. PHILADELPHIA, March 13.—The Sheriff of Bucks County announced to night, at the Central Police Station, the escape of two persons from the Doylestown jail. One of them, Chas. Carpenter alias Maurice Chapman, is well known in different cities of the Union as a forger of checks on National banks in Louisville, Ky., Burlington, Iowa, and Oswego, N. Y. He was awaiting trial at Doylestown for forging an $18,000 check on the National bank of that place. The escape was made this morning before daylight by means of wooden keys. When last seen the two were going toward the Lehigh Valley Railroad apparently on the way to New York.

WHAT MEN NEED WIVES FOR. It is not to sweep the house, and make the bed, and darn the socks, and cook the meals, chiefly that a man wants a wife. If this is all he needs, hired help can do it cheaper than a wife. If this is all, when a young man calls to see a young lady, send him into the pantry to taste the bread and cakes she has made; send him to inspect the needlework and bed-making, or put a broom into her hands, and send him to witness its use. Such things are important, and the wise young man will quietly look after them. But what a true man most wants of a true wife is her companionship, sympathy, courage and love. The way of life has many dreary places in it, and men needs a companion to go with him. A man is sometimes overtaken with misfortune; he meets with failure and defeat; trials and temptations beset him, and he needs one to stand by and sympathize. He has some stern battles to fight with poverty, with enemies, and with sin, and he needs a woman that, while he puts his arms around her and feels that he has something to fight for, will help him fight; that will put her lips to his ears and whisper words of counsel, and her hands to his heart and impart new inspiration. All through life—through storm and through sunshine, conflict and victory, through ad-verse and favoring winds—man needs a woman's love. The heart yearns for it. A sister's or a mother's love will hardly supply the need. You may seek for nothing further than success in housework. Justly enough, half of those get nothing more; the other half surprised beyond measure, have got ten more than they sought. Their wives surprised them by bringing a nobler idea of marriage, and disclosing a treasury of courage, sympathy, and love.—Becher.

DIED. In Smithfield township, on the 12th inst., Mary Wolfelt, aged 2 months and 12 days. In Stroudsburg, on the 14th inst., Almira J. wife of H. S. Wagner, Esq., aged 28 years 3 months and 24 days. In Stroudsburg, on the 16th inst., Edith, daughter of Jere and — Frutchey, aged 6 months and 13 days. On Monday, the 23d of February, Mrs. Sarah L. Smith, wife of Mr. Jesse K. Smith, of East Stroudsburg, Pa. Mrs. Smith was born the 20th of May, 1823, at Moravia, Cayuga Co., N. Y. She was the daughter of the Rev. Geo. Taylor, who was pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Moravia, for 17 years. Her parents both died when she was young. But in her orphanage, she went to our Heavenly Father, pleading His promise "Those that seek me early shall find me," and at the age of 14 the Lord gave her a new heart. From that time until her departure to the Better Land, she was a most earnest christian. And her last days were blessedly and joyously spent in a very precious revival of religion, in which several, for whose salvation she toiled and prayed, were converted to Christ. In the midst of this glorious work, our Redeemer came to her, saying, "Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away." And with perfect submission to the Divine will she passed away from earth, testifying that Jesus was precious to her soul. Is not such a triumphant and happy death, worth seeking and living for? She is indeed a great and very sensible woman, of which she was a member. But we rejoice that we, who trust in, love and follow Christ, will meet her again in the Kingdom of glory where all the ransomed people of God will dwell forever with Jesus.

Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

STROUDSBURG, PA. ESTABLISHED 1844. CHARTER PERPETUAL.

The By-Laws of this Company, and the regulations governing insurance have, recently been very materially changed, placing it upon a basis equal to that of any Fire Insurance Company in the State. Important among these changes are the following, viz: Policies, instead of being perpetual, are issued for five years. All property is classified and the rate of premium is fixed according to the risk of the property. Premium notes are taken, and all assessments are made on the notes. Property is insured for not more than two thirds of its actual cash value, and the full amount of insurance paid in case of loss, provided the loss be equal to the amount of insurance. "Annual assessments" only are made, except in cases of heavy loss, and where a special assessment is necessary. The Company is therefore prepared to insure property upon terms much more desirable than under the old system. Applications may be made to any of the Managers, Surveyors, or Secretary.

MANAGERS. Stogdell Stokes, Jacob Knecht, J. Dupue LeBar, John Edinger, Richard S. Staples, Francis Hagerman, Silas L. Drake, Jacob Stouffer, Chas. D. Brodhead, Theodore Schoch, Robert Boys, Thos. W.
