

A mudhole in Bennington, Nebraska, is so deep that small children are often lost in it, and a local paper says:—"We don't care anything about it, cause our folks are just out of children, but for the sake of our suffering neighbors we call attention to the matter."

A raft, consisting of fifty-one large straight pine trees, ranging in length from twenty to one hundred feet, was completed at Great Bend, on the Susquehanna river, one day last week, and as soon as a flood comes will be floated down the river. It is estimated to be worth ten thousand dollars.

An extensive deposit of blue marble has been discovered upon the farm of Colonel N. M. Babbit, near Newton, Sussex county, N. J. The marble cuts easily, and is susceptible of a very high polish. Professor Cook, the State Geologist, says it is the only deposit of the kind in the State.

The New England Methodist Conference, in session in Boston, has adopted a resolution of its Committee on Temperance, that they can hold no attitude towards intemperance but that of total abstinence from the use, and in favor of the legal prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors.

R. B. Smith, formerly of Lambertville, N. J., and now settled in Caroline county, Va., has sent to his former home a number of specimens of potatoes, such as he is now growing. They are of the white peach-blow variety, and twenty-five of them fill a half bushel, with an average weight to each of over a pound and a quarter.

A clergyman at Clarinda, Ohio, was away from home when the crusade began. He returned in the evening, and saw his wife standing at the bar of a saloon, singing as loud as she could yell. He supposed she was drunk, and, entering the saloon, the tears rolling down his face, he said: "Come home, wife, you have ruined me—drunk—drunk—drunk."

A member of the Ohio Legislature recently visited the State Penitentiary, and while there had his hair cut by the prison barber. While under-going the tonsorial process, a party of lady and gentleman visitors looked in, and the legislator was made happy by catching such remarks as, "Ugly look about the eyes," "Vicious mouth," "Looks capable of any wickedness," "Wonder what he did?" &c.

A cat which stuck its head too far into a can, in a New Jersey town, one night last week, was the innocent cause of a lively excitement. The family supposed a burglar must be in the kitchen, and while the ladies were properly fainting, the gentlemen armed themselves, and began firing wildly out of the windows, to let the supposed marauders know there were fire arms in the house. The police and members of the fire department were anything but complimentary in their remarks as they journeyed homeward.

The Pottsville Daily Standard, we are sorry to say, has been issued for the last time, its existence ending with Wednesday's paper. Colonel Frank A. Barr, the editor and proprietor, devoted a year of hard labor and energy and all his capital to the endeavor to establish a first class newspaper in the capital of Schuylkill; but now, broken in health and purse, he is compelled reluctantly to give up the struggle. His venture deserved a better fate.

In the office of the Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth are a number of documents, etc., whose age is not far from two hundred years. The first passed in the province of Pennsylvania, as recorded on parchment in 1682, the date of its enactment, is among the curiosities. Two of the Hessian flags captured by the Continental troops at Trenton, and a powder horn used in the Revolutionary war, are also preserved as relics of that memorable period when America threw off the yoke of British tyranny.

Washington, D. C., April 16, 1874.
DON'T APPLY FOR MORE BOUNTY
In consequence of recent statements that certain Bounty laws have been lately passed by Congress, the Second Auditor's Office is flooded by letters of inquiry and requests for blanks for application. Up to the present time, no Bounty law has been passed by this Congress.

Pensions to '1812' Soldiers.
WASHINGTON, April 8, 1874.—Congress will soon pass a law giving pensions of $5 per month to all soldiers of the war of 1812. Heretofore 60 days' service have been required to obtain a pension. All widows of this class of soldiers will be entitled to the same pension, if married prior to 1850. In order to secure an early allowance of the pension, application should be made without delay, even in advance of the passage of the law.

J. McC. PERKINS.
The Boston Traveller unearths the following: It was published in the Lexington (Mo.) Caucasian last fall:—
St. Louis, Mo., October 1, 1873.
To the Editor of the Lexington Caucasian:—

Please publish the following cards: I propose to bet five thousand dollars ($5,000) that President U. S. Grant, unless relieved from natural causes, will be assassinated before the 10th day of April, 1874.
If accepted, the money to be deposited before the 10th day of November next.
Parties desiring to wager larger or smaller amounts can address me, at St. Louis, Mo., or through your columns.
Respectfully,
H. CLAY HARPER.
The Traveller still remarks: "President Grant is still alive and well, and if Clay Harper found any person as bold as himself to bet with him, he has the money."

The Sundry Creek News says: A new method of compounding drugs was proposed to one of our druggists a few days since. A well known bumper entered the store and asked for a pint of whiskey. The proprietor saw the point and was determined that the bumper shouldn't see the "pint." "I must have it," say the latter, "I've eaten more'n a pound of camphor, and must have the whiskey to disolve it."

No choice yet in the election of a Senator by the Massachusetts Legislature. A ballot is taken every day, without any change that tends to point toward ultimate results. Dawes, Hoar and Curtis still get nearly all the votes, with Adams, Banks and Bullock following far behind. A rumor was current last week that the President would appoint Dawes Secretary of the Treasury. He would make a good one, and this Senatorial contest would soon be settled. The seat is one that ought to be quickly filled.

A singular accident occurred to a Boston gentleman, the other day. He felt an annoyance from something apparently in his boot, during breakfast. After the meal was over, in attempting to remove the boot, he experienced the sensation of what seemed like the point of a knife entering his heel. After two or three resolute efforts to extricate his foot, each time with increased pain, he was compelled to have aid and to cut the boot down the entire back in order to get it off. When this was accomplished, he found a hair-pin imbedded in his heel to the depth of more than half an inch.

The Philadelphia Press says it has heard of an enterprising citizen who has promised to build a ship capable of carrying ten thousand passengers in time for use at the International Celebration, which is to combine a railway, a race course, theater, shooting gallery, circus and every imaginable modern attraction. He claims that his plan is complete, and has been approved by some of the ablest engineers. He proposes to moor it in the Delaware, and convey it at intervals to the different cities, ports and watering places of the continent. This monster machine will make about six miles an hour, and will be three or four times larger than the Great Eastern.

The March earnings of the leading rail ways of the country show a considerable falling off as compared with those for the corresponding month last year, although the exhibit is a more favorable one than for that of February. Seventeen roads show a total of gross earnings amounting to $8,326,729, a decrease, compared with the corresponding season last year, of $879,574. The net earnings have not, however, fallen off in the same proportion; many of the companies having reduced their rolling stock and forces, in proportion to the decline in business, caused by the working of the money markets and the unsatisfactory condition of general trade.

In view of the fact that probably not five members of the Massachusetts Legislature who have supported Mr. Dawes will ever vote for Judge Hoar, and vice versa, a proposition has been made that the friends of the former shall select twelve leading men, and the friend of the latter an equal number—these twenty-four men to meet in conference and agree upon some third man whom the Republicans can vote for and elect. If this can not be done, then the friends of both candidates to agree to withdraw the names of their favorites, and the Republican members to go into caucus and abide the result. It is doubtful, however, whether the proposition will be accepted, although it is difficult to see what is the use of "sticking" when nothing is to be gained by it.

Under the laws of the United States, cigar, tobacco, beer and spirit dealers, wholesale and retail, as well as brewers and rectifiers, must pay tax to the government through the Internal Revenue collectors of their respective districts. The year begins on the first of May. Hitherto the tax has been due on or before the 31st of that month. But by a new interpretation of the law, and in instructions to collectors in accordance therewith, the tax must be paid on or before the year commences, which, as we have said, is the first of May. All parties in business in these lines, therefore, who do not pay on or before that date, will be mulcted in fifty per cent penalty, which in most cases will be a severe burden, as the tax ranges from five dollars to two hundred dollars, according to business. The collectors have no option in this matter, but are obliged to enforce the collection of the penalty with the tax. The press would do well to invite general attention to this matter, to the end that everybody concerned may have ample notification of the consequences of neglecting to pay in advance.

THE MONROE COUNTY Co-Operative Life Insurance COMPANY.
STROUBSBERG, PENNSYLVANIA.
Limit 5,000 Members.
CHARTER PERPETUAL.

Any person of sound body and mind, of either sex, not less than fifteen nor more than sixty-five years of age, and not engaged in any occupation, exceedingly dangerous to life, may become a member of this Company, by paying an admission fee, as follows:
From 15 to 40 years of age $3 00
" 40 to 50 " " 5 00
" 50 to 60 " " 10 00
" 60 to 65 " " 20 00
And one dollar for Policy.

No other charges will be made at any time, excepting one dollar and ten cents for each member who dies.
The advantages of this COMPANY over the ordinary Life Insurance Companies are, that the fees are so small that the man of moderate means can secure a competency to his family at a trifling cost, and payable at such long intervals, and such small sums, that no person can be inconvenienced by them. This company cannot fail; no panics can affect it. Persons holding certificates of membership in this Company, are sure in case of death that their families or heirs will get as many dollars as there are members in the Company.
No restrictions are placed upon traveling or residence.
Applications for insurance, or information, may be made to the Directors or Secretary, at Stroudsburg, Pa.

MONROE COUNTY Mutual Fire Insurance Company.
STROUBSBERG, PA.

ESTABLISHED 1844.
CHARTER PERPETUAL.

The By-Laws of this Company, and the regulations governing insurance have, recently been very materially changed, placing it upon a basis equal to that of any Fire Insurance Company in the State.
Important among these changes are the following, viz:
Policies, instead of being perpetual, are issued for five years.
All property is classified and the rate of premium is fixed according to the risk of the property.
Premium notes are taken, and all assessments are made on the notes.
Property is insured for not more than two thirds of its actual cash value, and the full amount of insurance paid in case of loss, provided the loss be equal to the amount of insurance.
"Annual assessments" only are made, except in cases of heavy loss, and where a special assessment is necessary.
The Company is therefore prepared to insure property upon terms much more desirable than under the old system.
Applications may be made to any of the Managers, Surveyors, or Secretary.
