According to the New York Times the annual deaths in New York exceed the births by 2,500. At that rate recruits from the county are a necessity if the population is to maintain its ascendancy as a center of population.

A Mrs. Oliver, of Dubuque, a few days ago gave birth to a "humming bird" child, a girl, weight only one and one-half pounds. Yet it is vigorous and takes its proper food with as much evident relish as coming infants usually do.

AUDITOR GENERAL ALLEN. An election for Auditor General will be held in November next, and it seems to be generally conceded that the present incumbent, General HARRISON ALLEN, having discharged so faithfully and acceptably to the people of the State the several duties connected with the office, will have no competitor in the Republican ranks for nomination, and if nominated will run largely ahead of his ticket, as he did two years since.

Erie county elected their delegates to the next State Convention a few days since, when the following resolution was unanimously adopted, viz: Resolved, That the delegates appointed to the State Convention be instructed to vote for General Harrison Allen, for re-nomination as Auditor General.

This action is cordially endorsed by the Erie Dispatch, a paper which was formerly hostile to General Allen, and which refused to support him at the election two years since.

We are a little slower as to politics in the country than you are in the city. I hear of no Republicans who will refuse to support the State ticket, if it is the kind of ticket we all expect it to be.

A correspondent of the New York Times, writing from Paris, takes up and discusses the mania of suicide. During the past few days the question of suicide has occupied considerable space in the columns of the press.

A Harrisburg man went strolling about the streets, carrying a bottle containing a mixture of turpentine and nitric acid in his hands. There was an explosion, and now the physicians have a month's job before them, to get the splinters of glass out of that Harrisburg man's corpus.
