on his natural powers he accomplished what it will be safe to say was never accomplish- ed before at so early a period of life. It would not only be absurd to attempt to ef- fect the same results by the same means in most children, but if the experiment were tried it would fail in ninety-nine hundred cases out of ten thousand by the premature extinction of mind or body, causing either the death or idiocy of those subjected to the process.— Harper's Bazar . A tea swindler is plying his game quite successfull in some of the country towns. He sells a number of five pound packages, telling his customers that it is better not to disturb the tea, but to use from the top of the package. On examination it is found that these five pound packages con- tain about one pound of tea—the rest is made up of wads of paper. Look out for	All other is a counterfeit. See the name of WM.
