A Question.
Oh, why are the streets so crowded, mother, and where do the people go?
The circus is not in town to-day.

Now any other show.
See how they hurry along, mother!
There are men and women, too.
Can't you tell me where they are going, mother?
Or what are they going to do?
THE ANSWER.
De will, my child, and listen:
They are going to the well-filled store
Of Simon Fried, the Clothier,
Where they can get much more,
In these hard times, for their money,
Than anywhere else around.
In no place in our county
Can a better stock be found.

MR. R. MAINONE the gentleman who advertises in another column of this paper has been engaged here for some time in regulating, repairing, and tuning Pianos, Organs, Melodeons, etc., and we the undersigned think him a perfect master of the business. He repaired, regulated and tuned our instruments, that is Pianos and Melodeons, to our entire satisfaction, and better than any one we ever employed before. We think him a gentleman in every respect and recommend him to every one who wishes to employ a competent tuner, as thoroughly acquainted with the construction of musical instruments.
