

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 12, 1875.

Every dollar of debt due from the State of Pennsylvania to its bondholders can now be presented to the Treasurer and it will be redeemed.

Some time ago Auditor General Temple stated to a correspondent of a Democratic paper that he would at an early day make an examination of the Treasurer's accounts.

At the meeting of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund on Monday, August 2, whose report we publish in another column, Mr. Temple, the Democratic Auditor General, was present.

Important to Voters.

The following points in regard to voting should be borne in mind and attended to at once: The new constitution forbids all persons from voting unless they have been assessed at least two months and paid their taxes at least one month before the date of election.

The date of holding the next election is Tuesday, November 2d. Wednesday, September 1st, is the last day on which voters can be assessed.

The borough of Lebanon, on an assessed valuation of about $1,500,000 pays 12 1/2 mills school tax, 10 mills borough tax, 10 mills water tax, and 5 mills county tax—total 37 1/2 mills, or 3 1/4 per cent.

The Elephant "Empress" at the Philadelphia Zoological Garden, died last Monday of old age and an injury to her spine in falling through a bridge some years ago.

The wheat crop of the rich Lebanon Valley is being threshed out. Leonard Capp, of Jackson township, Lebanon county, had 57 acres of grain, from which he obtained a yield of 1,200 bushels.

The other day a drover passed through Easton with a flock of 1,200 sheep. These sheep were driven from the interior of Ohio, and had been on the road nearly five weeks.

Squirrel shooting commences September 1st.

The present is a good time to lay in the winter supply of coal.

Persons can notice a rapid improvement in the Stroudsburg Cornet Band.

An article on labor, written by "Cecilia" to the Philadelphia Mercury, will appear in our next issue.

The law office of Stephen Holmes, Jr., is about finished and is one of the finest office buildings in town.

The "huckleberry train" one day last week landed fifteen bushels of huckleberries at Lebanon.

The late rains filled our streams so that now all mills in and around Stroudsburg are running on full time.

MR. ROBERT HUSTON has completed laying a flag-stone pavement in front of his store and residence. It is the "boss" walk in town.

THE residence of J. H. Butts is rapidly approaching completion. When completed it will be one of the finest dwellings in the lower end of town.

The potato bugs have supplied themselves with hoes and are digging up the potatoes in several of our neighbors patches. Our advice is to shoot the critters.

Our Street Committee are engaged with a force of men grading Main street from Robert Boys' store to the Iron Bridge.— A wise step in the right direction.

THE privilege of selling beer on the Centennial grounds at Philadelphia next year has been sold to the firm of Bergner & Engle for the snug sum of $50,000.

MR. CHAS. HOLMES, one of our promising young law students, has just returned from an extended visit in the Eastern States among his friends.

A. S. Weitzel, of Sinking Springs, harvested thirty-six sheaves of fine wheat, and threshed therefrom four bushels and five quarts of good wheat.

Mrs. Reiss, of Saucen township, Northampton county, 103 years old, this harvest bound enough sheaves of grain to make a shock, and she shocked them herself, too.

DARIUS DREHER has added to his large and handsome lot of carriages, a new two seated phaeton, built by Wm. Huntman & Sons.

Save your money by paying your debts.

The Duplicate of Borough Taxes for the year 1875, is now in the hands of the Borough Treasurer, Wm. Wallace; and all who pay said taxes between this and Oct. 1, will have a deduction of 10 per cent.

The engineers on the projected Lehigh and Eastern R. R. have completed the final survey from Port Jervis to this place. The principal engineer, we learn, has reported the route one of the easiest he has ever surveyed.

The road as located or surveyed through this Borough, comes into the borough limits near Samuel Phillips', running through J. S. Williams', Walters' and Dreher's lots along the foot or side of the hill back of the Academy, thence along said hill to Wm. S. Wintemute's barn on the old brick yard lot.

MR. SAMUEL ALSOP, of the Glenwood House, made a narrow escape from impending danger on Wednesday, the 4th inst. In attempting to mount his horse in front of the Monroe County Bank, after two unsuccessful attempts on account of the skittishness of his horse, he succeeded in getting upon the saddle with only his left foot in the stirrup.

Mr. Samuel Alsop, of the Glenwood House, made a narrow escape from impending danger on Wednesday, the 4th inst. In attempting to mount his horse in front of the Monroe County Bank, after two unsuccessful attempts on account of the skittishness of his horse, he succeeded in getting upon the saddle with only his left foot in the stirrup.

THE wheat crop of the rich Lebanon Valley is being threshed out. Leonard Capp, of Jackson township, Lebanon county, had 57 acres of grain, from which he obtained a yield of 1,200 bushels.

THE other day a drover passed through Easton with a flock of 1,200 sheep. These sheep were driven from the interior of Ohio, and had been on the road nearly five weeks.

The days are shortening rapidly.

Reading has a cemetery for dead dogs.

A first-class funeral in Titusville costs $1,200.

There are only twelve divorce cases pending in the Bradford county court.

It has just been discovered that the sweet fern possesses valuable tannin properties.

One poor widow in Berks county owns twenty-four dogs—and yet she is not happy.

CANDIDATES for the various county offices are putting forth their claims to every man they meet.

A heavy shock of earthquake was felt at Hollister, Cal., on Sunday morning last. No damage is reported.

A young man named Stone was drowned in a pond in Scott township, Luzerne county, on the 28th ult., while bathing.

THOS. A. BELL, an employe of the Tante Company, contemplates a trip to Europe, this month, on business for the company. Bon voyage.

OUR preachers prayed for it, sinners hoped for it and children cried for it. The good Lord has heard them all and they have got it—rain.

NOTWITHSTANDING the warm weather large audiences assemble in the M.E. Church to listen to the able and eloquent discourses of Rev. D. G. Carrow.

JAMES LAUGHLIN, alias "Skinney," was drowned last week, while endeavoring to escape from the Philadelphia House of Correction.

A Scranton man complains of a neighbor as a nuisance because he plays the piano before breakfast, and has roosters that crow at four in the morning.

THE hotels of Philadelphia can now feed and lodge 10,000 people; but improvements projected will increase their capacity to 13,128. Many new hotels will be built.

Philadelphia is now seriously considering a plan for bringing water from the Perkiomen creek, in Montgomery county. The basin will cover an area of 1,500 acres.

The valuation of New York City for purposes of taxation has fallen off just about five per cent. in the past year, and now stands at $1,100,943,000, a reduction of $154,000,000.

LAKE Popponomising is the favorite resort for pic-nickers this season. Nearly every day the accommodating W. E. Henry can be seen wending his way in that direction with his "bus" and four horses.

THE full inspection of the Third Division of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, General Osborne commanding, will take place at Wikes-Barre on Wednesday, Sept. 15th.

MANY of the farmers in northern Chester county are experiencing just now much inconvenience for want of water for their stock.

A NOTED burglar in the Eastern Penitentiary has written to Mayor Stokely, of Philadelphia, explaining how banks are robbed.

IT is estimated that the number of Texas cattle driven into Nebraska this year amounts to over 100,000. They are chiefly held by cattle raisers along the line of the Union Pacific railroad from Kearney Junction to Sidney.

THE three tanneries in Elk county which use an aggregate of 40,000 cords of bark per annum and turn out 360,000 sides of sole leather. At the tannery of the Messrs. Schultz, at Wilcox, which is the largest in the United States, 200 men are employed.

ON Tuesday last, as the twin sons of Mr. Daniel Courtright, of Stroud township, were returning with their team from the fields to dinner, a young colt attempted to follow.

DR. Geo. W. Jackson attended to the medical wants of Mr. K., and he is now doing quite well.

The annual report of the Board of Managers of the Pennsylvania Hospital for the Insane, in West Philadelphia, for the past year, has been published.

Senator Morton, of Indiana, addressed a Republican mass meeting at Urbana, Ohio, on Saturday. He went largely into the current questions of the day, and gave his views upon them carefully and in language easily understood.

THE Singerville Sunday School held their annual Pic Nic a few days since in the woods near their place.

A SCRANTON man complains of a neighbor as a nuisance because he plays the piano before breakfast, and has roosters that crow at four in the morning.

LAKE Popponomising is the favorite resort for pic-nickers this season. Nearly every day the accommodating W. E. Henry can be seen wending his way in that direction with his "bus" and four horses.

THE iron bridge is a favorite resort for sentimental lovers. "Jerkwater" and his assistant were engaged running out a new night line, a few evenings ago.

GRAPE and Canister. A fawn was shot along the hill, back of Dreher's, last Sunday. Long-fellow's poem is splendid, but Tenyson took better; at least she held fast to it after she once got it in her possession.

A NOTED burglar in the Eastern Penitentiary has written to Mayor Stokely, of Philadelphia, explaining how banks are robbed.

THE three tanneries in Elk county which use an aggregate of 40,000 cords of bark per annum and turn out 360,000 sides of sole leather. At the tannery of the Messrs. Schultz, at Wilcox, which is the largest in the United States, 200 men are employed.

ON Tuesday last, as the twin sons of Mr. Daniel Courtright, of Stroud township, were returning with their team from the fields to dinner, a young colt attempted to follow.

DR. Geo. W. Jackson attended to the medical wants of Mr. K., and he is now doing quite well.

Base Ball. RED STOCKINGS VS. CALDENO. Tom Collins gained another victory on Saturday last, their opponents being the Red Stockings of Tobyhanna.

Base Ball. RED STOCKINGS VS. CALDENO. Tom Collins gained another victory on Saturday last, their opponents being the Red Stockings of Tobyhanna.

THE board of commissioners of the state geological survey held their quarterly meeting at Harrisburg on the 5th of Aug.

THE board of commissioners of the state geological survey held their quarterly meeting at Harrisburg on the 5th of Aug.

THE board of commissioners of the state geological survey held their quarterly meeting at Harrisburg on the 5th of Aug.

THE board of commissioners of the state geological survey held their quarterly meeting at Harrisburg on the 5th of Aug.

FINANCES OF THE SURVEY. But this increase of work involves an increase of expenditure, the continuance of the present force next year will be impossible without an increase of appropriation.

THE details of the work accomplished this season thus far is, shortly, as follows: Mr. Prime has surveyed the limestone country lying between his map of last year and the Lehigh river.

THE details of the work accomplished this season thus far is, shortly, as follows: Mr. Prime has surveyed the limestone country lying between his map of last year and the Lehigh river.

THE details of the work accomplished this season thus far is, shortly, as follows: Mr. Prime has surveyed the limestone country lying between his map of last year and the Lehigh river.

season and Mr. Fagen's observations of the iron and zinc ores.

PROFESSOR STEVENSON and Mr. White have surveyed Greene county and made a complete section of 1,500 feet of coal measure, rocks above the upper coal beds.

MR. CARL continued his observations at intervals all winter and has recently been reinforced by Mr. Hale, who with Mr. Hatch, is surveying carefully the outcrop of the Berea Grit from Warren to Sharon.

THE number of analyses called for by the assistants to illustrate their reports demanded an increase of force in the laboratory at Harrisburg.

MR. ALLEN, attached to Mr. Frazer last year, has been detailed for special service, viz: the collection and arrangement of all the railroad and canal levels in the state.

AT this meeting of the board the price of Dr. Genth's report on the Mineralogy of Pennsylvania, 206 pages, 8 vo., with topographical map, was fixed at fifty cents in paper cover and the postage is sixteen cents.

THE price of Henry E. Wrigley's special report on the Petrology of Pennsylvania, its production, transportation, manufacture and statistics, 112 pages, 8 vo., with several maps and illustration, at 75 cents in paper cover and the postage is twelve cents.

THE price of Henry E. Wrigley's special report on the Petrology of Pennsylvania, its production, transportation, manufacture and statistics, 112 pages, 8 vo., with several maps and illustration, at 75 cents in paper cover and the postage is twelve cents.

THE price of Henry E. Wrigley's special report on the Petrology of Pennsylvania, its production, transportation, manufacture and statistics, 112 pages, 8 vo., with several maps and illustration, at 75 cents in paper cover and the postage is twelve cents.

THE price of Henry E. Wrigley's special report on the Petrology of Pennsylvania, its production, transportation, manufacture and statistics, 112 pages, 8 vo., with several maps and illustration, at 75 cents in paper cover and the postage is twelve cents.

THE price of Henry E. Wrigley's special report on the Petrology of Pennsylvania, its production, transportation, manufacture and statistics, 112 pages, 8 vo., with several maps and illustration, at 75 cents in paper cover and the postage is twelve cents.