

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1875.

Frost last Saturday morning. STILL they come—potato bugs. OUR farmers are now quite busy cutting corn. THE Philadelphia police made 3,534 arrests during the month of August. A BLUE heron, which is a very rare bird, was shot in Lancaster a few days ago. VIGILANCE committees are being organized in the Schuylkill mining region. LOOK out for counterfeit 50 cent shipplasters. The country is loaded with them. AN Ohio farmer is said to have a cabbage stalk on which are sixteen well developed heads. A CENTRAL New York cheese manufacturer figures up his profits for the year at $11,000. It is now generally concluded that there never was a larger corn crop in Chester county than at the present time. TURNIPS seven inches across, pulled thirteen days from the time the seed was sown, and what the Kansas farmers are showing. JOHN M. STAUFFER, of East Coventry, Pa., has gathered from one acre of ground on his premises this season, 150 bushels of potatoes. DURING the month of August the Building Inspectors of Philadelphia issued permits for 544 new buildings, 344 of them dwellings. THE farm of George Miser, of Millcreek township, Lebanon county, is 175 years old—probably the oldest farm in the State. It has never passed from the Miser family. THE select school of the Misses Carrow has every prospect of being well patronized as it deserves to be. From what we can learn, they possess all the qualifications to give their pupils a sound moral and mental education. Mrs. Irvin of Connecticut, will deliver a free lecture on Phrenology, in East Stroudsburg Hall, this, (Thursday Evening.) All are invited. Mrs. Irvin is a talented lady and her lectures are full of interest. Y. M. C. A.—The next regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, will be held in their rooms Friday evening Sept. 17th, at 7 1/2 o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend, as it is the evening to elect officers to serve for the ensuing year. W. B. BELL, Sec.

ANOTHER PIC-NIC.—Minisink Tribe No. 195, Improved order of Red Men have decided to hold a picnic next Tuesday, the 21st inst., in Frank Smith's woods, East Stroudsburg. They expect to have a large turnout if the weather should be favorable. If not, the picnic will be held the next fair day. All are cordially invited.

REAL ESTATE.—Several important Real Estate sales were made last week, through the agency of Messrs. Peirson & Thompson. Mr. Simon Myers' Farm and Boarding house was sold to Mr. Elias Compton, of New Jersey. Mr. Wm. Cross' farm of 65 acres, to Mr. James Bryant, of New York. These gentlemen are enterprising men and do not allow their business to push them, but vigorously push their business.

IT HAS COME! SIMON FRIED received last week the largest stock of Clothing, Gents' furnishing goods, trunks and valises—in greater variety and quality—than can be found in any other Clothing store in Stroudsburg or Monroe county. It is no humbug. Fried certainly has the best and largest assortment of goods in his line. He sells cheaper than the cheapest. Call and convince yourself.

On last Friday Samuel S. Buckley, foreman of William Wallace's sash factory, met with an accident which might have been much more serious in its consequences, but fortunately for Sam, the injury amounted to nothing more than a severe contusion of the scalp on the right side and back of head; also some laceration of the parts. It was caused by the breaking of a scroll saw while at work, allowing a brass hook, weighing half a pound, attached to the end of a spring belt to fly around with great force, striking Sam. a glancing blow.

Dr. H. Patterson dressed the wound. He is now doing well.

THE Rev. Percival Beckett, B. D. on Monday morning left here to take charge of St. Peter's P. E. Church, at McKeesport, in the Diocese of Pittsburgh.

During the Summer Rev. Beckett, under the direction of Bishop How, has formed a temporary organization of The Church, under the name of St. Peter's Mission, and has had large and attentive audiences, at the several places constituting the mission. By another season the Bishop hopes to complete the work so well begun, by making this a permanent Mission with a regular Rector.

Is the Lancaster County Court, the other day, three brothers, John, Isaac and Jacob Bozzard, convicted of disturbing a religious meeting, were fined $20 each, with costs, and sent to jail for two months. Bad for the Bozzards.

On the farm of Stephen Batts, Jr., in Upper Maford, Bucks county, there is a barn capped with a roof that has stood the storms for eighty years. A few weeks ago, when the barn was being repaired, the roof was found in such a good state of preservation that the necessity of reshingling was obviated.

Grange Pic-nic.

There will be a Grange Basket Pic-nic, (under the auspices of Analamink Grange,) held on Durfee's Island, Thursday September 23d. All the Patrons of this and adjoining Counties are cordially invited to attend. Able speakers and a band of music will be in attendance. Farmers, neighbors, friends and everybody come and join us. Bring your baskets well filled with good things and we will have a grand time. The P. of H. are expected to be on the ground by 10 o'clock sharp.

Stroudsburg, Pa. Sept. 11th 1875. The opinion I gave in case of George Childs was not founded upon an examination of the arm as is reported, but merely from statements given me. The opinion was not to be regarded as a fact as I knew nothing of the case only what was told to me. DR. N. C. MILLER.

Having been informed that the report which has been in circulation for some days regarding my treatment of George Childs' arm originated with Dr. Miller, I called on him inquiring his reasons for such assertions. The above statement from him explains all; he saying that if his statement had been fully given to the public as he expressed them, there would not have been any misconception. The Dr. wishing to prevent all wrong impressions freely extended the above, requesting its publication. HOWARD PATTERSON, M. D. Stroudsburg, Sept. 13th 1875.

DANIEL LEE. Our fellow townsman, Daniel Lee, died last Sunday morning, of paralysis, aged 78 and 6 months.

Mr. Lee was a good citizen, a credit to any place, always loving and honoring the right and avoiding the wrong to the best of his ability.

He was, for perhaps over fifty years, an honored member of the M. E. Church, and for several years has been an earnest and efficient exhorter in the church of his choice.

The community, church, and most of all his family, to whom as husband and father he was all that could be desired, must sadly miss his ever welcome presence.

The Post Mortem held on the bodies of Mr. Dennis at Delaware Water Gap, and Mr. Enoch Flagler, of Stroud township, have demonstrated the useful and practical results flowing from such examinations. Medical science is a great gainer by it, and what medical science gains is for the public good.—Besides this, it is a great satisfaction for the friends of the deceased to know the cause of death, when said cause is involved in doubt. No disrespect is implied, nor can any harm result to the deceased. The dead is not harmed but the public good is subserved by such examinations into the hidden causes of death.

Fire at Portland. About 1 o'clock last Sunday morning the citizens of our usually quiet sister town, Portland, Northampton county, Pa. were aroused from their slumbers by the cry of fire. In a short space of time Seguine large building, Dr. Gruvers magnificent residence and two or three other smaller buildings were reduced to a mere ash heap. Through the almost super human efforts of the citizens, the further spread of the flames was checked and the threatened destruction of the majority of the buildings on Front street thwarted.

Owing to the absence of a night operator at the station our Fire department failed to receive notice of the conflagration until nearly 4 o'clock a. m. when our former townsman, Milton Huston, ex-foreman of Phoenix Fire Engine and Hose Co., arrived by coal train, that he jumped on while passing Portland. Upon his giving the alarm and asking the services of the Department, the boys responded promptly to his appeal and in a jiffy the Engine and Hose Carriage were on a car at the depot and the engine fired up ready to carry the machine at a lightning rate to the assistance of the citizens of Portland.—Messrs. Puterbaugh and Lions offered every assistance in their power to hasten the fire men on their mission. Whether the firemen did any good or not, they deserve much credit for the prompt manner in which they responded to the summons of duty. The boys consider themselves amply compensated for their services in receiving the hearty reception they did from the citizens of Portland.

The loss is estimated at from $17,000 to $20,000.

THOS. McILHANEY, Prothly THE squirrels are now on the peep around the trees for the fellow with the shot-gun.

Personal.

Thomas G. Wagner, and a lady friend, of Weatherly, Carbon county, Pa. are on a visit to friends hereabouts. Tom had not for- gotten the Jeff. office and gave us a call on Monday last.

Lamont G. Raymond, Editor and proprietor of the Portland Enterprise was in town last Monday.

Rev. Wm. E. Postern, of Newfoundland, Wayne county, Pa., lost an interesting son, Aug. 17. Rev. Mr. Postern formerly resided in this county, and he has our sympathy in his sore bereavement.

We are indebted to our old friend L. S. Rilbernd, for a late copy of the "Saline County Post," published at Crete, Saline County, Nebraska.

Mr. R. formerly resided at Saylorburg, this county. He represents all branches of business in a healthy condition.

Crete boasts of two Brass Bands, a Hook and Ladder Company, a base ball club and more pretty girls than any town in Nebraska.

Mr. Wm. H. Wolfe, was in town last Tuesday. Will looks hale and hearty as ever, and we were pleased to shake his hand once more.

Mr. J. Bush and his amiable lady, of To- wanda, Pa., formerly of this place, are spending a few days among friends here. Both are enjoying good health, and "Johns," re- ports his prospects for success in business most gratifying.

Mr. M. L. Gordon, dropped in our office last Tuesday on a friendly mission. Luther is now residing in Scranton and presents a picture of good health.

Mr. Frank Coolbaugh and his sister Mary, are enjoying a short vacation from the arduous duties of telegraphing, and Strouds- burg seems to be the most lovely spot on earth for them to do so, consequently we have them among us, surrounded by their numerous friends.

Improvements in the way of side walks are being vigorously pushed forward. Mr. Thomas Stemple, has just laid a flag stone walk in front of his store property. Messrs. Hood & Bossard, have laid a neat brick pavement along their property on Walnut St. Messrs. Henry and Alfred Teeter and Mr. A. Terpening, have laid a neat pave- ment in front of their property on Walnut St., and Mr. J. H. Stroud, is now laying a brick pavement, along his property on the same street.

Mr. John Fenner, is building a large and commodious house on his lot, on the opposite side of the R. R., just outside the borough lines.

Prof Henry A. Butts, of Drew Theologi- cal Seminary, has been spending a short vacation in East Stroudsburg, and making arrangements with Peirson & Thompson, for the disposal of some of his desirable building lots, at prices within the reach of all who wish a nice building site.

NEW LIVERY STABLE.—Mr. A. Fung- boner, who formerly carried on the butcher business, having sold out to Mr. A. Gish, has started a new livery stable in the stables of the Lackawanna House. Mr. F. is just the man to carry it on. He started for New York on Monday last, to purchase new outfits in the way of carriages. He proposes to keep good stock and what is better his prices are very moderate. Give him a trial and satisfy yourself.

THE Pic-Nic of the East Stroudsburg M. E. Sunday School, was well attended on Wednesday last. The occasion was en- livened by the Stroudsburg Cornet Band, who displayed great musical talents, for which the S. S. association wish to tender their thanks. Their music acted like a charm upon the children, and their young hearts fairly danced with glee, as well as the older persons present. In their mak- ing others happy they in return were made glad. The ladies served up a sumptuous repast, capped the whole with a round of ice cream to the Band and the children.

Messrs. Yetter Brothers, have just placed in front of their new store building a hand- some slate stoop the entire width of their store building. This is one of the hand- somest improvements that has been made in East Stroudsburg, and speaks well of its owners.

RUNAWAY.—While Mr. Chas. Winter- mite, was serving ice at Mr. Stephen Kist- lers, on Monday morning, his horses took flight and ran away. When opposite Mr. Shottwell's store the front wheel struck against a post and the horses broke loose from the wagon, and ran on towards Stroudsburg. The wagon was somewhat shattered.

Rev. N. Manover, preached two able sermons in the East Stroudsburg M. E. Church, on Sunday.

SCRANTON has only fifty-six base ball clubs.

THE beauty of the English lake district is being utterly ruined by railways, fac- tories and coal smoke.

MARTIN COUNTY, Minnesota, swells with pride over the reflection that she will have 30,000 bushels of beans this year.

THE cod fishing on the Labrador coast this season has proved a total failure, and misery is imminent for the winter.

GOVERNOR TILDEN has, since the 1st of January, pardoned sixty-nine criminals out of prison. This is one way of promot- ing Democratic "reform."

A FRENCH medical journal reports a cure by bromide of potassium of a case of apparent hydrophobia; hydrophobic sym- ptoms in a man who had been bitten by a rabid dog.

THE Republican convention of New York on Wednesday, nominated Frederick W. Seward for Secretary of State; Francis E. Spinner for Comptroller; Gen. E. A. Mer- ritt for Treasurer; Geo. E. Danforth for Attorney General, and Ansoni Ives for States prison inspector.

Canadensis and its Surroundings.

Canadensis lies in a small valley in the township of Barrett, Monroe county, Pa., on Brodheads creek. It is fed by five differ- ent branches before it reaches Canadensis. The west branch rises in the township of Coolbaugh; the next branch rises from Goose Pond, in the township of Green, Pike county, and is called the Lever branch, and the other branch near Mud Pond, which yields lit- tle but mud. Spruce Cabin Run feeds it below Canadensis, also Stony Run still below Spruce Run; and by this time, it becomes quite a sheet of water. This creek and its tributaries abound with the speckled trout; and has become a central point, for the sportsmen of Easton, Philadelphia, New York and many other sections to congregate to take the funny tribe. It has been over- burdened for the past three years and the red and yellow fillers, are not so plenty as formerly, but the sportsmen generally get a very good return for their trouble. Along these streams are several beautiful falls, and the most romantic ravines, by many yet un- seen. On the west branch there are two falls, called the Upper and Lower Buckhill Falls, but a short distance from each other. The upper falls about forty feet, while the lower falls, sixty feet; and the ravine be- tween the two is wild and very romantic.

In 1868 there was a fine young man by the name of Northrup, drowned in the pool of the lower falls. He caught his fish hook in the rocks on the north side, and in ascending to loosen it slid down into the Pool and was drawn under and drowned; although there were several persons present, they did not save him. On Levers' Branch there is a very pretty fall; also on Spruce Cabin Run there is another still. These falls are not over two miles from the village of Canaden- sis, and it is a delight to visit them and for- get the cares of life for a short season. La- dies and gentlemen from the cities of New York and Philadelphia, visit them in large numbers; some times fifty in a day.

Pine Knob opposite of Canadensis is about 500 feet above the level of the creek. You can stand upon its top and view the barrens for miles around. The barrens are covered with scrubs and scrub oaks, which make a good retreat for the deer and other game to avoid their pursuers. The scrub oaks which generally abounds with acorns, make good feed for the deer, the pheasants, the pigeons and the squirrels.

The Ponds which have been mentioned abounds with fish, to wit: Pickerel, cat fish, perch, sun fish, &c. I have known three persons to carry away two hundred pounds after four days fishing through the ice.

John B. Hobby is the Host for the Ponds fishermen, where you will get good fare and plenty of it.

The woods are full of wintergreens, sas- sarafras, whortleberries, raspberries and black- berries, delightful in their season. Who would not visit Canadensis in the hot weath- er.

We have as pure air as ever blew a mans hat off, and the sweet creature, will even venture under the ladies veils and refresh their blooming cheeks; how grateful the cooling zephyrs are.

As for the water, it is as pure as ever Mo- ses smote from the rock in the wilderness, and nearly as cold as ice an inch thick.—We have a number of good boarding places. What more do you city ladies and gentlemen want.

Mr. A. J. Decker keeps good boarding house, and his table will be supplied with the best the country affords; and superin- tended by Mrs. Decker, who gets up things A No. 1; she can't be beat in this section.

There is a A. Albert's Hotel, a large and commodious house. There is Susan, who understands the business to a dot. You will get every thing you ask for if it is to be had, and in good order. Adam Albert, good old soul, will gallant you from Oakland Station to his spacious house, and delighted to see you if your pockets are well filled with the needful.

Mr. Decker also has good wagons and team to bring you over; only give due notice and he will be on hand to greet you all with a hearty welcome.

Come and roam over our hills and dales; seek the cool shades, pick the young winter greens, break off a limb of birch and eat the bark; you will soon find how healthy it is in the forest shades, by gaining ten or twelve pounds in three weeks time and your coun- tenance the picture of health. Come and try it, you will see and enjoy three times as much as I have told you.

ADDISON. THERE appeared last week in the obituary columns of the Philadelphia Ledger notices of the death of sixteen persons—six men and ten women—who had lived to or beyond the advanced age of eighty years.

THREE years ago the Lancaster Express, the ablest Republican paper in the county, opposed the election of Governor Hart- raft, and probably did much to reduce his vote. But now it warmly sustains him on the ground that he has made an excellent Governor, and proved the falsity of the charges formerly made against him. The Express says that the county ticket lately formed is entirely satisfactory, and that Lancaster is certain to give one of her big- gest Republican majorities in November.

CHAS. N. BUSH was arrested in this city on Monday, for passing counterfeit fifty cent scrip. After a hearing before U. S. com- missioner E. W. Simrell, in which the evi- dence seemed to indicate that he was an ex- perient member of a gang of counterfeit- ers now infesting this region, he was in default of $2,000 bail committed to the Western Penitentiary to await trial at the next term of U. S. court. A large number of these counterfeit fifty cent scrips have been circulated in this city, and our readers should be on their guard against them. They are good imitations of the genuine, though the paper is not as good, the gen- eral color of the bill is darker, and the ex- pression of the eye of the likeness of Dex- ter is imperfect.—Scranton City Journal.

THE ERIE CONVENTION

The Convention met at noon on Wednes- day, and was called to order by John Mil- ler, Chairman of the State Committee. A vote was taken for temporary chairman, re- sulting in 132 for James Ellis of Schuyl- kill to 112 for John D. Stiles of Lehigh. Ellis made a short speech, claiming that the Democratic party was the representative of honest government.

Committees on permanent organization and resolutions were appointed—the latter consisting of fifty members, with Francis W. Hughes of Schuylkill as chairman. The committee was largely in favor of inflation resolutions. At the afternoon session the committee on organization reported the selection of Hendrick B. Wright, of Lu- zerne county, as permanent President. On taking the chair Mr. Wright made an ad- dress.

THE PLATFORM. Resolved, 1. That we hereby declare our unflinching devotion to the fundamental principles of Democratic government as enunciated by Thomas Jefferson in his first inaugural address. Equal and exact jus- tice to all men, of whatsoever state or per- son, religious or political; the support of the State governments in all their rights as the most important administration for our domestic concerns, and the surest bul- warks against anti-republican tendencies; the supremacy of the civil over the military authority; economy in the public expense, that labor may be lightly burdened; the honest payment of our just debts, and the sacred preservation of the public faith, free- dom of religion, freedom of the press, free- dom of person under the protection of the great writ of habeas corpus, and trial by jury impartially selected.

Second. That the wide-spread depression and suffering which affect every business and employment that is capable of being touched by legislation show beyond a doubt the ignorance, inefficiency, and wickedness of the leaders of the party that has ruled the State and nation for a period of years, and call for their immediate and permanent removal from the places they have so long dishonored and disgraced.

Third. That the undue multiplication of public officers and the inordinate increase of salaries and emoluments of office are among the many evils which Radical rule has forced upon the country, and favoring an economical administration of the Federal and State Governments so that the people may be as speedily as possible relieved from the burden of taxation with which they are now seriously oppressed. We call upon our Federal and State representatives to strive by all proper means to reduce them both to the very lowest practicable number and amount.

Fourth. That the conduct of the present State Treasurer in the management of the Commonwealth's finances, in his neglecting to appropriate the moneys in the sinking fund in payment of the public debt as required by law, in non-accounting for the interest received by him on the people's money deposited with the several banks and banking institutions throughout the State, and his insolent refusal to submit the archives of the Treasury Department to a legally constituted committee of the House of Representatives, appointed to in- vestigate the same, is cause for grave suspi- cion, and is deserving of the severest con- demnation at the hands of an outraged and already overtaxed people.

Fifth. That the condition of our State Treasury demands the most searching and thorough investigation, and we call upon the committee appointed by the House of Representatives to investigate the state of the same, to resolutely pursue the duty which has been confided to it.

Sixth. The nominees of this conven- tion are hereby pledged to apply all moneys in the sinking fund, as required by law, to the reduction of the public debt, and there- by save the interest on the same to the amount so reduced, and that moneys due the Commonwealth from corporations and individuals shall be promptly collected and paid into the treasury, and not in any man- ner, directly or indirectly, to employ pub- lic moneys for their own profit or purpose.

Seventh. That the contraction of the money currency as a circulating medium heretofore made by the Republican party and the further contraction proposed by it with a view to forcing the resumption of specie payments, has already brought about disaster in the business of the country and threatens general bankruptcy. We de- mand that this policy be abandoned, and that the volume of money be made and kept equal to the wants of trade, leaving the restoration of legal-tenders to par in gold to be brought about by promoting the industries of the people and not by destroy- ing them.

Eighth. That the policy already initi- ated by the Republican party of abolishing legal tenders, and giving the National banks the power to furnish all the currency, will increase the power of an already dangerous monopoly and the enormous burdens now oppressing the people, without compensat- ing advantage, and all the national bank circulation be promptly and permanently retired and full legal tenders be issued in their stead.

Ninth. That the public interest de- mands that the Government should cease to discredit its own money, and should make its legal-tenders receivable for all pub- lic dues except where respect for the obli- gations of contracts requires payment in coin.

Tenth. The extinction of the present na- tional banks and the establishment in their stead of a system of free banks of discount and deposit, under such regulations as the States respectively may prescribe, and no paper money except such as may be issued directly by and upon the faith of the Fed- eral Government, affording practically a currency based on the gold and silver and other property of the whole people of the country.

Eleventh. That with this declaration of principle of policy, we arraign the leaders of the Republican party for their extrava- gant expenditures and profligate waste of the people's money, for their corruption, for their peculation, for their contempt of constitutional obligations, for their extor- tionate increase of the salaries of our public officers for their oppressive, unjust, and de- fective system of taxation, finances, and currency; for their continuance of incom- petent and corrupt men in office; and, fur- ther, general mismanagement of both the State and Federal Governments; and we cordially invite the Liberal Republicans and all other men, without regard to past party affiliation, to co-operate with us in ex- peling them from power and in securing such an administration of our public affairs as characterized the purer and better days of the republic.

The following is the complete vote by ballots for Governor:

Table with 12 columns representing candidates and rows of vote counts. Total vote: 251 254 248 250 251 250 248 252 247 245 250. Necessary to a choice: 125 126 125 126 125 125 127 124 125 125.

Base Ball.

On Wednesday, Aug. 15, the Randolph Base Ball Club of Dover, N. J. appeared here to give our boys an illustration of the beauties of the national game, expecting to take in a good supply of Uncle Sam's legal tender for their share of gate money and to walk away with our home nine with the utmost ease. A large crowd assembled on the Fair Ground to witness the vaunted skill of the "Jerseymen" and to see how many runs the Caldens would be able to obtain from such a team. The game com- menced and the spectators soon became most agreeably disappointed in that the Caldens instead of letting the Randolphs walk right away with them, held their own in batting and fielding with their distinguish- ed visitors and bade fair to play a most close and exciting game. On the fourth inning the score stood 4 to 4, and the Cal- dens were whitewashed in their fifth; the Randolph went in to the bat and after one- man was out a poor throw, quickly followed by another, set everything awry for the Caldens and there ensued a most wretched series of plays, and the Randolphs finally retired with a score of 17 to 4 in their favor. Our boys then began to play again and in the next four innings scored eight to their opponents four. The score stand- ing in the end 21 to 12. This was better than any one had expected, but it was believed they could do better another time. Last Saturday arrangements were made to visit Dover and play the return game. The boys embarked on the noon train, and at their very departure bad fortune seemed to attend them; instead of the large delega- tion expected to accompany them just three persons other than the nine and scorer pur- chased tickets for Dover, this in itself was rather discouraging, but at the same time it was discovered that Logan their catcher had "sneaked" away and was not to be found. As he is the only competent catcher the boys have for Walton's swift pitching this left them in rather a bad predicament, but it was resolved to go on and do the best under the circumstances, possible. Game was commenced as soon as possible after their arrival in the presence of some two or three hundred people. The first two innings passed off nicely, the boys doing very well though immediately falling be- hind. But on the third after going in and making three runs leaving the score at 6 to 4, they found their "Waterloo," Hayes, the usually sure first baseman made a series of astonishing muffs and the result was eight runs for Dover. In the same inning Mel- tyre's hands gave out and he had to retire from behind the bat and the following change therefore became necessary, Schoch going behind the bat, Hayes to right field, Holmes to second, Zeigler to third and McIntyre to short, but the boys had lost all spirit and the Randolphs had things all their own way until the close. The fol- lowing is the score:

Table with 3 columns: Name, R, B, P. O. A. CALDEN: Marsh, c, f 1 2 2 0; McIntyre, c 2 3 1 3; Hayes, 1st b 1 1 3 0; Schoch, r, f 0 1 0 0; Walton, p 1 1 1 2; Holmes 3d b 0 1 3 3; Huston, 2d b 0 1 11 0; Miller, l, f 0 0 0 0; Zeigler, s, s 0 0 0 2.

Umpire—John C. Kleckler, Caldeno Club. Scorers—Staples and Mr. Time of game—2 hour and 30 minutes.

A. Mrs. Leporte was struck in the fore- head by a hot line foul from McIntyre's bat in the second inning and borne off the field insensible. Her injuries must have been very serious but we were unable to learn further particulars. The Caldens were much pleased with their treatment both on and off the field by the citizens of Dover and were most hospitably entertain- ed by the officers and members of the Randolph club, who seemed only to regret their stay could not be longer.
