The Calwere unable to get their nine out d had given up all hopes of success. their opponents, resolving however to along as best they could. Only some bandred spectators assembled to s the game, as on account of the notice given by the Scrantons, there chance for advertising. The conarned out to be a very interesting ell played game, being very close up eighth inning, when the Caldenos a good streak of heavy hitting and forth had an easy time. Both played finely, though the Scrantons ther weak at the bat; one would have recognized the identity of the s of Tuesday and that poor, dised set of "muffers" playing at Dover arday last. Fine catches were made field by Penman, Schlager, Schoch Marsh. Young Hankins of the Flya- contract between George R.
