line again as a Republican State, electing the Republican candidate for Superintendent of Public Schools by a very decisive majority. There was no "independent" move the people of California have thus demonstrated that, on a clear issue, they are Republican. This adds another State to the Republican pyramid.

Since 1868 the State of Pennsylvania has been carried six times by the Republicans and once by the Democrats. In 1868 the Republican majority for President was 28,898; in 1860, 4956; in 1870 there was no State ticket, but the general majority was Republican; in 1871 it was 14,936 137,718 for President; in 1873 it was 25,-15.000.

Fourteen millions of the State debt have been paid off by the Republicans during the fourteen years they have had control of the finances of Pennsylvania-just about one million of dollars per year. During the preceding Democratic rule the debt was half a bushel of "Brownell's Beauty." Last not reduced, but was steadily increased, al. week Mr. F. dug them.
