The Republicans re-elect Heilman in Lebanon, Warfel in Lancaster, and John A. Lemon in Blair and Cambria, to the Senate, with Geo. Handy Smith, from the first district, in place of Alexander; George Butterfield, in Erie, in place of Cutler. The Rowland, from Monroe, Pike and Carbon; trials did not amount to anything. T. Jefferson Boyer, in place of Wallace, from Clearfield; James M. Hayes, from Greene, Lycoming, in place of Chalfant, and D. P. Thomas, of Forest, in place of Maclay. This leaves the Senate 29 Republicans to 21 Democrats. The Republicance elect J. G. Leech to the House, from Philadelphia, in members shall attend in person or by substiplace of Bardsley, deceased, and the Demo- tute. crats elect two members in Bucks and Northampton to succeed Democrats who died after the adjournment last winter. This leaves the House unchanged.
