

Winter wheat in many parts of the West is excellent. Massachusetts is a rich State, if she is small. Her valuation is $1,840,788,000. Splendid peachblow potatoes are being sold in Nebraska at fifteen cents a bushel. This year's crop of apples in Michigan surpasses anything ever produced there before. An agricultural curiosity of Jersey county, Illinois, is an ear of corn with thirty rows on it. A "run of stones" in Wiley's Mill, Frankfort, placed there in 1796, still do good service. Between five thousand and six thousand houses in Philadelphia have been registered for Centennial visitors. Gambirinus. One of the Cincinnati breweries has received an order for 19,000 barrels of lager beer, to be used at the Centennial. S. H. Rhodes, of West Salem township, Mercer county, has a cow from which he made forty pounds of butter in twenty-eight days in October. One billion one hundred and fifty-four million acres of Uncle Sam's farm are yet to be explored and surveyed. This work is progressing at the rate of 26,000,000 acres annually. Efficiency. A large number of counterfeiters have been arrested and a greater quantity of counterfeit money and plates captured during the past year than ever in a like period before. A Trunkville woman went to Tidouite on the morning train, did her shopping, gave birth to a baby, and went home on the afternoon train. How's that for a fair day's work? Thomisenbeis, of Reading, who was a sergeant in the regular army at the time Captain Jack was executed, has in his possession the comb used by that noted savage up to the time of his taking off. Some of the banks of Philadelphia, New York and Wilmington have issued circulars requesting signatures to a petition which is to be presented to Congress, asking the repeal of the law requiring the affixing of two-cent revenue stamps on checks. The Doylestown Intelligencer says a young Quaker town sportsman mistook a farmer's cat under a wagon shed for a rabbit. Sizing a stone he let drive, knocked off seventeen feet of weatherboarding, had his head broken by the farmer, and missed the cat. The Shenandoah Herald says: "Butcher Lewdy" is the champion eater of Mahanoy City. The other day he eat a whole turkey weighing eight pounds, and three pounds of stuffing. He is a hard-working man and we would like to know if any one in the county can beat him. Next. At Gettysburg on Friday, a lunatic named Hill, at the county hospital, killed a woman named Betty who went into his room to clean it. He choked her until insensible, and then drove the small end of a broomstick into her brain. She had been repeatedly forbidden to go into his room without one of the keepers. ANOTHER savings bank—this time the Central Park Bank, of New York City has just closed its doors. It seems that this institution was allowed to go on in business even when it was notorious that its affairs were in a precarious and very unsatisfactory condition. This "break" will undoubtedly cause a good deal of distress among a class of people who deposited their hard-earned savings in that bank. CHAIRMAN HOYT denies the report that there has been a caucus of Republicans at his invitation to take action as to the next State Convention. He says, "the chairman of the State Committee has either called nor been present at any caucus upon any subject," and that "no action will be had except in a meeting of the Committee regularly called and in Convention duly summoned in this or in any other matter." The latest stride in "business" that we have heard of is the expedient resorted to by New York divorce-lawyers to secure custom. They no longer wait until customers apply to them, but employ a species of drummers to secure victims. The emissary goes, provided with circulars in imitation of written manuscripts, to an interior city, whence he mails them to the wives of such as he learns would like to secure a divorce. In some cases they even resort to intrigue to accomplish their nefarious purpose. In most cases these drummers are impostors, and the concerns they represent—or claim to represent—firms of swindlers. NEXT year—probably on the 4th of July—Colorado will be admitted into the Union. Dating her admission from the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of the nation, she will be known as the "Centennial State." We see by the papers that the Legislature of that territory proposes to make an extraordinary liberal appropriation to the Centennial at its opening session. That's the way to do it and may her good example be followed by the legislatures of other States. At the Plymouth Church meeting, November 26th, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher read a long letter in reply to Mrs. Moulton's letter demanding a church council to pass on the action of the church in dropping her name from the roll. Mr. Beecher says that Mrs. Moulton's sworn testimony was that she had not attended the church or partaken of the Lord's Supper since 1871, nor had she connected herself with any other church, and this was ample cause for dropping her name. He held that no one believed her charges against the pastor of Plymouth church, and he intimates that the may have to answer in court for her persistence in this scandal. He fully justifies the action of the church in dropping Mrs. Moulton's name. Mr. Beecher concludes, finally, to join Mrs. Moulton in a call for a mutual church council, and challenges the fullest inquiry into all the substance of Mrs. Moulton's complaint.

Our Books will show that the sales of the CHEAP AUCTION STORE have been 284 Dollars more, for the past four weeks, ending on 2d of October, than they were during the same weeks last year.
Well, Vol or It? Why it proves beyond a doubt that the CHEAP AUCTION STORE is bound to go ahead, opposition or no opposition. It prospers under the lash. It is like an old chestnut tree, the more you club it the more chestnuts you get.
Will you believe me you might as well try to get a shad to climb to the top of a crab-apple tree as to get his customers of Stroudsburg and the farmers of Monroe County to leave the cheap Auction Store, where they have saved so many dollars during the past six years.
They well know they can get a piece of bleached or unbleached muslin, from 10 to 20 cents on a dollar cheaper than they can buy it in other Stores.
They know that Decker sells his beautiful shilling Calico, decorated winter styles, for 8 cents a yard.
They know they can buy handsome Alpaccas, all colours, for 25 cents a yard, which no man can beat.
They know that they can get cotton bats for comfortors for 14 cents, and full pound, best cotton carpet warp for 28 cents a pound, while some others charge 35 to 40 cents.
They know that for Undershirts and Drawers, and hosiery and gloves, no man can beat CHEAP AUCTION STORE.
Every gentleman who has dealt with us knows that he saves from 50 cents to one dollar for every hat he buys of us.
If a farmer wants Flannels he knows just the spot where to get them cheap. You see is bound for the CHEAP AUCTION STORE.
If a lady, or Miss, or child wants a pair of Shoes or Gaiters, they come at once to the Cheap Auction Store.
If a gentleman wants a pair of Boots or Shoes for himself or his Son, how quick he is off to Decker's, for there he saves his 50 or 75 cents on a pair.
If a gentleman wants a fine suit of clothes for himself or his Son, he comes to Decker's and saves his dollars.
If any one is in want of a 3 or 4 or 5 dollar winter coat, how soon they are off to Decker's Cheap Auction Store.
If any one wants cloths or cassimeres for overcoats or to make up for suit, you see them making tracks to the CHEAP AUCTION STORE, to get some double fold fine Beaver cloth or his beautiful Cassimeres for 50 and 75 cents per yard.
If a Lady, or Miss, or child, wants to get a good fashionable winter hat and Ribbons and Feather and Flowers to trim it with for half price, she comes to Decker's Cheap Auction Store.
And so it goes, through our mammoth Stock of Fall and Winter Goods Just Received.
We want our customers to understand that we now keep beautiful fine

MR. QUACKENBUSH, the Superintendent and the Junior clerk MR. PALMER, are gentlemen. They are not filled with gas nor are they woodies, nor blowers, but with great pleasure they wait upon the crowds at the

We would also have the people to understand that we have no branch Store in Stroudsburg and if any one says that they are the Auction Store or a part of it, tell them you don't see it.
Remember our Store is 4 doors below the Post Office. One sign across the walk, the other in front of the Store.
