The old Philadelphia Navy Yard was sold at public sale on last Thursday, on government account, and bid off at one million of dollars. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company was the purchaser. The navy yard was originally bought in three parcels, costing respectively $12,000, $14,000 and $11,000, making a total first cost of $37,000. The proceeds of the sale go to the improvement of the League Island Naval Station.

OUR young business men very properly pride themselves on their business air, their suit, dress and carriage in the counting-room and on the street. It is after all a commendation on a first sight to see a young man, or indeed one who is not so young, clad in a suit which says as plainly as words to the beholder: "He means business." Oak Hall, in Philadelphia, has a varied and carefully selected stock of goods especially designed for business wear. See Wanamaker & Brown's advertisement.

The greatest religious revival on record is that reported to have taken place in the town of Port Jervis, where over six hundred conversions are said to have occurred in two months.

A CERTAIN young lady of this place while attending services at the M. E. Church on Sunday evening last, left her umbrella standing in one of the closets down stairs, but on her return found it was gone. Now if the person who took the said umbrella does not very soon return it, an unpleasant notoriety will be the consequence, as the person who took it is known. So we say that if the person who took the umbrella desires to save trouble and annoyance it can be done by leaving the umbrella in question, at this office, and we will return it to the proper owner, and there the matter shall end.

Over Coats! Over Coats! Simon Fried will receive a new and elegant assortment of Over Coats this week. Call and see them.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Miss Emma Surplus, residing near Sand Cut, Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad, met with quite a sad accident, on Saturday evening, November 27th. While riding on a hand car her clothes caught in the wheels, and before the car could be stopped her clothing were wound around the axle, and she was fearfully choked, had her left arm broken in two places below the elbow, also dislocating her wrist, and wounded about the body. The following letter in reference to a lump of coal shown us a few days ago will explain itself. We have no doubt but that there is extensive coal beds in Monroe county awaiting development, and at no distant day we expect to see extensive collieries established in this county:

WASHINGTON, D. C., }
Nov. 24th, 1875. }
THEODORE SCHUCH, Esq., }
EDITOR JEFFERSONIAN }
Stroudsburg, Pa. }
Dear Sir:—The lump of coal you saw me have and which was taken from Haese's farm, near my farm, about two miles from Sprangerville railroad station, I took to Prof. Henry of the Smithsonian Institute, and also to the mineralogist of the Agricultural Department, and they all pronounced it Anthracite Coal. A portion of it was burned at the Agricultural Department and it burned like ordinary Anthracite; and the Professors say that there is no doubt that coal abounds throughout that section of country where these specimens were found.

Yours Truly,
CORNELIUS LENT.

THE notorious Boss Tweed escaped from his custodians in New York last Saturday afternoon, and is now a fugitive from justice. He was confined in Ludlow street jail, awaiting the trial of the suit to recover $15,000, 000 stolen from the city, which was to take place this week. On Saturday he was taken in a carriage to Central Park by the two of the prison officials, and on the way back they stopped at Tweed's house on Madison avenue. Here Tweed asked to spend a few minutes privately with his wife—so the officers say. In a very short time they sent for him, but he was not there, and his wife denied having seen him at all. It was then evident that he had fled, and immediate notice was given to the police. Search was made all over the city, and a reward of $10,000 was offered, but up to this date nothing had been heard of the fugitive "Boss."

It is now reported that Tweed escaped in the barque Lord Clarendon which cleared for Queenstown two weeks since. The barque is a clipper and was purchased by a relative of Tweed for the purpose of taking him to Europe.

The castor bean crop of Kansas is very large this year. About a million dollars is the figure. That's oil.

Amid the general reduction of wages in these times, there is one thing whose wages is not in the least reduced, and that is sin.

Rev. H. DANIEL, of Hamilton, on his way to the Eldred church, on Friday last, his horse took fright at some children with hoisted umbrellas, he met on the road, ran away and upset the carriage, throwing him out and dragging him a short distance when he managed to disengage himself. Mr. D. was considerably bruised, but not serious, and was able to preach on Sunday last.—His carriage was completely demolished.

STROUDSBURG, Dec. 4, 1875.

At a regular stated meeting of Fort Penn Lodge, No. 134 I. O. of O. F., the following preamble and resolutions are unanimously adopted.

Whereas, To Him who giveth and taketh away it has seemed proper to call from our midst our esteemed brother, P. G., Daniel H. Wyckoff, thereby severing the golden chain that bound us together in fraternal bonds of friendship, love and truth, therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the members of Fort Penn Lodge, while submitting to the will of the Divine Ruler, deem just and right to express the respect due our departed brother.

Resolved, That in this dispensation of God, we have lost a tried and true friend and the Lodge a faithful member, our beloved Order a fervent advocate, and the community an upright citizen.

Resolved, That we hereby extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathy to the family and friends of our late brother, not doubting but that their loss is heaven's again, and feeling our feebleness in administering true comfort we would recommend them to the Great Comforter, and may they be enabled to exclaim with one of old, the Lord has given and the Lord has taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord, and we trust that when time shall be no more we with them shall be in union with the departed in that land of light, that home beyond the skies where sickness, sorrow, pain and death are felt no more forever.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished our deceased brother's family, with whom we deeply sympathize? and would commend them to the care of him who has promised to be the God of the widow, and Father of the fatherless.

Resolved, That our Charter be draped in mourning for the period of six months.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge, and be published in each of the papers in this borough.

EAST STROUDSBURG ITEMS.

Mr. Henry Detrick of this place lies very ill.

Mr. Thomas Steuples has moved into his new house on Courtland street, and Wm. S. Barger is about to occupy the house vacated by Mr. Steuples.

Messrs. Peirson & Thompson has just sold the house and lot near Durfy's crossing formerly owned by Mr. Wilson Detrick of Spragueville to George Brutzman, of Smithfield.

Mr. Wm. Raferty has sold his farm in this borough to Capt. James Bryant, of New York and has bought the property opposite the Depot formerly owned by Capt. John T. Ferguson of Boston and intends opening a store after making some alteration.

Messrs. Peirson & Thompson, the well known Real Estate agents of East Stroudsburg, have entered the large spacious office rooms in the second story front of Mr. Stephen Kistler and Brother's new building and intend fitting these up for the reception of their patrons. By close attention to business this firm have established for themselves a reputation that is unimpeachable. Their object is to give universal satisfaction and all who do business through them once, will patronize them again, they charge nothing for information and are glad to have any parties wishing to buy to call on them.

VISIT TO EAST STROUDSBURG.—The fire ladders of Stroudsburg with their Steamer drawn by Mr. John G. Keller's black horses and track or horse carriage drawn by about thirty-five members in uniform, visited our borough on Thanksgiving day, and our streets were made lively with their presence.

By permission of Mr. I. T. Paterbaugh they took possession of the Station plug of the D. L. & W. R. R., and in a few minutes had steam up and were throwing two streams of water. For the want of a fire the pipemen amused themselves in squirting on each other and on the boys in the crowd and it was not long before some of them were pretty well drenched inside and out. It has been their custom to visit our borough every year on Thanksgiving day, until last year they omitted coming. We are always glad to see them and trust the good feelings between us and them may ever be engendered.

THE TOWN of Mercer is without a license. Reading raised sixty tons of grapes, this year.

SEVEN distilleries are in operation in Somerset county.

THREE are but ten male teachers in Delaware county.

IN York there are three sisters and one brother who weigh 810 pounds.

THREE hundred million bushels is the average wheat crop in the United States.

ALL but fifteen of the 350 children in the Bedford public schools have been vaccinated.

AN eleven year old girl in Lycoming county is four feet three inches high, and weighs 133 pounds.

THE organist of a Meadville church fell asleep during the services on a recent Sunday. After some trouble he was awakened and before he had collected his wits struck up the tune of "Yankee Doodle." Perhaps there may be an idea in this after all. It is possible that some such stirring air might make the feet of the congregation step quickly to time, and thus avoid that tedious crawling along the aisles that we are compelled to experience after the service is over. The experiment is worth trying, any way.

THIS is a good time in which to study economy, to give up useless indulgences, and to set up in each house a tin "Noah's ark."

A CHESTER oysterman found among a lot of oyster a fish that had two legs, with three toes on each, and fins all along its back. It was still alive and was placed in an aquarium.

THE recent storm of rain and wind in England was the most violent that had been known there during the present generation. The hurricane on the North Sea was unprecedented in fury, and immense destruction was caused to the shipping. This was followed by the heaviest rain storm that has occurred for half a century, and which swept all over England. Destructive floods are reported from all the midland counties. The collieries, iron works and mills were flooded, and in many cases the inhabitants had to flee from their houses for safety. Several lives were lost, and thousands of people were thrown out of work. The damage to property is estimated at millions. The London Times describes the storm as a "modified recurrence of the universal deluge."

REVELATIONS lately made show that the Eddy family, at Chittenden, Vt., are as great frauds in spiritualistic manifestations, as Kate King confessed herself to be. Their tricks were so well concealed that they challenged investigation, and the spiritualists gathered at Chittenden, from far and near, as to a sort of Mecca. The manifestations, there, were regarded as unquestionably genuine, and several educated and scientific men were deceived by them. One among them, at last, more curious or more acute than the rest, discovered that the floor of the little cabinet from which the materialized spirits emerged, was constructed after the fashion of a trap-door in the theater, and when it sank down, the materialized spirit, in the shape of one of the Eddy sisters, came up a secret stairway from the story below. This discovery has finished the Eddy family exhibitions, for the present, and those who love to be humbugged will have to transfer their affections to some new imposture.

IS IT YOU
Who said that you would like to get such Clothing as City People wear, rather than the wholesale goods commonly sold? This will tell you how to do it.
The very large increase of our business allows us to make A STILL LOWER SCALE OF PRICES, AND You Can Save Enough
in buying a Suit at Oak Hall
TO PAY FOR THE TRIP
from anywhere in this County to the City of Philadelphia, and have a day of sight-seeing besides. Wanamaker & Brown stand by this statement, and so will you after one trial.
Character of the Goods we sell For Men & Boys. I am sure of what we sell and we manufacture our goods, some of them in our own building. They are well cut, sewed and finished. They can be relied upon. Storekeepers out of the city misrepresent us when they say we sell goods as we do not wholesale, but confine ourselves to retail. We bear no ill-will to any one, and state this only because some dealers sell poor goods as coming from our house. To each of our customers we are responsible for articles bought of us. By our plan of Ticketing the right names of the materials on our goods, no one can be misled as to quality.
How Wanamaker & Brown treat their CUSTOMERS. THE price in plain figures and nothing off. The same price to acquaintances and strangers. To city people and country people equal advantages. With each article sold, a Guarantee is given, that the Price is as low as it can be bought anywhere, and that the quality is as represented; also, that the money will be paid back in full, if purchaser within 10 days wishes, for any reason, to return the goods, un worn.
Exactly where the Store is. THIS is important indeed because unprincipled people having stores in Philadelphia, counterfeit our signs, cards, advertisements, and stop strangers on the street, with false directions about where the store is, so that they may sell their counterfeit goods. There is but one Oak Hall in Philadelphia. It is a large building, the size of four ordinary stores, and is on the South corner of SIXTH—SIXTH—SIXTH—SIXTH—SIXTH and Market Streets.
Those who cannot come to the City. WE send patterns of material and prices by mail when requested. Persons can have made-up goods sent by Express, by sending their measure (we furnish easy directions that any one can measure by), and describing color wanted, and price desired. Payment can be made in advance, and the privilege of examining them is allowed before paying. Where goods do not please, we will return the money and pay the expressage back to Philadelphia. You should be sure to see our name on the Building and over the door as you enter.
