

Court Proceedings.

The December term of the various Courts of this county began on Monday, the 27th ult. Judge Dreher, President, and Associate Judges Gruber and Stauffer on the Bench. Robert Huston of Stroudsburg, was appointed Foreman of the Grand Jury. No business of extraordinary importance was to come before them and His Honor delivered the usual charge. Monday afternoon was occupied in receiving the returns of the Constables in the several townships, considering petitions, granting rules, &c., and in the trial of a trivial case of the peace case, the Com. vs. David W. Turner, and Children. The prosecutor — Turner, and Children, were both boys and it turned out to be a decidedly boyish and trifling affair. Each were sentenced to pay one half the costs.

On Tuesday morning the case of Com. vs. Adam Bogert for assault and battery on Wm. Brown was called. The parties are both aged men, both old enough one would think to keep out of Court in such cases as this. They are neighbors occupying adjoining farms at Marshall's Creek, and for several years have behaved in a manner unbecoming near neighbors and good citizens of this great and glorious Union. Adam appears to have striven hard to prevent William's journey through life being a way of pleasantness and a path of peace, and William seems to have caused trouble to spring up in the walks and arched of Adams garden of Eden and to have plucked its flowers of happiness and planted there those of pain and sorrow. Their mutual differences reached a climax one fine morning a few weeks ago. Adam had employed a surveyor and was engaged in running out the division line between the two farms which had been one of the bones of contention between them, William went over to oversee the operation and come upon the land of Adam. Adam ordered him off forthwith. William got spunky directly, and informed his friend Adam that when the current of his will turned in the proper direction he proposed to take his departure. This was the straw which broke the camels back, and in about one-sixteenth of a second William was performing a series of most wonderful gyrations down a steep bank on which he had been standing. He finished his "ground and left tumbling" by landing about twenty feet below in a bewildered condition. Adam followed him more deliberately intending apparently, according to the eye-witnesses, to rouse him back again, or change the programme of his "tumbler" into some other act. The performance closed, however, by the interference of the surveyor and others, who considered such exercises unhealthy on account of the age of the artist. William sought to recover his salary in Court, and Adam went down on Wednesday morning with his exchequer depleted to the extent of thirty or forty dollars at least, ten dollars of which went to the benefit of the County of Monroe.

Judge Dreher having been of counsel in some of the cases to be tried at this term and related to the parties in others. Judge Meyers of Easton, took his seat upon the bench on Tuesday afternoon. The first case called was that of Mackes vs. Bonser, action of assumpsit for carpenter work and for lumber furnished in building an addition to Bonser's house. Bonser brought in a bill for goods sold to Mackes and his hands and together, from the loose manner of the parties in conducting their business was involved in considerable intricacy and confusion. The case occupied about two days and a half in its trial and a verdict was rendered in favor of plaintiff for $259.05. Davis for plaintiff, Tarnest for defendant.

On Tuesday morning J. Davis Duffield, Esq., of Philadelphia was admitted to practice in the Courts of this County. In case of Com. vs. Hannah Daily. Defendant was bound over to next term. In case of Com. vs. David Shelly for embezzlement. Defendant failing to appear, his recognizance was declared forfeited and respite until next term. The grand jury having returned four indictments against Josiah and James Dowling for selling liquor illegally, at the conclusion of the Mackes vs. Bonser case, their cases were called and all the indictments were tried before one jury. One indictment against each of them, charged them each with selling intoxicating drink to James Buckley, a person of intemperate habits, said drink to be used as a beverage, and another count with selling the same to said James Buckley when drunk. The other indictments charged each of them with selling intoxicating drink to be used as a beverage to Michael Welch, a minor. The parties reside in Coolbaugh township on the North and South turnpike where the Dowling's keep a hotel. Both defendants were acquitted, but ordered to pay the costs.

On Thursday afternoon the grand jury brought in indictments against Stroudsburg Passenger Railroad Co. for nuisance; against George P. Lander for larceny, both true bills, and against Francis Stannard (the Court House incendiary) for larceny, ignorant, and having no further business were discharged with the thanks of the Court. In case of Com. vs. George P. Lander for larceny, was called on Saturday morning. Defendant has been lying in jail for about two weeks. He is an old man of seventy-one years, has no fixed home or occupation as he stated to the Court, was born in Northampton county, left there at fourteen had been working at lumbering some, was unmarried, had drunk considerable, more in his younger days, than now, had last lived at White Haven and in tramping through the west end of this county he broke into a wheelwright shop and stole therefrom some tools, was captured some nine miles from the place of the theft and taken to this place and lodged in jail. The Court gave the old man some good advice in passing sentence, and having declared that they had considered the place of his nativity and other extenuating circumstances, he was sentenced to one dollar fine, costs of present on, stolen goods to returned or to pay the value of those not returned, and to undergo an imprisonment of forty-five days at solitary confinement in jail. The Sheriff acknowledged the following deeds: to Milo Overfield for land in Middle Smithfield, sold as the property of Findley B. Overfield, Amr. of Washington Overfield and terre tenants for $2,300; to Annas Zimmerman, land in Jackson tsp., sold as property of John S. Frutcher for $600; to Timothy Miller, land in Tobyhanna tsp., sold as property of Frederick P. Miller for $300; to Wm. Wallace, land in Stroud tsp., sold as property of Isaac Butterfield for $275; to Samuel Altemose land in Ross tsp., sold as property of Henry Kintz for $830; to Harrison Schoch and John Wilson, land in Coolbaugh and Paradise tsp., sold as property of Jas. Wilson, jr., for $2,020; to Robert W. Swink, land in Stroudsburg, sold as property of Jeremiah Frutcher for $42; to John E. Snyder, land in Stroudsburg, sold as property of Jeremiah Frutcher for $1,490; to Alex S. Gould, land in Chestnut Hill tsp., sold as property of John Merwine for $5,400. Saturday afternoon was devoted to the Argument list and on Saturday night Court adjourned.

THE REVOLVER.
A Man Buys a Revolver and Attempts to Blow the Top of His Head off, and Perhaps Succeeds in Killing Himself.
From St. Paul Daily Pioneer, Dec. 23.
About three o'clock yesterday afternoon a young man entered the store of W. R. Buckard and Co., on third street, and asked about revolvers. After looking at several, he selected one that he concluded to purchase, and wanted to have it loaded. The clerk did not desire to load the revolver in the store, as it was against the rules, made to avoid just such tragedies as followed. The man insisted, and finally the clerk, considering it safe enough, loaded the revolver and handed the same to the man. The latter took it in his hands and commenced handling it so carelessly and indifferently that the clerk remonstrated with him, and told him to hold the muzzle down toward the floor, and not to point the revolver around the store in that way. Hardly had the words been uttered when the man suddenly placed the muzzle of the revolver behind his right ear, and discharged one barrel. As soon as he discharged the revolver he fell to the floor, with his head under the opposite counter, and there remained unconscious for about half or three quarters of an hour. When he fell he still held the revolver tightly clasped in his right hand. The wound bled but very little. While the man lay on the floor he groaned a little, but did not speak. A large crowd gathered outside the store and for a long time blocked up the sidewalk so that people could not pass. Finally the proprietor put down the curtains to his store, which had the effect of thinning out the crowd a good deal, still enough remained to make the navigation of the street inconvenient. Soon after the shooting Capt. Webber sent a policeman for a doctor. He came back in a short time with Dr. Stewart, who examined the sufferer and probed the wound. After some exertion the doctor got him to speak.

WHO HE IS.
He said his name was Eugene Featherman; that he was 21 years old, and that he came from Monroe county, Pennsylvania. His father, he said, lives on a little farm at Stroudsburg, about five miles from the railroad. He has been here since August, had no money, no work, no friend, and no food, and wanted to put an end to his sufferings. He was soon after removed to the city hospital where he was again examined about 6 o'clock. Here his story was varied a little. The doctor told him that he was sure to die soon, and if he had anything to say he could then have an opportunity to say it. He told substantially the same story about the cause of his shooting himself. Upon being questioned, however, he stated that his troubles were his own and then declined to say anything further upon the subject, clearly leaving it to be inferred that there was something in his history not yet yet known. He was dressed in a dark woollen suit, with a course striped shirt without a collar. His hands appeared to belong to a person accustomed to manual labor.

The unfortunate young man, above mentioned, is the son of our esteemed friend Mr. Jacob H. Fetherman, an excellent citizen and thrifty farmer of Hamilton township, this County. The family in this sore affliction command the sympathies of all. The son left home on the 5th of last month, not mentioning the fact that he intended to go away, and nothing was heard of him until the 27th ult. We have heard that he once before left home suddenly but after a time returned, but refused to say any thing about as to where he had been.

He was esteemed a worthy young man, and it seems utterly impossible to account for his strange and tragic end, except on the assumption that his mind was diseased.

Vell, Vol or It? Why it proves beyond a doubt that the CHEAP AUCTION STORE is bound to go ahead, opposition or no opposition. It prospers under the lash. It is like an old chestnut tree, the more you club it the more chestnuts you get.

Will you believe me you might as well try to get a shad to climb to the top of a crab-apple tree as to get his customers of Stroudsburg and the farmers of Monroe County to leave the cheap Auction Store, where they have saved so many dollars during the past six years.

They well know they can get a piece of bleached or unbleached muslin, from 10 to 20 cents on a dollar cheaper than they can buy it in other Stores.

They know that Decker sells his beautiful shilling Calico, splended winter styles, for 8 cents a yard.

They know they can buy handsome Alpaccas, all colours, for 25 cents a yard, which no man can beat.

They know that they can get cotton bats for comforters for 14 cents, and full pound, best cotton carpet warp for 28 cents a pound, while some others charge 35 to 40 cents.

They know that for Undershirts and Drawers, and hosiery and gloves, no man can beat CHEAP AUCTION STORE.

Every gentleman who has dealt with us knows that he saves from 50 cents to one dollar for every hat he buys of us.

If a farmer wants Flannels he knows just the spot where to get them cheap. You see is bound for the CHEAP AUCTION STORE.

If a lady, or Miss, or child wants a pair of Shoes or Garters, they come at once to the Cheap Auction Store.

If a gentleman wants a pair of Boots or Shoes for himself or his Son, how quick he is off to Decker's, for there he saves his 50 or 75 cents on a pair.

If a gentleman wants a fine suit of clothes for himself or his Son, he comes to Decker's and saves his dollars.

If any one is in want of a 3 or 4 or 5 dollar winter coat, how soon they are off to Decker's Cheap Auction Store.

If any one wants cloths or cassimeres for overcoats or to make up for suits, you see them making tracks to the CHEAP AUCTION STORE, to get some double fold fine Beaver cloth or his beautiful Cassimeres for 50 and 75 cents per yard.

If a Lady, or Miss, or child, wants to get a good fashionable winter hat and Ribbons and Feather and Flowers to trim it with for half price, she comes to Decker's Cheap Auction Store.

of the latest fashion and styles. So you need not go elsewhere for fine goods.

MR. QUACKENBUSH, the Superintendent and the Junior clerk Mr. PALMER, are gentlemen. They are not filled with gas nor are they woodies, nor blowers, but with great pleasure will they wait upon the crowds at the Auction Store.

We would also have the people to understand that we have no branch Store in Stroudsburg and if any one says that they are the Auction Store or a part of it, tell them you don't see it.
