NEW YORK, January 30 .- Detectives were working busily to-day on the Green Point murder case, in which the head of Wm. W. Simmors was found in the shipyard of John English on Milton street. From the proximity of the head to the river it was thought that the body had been thrown into the water. Inquiries were made at places where Simmons was in the habit of visiting, but no person acknowledged having seen him since Saturday night. Among those with whom the murdered known also by the name of Andreas Fuchs.
