HEADQUARTERS

REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE, HARRISBURG, February 1. 1876.

In pursuance of a resolution of the Republican State Committee, adopted at a meeting held in Harrisburg this day, a Republican State Convention, to be composed of delegates from each Senatorial and Representative district, to the number to which such district is entitled in the Legislature, is hereby called to meet in the city of Harrisburg, at twelve o'clock, noon, on Wednesday, March Here it is worth $25 and plenty at that. 29, 1876, for the purpose of nominating an Electoral ticket and of electing Senatorial and Representative delegates to represent the State in the Republican National Convention, to be held at Cincinnatti, Ohio, on the 14th day of June, 1876.

By order of the Committee, HENRY M. HOYT, Chairman. A. Wilson Norris, Secretary.

Every Republican in the National House of Representatives joined with every Democrat in the vote for the impeachment of Secretary Belknap.

It was as by the skin inspectors. of his teeth that he evaded the fate of McDonald, Joyce, Avery and the rest of the whiskey conspirators who came to grief out there at St. Louis. The Democrats and demagogues were after him hot foot. They moved the very heavens and earth for his conviction. They indicted him and tried him. Witnesses swere and editors in the interest of Democraey bellowed and howled for his honor and blood and liberty, and told marvellous stories of his guiltiness of conspiracy against the revenue of the country, but, after all a jury county, who has eleven daughters at home.
