The duty of Pennsylvanias Delegates at Cincinnalti.

It is conceded, by Republicans, that the hree-fifths of the stock of the road, and first choice of Pennsylvania for the Presiden-George, administrator of her husband's escy is Gen. JOHN F. HARTRANFT, Governor of the State. Other sections of the Union acknowledge the fealty of the State to Republicanism, and the entire fitness and trustworthiness of the candidate which she presents. Her own people thoroughly know the man who has served them so honestly and faithfully, and thousands of Patriots, scattered all over the country know him perfectly from association with him on many a hard fought battle field, and through many an arduous campaign for the Union, as one worthy to be trusted in every emergency and distinguished neighbor to add still more to under all circumstances. He carned his name of patriot in a literal baptism of fire, inaugurated for the salvation of his country, nor shrank from trial and danger until the last rebel had laid down the arms raised for the destruction of the government.
