

A Lowell saloon keeper recently advertised a free lunch, and a lady took a number of hungry children to his counter, and demanded and obtained a free meal for all of them.

The Lehigh County Commissioners (Democrats) are charged with fraud, and the Democratic organ, the Allentown Herald, wants an investigation so that no man, if he be guilty, shall escape.

A year ago a Norwegian, when drunk, from his hands and feet so badly near Decatur, Iowa, that they had to be amputated. His wife last week got judgment for $2,500 against the druggist that sold him the liquor.

Game Laws. Below is a short and concise statement of the game laws of Pennsylvania, which we advise all persons interested to cut out for reference:

Trout can be taken from April 1st to August 15th, but with hook and line only. No lines are prohibited in trout waters. Fine $10.

Bass can be fished for with hook and line only, from July 15th, to March 1st. Penalty $25.

Fish can be fished for from July 1st to March 1st, with hook and line. If caught or killed in any other way the penalty is $25 for each offense at any time of the year.

In a stream where trout and bass are found nothing in the nature of net or less than three inches mesh can be thrown, down or set. Penalty, $25.

Fishing with nets or seines of any kind with less than ten inches mesh for any kind of fish is entirely prohibited from June 15th to August 15th. Fine, $100 and six months imprisonment at discretion of court.

A net or nets set across any of the canals, creeks or creeks is prohibited. Fine, $25. Deer can be killed from September 1st to December 1st. Dogs found chasing deer can be shot by any persons.

Will turkeys, from October 1st to January 1st. Pheasant, from September 1st to January 1st. Plover, from August 1st to January 1st. Partridge, from November 1st to January 1st.

Woodcock, from July 1st to January 1st. Rabbits, from October 1st to February 1st. Fox, gray and black squirrels, from September 1st to January 1st.

Shooting or hunting on Sunday is punishable by a fine from $10 to $25. Fishing is punishable under the act prohibiting Sunday employment.

All insectivorous birds are protected by law all the time, under a penalty of $5 for each bird killed. For robbing or destroying a nest $10. The fine for killing any one of the above seasons range from $5 to $50.

EQUINOCTIAL STORM. Snow in Tennessee. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 20.—About eight inches of snow fell last night, being the heaviest fall in years. The storm seems to have been quite general. Fears are entertained that it will throw the Tennessee out of its banks if the rain now prevailing continues.

IN THE OLD NORTH STATE. RALEIGH, March 20.—To-day winter is upon us. Snow prevails throughout the State in Greensboro it is four inches deep, in Hillsboro four inches, and the mercury at the latter was 20 at midnight on Saturday. The peach crop is believed to be destroyed.

IN ARKANSAS. LITTLE ROCK, March 20.—The heaviest snow storm for years occurred here yesterday. Snow has fallen to the depth of nine inches. Business is suspended and trains are delayed.

IN OHIO. COLUMBA, March 20.—The snow which fell to-day was the heaviest for some years. There are now six inches on a level, and it is still snowing.

CINCINNATI, March 20.—It has been snowing here since last night; heaviest snow of the season. The storm is abating tonight.

ON THE LOWER MISSISSIPPI. PASCOGOLA, Miss., March 20.—A terrific gale passed over here last night, destroying houses, wharves, &c. Two or three schooners were blown ashore, and much damage done to shipping. One man was lost overboard from the schooner Independence.

WIND AND RAIN. NEW ORLEANS, March 20.—Despatches from Shreveport, Vicksburg and Jackson report severe wind and rain storms on Sunday night, followed by light snow. The storm was severe at all points on the Gulf coast between New Orleans and Mobile.

Many wharves and boat houses are destroyed and the shipping is damaged. The lowest of Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian, Mississippi City, Biloxi, Ocean Springs and Pascagoula, will probably exceed $50,000.

ON LAKE PONCHARTRAIN. NEW ORLEANS, March 20.—The water in Lake Ponchartrain is higher than it has been since the great flood of 1871. In the Bayou St. John the water from the lake is rising the flood of rain water from the city, and overflowed its west banks, doing much damage to gardens, &c., on the outskirts of the city.

Nearly twenty miles of the New Orleans and Mobile Railroad is submerged and doubtless greatly damaged, and several lives are reported lost on Ponchartrain.

DEPOT DESTROYED. RALEIGH, Pa., March 20.—The storm of today was accompanied by a high north-west wind, which increased to a hurricane by night, causing considerable damage to property.

At 5 45 P. M. five hundred feet of shelling at the new passenger depot of the Reading Railroad Company was blown down with a terrific crash, covering the main tracks with a debris. The probable loss is $30,000. A portion of the shelling left standing has been damaged, and is in a dangerous condition.

Special Notice.

Every other thing being equal, the cheapness of an article is a great recommendation. It is bound to decide the purchaser. He would be foolish indeed who should pay more than he need, for an article for the simple sake of paying! In buying clothing, which is quite an item in one's personal and family expenditures, cheapness rules the day, and ought to. At Wanamaker & Brown's Oak Hall, Philadelphia, it is certain that the purchaser buys cheaply. Cheapness, with every other excellence accompanying it, is the very basis of their enormous business.

KEYSTONE DRUG STORE.

Dr. S. L. FOULKE & J. KRESGE, successors to Peter Williams, have purchased the Empire Drug Store, on Main Street, a few doors below the Post-office, and for the convenience of those who wish to call, will have a red lamp in front, and know hereafter as the where will be constantly kept Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Drugs and Medicines, and all articles usually kept in a Drug Store, at the lowest market prices.

S. L. FOULKE, J. KRESGE.

Dr. S. L. Foulke being a practical Physician, having his office in the rear of said Drug Store, cordially invites the public to give him a call, as he is fully qualified to prescribe and compound all prescriptions. (Nov. 11, '75-6m.)

Goods cheaper than ever at N. Ruster's. He has them marked way down to bottom prices.

New goods will arrive at N. Ruster's this week and next. Don't fail to call and see them.

In Stroudsburg, on the 16th inst., Lizzie, daughter of D. B. and Rachel Wolf, aged 13 years, 10 months and 14 days.

Art sleeping, darling Lizzie, Upon thy cradle bed? Oh, fair the pure white flowers, And violets round thee spread! How softly lie thy folded hands, How dark thy half-closed eyes!

Art sleeping, precious treasure? We call to thee in vain; Most desolate our hearts and hearts, Oh, wake and come again! We miss thy loving footsteps, We miss the laughing tones, Thy thousand sweet, attractive ways, Are they forever gone?

Art sleeping, little Lizzie? The holy prayer was said, And earth to earth, and dust to dust, We laid thee with the dead, Gently we laid our treasure down, In faith and holy trust, And sweetly in the green graveyard Dost sleep thy precious days.

Art sleeping, angel daughter? Upon the Saviour's breast, Safe, safe in his precious fold, Our little lamb doth rest. Oh, keep her, bless'd Saviour, Our little treasure keep, Till we, like angel Lizzie, In thee shall fall asleep.

In Stroud township, on the 19th inst. Annie, oldest daughter of Daniel and Sarah Ruff, aged 9 years and 3 months.

Weeping mother grieve no longer, Although the idol of thy heart To Heaven has gone, be thou stronger; Feet resigned to say depart, God in kindness to the sufferer, Bids her soul aloft to soar; Although from your she is taken, She's "not lost, but gone before."

Mourning father, time will soften Pangs like thine, that sears the heart, Tho' memory cloth'd in sadness, often Makes thee feel a new smart; From a world of sin and sorrow, In Heaven to be for ever blest, Weeping mother, mourning father, Little Annie is gone to rest.

NOTICE.

In the Court of Quarter Sessions of Monroe County, February Term, 1876.

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.

To the Honorable Judges of Monroe County: The Grand Jurors now in session are of opinion after consultation that the bridges in Monroe County especially the side guards are in bad condition and should be attended to as soon as can be conveniently, for the safety of the traveling community, especially in Hamilton, Fochs, Coolbaugh, Jackson, Chestnut-hill and Tunkhannock townships, also that the Supervisors of the County of Monroe be instructed to see that the cause ways and drains be better attended to and loose stones be picked and thrown out of the roads.

ABRAHAM BRYAN, Foreman.

Filed February 29, 1876, and Court order that the same be published in the newspapers of the County.
