

Republican State Convention.

The Republican State Convention assembled in the Opera House, this city, at 12 o'clock...

The hall was well filled with spectators during the sessions of the convention. Mr. Cress's band, of Philadelphia, was stationed in the dress circle...

TEMPORARY ORGANIZATION. John Cress, of Bedford, nominated Gen. Wm. H. Koontz, of Somerset, for temporary Chairman...

ADDRESS OF GENERAL KOONTZ. General Koontz said this Commonwealth ought to be potential in the coming national convention...

This party has resolved that the standard of official life shall be elevated. It has resolved that "no guilty man shall escape."

AFTERNOON SESSION. Upon the reassembling of the convention, soon after three o'clock, the Committee on Permanent Organization submitted a report naming Hon. Edward McPherson as permanent chairman...

His remarks were briefly these:—Knowing your anxiety, which is but natural under the circumstances, to finish the important business which has brought you together in the most expeditious manner...

THE PLATFORM. Resolved, That we hereby reaffirm the platform adopted by the Republican State Convention at Lancaster in 1875...

A Man who Never Owed a Cent. It seems almost incredible that this country possesses a man fifty-four years old who never owed a cent to a living soul in all his life...

Molly Maguires. THE MAHONEY ROBBERS CONVICTED. SUNBURY, Pa., March 22.—In the case of the Cameron township or Mahoney robbers, the jury to-day returned a verdict of guilty...

At last the Erie Railway Company has obtained something from Jay Gould in part payment of the one million of dollars the latter stole from that Company when he was President of the road...

Old horses: E. Leiby, of Roaring Creek township, Columbia county, has a horse forty-seven years old, still able to do a full day's work...

to force amnesty upon men too proud or unrepentant to ask it, or too guilty to deserve it, and for the combined recklessness and cowardice of their course on financial questions...

Resolved, That recent events in the late slave States clearly expose a purpose on the part of the Democratic party to seize them all, and wield them as a unit in the next Presidential election...

Resolved, That the common safety demands that our public schools shall not only be free to all, but shall be preserved all special or partial control, and all attempts to divide the school fund for any purpose whatever...

Resolved, That the attempt of the Democratic House of Representatives at Washington, in the face of the depressed condition of American industry, to inflict upon the nation a free trade tariff, is an insult to the intelligence of the people...

Resolved, That the neglect of the public business of the State by the present majority of the lower branch of the Legislature, and the plainly apparent purpose of that majority to prolong the session with the sole object of thereby increasing their pay...

Resolved, That the uniform policy of the Republican party of Pennsylvania, in keeping down the burden of taxation, while steadily reducing the public debt, should be persistently maintained...

Resolved, That in recognition of the eminent services, both in the field and Cabinet, the rare executive ability and the unswerving rectitude of Governor John F. Hartranft, the Republicans of Pennsylvania, with just pride, present his name to the consideration of the Republicans of the Union for the nomination for the Presidency of the United States in full confidence that the great qualities which have rendered his administration of State affairs a model...

Henry M. Hoyt was chosen chairman of the State central committee, which will be given in next week's Jeff.

Resolved, That we hereby reaffirm the platform adopted by the Republican State Convention at Lancaster in 1875, and in view of recent events at Washington, we emphatically indorse that part of it which demands honest men in office men with brains enough to know dishonesty when they see it, and courage enough to fight it whenever they find it...

Resolved, That the Republicans of Pennsylvania, having nothing in their past history which they wish to blot out or apologize for, or would have the nation forget, arraign the Democratic leaders in Congress and their abettors for the preferences shown to the deadly principles, and for the subversion shown to the defiant leaders of the late Confederacy, now dominating them...

Democratic State Convention.

This body met at Lancaster at noon on Wednesday, with a full attendance of delegates. It was called to order by Hendrick B. Wright, Chairman of the State Committee last year, and Ex-Senator Playford of Fayette was chosen temporary presiding officer...

It was late in the afternoon before the Convention was ready for serious business. Robert E. Monaghan of Chester was made permanent chairman, and made a short speech of acknowledgment. Then another adjournment took place, to give time for settling disputed seats, nearly all of which were decided in favor of delegates of the Wallace faction...

Resolved, That the common safety demands that our public schools shall not only be free to all, but shall be preserved all special or partial control, and all attempts to divide the school fund for any purpose whatever, or to divert any portion of it into a channel and under popular control, are to be frowned upon and resisted with unyielding firmness...

Resolved, That the attempt of the Democratic House of Representatives at Washington, in the face of the depressed condition of American industry, to inflict upon the nation a free trade tariff, is an insult to the intelligence of the people and an evidence of the inability of the Democratic party to remedy the present wants of the country...

The Chicago Tribune says that "the checkiest thing that has occurred since the first of January, 1876, was the vote of the Hon. (?) Schumacker, Democratic M. C., for the impeachment of Belknap. He had $300,000 of Pacific Mail corruption fund in his pocket at the time. His party conferees have not troubled him about it. There is no resolution pending for his expulsion or impeachment. Why is this thus?"
