JEHRRSONI

Devoted to Politics, Literature, Agriculture, Science, Morality, and General Intelligence.

STROUDSBURG, MONROE COUNTY, PA., MAY 18, 1876.

NO. 51.

blished by Theodore Schoch. a year in advance-and if not the year, two dollars and fifty mucd until all arrearages are on of the Editor, of one square of (eight lines) or one $1.50. Each additional in-or ones in proportion.

JOB PRINTING

TOL. 33.

highest style of the Art, and on th

THEON PERSON. Notary Public, EAST STROUDSBURG PA. souts taken and all business pertaining PIERSON & THOMPSON. Real Estate Insurance Agents. Ristler's new building near the Depot.

R. N. L. PECK. Surgeon Dentist.

n Jas. Edinger's new building, nearly opposite their Bank. Gas admuistered for extacting [Jan. 6, 76-tf. DR. A. LEWIS KIRKHUFF,

Physician, Surgeon and Accoucheur, SAND CUT, WAYNE CO., PA

sesses promptly attended, to day or night. [May 13, '75-tf

DR. GEO. W. JACKSON

PATRICIAN, SERGEON AND ACCOUCHEUR.

he in Samuel Hood's new building, nearly op-

AVID S. LEE, Attorney at Law,

One door above the "Stroudsburg House," fallections promptly made. tober 22, 1871.

WILLIAM S. REES,

Surveyor, Conveyancer and

Real Estate Agent. Farms, Timber Lands and Town Lots

FOR SALE. Office mearly opposite American Houes Stroudsburg, April 20, 1876.

al 2d door below the Corner Store. March 20, 1879-11.

DR. J. LANTZ, URGEON & MECHANICAL DENTIST.

ill has his office on Main street, in the second story s Walton's brick building, nearly opposite the deburg House, and by daters himself that by eighcurs constant practice and the most carnest and defication to all matters pertaining to his pro-titude is fully able to perform all operations dental line is the most careful and skillful man-cal attention given to saving the Natural Teeth; to the insertion of Artificial Teeth on Rubber, sliver, or Continuous Gums, and perfect fits in all piteins know the great folly and danger of enng their work to the inexperienced, or to those liv-a distance. April 13, 1874.—tf.

ANOTHER TROPHY WON

BY THE

ESTEY COTTAGE ORGANS

These superior and beautifully finished inframents so far collipsed their competitor in plants, parity, sweetness and delicacy of tone, to carry off the first and only premium givnto exhibitors of reed Organs at the Monroe loanty Fair, held September 25, 1874. by onty the best. For price list address J. Y. SIGAFUS,

PAPER HANGER,

GLAZIER AND PAINTER,

MONROE STREET.

Nearly opposite Kautz's Blacksmith Shop,

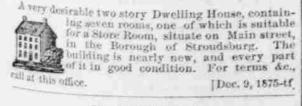

STROUDSBURG, PA. The undersigned would respectfully inorm the citizens of Stroudsburg and vicinity that he is now fully prepared to do all kinds of Paper Hanging, Glazing and Painting, tomptly and at short notice, and that he will keep constantly on hand a fine stock of esper Hangings of all descriptions and at w prices. The patronage of the public * earnestly solicted. [May 16, 1872.

FOR SALE,

A double house and lot, near the Court use, cheap. Will be sold together or sepaate to suit purchasers. Stroughburg, Dec. 23, 1875.—tf.

Dwelling House for Sale.

CAUTION !

All persons are hereby cautioned not to trespass on any property of the undersigned, simale in Stroud township, Monroe county, Pa. any one violating this notice will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. JACOB H. BUTTS. Stroudsburg, July 29, 1875.

DON'T you know that J. H.

McCarty & Sons are the only Undertakers in Stroudsburg who understands their siness? If not, attend a Funeral managed by any other Undertaker in town, and you will see the proof of the fact. June 18, 74-tf

VALUABLE STOCK AT

PRIVATE SALE.

The undersigned offers at private sale the following celebrated stock of Cows, Heifers and Calves, which breed was imported by —— Fowler, one the best judges A lot of Durham Cows and Heifers.
A lot of Durham Cows and Heifers.

A lot of crossed stock. A lot of Ayrshire Calves. A lot of Durham Calves.

The stock can be examined on the stock farm of Col. E. E. Norton, near this Borough. For terms, &c. call

JOHN SELWOOD. Stroudsburg, April 6, 1876.

DOWN TOWN

We the undersigned respectfully inform the citizens of Stroudsburg and vicinity, that we have added to our large assort-

Men's & Youths' Readymade Clothing

of the latest and most fashionable styles and best quality. We have also a complete line of

CENTS' FURNISHING COODS.

Please give us a call and examine our stock and prices before you purchase elsewhere. We shall soon offer a large assort-

Umbrellas, Traveling Bags, &c.

You will find us one door west of Keystone Drug Store, Main Street, Strouds-at short notice. Give us a call.

WALTON & WINTERMUTE.

NOTICE. OFFICIAL

$000 REWARD!

FROM STROUDSBURG.

A tall-complexioned YOUNG MAN, aged ft. 6 in., height 150 lbs. Had on, when last seen two pairs of swallow-tailed sealskin trousers, fashionable mutton cutlet waiscoat, with delirium trimmings; double-barrelled frock coat, with horse collar and sausage lining; patient leather-bottom top shoes, laced | work for every vagrant committed under up at the sole, and buttoned inside.

He is deaf and dumb of one eye and hard of hearing with the other, with a slight squint per lip with whiskers bitten off short inside; ful for such custodian or custodians, and it blue and parted from ear to yonder; Calves of legs rising 4 years, to be sold cheap on account of the dearness of milk; very liberal with other peoples' money, and well known to sioners of the poor, as the case may be, a member of the I.O.G.T. (I Often Get any township, borough, city, county, or

Any one who knows of his whereabouts will please report at the

Empire Clothing Store,

where he will find the

LARGEST and BEST ASSORTMENT

Men and Boy's Clothing,

Hats and Caps, Gents' Furnishing Goods,

Trunks, Valices, &c. &c.

kept in this vicinity, and which we will sell

LOWEST PANIC PRICES!

If you want to save money-don't fail to examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere. If you want GOOD GOODS at low prices, there is no place in Monroe County to compete with the EMPIRE CLOTHING STORE.

Our new stock is complete in every particular. Please call and examine for yourselves.

SIMON FRIED, at EMPIRE CLOTHING STORE. Stroudsburg, March 23, 1876 .- tf.

BLANK MORTGAGE For sale at this Office.

THE NEW TRAMP LAW.

AN ACT TO DEFINE AND SUPPRESS VAG-

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the declared to be vagrants: I. All persons who shall unlawfully return into any district whence they have been legally removed without bringing a form the work which shall be allotted to come a charge upon the public within one them by the overseers of the poor as pro- year from the date of such discharge. vided by the act of June thirteenth, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, sioners of every county in which there entitled "An Act relating to the support | shall not be sufficient provision for the safe and employment of the poor.

III. All persons going about from door to door, or placing themselves in streets, jury of the county and approval of the highways or other roads to beg or gather alms, and all other persons wandering to make suitable provision by buildings or abroad and begging who have no fixed place of residence in the township, ward or the same shall not exceed the amount fixed borough in which the vagrant is arrested. by the grand jury.

IV. All persons who shall come from HATS AND CAPS, any place without this Commonwealth to ing or commitment made under this act, any place within it, and shall be found there shall be paid out of the county A complete and carefully selected stock of loitering or residing therein, and shall treasury to the committing magistrate and follow no labor, trade, occupation or busi- officer making such arrest or commitment ness, and have no visible means of subsis- the same fees and mileage as now provided tence, and can give no reasonable account by law for like services in other cases of of themselves or their business in such arrest, hearing and commitment; and no > committing magistrate of the county, who which the officer resides. shall examine such person and shall commit poor house, work house or common jail, for | than six hours a day. a term of not less than thirty days, and not exceeding six months, and shall forthwith commit him to the custody of the steward keeper or superintendent of such county farm, house of correction, poor house, work house or common jail, or to the supervisors or street commissioners and overseers of the poor of the respective county, city, borough or township wherein such person deemed most expedient. The said justice of the peace or committing magistrate in every ease of conviction shall make up and sign a record of conviction, annexing thereto the names and records of the different witnesses examined before him, and shall by warrant under hand commit such persons as aforesaid. Provided, Any person or persons who shall conceive him, her or themselves aggrieved by any act, judgment or determination of any justice of the peace or alderman in and concerning the execution of this act may appeal to the present or next general Quarter Sessions of the city or county, giving reasonable notice thereof, whose orders thereupon shall be final. Section 3. That it shall be the duty of the custodian or custodians of any such vagrant to make active efforts to provide this act, and not disqualified by sickness, old age or casualty; and whenever labor in his eye teeth; stoops very up right with a cannot be provided in the place to which loud impediment in his look, chignon on upmouth like a torn pocket; hair of a deep scarlet is hereby declared to be his, her or their duty, with the approval of the board of directors, overseers, guardians or commisa good templar, having been eleventeen years to contract with the proper authorities of other persons, to do any work or labor outside the place of commitment. In all cases | purpose of removing the animal, but it the work or labor shall be suited to the | dodged into a vacant pew on the other side | proper discipline, health and capacity of of the aisle and defied him, barking They have a wonderful faculty for discernof the work engaged in, and the condition a hymn book at the dog, whereupon the of the season; and when any vagrant is dog flew out and bit his leg. The excitecommitted, under the provisions of this ment in the church by this time, of course, for him comfortable lodging or quarters, and seemed to enjoy the contest exceedingly. tensly frigid and ineffably dinified hotel either in a station house or other building. The violation or neglect of any of the provisions of this secton shall be deemed to be it dashed up the steps in such a fierce man- saw him in a few days and inquired about on conviction thereof in the proper court, chair, and remarked with anger flashing the money and settled it. Said I, "Linshall be sentenced to undergo an imprison- through his spectacles that if this disgrace- coln, you are more tender footed with these ment for a term not exceeding three months, ful scene did not soon come to an end he chaps than ever I am. I will dispute with and to pay a fine not exceeding one hun- would dismiss the congregation. Then the them sometimes. I made a clerk strike dred dollars; either or both in the discre- Elder crept softly up the stairs, and after out a charge of fifty cents a day for fire in tion of the court.

missioner of the poor of any county, city, tious remarks. borough, township or district, stating that additions thereto from the treasury of the screamed: as they may think reasonable, cause such catamount? Haven't you made enough prospects were never so good as now. following described persons are hereby person to be returned to his home, whether fuss in this sanctuary to-day, skeering a in this State or elsewhere, Porvided that poor innocent dog, without snatching off custodians of such vagrant may at discre- home, you redheaded lunatic you! You certificate from the proper authorities of tion discharge such vagrant at any time let my bonnet alone, or I'll warm you with the city or district to which they belong within the term of commitment upon not this parasol, if it is in meeting, now mind stating that they have a settlement therein. less than ten days good behavior, or upon me! II. All persons who shall refuse to per- satisfactory security that he shall not be-

> SECTION 6. That the county comiscustody of persons committed under this act, upon the recommendation of a grand court, are hereby empowered and required enclosures, Provided that the expense for

Section 7. That for each arrest, hearsuch person shall be detained beyond the SECTION 2. If any person shall be found | term of his commitment by reason of his | What He said about the Danger of As- | tional Cemetery at Andersonville, which offending in any township or place against inability to pay the costs of his arrest, this act it shall and may be lawful for any hearing and commitment, but shall forthconstable or police officer of such township with be discharged by the officer in whose or place, and he is hereby enjoined and re- custody he may be. Any wilful refusal to quired on notice thereof given him by any make such arrest on the part of any conof the inhabitants thereof, or without such stable or police officer, shall subject him to notice, on his own view, to apprehend and a penalty of ten dollars, to be collected as convey, or cause to be conveyed, such penalties are by law collectible, and shall be person to a justice of the peace or other | paid into the poor fund of the district in him, being thereof legally convicted before houses, and other places provided for the of his life was to the country and the policy him, on his own view, or by the confession keeping of the poor, are hereby declared to and measures he was carrying out. He of such offenders, or by the oath or affirma- be work-houses for the purposes of this act; said he thought he realized to the full extion of one or more credible witnesses, to and it is hereby made the duty of the tent the necessity of avoiding interruptions labor upon any county farm or upon the custodians of such buildings to provide to the course events were taking, "but," N. B.—Silk Hats ironed and repaired reads and highways of any city, township work for such vagrants, and to compel said he, "I can't see clearly how this danor borough, or in any house of correction, them to work therein when able not less ger is to be fully guarded against. The vagrant, upon his discharge, and at his re- they can't always be with me, and I don't quest, shall give him a certificate of dis- believe that it is worth while to put up a further arrest for vagrancy for a peiod of gaps down." five days, upon condition that he shall How conscientious he was about paying forthwith leave the county wherein con- debts will be shown by the following: In fined. And the said custodian is hereby 1858 (I think) he was invited by a comthe county as aforesaid.

acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

Why She Changed Her Church.

The facts in Mrs. Whistler's case seem to have been these: Mrs. Whistler has singular absence of mind, and on the last Sunday that she attended her own church Dr. Bunderby began to read from the Scriptures the account of the deluge. Mrs. Whistler was deeply attentive, and when the Doctor came to the story of how it it rained for so many days and nights, she was so much absorbed in the narrative and so strongly impressed with it, that she involuntardly put up her umbrella and held it over her head while she sat in her pew. It appears that Mrs. Moody, who sits in the next pew in front, frequently brings her lap-dog to church with her, and when Mrs. Whistler raised her umbrella suddenly, the action affected the sensibilities of Mrs. Moody's dog in such a manner that he began to bark furiously.

Of course the sexton came in for the said director, overseer, guardian, or com- permitted her unconscious umbrella to drop felt it to be my duty to pay it, although I missioner of the poor may employ or let over so that the end of one of the ribs confess it looked a little mysterious." out such poor person to labor at some caught Mrs. Moody's bonnet. A moment suitable place, to be by them selected, and later, when she was straightening up the at such wages as shall seem to them just; umbrella, the bonnet was wrenched off, and consequence of the scarcity of money cows sat down to dine, and as often as he helped and when in the opinion of said director, hung dangling from the umbrella. Mrs. have become almost the medium of ex- himself to food, he put the same quantity overseer, guardian or commisioner of the Moody had become exceedingly warm, at change in that State. The Indianapolis on each of the other plates, and surveyed poor such poor person shall have earned a any rate, over the onslaught made upon Journal says they make small change in the prospect, at the same time comparing sufficient sum, said director, overseer, her dog, but when Mrs. Whistler removed calves and spring lambs.

guardian or commissioner of the poor shall, her bonnet she fairly boiled over, and, with the money so earned, and with such turning around, white with rage, she the expense shall not exceed twenty dollars. such bonnets as the likes of you can't afford Section 5. That the custodian or to wear, no matter how mean you live at

> Then Mrs. Whistler first seemed to realize that her umbrella made her conspicuous; so she furled it and concluded Their respective weights are as follows: to escape from an embarrassing position by by going home. And as she stepped into the aisle her enemy gave her a parting the baby, 240.

"Sneaking off before the collection, too!

want to ketch it hereafter !" and as Mrs. Whistler emerged from the front door, and things became calmer, the Doctor resumed the story of the Flood. But Mrs. Whistler has given up her pew and gone over to the Presbyterians, and there are rumors that Mrs. Moody is going to secede, also, because Elder McGinn insists that she shall leave her dog at home. -Max Adeler.

ANECDOTES OF LINCOLN.

sassination—A Cincinnati Hotel Bill. nois, writes to the St. Louis Globe-Demo- the recent debates in Congress, and the

I met Mr. Lincoln one day coming alone 'across lots" from the War Office to the White house. There was no one in sight. I remonstrated with him for exposing himself to the danger of assassination and remarked that he, perhaps, had adequate con-Section 8. That all poor houses, alms- ception of how impartant the preservation by are the pieces of Mme. Guibord's cross, military men have been talking of provid-Section 9. That the custodian of any ing a body guard for me, but I tell them charge, which shall exempt him from any fence if you are obliged to leave any of the authorized to give, in his discretion, to mittee to deliver a political address in Cin- their knees." It is comforting, however, shall be found, as in his judgment shall be such discharged vagrant a reasonable sum cinnati. Shortly after his return from the to know that the startling news comes in of money out of his earnings, or out of the performance of that duty I was at his room treasury of the township, borough, city, or one evening when his mail matter arrived. county, to defray his expenses in leaving After reading one of his letters he handed it to me, saying that "it mortified him to Section 10. That all acts or parts of think he had been so negligent as to leave without inquiring about his hotel bill." ing home the other night, to find that his He said "he supposed it had been paid by wife had lent the only bible in the house. the committee, but that did not excuse | He said it was a disgrace that in this period him for not inquiring about it." I saw from of Christian enlightenment a family should the latter that the bill was for fifty dollars | have only one copy of the bible. It seems for a suite of rooms at the hotel. Said I, he wanted to decide a bet as to whether it 'Lincoln, you have been going it on the was Paul or Cephas who said, "Consistency, big figures, I perceive. How long did you | thou art a jewel. stop?" "Only one night," said he. "I arrived in the evening, delivered my address, and left next morning." "But, I see you had a suite of rooms." "Well" said he, "that is news to me. I did not know that I had more room than I ordinarily occupy. I neither called for any more, nor was I informed that more was allotted to me. I thought I was an ordinary guest." "Well," said I, "if I were in your place I would investigate this matter. I think you will find something wrong about it. It is hard- couraging concerning the crops of the prely possible that the committee who invited | sent season. The fears that the open winyou and prepared for your reception neg- ter and the unprotected ground might prove lected to pay your hotel bill. It is still less disastrous to fruits and cereals do not, haplikely that they refused to pay it, for it pily, seem likely to be realized. The remust have been presented to them before ports from the grain and fruit regions of being sent to you, if not paid in the first this State are very favorable. It looks as instance. I think this is a case of 'black- if we might expect a year of abundance. mailing' by the clerks in the hotel, and you If this shall prove the case, it will be the owe it to yourself not to be victimized. gladest celebration of our Centennial. such vagrant, and he shall be fed and vociferously all the time. Then the sexton ing whom they may fleece or neglect with clothed in a manner suited to the nature became warm and indignant, and he flung impunity." I had learned from compar- husband for two dollars to buy a calico ing notes with him that he and I were fit dress, he whipped a papper out of his coatsubjects for their designs. I had heard tail pocket and pointed to an editorial him say that he stood in greater awe of a which cleraly showed that female extravaact, to the custody of the supervisors or was simply dreadful. Not only was the hotel clerk or water than of any other hu- gauce was the ruination of some of our street commissioners and overseers of the story of the deluge interrupted, but the man being that he never had such a realize best men, and even the country itself was poor of any township, borough, city or unregenerate Sunday school scholars in the ing sense of his utter unworthiness as when being demoralized from the same cause. county, it shall be their duty to provide gallery actually hissed the dog at the sexton, he was confronted with one of these in- Then he gave her ten cents to buy hair-Then Elder McGinn came after the dog | clerks. Mr. Lincoln rather agreed that he with his cane, and as he pursued the animal | would write to Cincinnati about the bill. I a misdemeanor, and the person so offending, ner that the Doctor quickly mounted a the matter. He told me he had sent on a short struggle he succeeded in grasping the month of July. He did it reluctuant Section 4. If any person not being in the dog by one of its hind legs. Then he walked down the aisle with it, the dog I wanted it." "Well," said Lincoln, "that usually lives or has his home, shall apply meantime yelling with supernatural energy, was not exactly the reason I paid the bill. to any director, overseer, guardian or com- and the Sunday-school boys making face- I did not believe any one would be guilty of trying to cheat me in that way, and I Mrs. Whistler turned around, with other | did not know the rules and necessities of he is desirous to return to his home, but is members of the congregation, to watch the hotel-keepers, and so concluded that they been deterred from committing matrimony poor and has not the means to do so, the retreating Elder, and as she did so she had served me as they did others; and I

The San Francisco Call publishes a collection of despatches from the leading wheat-growing sections of California, nearly county, city, borough, township or district | "What'd you grab that bonnet for, you all of which agree in stating that the crop

> A Southern paper says that when the revenue detectives boarded a steamer direct from Cuba the other day the captain invited them below to dine, and while he was saying a very lenghty grace the crew put shore a lot of smuggled cigars.

Hanover has a family named Diller, who are heavy weights. The combined avoirdupois of the six sons is 1,607 pounds. Cyrus, 282 pounds; Isaiah, 279; Adam, 279; Simon, 267; William, 260, and Luther,

Rye looks good .- Amenia Times. And it tastes good, too .- Danbury Times. In You'd better spend less for breastpins and a horn.—Berkshire Courier. Whereupon give more to the poor heathen, if you don't the Times remarks : We meant rye bread, but it is evident the Courier man is wander-Then she began to fan herself furiously, | ing toward the stuff that biteth like a serpent and stingeth like a book-keeper.

There is a man named Thurston, living on White Oak creek, in Titus county, Tex as, who is seven feet eight inches in height and well proportioned. The people there feel much favored in being able to see this giant as many times in a day as they choose, "free of charge."

Mr. Fox, an engineer on the Southwestern Railroad, Georgia, has had several thousand hickory sticks cut from the Nahe proposes to take to Philadelphia and of-Mr. J. Gillespie, of Edwardsville. Illi- fer for sale as relies made memoerable by lengthy discussions in the newspapers.

The Montreal Witness says that the grave of Joseph Guibord already wears a look of neglect. It is depressed several inches, as though the earth had settled after the excavation had been filled in, and no headstone or monument marks the spot. Near splintered, muddy, and well whittled by curiosity hunters.

A blind boy, who was taken into an elevator for the first time in a Cleveland hotel on Friday, set up the most terrific sereams when the cab began to rise, and would not be pacified until it was stopped. He explained that he supposed he had been misled, and was being taken down into the dissecting room of a medical college to be used as a subject.

An Indiana postmaster writes to Mayor Stokley, of Philadelphia, that the Centennial city "is to be laid in ashes in June the shape of a rumor from Allentown in this State, and is attributable to a regular, old fashioned Dutch ghost.

A Preston man was very angry on go-

There is a musical prodigy in Shenandoah. It is a boy only one year old. Although unable to speak plainly, it is said he will 'sit down to the piano and play with the ease and grace which might be expected of a scion of the house of Von Bulow." Although that is a rather non-committal statement, yet it had better be taken with a grain of allowance.

The reports of the farmers are very en-

When a Norristown woman asked her pins, lit a ten-cent cigar, and left the house -and lost three dollars playing billiards before returning home. -Herald.

In a Detroit street car a man's breath smelled so strongly of whiskey that a gentleman moved across the car to get out of "Any zing wrong?" asked the drunkard, as he observed the change.

"Nothing except your breath smells of whiskey enough to knock a horse over." "'Spect she does-she does," was the candid reply, "but you don't spect poor man like me to buy cologe an' whiskey, too, do you?" An old bachelor at New Orleans had in the following way :- Thinking over the subject, and particularly of the expense of maintaining a family, he set the table in his lonely abode with plates for himself and A North Carolina paper reports that in imaginary wife and five children. He then the cost. He is still a bachelor.