

The Jeffersonian.

THURSDAY, JULY 27, 1876.

Republican National Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT, RUTHERFORD B. HAYES, of Ohio.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WILLIAM A. WHEELER, of New York.

REFORM.

In the Centennial year of the American Republic, there arose a loud cry in the land, and the people thereof looked and listened, and beheld it was the voice of the great unwashed hawling "Reform." From the Five Points a smell of gin and "Reform" from the "Dance Houses" arose dust and "Reform" from "Mackerelville" and from the "Hook" filth and "Reform". The peaceable inhabitants of Blackwell's Island join their pads of Auburn and Sing Sing "Reform."—Long Island City kicks the Bible out of the public schools "Reform." Monroe county vote for school opponents "Reform"—Southrons raise again the Rebel flag and hurrah for "Reform." The adopted citizen hands upon our shores and his preist gives him the watchword "Reform." So are the hermits Tweed, Genet, &c. undoubtedly praying for "Reform." Where is Floyd and his host, shouting with the rest "Reform? What matters whether the rank and file know the meaning of the word. Do they know what the word "Democrat" means? Webster must get out a new dictionary this year, for Reform with them means spoils.

Probably no two men ever had their lives scrutinized so closely as Messrs Tilden and Hayes, the object being to judge what they will do in the future by their record of the past; if there is any virtue in this method, let us apply the same rule to those men who have been guilty of corruption during the present administration when it will be found that a great majority of the corruptiions were educated in and brought up by the Democratic party, and the Republicans as a party are in no way responsible for them. They were kicked out as soon as detected.

Democrats ask control of the Government on the score of iniquity by the Republicans; What guarantee are they able to give that they will be honest and abstain from all corrupt practices?

Certainly the old time record will not give them a character. The Republicans present the great advantage in this respect that their leaders have had sixteen years trial, with unimpeachable record for the great majority, and the few corrupt ones discarded, punished and weeded out. The Democrats come with the same bad men of 1860 still in their party, with a very hungry look on their faces, and with the dangerous doctrine "To the victor belongs the spoils" (which means anything else than Reform) emblazoned on their banners. Now the American people are not to be fooled with any thing so thin as this cry of "Reform." Let them apply Reform first to themselves, let them raise the American flag in the South, and trample down the Rebel rag forever. Cut loose from the slums of the cities. Advocate education and discourage ignorance. Retain the bible in the public schools, in short cast the beam from their own eye, before setting up such a transparent dodge as "Reform" for their neighbor.

We admit that the Democratic ranks are sadly in need of reform and it is to be wished that they will succeed in reforming themselves. No party needs it so much as they. But what a monstrous absurdity for the Democracy to attempt to lead a reform with Billy McMullen and John Morrissey at their head. Bill Tweed could make a more plausible showing than that. But why add words to their miserable pretense? We all know that the Democracy have done every thing to get into office except reform, and now they are resolved to try that. And who in his sober senses doubts that they would reform twice a week if they could only make votes by so doing? And who believes that they would say a word about reform if they did not hope to add votes to their thin ranks, get into office and gobble the spoils? But we have no fear that the people are silly enough to be deceived by any such lame, bog-day pretense of reform. They will go for the genuine article which grows thrifty, rich and strong on the fertile lands of the west.

We observe by circular that the most Worthy Grand Master of the Right Worthy Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Pennsylvania makes an earnest appeal to the subordinate Lodges under his jurisdiction to perfect arrangements and participate in the grand parade of the order to take place in Philadelphia on Wednesday, September 20th next. It must be gratifying to the Grand Lodge officers to witness the ready response making to their patriotic request. Already liberal donations towards the expenses of the parade are being forwarded from the country, and the signs all indicate that a liberal proportion of the 96,000 Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania will take part personally in the parade. We are assured by one whose opportunities for knowing are unquestionable that Luzerne county's Lodges will be represented by at least 1,000 of the brethren in full regalia, and from indications here the delegation from Monroe county will comprise the bulk of the membership; and we presume that in the other counties of the State, and in other States, the same spirit will prove to secure such a display as will not only work an honor to the order, but also a worthy contribution to the patriotic observance of the Centennial of the greatest, most free and best government on God's footstool.

Hayes and Wheeler Club.

At last a move has been made in the right direction—in the direction of Republican organization in this county. After several preliminary meetings for the purpose of perfecting arrangements, a large number of the Republicans of the borough met on Monday evening last and instituted a Hayes and Wheeler club, with Jackson Lantz, President; C. U. Warnick and Gershom Hull, Vice Presidents; Henry Miller, Corresponding Secretary; Archibald Dinsmore, Recording Secretary, and A. C. Jansen and Theodore C. Brown, Assistants. The Committee appointed for that purpose at a former meeting reported the renting of a room in the third story of Keller's building, opposite the Jeffersonian office, and a new Committee was appointed to solicit funds for the necessary expenses of the Club, as follows: A. C. Jansen, Theodore C. Brown, J. H. McCarty and Jeremiah Kresge.

The Club being so ably officered, and its membership consisting of active, thorough going Republicans, there is no reason why it should not be made a nucleus around which all the Republicans of the County should rally, and the center from which the pure and patriotic sentiments of the party may be liberally spread throughout the length and breadth of Monroe. We have no advice to offer in this connection because we know the members of the Club to be men of discernment, energy and vim, and that they appreciate the necessities of the case and will labor accordingly. With this knowledge we are content to place the management in their hands with the assurance that in all efforts for the advancement of the cause they may depend upon the JEFFERSONIAN to aid them to the full extent of its ability. Now boys let the work begin. True it is some time yet until election day, but we have a heavy job to accomplish, and we shall find none too much time in which to make such inroads into Democracy, as earnest, steady work alone will enable us to secure and rejoice over.

Religious Notice.

Hereafter, until further notice, Lutheran services will be held at Kistler's Hall, East Stroudsburg, (instead of Hutchinson's Hall,) every Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

A Woods meeting will be held on Spragueville Circuit, in the grove near Smith's Church, Paradise, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 25th, 26th and 27th. Several ministers will be in attendance to assist the Pastor. All are cordially invited to come and worship with us.

E. L. MARTIN.

Grand Union Pic-Nic.

The Albright Sunday School of Paradise Valley M. E. S. S. of Smith's Church, and the Union S. S. at Jones' Church, will hold a Grand Union Pic-Nic in the grove near Smith's Church on Tuesday August 15th.—Addresses will be delivered by the Pastor of the two former Churches, and others. Come and join us.

Mr. E. F. PALEN of Canadensis has in his possession, a well preserved French coin dated 1677. This piece of money has done its usual work of buying and selling for many more years than any piece that has yet come under our observation in this neighborhood. Who can form an idea of the amount of good and evil of which it has been productive to humanity and the community since the commencement of its voyage down the stream of time?

The Monroe Zouave's third pic-nic, on Stauffer's hill, on Saturday evening, was a complete success socially, pleasurable and financially. The grounds were literally crowded, and every one present seemed bent to make the occasion one of real enjoyment, and happily succeeded. The parade of the Zouaves through town, headed by the Stroudsburg Cornet Band was a sight richly worthy witnessing. The excellence of the music, the precision of military movements and manoeuvres, would have proved honorable to veterans.

The friends of the Hamilton Band purpose getting up a pic-nic for the benefit of that excellent institution on Saturday the 29th inst., in Erdman's Grove, near Hamilton Church. The band will be present and enliven the occasion with first class music under the leadership of Aaron Bittenbender. Refreshments in abundance will be on hand, and it will be altogether unreasonable to expect anything but a good time when so many wholesome, good hearted fellows as are the members of the band, are sure to be present. There should be a large turnout.

THAT agricultural fair that we ought to have this fall we fear is really non est. And what a pity, especially in view of the fact that all are beginning to feel rationally in regard to fairs, and that we would in all likelihood have something beside a horse race, side shows of "snake tamers," hideous monstrosities and "gin mills" under cover of a lager beer booths, to amuse and instruct the thousands who would come together. It is not too late even now to get up a fair, but to make it successful we should go to work without delay and get out handbills, prepare premium lists to be honestly carried out, and otherwise start the ball in motion.

FOR an hour's most interesting reading we are greatly indebted to Col. Charles Brodhead, of Bethlehem, who so kindly presented us with a forty-eight page pamphlet history of the old "Sun Inn" at that place. The pamphlet embraces a period from the commencement of the building up of the town down to the present time, and including as it does reference to both the startling and romantic incidents of the revolution in which Washington, Green, Knox, Lafayette and others of the great generals, and John Adams and many others of the noted civilians of "the times that tried men's souls," sojournd at the old Inn, it is really valuable as furnishing a condensed reminder of events always most interesting to Americans.

Huckleberries three cents a quart in Johnston.

There was a slight frost a few miles north of Port Jervis on Sunday night.

Nearly 4,000,000 bushels of wheat are now in store in New York.

There were thirty-seven births and twenty-seven deaths in Allentown during the month of June.

The Luzerne Leader is to be the name of the new Democratic paper in Pittston, under the administration of E. A. Niven.

Mr. Robert Follmer, of Ellimspott, Lycoming county, is twenty-five years of age, measures forty-two in height, and weighs about sixty-three pounds. He is four inches smaller than Tom Thumb.

AN ICE CREAM AND CALICO PARTY will be held at Wesley Chapel, near the rising sun, in Stroud township, on Saturday evening, August 5th, 1876, for the benefit of the pastor, the Rev. L. M. Hobbs. All are cordially invited to attend.

PRETTIER, more agreeable and really agreeable weather than we had on Sunday and Monday is seldom ordered for the gratification of mortals. A slight rain on Sunday morning did the work, for which, with the recollection of the heated term through which we have so recently passed, all should be duly thankful.

Ice Cream Festival.

There will be an Ice Cream Festival held at Fowler's School House Saturday afternoon and evening, July 29th inst., for the benefit of Rev. E. L. Martin.

All are cordially invited to attend. July 21, 1876. By order of STEWARD.

The boarding houses in this neighborhood, for a week past, have been filling up so rapidly that some of them are now full to overflowing. This fact makes a busy time for our merchants, fills our side-walks with lively pedestrians, and makes good, cheerful times all around.

E. K. WYCKOFF, formerly with Joseph Wallace, has just returned from New York with a large stock of boots and shoes which he assures us he can sell cheaper than his friends for cash. We would advise our clients to go and examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere. See his advertisement in another column.

A NEAT circular containing the resolve of the Stroudsburg Cornet Band, electing us an honorary member of that excellent musical institution has been received. Though not much of a "blower," and but given to an indulgence in "brass," we feel none the less under obligations to the members of the band for the honor conferred. They will please accept our thanks, and our assurance that as in the past, so also in the future, our best wishes will continue to be entertained for the advancement of the band, and for the health, prosperity and happiness of its members.

BURGLARY.—The merchant tailoring establishment of M. M. Barnett, Esq., in this borough, was burglariously entered on Saturday evening last. The burglars seemed to have been intent only on providing for present personal wants, as two coats, two pair of pants and vests, and other articles of wearing apparel are all that are missing. A large quantity of clothing was taken from the shelf, and examined, and evidently after a selection of suitable sizes and quality the thieves left. They showed consideration but then even the virtue in this respect would be greatly improved by a somewhat lengthy sojourn in Hotel de Shafer.

Political Notes.

A Hayes and Wheeler club has been organized at Des Moines, Iowa, with nearly 2,060 members, among them several lifelong Democrats.

The Daily Globe, a Democratic paper of Lincoln, Nebraska, hoists the name of Hayes for President, announcing this as "the only course left since the fatal action of the St. Louis Convention."

When before in the history of this country has a candidate for President appeared in the daily court records, during the campaign, as defendant to a suit against him for swindling and robbery? Yet Mr. Samuel J. Tilden is in that condition.

The Chattanooga (Tenn.) Commercial says: "Colonel Samuel G. Reid has hoisted the banner of Hayes and Wheeler in the Montgomery (Ala.) Bulletin. Colonel Reid was for some time previous to the war, during and after it up to 1868, the leading Democratic editor of that State. He is a man of truth, honor and courage. We are glad to note his accession to the supporters of the national Republican ticket."

The Democratic papers are printing the following paragraph: During the war of the rebellion Governor Tilden armed and equipped, by money taken from his own private purse, four companies of New York volunteer soldiers.

The New York Times shows that this is a lie out of the whole cloth. Tilden never armed and equipped a single soldier, much less four companies of volunteers. He never known to do anything to help on the war, either by assisting the soldiers themselves or by ministering to their families during their absence or after their deaths. On the contrary, he is known to have refused assistance on many occasions. For example the following case, which the Times says is "well-authenticated," is cited: Early in the war young man of excellent family and superior character and attainments was desirous of raising a company. He waited upon Mr. Tilden, with whom he had an acquaintance, and asked him to give him a letter of recommendation to certain State officials. Mr. Tilden's reply was in substance as follows: "Young man, you need not come to me for any such letter of recommendation; this war is a perfect outrage, and I will lend no assistance whatever to its prosecution."

Personal.

Mrs. Henry McGarrath, of Scranton, is visiting friends here.

Ed. K. Wyckoff has got his new Boot & Shoe Store cleverly in operation.

John Baldwin, late proprietor of the Washington Hotel, arrived in town on Tuesday.

Miss Annie Wolfe, of Scranton, is visiting her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olin B. Gordon.

Miss Nettie Jackson, of Chicago, is visiting friends here. No one visiting here is more earnestly and cordially welcomed.

Jos. Dean of Scranton, has been in town several days, visiting his parents and his school day associates.

Lewis Phillips and his brother Oscar, who left here in the spring for the West have returned to their old home. Welcome back boys.

Ed. Brown, jr., who has been confined to his bed for some ten days, we are pleased to see, is able to make his appearance on the streets again.

Dr. C. F. Custus, of Hawley, Pa., called on us on Monday, and subscribed for the Jeffersonian. We enjoyed a pleasant half hour chat with him.

Lieut. Wm. Butler, U. S. A., a recent graduate of Westpoint, is spending a portion of his furlough with his friend Cadet Charley Carrow, in this place.

Darius Dreher lost a valuable horse on Friday. The animal had been driven to Tannersville and came back apparently well but soon after sickened and died.

Geo. E. Wolf, of Scranton, spent several days here-last week on his way home from a visit to friends at Petersburg, Harrisburg and other points on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Charles Shafer and family and S. B. Stillwell and family of Scranton, arrived in town on Saturday to attend the funeral of Milton Edinger's child. They left for home on Monday.

Geo. Knauss, has taken possession of his old quarters, the Washington Hotel and is dusting up things preparatory to the opening of a first class hotel. His old customers will be pleased to learn this.

Gen. Gregg and family, of Reading, and Judge J. A. Clark and family, of Philadelphia, were in town on Monday. They are the guests of C. F. Smith, at Oak Grove Cottage, near Marshall's Creek.

Hon. J. H. Miller, an old time resident of Stroudsburg, and now one of the Judges of the Courts at Steubenville, Ohio, is visiting friends and relatives in town and vicinity.—We were pleased to meet him and see him looking so well.

Dr. A. H. Seem, of Polk township, was in town on business on Tuesday. Rumor has it that the Dr.'s name is prominently attracting public attention in connection with the legislature. He would make a good member from the Democratic stand point.

Edward L. Wolf, Esq., formerly of this town, but now of Scranton and on the editorial staff of the "Scranton Morning Republican," was on a short visit to his old friends here, from Saturday until Tuesday last.—The Scranton atmosphere seems to agree with him, for we have seldom seen him looking so well.

Remember These Dates.

Many voters are annually lost by a neglect to comply with the requirements of the law relative to assessments and payment of taxes. All persons, to secure the right to vote in Pennsylvania, must be assessed two months before election and have paid a State or county tax (either will do) within two years. In case the tax is paid this year, it must be a month before the election.

Foreign born citizens wishing to vote next November must take out their naturalization papers a month before election. They must also be assessed two months previous to the day of voting.

The election will be held on the "Tuesday next following the first Monday of November," being this year the 7th day of the month.

Monday, September 4, is the last day for being assessed.

Tuesday, October 5, is the last day for securing naturalization papers.

Tuesday, October 5, is the last day on which taxes can be paid in legal time to vote.

The above dates should be carefully remembered and acted on by all voters.

Hon. George E. Pugh died at his residence in Cincinnati, last Friday.

Forty-seven hogheads of raspberries were sold in New Castle within two weeks.

In and about Hornelsville, New York, there is a regular stampede of Democrats who will not support Tilden.

The bishops of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church have appointed Friday, August 4, as a day of fasting and prayer.

By the bursting of a clod on the Diamond Range Mountains, Cal., thirteen Chinese and many Italian laborers lost their lives.

DIED.

In Stroudsburg, on the 24 inst., Laura May, infant daughter of Frank and Sarah Smiley, aged 2 months and 3 days.

In Stroudsburg, July 20th, Olive M. only daughter of Milton and May Edinger, aged 1 year, 8 months and 2 days.

At Delaware Water Gap, July 23d Mrs. Mary, wife of Luke Staples, Esq., aged 81 years and 8 months.

In Paradise township, July 20, 1876, Jacob Coffman, aged 69 years, 5 months and 10 days.

He was soundly converted to God in 1850, and for 26 years has been a very faithful and consistent member of the Albright Church; but few men live a life so devoted to the master service. For him "to die was gain." His funeral on Saturday was very largely attended. The sermon was preached by Rev. E. L. Martin, after which his pastor, Rev. J. W. Werhke, spoke in german in reference to his wife.
