Republican National Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT, RUTHERFORD B. HAYES, of Ohio.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WILLIAM A. WHEELER, of New York.

HAVE YOU HEARD FROM VERMONT?

The returns from Vermont although not full, enough is now known to insure a Republican majority of 30,000 in that State.

In the corrected figures of one hundred and twelve towns, the Republican candidate received 27,702, to the Democrats 14,499.

Democracy appears all upside down this fall. Hendricks took months to make up his mind before he accepted.

General Harrison, the Republican nominee for Governor of Indiana, is said to be adored by his old fellow soldiers.

We presume that Tilden is not the only man who swore to false income returns but yet he is the only one of his class that is a candidate for president.

We learn that the members of the Tilden and Hendricks club last Monday night had the flood gates of knowledge, wisdom and eloquence, hoisted upon them by William Dow, Daton Walton, and a gentleman of color.

In our view of justice we think Monroe should have had the Congressmen this time; and in case the conferees can be brought to agree with us, or it may be necessary to prevent strife by agreeing upon a new man as a compromise.

It is with no slight feeling of gratification that we feel called upon to announce that the people hereabouts are drawing into the support of Hayes and Wheeler.

Now what has the Republican party done towards reform? The party indicted 170 Democratic and Republican whiskey thieves, of whom 133 either plead guilty or were convicted.

The brethren of the I. O. O. F., of this county should be stirring toward the preparation to visit Philadelphia, and join in the grand parade of the order which comes off on the 20th inst.

It has been telegraphed all over the land that Monroe and Pike county Democratic Congressional Conferees had been instructed for that jolly son of Jeff Davis Democracy, Major Bob. Klotz, of Carbon county.

On Sunday last two Tildenites, one a prominent and the other an upstart politician, met at the lower end of town and began talking about Tilden's prospects and Democratic conventions.

Gov. Hendricks in his recent speech at Shelbyville, Indiana, said of Gov. Tilden: "As Governor of the State succeeding Gov. Dix, he, Tilden, introduced notable reforms, and the taxes of New York have fallen from $16,000,000 to $8,000,000."

So says Gov. Hendricks in pleading Gov. Tilden's cause, and his own as well. But what are the facts with regard to the taxes? In 1869 the county debt was over $25,000,000.

What has Mr. Tilden done as a reformer? After the evidence of Tweed's rascality was produced by the New York Times and the Republican party in general, and it became certain that Tweed was going to be brought to justice, Tilden fell in and helped to send his old political confederate and friend to prison.

Now what has the Republican party done towards reform? The party indicted 170 Democratic and Republican whiskey thieves, of whom 133 either plead guilty or were convicted.

MONROE DEMOCRACY.

A very nice kettle of fish is that which the Democracy at its late county convention made for the party. Its first work was a disgraceful squabble inaugurated by what proved in the end to be the majority, to force another season of disgraceful representation similar to that exhibited by the same nominee—years ago when Monroe county's representative was the laughing stock of the State.

Nor was there the shadow of an excuse for his nomination by the convention. There were names before that body belonging to men who would have reflected comparative credit upon the county, though none, who even a ignorant jury would have been held justified in hanging for over intellectual brilliancy.

The Republicans of the county have both a duty and an opportunity now before them of which it will be criminal for them to fail to take advantage. They may not probably be able to elect their own man, but they can, as three years ago, rebuke the convention for its miserable piece of botchwork by electing a Democrat who is not in every respect so obnoxious and defeating one who is.

THE Beethoven Band of this place, have been engaged by the Portland Grays, to play at their Festival on Saturday next, 9th inst.

THIEVES ABOUT AGAIN.—On Friday evening last, the hen roost of David Pisle, proprietor of the American Hotel, in this borough, was broken into and fourteen of his choicest chickens stolen.

THE picnics of the Methodist and Presbyterian Sabbath Schools, came off on Wednesday and Thursday last, and proved very pleasant gatherings to both old and young.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Amos LaBar residing near the Delaware Water Gap, when assisting on Wednesday of last week in unloading some logs, the hand spike was caught by one of the logs in some way and lifted him from his feet and threw him some distance, he striking on his head and being severely stunned.

OUR THANKS are due to the Hamilton Cornet Band for their serenade on Saturday evening last. The band had been attending the Festival of the Stroudsburg Cornet Band, given at the Fair House last Saturday.

SELECT CLASSICAL SCHOOL.—We are informed that Prof. Kunkle, of Brodheads-ville, expects to open a select school, for the purpose of giving instruction in the higher English branches and in the classics.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. Peter Born has erected very neat and substantial steps in front of his barber shop. The stone are from Dr. Lantz's celebrated quarry.

The Odd Fellows are placing an iron railing up the steps leading to their hall. Frank Landers has the job, which assures neat and substantial work.

"Oh! I am almost broken to pieces," exclaimed a young lady the other evening, as she hauled up in front of La Bar's millinery store to repair damages.

WOODS MEETING.—The pastor of Little Bethel A. M. E. Church, will hold a woods meeting in Durfee's Woods, commencing Thursday, Sept. 10, at ten o'clock A. M., continuing over Sunday.

SHE concluded she would go to the picnic on Starbird's Island, on Wednesday afternoon of last week—she and three of her lovely companions. She went and had a good time accordingly.

Would be endangered by such a step, and she would "repair," standing where she was. But, alas! the treacherous boat had no thought of gallantry. It knew no romance, at least the peculiar romance which she loved.

Personal. Mr. H. W. Marsh, departed for the Centennial on Monday.

Mr. Jerre Shiffer, of Scranton, was in town on Thursday last.

Mrs. Geo. W. Drake has been suffering from illness for several weeks.

Miss Helen Melick has returned home from a three weeks visit down country.

Miss Clara Down of this borough, is off on a visit to her parents at Hackettstown.

Mrs. Kate Durling, of Lehigh, is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Madison Morgan.

Mr. S. H. Rhodes, of Sand Cut, Wayne county, Pa., was in town on Tuesday last on business.

Miss Julia Torian, of New Orleans, is in town, making a short visit, the guest of Mrs. Morris Evans.

Miss Ella Keller, daughter of David Keller, has returned from a Centennial interview of three weeks duration.

Dr. Amzie LeBarre, returned from Philadelphia on Friday, where he had been interviewing the Centennial.

Mr. John Boys, one of our oldest citizens is afflicted with general debility, and much of the time confined to the house.

Stephen Holmes, Esq., and family, left home on Monday last for Philadelphia, and whilst there will interview the Centennial.
